When a listed company or an initial listing applicant prepares material for disclosure, it must use either the English language or the Japanese language, or both languages.

Rule 106. Consideration of Legal System, etc. of Home Country, etc.

In applying the rules and regulations of the Exchange to a foreign listed company and an initial listing applicant which is established in accordance with laws of a foreign country, the Exchange shall take into account legal systems, practices and customs, etc. in the home countries, etc. of such company and applicant.

Rule 107. Communication and Cooperation among Parties

Listed companies, initial listing applicants, management companies, and entrusted parties must communicate, and cooperate with each other to fulfill the obligations specified in these special regulations and other rules.

Chapter 2

Initial Listing

Rule 108. Initial Listing Application, etc.

An initial listing application for a stock, etc. shall be conducted by the issuer of such stock, etc.

Rule 109. Listing Agreement, etc.

1. Where the Exchange lists a stock, etc. pertaining to an initial listing application, the issuer of the stock, etc. pertaining to such initial listing application must submit a "Listing Agreement" predetermined by the Exchange specified by the Enforcement Rules.
2. The "Listing Agreement" referenced in the preceding paragraph shall take effect on the day of listing the stock, etc. pertaining to the initial listing application.
3. Where the stock, etc. pertaining to an initial listing application is a specified security, the issuer of such stock, etc. pertaining to an initial listing application shall jointly submit a "Listing Agreement" with its management company and entrusted entity (limited to an entity which the Exchange deems necessary in consideration of the characteristics of such stock, etc.).

4. With regard to the application of these special regulations, the management company and entrusted entity that jointly submit the "Listing Agreement" pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be treated in the same manner as a listed company and an initial listing applicant; provided, however, that this shall not apply where the Exchange deems appropriate.
5. The Exchange shall make an entry of the issue and other matters specified by the Enforcement Rules in the listed securities ledger on the day of listing the stock, etc. pertaining to the initial listing application.

Rule 110. Documents, etc. to be Submitted at time of Initial Listing Application

1. An initial listing applicant must submit the "Security Initial Listing Application Form" predetermined by the Exchange at least ten (10) business days before the preferred listing approval day. However, with respect to the stock, etc. of a newly established company or a surviving company resulting from a merger, company split, stock swap or stock transfer carried out by a listed company, where the completion date or effective date is the preferred listing day, such listed company shall apply before such completion date or effective date.
2. The "Security Initial Listing Application Form" prescribed in the preceding paragraph shall include the documents, etc. enumerated in each of the following items as attachments. The handling of the documents, etc. enumerated in such items shall be specified by the Enforcement Rules.
 - (1) Specified Securities Information;
 - (2) "Written Oath Regarding Initial Listing Application";
 - (3) "Report concerning Corporate Governance";
 - (4) The articles of incorporation of the initial listing applicant; and
 - (5) Other documents, etc. deemed necessary by the Exchange.
3. Where the initial listing applicant does not, at the time of initial listing application, carry out solicitation of primary offering for subscription to specified investors or solicitation of secondary distribution to specified investors, or other cases specified by the Enforcement Rules, the initial listing applicant must submit information corresponding to Issuer Filing Information and other documents, etc. specified by the

- Enforcement Rules in place of Specified Securities Information to the Exchange.
4. The content and form of Specified Securities Information prescribed in Paragraph 2, Item 1 shall be specified by the Enforcement Rules.
 5. The financial documents required under Specified Securities Information (including information corresponding to Issuer Filing Information prescribed in Paragraph 3; hereinafter the same shall apply in this chapter) must include audit reports, etc. specified by the Enforcement Rules as attachments. However, where the initial listing applicant (limited to an issuer of specified securities) submits Specified Securities Information in the first business year or consolidated accounting year since establishment, and the Exchange deems appropriate, such audit reports, etc. are not required to be attached.
 6. The financial documents required in Specified Securities Information must be prepared in accordance with Japanese GAAP, US GAAP, IFRS or other accounting standards specified by the Enforcement Rules.

Rule 111. Announcement at time of Initial Listing Application

1. An initial listing applicant must, after submitting a "Security Initial Listing Application Form" pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph 1 of the preceding rule, announce the documents enumerated in each item of Paragraph 2 of the preceding rule immediately by the method specified by the Enforcement Rules in accordance with the provisions of Article 3, Item1, and Article 11, Item1 of the Cabinet Office Ordinance on Securities Information, etc.
2. With regard to the content included in Specified Securities Information announced in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, where there are items which should be amended or corrected, an initial listing applicant must immediately announce the content of such amendments or corrections by the method specified by the Enforcement Rules in accordance with the provisions of Article 5, Paragraph 2, Item 1 and Article 11, Item 1 of the Cabinet Office Ordinance on Securities Information, etc.

Rule 112. Other Documents, etc. to be Submitted

The Exchange shall be able to request an initial listing applicant to submit reports or material deemed appropriate by the Exchange.

Rule 113. Listing Eligibility Requirements

An initial listing applicant must satisfy the matters enumerated in each of the following items (hereinafter referred to as "listing eligibility requirements" in this part).

- (1) An initial listing applicant does not damage the reputation of the market of the Exchange and is a company that is suitable for listing on such market.
- (2) An initial listing applicant conducts business fairly and in good faith.
- (3) The corporate governance and internal management structure of an initial listing applicant is appropriately developed in accordance with corporate scale and maturity, etc. and functions properly.
- (4) An initial listing applicant carries out disclosure of corporate content and risk information, etc. appropriately and has developed a system and framework which enables it to fulfill its disclosure obligations based on these special provisions.
- (5) No relations with anti-social forces and other matters deemed necessary by the Exchange from the perspective of the public interest and investor protection.

Rule 114. Listing Approval

The Exchange shall approve the listing of the stock, etc. pertaining to an application when it confirms that an initial listing applicant satisfies the listing eligibility requirements enumerated in each item of the preceding rule.

Rule 115. Solicitation of Purchases, etc. before Listing

Necessary matters concerning offering or secondary offering before listing, solicitation of primary offering for subscription to specified investors or solicitation of secondary distribution to specified investors, acquisition or transfer of stock, etc. and allocation of offered stocks by third-party allotment, etc. (see Note 1) shall be specified by the Enforcement Rules in order to ensure the fairness of a public stock offering pertaining to the listing of a domestic stock, etc. issued by an initial listing applicant (see Note 2).

- (Note 1) This excludes an issuer of a domestic stock, etc. listed on the Exchange or any other financial instruments exchange, an entity equivalent thereto, as well as an applicant which applies pursuant to the proviso of Rule 110, Paragraph 1 and a foreign company.

(Note 2) This includes methods referenced in Article 19, Paragraph 2, Item 1 (I) (i) and (ii) of the Disclosure Ordinance, and excludes a public offering pertaining to a domestic stock, etc. designated by the Japan Security Dealers Association as a Green Sheet Issue where a financial instruments business operator allocates to an unspecified large number of recipients according to rules specified by the Japan Security Dealers Association.

Chapter 3

Obligations After Listing

Section 1

Obligation to Maintain Listing Eligibility

Rule 116. Obligation to Maintain Listing Eligibility

A listed company must continue to satisfy the listing eligibility requirements.

Section 2

Obligation to Disclose Corporate Information

Rule 117. Disclosure

1. A listed company shall make efforts to carry out faithful execution of business, strengthening prompt, accurate and fair disclosure of corporate information at all times from the viewpoint of investors with full recognition that timely and appropriate disclosure of corporate information to investors is the basis of a sound financial instruments market.
2. A listed company shall use TDnet (meaning the timely disclosure information dissemination system of the Exchange; the same shall apply hereinafter) to carry out disclosure of corporate information. In the case of a failure occurring in TDnet operations or other cases where the Exchange deems it necessary, disclosure shall be carried out using a method specified by the Exchange on a case-by-case basis.
3. In the case of carrying out notification to the Exchange of a material fact, etc. or fact of a takeover bid, etc. pursuant to the provisions of Article 30, Paragraph 1, Item 2 or Item 3 of the Order for Enforcement of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act (Act No. 321 of 1965; hereinafter referred to as the "Enforcement Order") and notification to the Exchange of a fact of a takeover bid, etc. pursuant to Item 4 or Item 5 of the same paragraph,, a listed company shall carry out such disclosure using a method pertaining to disclosure of corporate information pursuant to the provisions of the following rule through Rule 123.

4. Where a listed company makes corporate information whose disclosure is required in accordance with the provisions of the next rule to Rule 123, Rules 125 to 127, and Rule 129 available for public inspection on the Internet, it shall do so when or after such corporate information was disclosed as prescribed in Paragraph 2; provided, however, that this shall not apply if the company implements measures to restrict public inspection on such corporate information before disclosure, such as installing computer access control functions (meaning computer access control functions stipulated in Article 2, Paragraph 3 of the Act on the Prohibition of Unauthorized Computer Access (Act No. 128 of 1999); the same shall apply hereinafter.).
5. Chapter 4

Maintaining Order in the Market

Section 1

Measures for Ensuring Effectiveness

Rule 141. Measures for Ensuring Effectiveness

1. The Exchange may take any of the measures enumerated in each of the following items pursuant to the provisions of the Enforcement Rules against listed companies to ensure compliance with these special regulations and other rules.
 - (1) Public announcement measure;
 - (2) Submission of improvement report;
 - (3) Designation of Securities on Alert

- (4) Delisting a listed stock, etc.; and
 - (5) Listing agreement violation penalty
2. Where the Exchange starts to consider the measure referred to in Item 4 of the preceding paragraph, it shall designate such listed stock, etc. as a security under supervision pursuant to the provisions of the Enforcement Rules to make investors aware of such fact.
 3. Where the Exchange takes the measure referred to in Paragraph 1, Item 4, it may designate such listed stock, etc. as a security to be delisted for the period from the day it decides to take such measure to the day before the delisting day to make investors aware of such fact.
 4. The handling of the delisting day for a case where the measure referred to in Paragraph 1, Item 4 is taken shall be specified by the Enforcement Rules.

Section 2

Delisting, etc.

Rule 142. Delisting Accompanying Termination of Agreement with Supervising J-Adviser

1. Where notification to the Exchange is made pertaining to the termination of agreement prescribed in Rule 313 pursuant to the provisions of Rule 324, Paragraph 4, or where J-Adviser qualification of a supervising J-Adviser is revoked or the supervising J-Adviser loses its J-Adviser qualification, when deemed necessary by the Exchange, the Exchange shall immediately designate such listed stock, etc. as a security under supervision to make investors aware of such fact.
2. In the cases of the preceding paragraph, where a listed company is unable to secure a supervising J-Adviser by the day specified by the Exchange, the Exchange may delist the listed stock, etc. issued by such listed company.
3. Where the Exchange decides on delisting pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it shall immediately designate such listed stock, etc. as a security to be delisted to make investors aware of such fact.
4. The handling of the delisting day for a case of delisting a listed stock, etc. pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph 2 shall be specified by the Enforcement Rules.

Rule 143. Delisting Application

1. When a listed company intends to apply to delist a listed stock, etc. which it issues, it shall submit the "Delisting Application Form" predetermined by the Exchange to the Exchange as specified by the Enforcement Rules.

2. Where the Exchange receives a "Delisting Application Form" from a listed company, it shall announce such fact and the delisting day, and designate the listed stock, etc. pertaining to the delisting application as a security to be delisted.

Rule 144. Removal from Ledger

When the Exchange delists a listed stock, etc., the Exchange shall remove the corresponding entry in the securities ledger on the delisting day.

Part 3

Bonds

Chapter 1

General Provisions

Rule 201. TOKYO PRO-BOND Market

The bond market which is a specified financial instruments exchange market established by the Exchange shall be known as the TOKYO PRO-BOND Market.

Rule 202. Language Used in Documents

When an entity carrying out program listing (where the scheduled issuance period contained in the Program Information announced by such entity has passed, excluding such entity; the same shall apply hereinafter), an initial listing applicant (limited to an entity which applies for initial listing of a bond; the same shall apply hereinafter in this part), or an issuer of a listed bond prepares material for disclosure, it must use either the English language or the Japanese language, or both languages.

Rule 203. Consideration of Legal System, etc. of Home Country, etc.

With regard to the application of the rules and regulations of the Exchange to an entity which conduct a program listing, an initial listing applicant, and an issuer of a listed bond, the Exchange shall take into account legal systems, operational practices and customs, etc. in the home countries, etc. of such entity.

Rule 204. Communication and Cooperation among Parties

Entities which conduct program listing, initial listing applicants, issuers of listed bonds, management companies, and entrusted parties must communicate and cooperate with each other in fulfilling the obligations specified in these special regulations and other rules.

Rule 205. Website of Issuer, etc.

1. An entity which conducts a program listing, an initial listing applicant, and an issuer of a listed bond shall, on and after the initial listing application day, make efforts to post matters specified by the Enforcement Rules on the website where information of such entity is posted and provide such matters for browsing by investors at no charge.
2. In the case of the preceding paragraph, an entity which conducts a program listing, an initial listing applicant, and an issuer of a listed bond shall make efforts to constantly post updated information on the website, and allow investors to browse such information without difficulty.

Chapter 2 Program Listing

Rule 206. Program Listing

1. An entity seeking to make an initial listing application for a bond may, in cases where such bond satisfies the matters enumerated in each item of Rule 212 or other cases specified by the Enforcement Rules, carry out a program listing. In this case, "bond or Program Information pertaining to bond" in Item 1 of the same rule shall be "Program Information pertaining to bond", and "lead managing securities company underwriting such bond (meaning an entity corresponding to the lead managing company specified in Article 147, Item 3 of the Cabinet Office Ordinance on Financial Instruments Business, etc. (Cabinet Office Ordinance No. 52 of 2007))" in Item 2 of the same rule shall be "an entity whose name is described in Program Information as a main financial instruments firm that is expected to conclude a principal underwriting contract".
2. An entity which conducts a program listing shall submit Program Information and the "Written Assurance regarding Program Listing" specified by the Enforcement Rules

- to the Exchange. In this case, the content and form of the Program Information shall be specified by the Enforcement Rules.
3. In the case of the preceding paragraph, where the bond pertaining to program listing is a specified security, an entity which conducts a program listing must jointly submit the "Written Assurance regarding Program Listing" with the management company and entrusted entity (limited to entities which the Exchange deems necessary in consideration of the characteristics of such bond).
 4. With regard to the application of these special regulations, the management company and entrusted entity that jointly submit the "Written Assurance regarding Program Listing" pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be treated in the same manner as an entity which conducts a program listing; provided, however, that the same shall not apply where the Exchange deems appropriate.
 5. A program listing may be carried out jointly by two or more entities. In this case, such entities shall submit the "Written Assurance regarding Program Listing" to the Exchange separately.
 6. An entity which conducts a program listing must announce Program Information and the "Written Assurance regarding Program Listing" using the method specified by the Enforcement Rules in accordance with the provisions of Article 3, Item 1 and Article 11, Item 1 of the Cabinet Office Ordinance on Securities Information, etc.
 7. In cases where a change or correction should be made to the matters described in Program Information announced pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, an entity which conducts a program listing must announce details of such change or correction immediately using the method specified by the Enforcement Rules in accordance with the provisions of Article 5, Paragraph 2, Item 1 and Article 11, Item 1 of the Cabinet Office Ordinance on Securities Information, etc.
 8. The "Written Assurance regarding Program Listing" submitted to the Exchange pursuant to the provisions of Paragraphs 2, 3, and 5 shall take effect on the day of announcement of Program Information pertaining to program listing.

Chapter 3

Initial Listing

Rule 207. Initial Listing Application

An initial listing application for a bond shall be conducted by the issuer of such bond.

Rule 208. Listing Agreement, etc.

1. Where the Exchange lists a bond pertaining to an initial listing application, the issuer of the bond pertaining to such initial listing application must submit a "Listing Agreement" predetermined by the Exchange as specified by the Enforcement Rules; provided, however, that this shall not apply to cases where the "Written Assurance regarding Program Listing" prescribed in Rule 206, Paragraph 2 has been submitted.
2. The listing agreement referenced in the preceding paragraph shall take effect on the day of the listing of the bond pertaining to the initial listing application.
3. Where the bond pertaining to an initial listing application is a specified security, the issuer of such bond pertaining to an initial listing application shall jointly submit a "Listing Agreement" with the management company and the entrusted entity.
4. With regard to the application of these special regulations, the management company and the entrusted entity that have jointly submitted the "Listing Agreement" pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be treated in the same manner as an issuer of a listed bond and an initial listing applicant; provided, however, that the same shall not apply where the Exchange deems appropriate.
5. The Exchange shall make an entry of the description in the listed securities ledger on the day of listing the bond pertaining to the initial listing application.

Rule 209. Submission of Documents, etc. at the Time of Initial Listing Application

1. An initial listing applicant must submit the "Security Initial Listing Application Form" predetermined by the Exchange
2. The "Security Initial Listing Application Form" prescribed in the preceding paragraph shall include the documents, etc. enumerated in each of the following items as attachments. The content and forms of the documents, etc. enumerated in such items shall be specified by the Enforcement Rules.
 - (1) Specified Securities Information (where carrying out an initial listing application based on Program Information, Supplemental Specified Securities Information);
 - (2) "Written Oath Regarding Initial Listing Application" (limited to where the "Written Assurance regarding Program Listing" prescribed in Article 206, Paragraph 2 with regard to the bond pertaining to the initial listing application is not submitted); and
 - (3) Other documents, etc. deemed necessary by the Exchange.

3. In the case of making an initial listing application based on Program Information, the content of Specified Securities Information shall be made up of Program Information, information announced in cases specified by the Enforcement rules as prescribed by Rule 206, Paragraph 1, and Supplemental Specified Securities Information.
4. The financial documents required under Specified Securities Information must include audit reports, etc. specified by the Enforcement Rules. However, where the initial listing applicant (limited to an issuer of specified securities) submits Specified Securities Information within the first business year or consolidated accounting year since establishment, and the Exchange deems appropriate, such audit reports, etc. are not required to be attached.
5. The financial documents required under Specified Securities Information must be prepared in accordance with Japanese GAAP, US GAAP, IFRS or other accounting standards specified by the Enforcement Rules.
6. With regard to the application of Paragraph 2 in cases of carrying out initial listing application of a security prescribed in each item of Article 3 of the Act, "Specified Securities Information (where carrying out an initial listing application based on Program Information, it shall be Supplemental Specified Securities Information)" in Item 1 of the same paragraph shall be "issuance conditions of the bond pertaining to the initial listing application". In this case, the content of the "issuance conditions of the bond pertaining to the initial listing application" shall be specified by the Enforcement Rules.

Rule 210. Announcement at the Time of Initial Listing Application

1. An initial listing applicant must, after submitting a "Security Initial Listing Application Form" pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph 1 of the preceding rule, immediately announce the documents enumerated in each item of Paragraph 2 of the preceding rule by a method specified by the Enforcement Rules in accordance with Article 3, Item 1 and Article 11, Item 1 of the Cabinet Office Ordinance on Securities Information, etc.
2. With regard to the content included in Specified Securities Information announced in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, where there are items which should be amended or corrected, an initial listing applicant must immediately announce the content of such amendments or corrections by a method specified by the Enforcement Rules in accordance with the provisions of Article 5, Paragraph 2, Item 1 and Article 11, Item 1 of the Cabinet Office Ordinance on Securities

Information, etc.

3. With regard to the application of Paragraph 1 and the preceding paragraph in cases of carrying out initial listing application of a security prescribed in each item of Article 3 of the Act, "documents, etc. enumerated in each item of Paragraph 2 of the preceding rule" in Paragraph 1 shall be "documents, etc. enumerated in each item of Paragraph 2 of the same rule applied with rewording pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph 6 of the preceding rule", and "Specified Securities Information" in the preceding paragraph shall be "issuance conditions of the bond pertaining to the initial listing application".

Rule 211. Other Documents, etc. to be Submitted

The Exchange shall be able to request an initial listing applicant to submit reports or material deemed appropriate by the Exchange.

Rule 212. Listing Eligibility Requirements

An initial listing application pertaining to a bond must satisfy the matters enumerated in each of the following items (hereinafter referred to as "listing eligibility requirements" in this part).

- (1) A bond or Program Information pertaining to a bond has obtained a credit rating from a rating agency (meaning a credit rating agency prescribed in Article 2, Paragraph 36 of the Act and a rating firm established based on laws of a foreign country (limited to rating firms which are subject to equivalent regulation and supervision in the same way as such credit rating agencies)) or satisfies the requirements specified by the Enforcement Rules.
- (2) The lead managing securities company underwriting such bond (meaning an entity equivalent to a lead managing company specified in Article 147, Item 3 of the Cabinet Office Ordinance on Financial Instruments Business, etc.) or issuer of such bond is registered in the "list of lead managing securities companies" prepared by the Exchange pursuant to the provisions of the Enforcement Rules or such bond satisfies the requirements specified by the Enforcement Rules.

Rule 213. Listing Approval

The Exchange shall approve the listing of the bond pertaining to an application when it confirms that the bond pertaining to an initial listing application satisfies the listing eligibility requirements.

Chapter 4

Obligations After Listing

Section 1

Obligation to Disclose Information of Issuers, etc.

Rule 214. Disclosure

1. An entity which conducts program listing and an issuer of a listed bond (hereinafter collectively referred to as "listed bond issuer, etc.") shall make efforts to carry out faithful execution of business, strengthening prompt, accurate and fair disclosure of information on listed bond issuers, etc. at all times from the viewpoint of investors with full recognition that timely and appropriate disclosure on information of listed bond issuers, etc. to investors is the basis of a sound financial instruments market.
2. A listed bond issuer, etc. shall use the method of posting on the website of the Exchange or posting on the website on which the information of such listed bond issuer is posted to carry out disclosure of information on a listed bond issuer, etc.
3. Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, in cases where a listed bond issuer discloses details of the items referred to in Item 1, Sub-items a. and b., and Item 2, Sub-items a. and b. of the following rule, it shall use TDnet. In cases where any malfunction occurs to TDnet, or other cases that the Exchange deems necessary, a listed bond issuer shall disclose such details by means specified by the Exchange on a case-by-case basis,.
4. In the case where a listed bond issuer, etc. disclosed information on the website of the listed bond issuer, etc. pursuant to the provisions of the Paragraph 2, the listed bond issuer, etc. shall, after such disclosure, promptly submit documents related to such information to the Exchange.
5. In cases where the Exchange has received the documents provided in the preceding paragraph, the Exchange shall promptly post information in the documents on its website.
6. In cases where a listed bond issuer intends to make details of the items referred to in Item 1, Sub-item a. and b., and Item 2, Sub-item a. and b. of the following rule, available for public inspection via the Internet, it shall do so after such details have been disclosed as specified by Paragraph 3; provided, however, that this shall not apply if the issuer implements a measure to restrict access to such details by measures such adding computer access control functions before the disclosure.

7. In cases where a listed bond issuer notifies the Exchange of material facts, etc. pursuant to the provisions of Article 30, Paragraph 1, Item 2 or Item 3 of the Enforcement Order, it shall do so by means pertaining to information disclosure in accordance with the provisions of the following rule.

Rule 215. Disclosure of Important Information of Issuers, etc.

In the case where a listed bond issuer, etc. falls under any of the following items, the listed bond issuer, etc. must disclose details immediately pursuant to the provisions of the Enforcement Rules, provided, however, that this shall not apply to an issuer of stock, etc. listed on a domestic financial instruments exchange or a wholly-owned subsidiary of such issuer, or an issuer of a security enumerated in Rule 2, Item 9, Sub-items g. through m.

- (1) Where the body which decides business execution of a listed bond issuer, etc. makes a decision on carrying out any of the matters enumerated in the following Sub-items a. through d. (including cases where the body makes a decision not to carry out matters pertaining to such decision)

- a. Dissolution (excluding dissolution by means of a merger);
- b. Petition for commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, commencement of rehabilitation proceedings, or commencement of reorganization proceedings;
- c. Change in trade name or corporate name;
- d. In addition to the matters enumerated in the preceding Sub-items a. through c., important matters concerning operation, business or assets of such listed bond issuer, etc. or such listed bond which have a remarkable effect on investment decisions.

- (2) Where any of the facts enumerated in the following Sub-items a. through e. occurs:

- a. Petition for commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, commencement of rehabilitation proceedings, or commencement of reorganization proceedings, or execution of enterprise mortgage by a creditor or any entity other than such listed bond issuer, etc. (hereinafter referred to as "petition for commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, etc.")
- b. Dishonor of a bill or check (limited to where the reason is a shortage of funds for payment), or suspension of trading by a clearing house

- c. Petition for commencement of bankruptcy proceedings pertaining to a parent company, etc.;
 - d. Acceleration of obligations pertaining to a corporate bond;
 - e. In addition to the fact enumerated in the preceding Sub-items a. through d., important matters concerning operation, business or assets of such listed bond issuer, etc. or such listed bond which have a remarkable effect on investment decisions.
- (3) Where the body which decides business execution of a guarantor pertaining to a listed bond (limited to where a guarantor exists; the same shall apply hereinafter) makes a decision on carrying out any of the matters enumerated in Item 1, Sub-items a. through d. (including cases where the body makes a decision not to carry out matters pertaining to such decision)
- (4) Where any fact enumerated in Item 2, Sub-items a. through e. occurs to a guarantor pertaining to a listed bond

Rule 216. Change in or Correction of Disclosure Information

1. In cases where there have arisen circumstances that necessitate a change or correction to the information disclosed pursuant to the provisions of the preceding rule, a listed bond issuer, etc. must disclose details of such change or correction immediately.
2. The provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be applied mutatis mutandis to differences between (i) content disclosed by a listed bond issuer, etc. pursuant to the provisions of the preceding rule, and (ii) content disclosed in securities reports, quarterly reports, securities registration statements, or extraordinary reports (including amendment reports or amendment registration statements to these) or the Issuer Filing Information or Specified Securities Information (including amendments thereto).

Rule 217. Disclosure of Issuer Filing Information

1. A listed bond issuer, etc. (excluding issuers of a listed bond that have the obligation to submit securities reports and issuers of bonds prescribed in each item of Article 3 of the Act for which such issuers carry out a solicitation for purchases) must prepare and announce Issuer Filing Information within three (3) months after the end of a business year (where such listed bond is a specified security, it shall be the specified period pertaining to such listed bond; where the issuer of such listed bond is an entity other than a company, it shall be the business year or a period equivalent thereto)

(where it is deemed by the Exchange that such documents cannot be prepared and announced within such period for unavoidable reasons, within a period approved by the Exchange as specified by the Enforcement Rules). In this case, the content, form, and announcement method of Issuer Filing Information shall be specified by the Enforcement Rules.

2. Where there have arisen circumstances that necessitate a change or correction to the Issuer Filing Information disclosed pursuant to the provisions of the preceding rule, a listed bond issuer, etc. must announce details of such change or correction immediately as specified by the Enforcement Rules.
3. The financial documents required under Issuer Filing Information prescribed in Paragraph 1 shall include audit reports, etc. specified by the Enforcement Rules as attachments.

Rule 218. Reporting and Disclosure of Inquiry Matters Pertaining to Issuer, etc. Information

1. Where the Exchange makes an inquiry, where it deems necessary, regarding information of a listed bond issuer, etc., the listed bond issuer, etc. shall report the inquiry matters to the Exchange immediately.
2. Where the Exchange deems it necessary and appropriate to disclose a fact pertaining to an inquiry prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the listed bond issuer, etc. shall disclose details immediately.
3. The provisions of Paragraph 1 shall be applied mutatis mutandis to cases enumerated in each of the following items.
 - (1) Where the Exchange makes an inquiry on a listed bond, etc., deeming that it is necessary for the purpose of trading supervision (including a case where the Exchange makes an inquiry on the circumstances, etc. from occurrence to announcement of information on listed bond issuer, etc. by deeming that it is necessary for a survey in order to ensure fairness of securities trading on the Exchange market); and
 - (2) Where another domestic financial instruments exchange requests for provision of information concerning a listed bond issuer, etc. pertaining to information from the occurrence through the announcement of corporate information due to a survey in order to ensure fairness of securities trading, etc. in such market, as well as where the Exchange deems it appropriate to respond to such request and makes an inquiry on such circumstances, etc.

Section 2

Other Obligations

Rule 219. Prohibition of Restriction on Transfer of Bonds

A listed bond issuer must not restrict transfer of listed bond except those pursuant to the provisions of Article 2, Paragraph 3, Item 2, (ii), (2) of the Act or the provisions of other special laws.

Rule 220. Fees Related to Listing

An entity carrying out a program listing, an initial listing applicant, and an issuer of a listed bond shall pay initial listing fee, program listing fee and other fees related to listing as specified in the Enforcement Rules.

Chapter 5

Maintaining Order in the Market

Section 1

Measures for Ensuring Effectiveness

 - (1) Submission of improvement report;
 - (2) Imposition of violation penalty;
 - (3) Prohibition of initial listing based on Program Information; and
 - (4) Delisting of listed bond.
2. Where the Exchange takes any of the measures enumerated in Items 1 through 3 of the preceding paragraph, where it deems necessary, it may announce such fact.
3. Where the Exchange starts to consider taking the measure enumerated in Paragraph 1, Item 4, it may designate such listed bond as a security under supervision to make investors aware of such fact, as specified by the Enforcement Rules.
4. Where the Exchange takes the measure enumerated in Paragraph 1, Item 4, it may designate such listed bond as a security to be delisted for the period from the day it decides to take such measure to the day before the delisting day to make investors aware of such fact.

Section 2

Delisting, etc.

Rule 222. Delisting

1. In the case where a listed bond issuer falls under any of the following items, the Exchange shall delist all bond issues issued by such issuer.
 - (1) Where significant false statements were made in Specified Securities Information, Issuer Filing Information or securities reports; or
 - (2) In addition to cases of the preceding item, where the Exchange deems that delisting is appropriate.
2. In the case where a listed bond falls under any of the following items, the Exchange shall delist such listed bond. In this case, the handling of such item shall be specified by the Enforcement Rules.
 - (1) Where the final redemption date arrives;
 - (2) Where advanced redemption is carried out for the total amount of bonds;
 - (3) Where obligations pertaining to a listed bond are assumed by another company because of an absorption-type demerger or a demerger for creating a new company;
 - (4) Where there is acceleration of obligations; or
 - (5) In addition to each of the preceding items, where the Exchange deems that delisting is appropriate.
3. Where a listed bond is likely to be delisted, the Exchange may designate such listed bond as a security under supervision pursuant to the provisions of the Enforcement Rules to make investors aware of such fact.
4. Where the delisting of a listed bond is decided, the handling of the delisting day shall be specified by the Enforcement Rules.
5. The Exchange may designate a listed bond as a security to be delisted for the period from the day it decides to delist such listed bond to the day before the delisting day to make investors aware of such fact.

Rule 223. Removal from Ledger

When the Exchange delists a listed bond, the Exchange shall remove the corresponding entry in the securities ledger on the delisting day.

Part 4 J-Adviser

Chapter 1 General Provisions

Rule 301. Fair Conduct of Business

1. A J-Adviser must always act to maintain the reputation and order of the market of the Exchange.
2. A J-Adviser must consider maintaining equality among shareholders of a supervised company as well as provide guidance and advice to the body which decides business execution at the supervised company and its members toward enhancing the corporate value of such supervised company.
3. A J-Adviser must make efforts to maintain and enhance the function of the market of the Exchange and comply with these special regulations and other rules.

Chapter 2 J-Adviser Qualification, etc.

Section 1 Procedures, etc. for Obtaining J-Adviser Qualification

Rule 302. Application for Obtaining J-Adviser Qualification

1. An entity seeking to obtain J-Adviser qualification (hereinafter referred to as an "applicant for obtaining J-Adviser qualification") must make such application for obtaining J-Adviser qualification to the Exchange.
2. In the case of making an application for obtaining J-Adviser qualification prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the applicant shall submit to the Exchange the "Application Form for Obtaining J-Adviser Qualification" and other documents specified by the Enforcement Rules.

Rule 303. Approval for Obtaining J-Adviser Qualification

The Exchange shall examine an applicant for obtaining J-Adviser qualification in accordance with the criteria specified by each of the items of Paragraph 1 of the following rule, and where the Exchange deems that such applicant satisfies such criteria, it shall approve such application for obtaining J-Adviser qualification taking into account the provisions of Article 7-3 of the Cabinet Office Ordinance on Exchanges.

Rule 304. Examination for Obtaining J-Adviser Qualification

1. The examination prescribed in the preceding rule shall be carried out based on the criteria enumerated in each of the following items.

 - (8) The person is not likely to damage the reputation, etc. of the market of the Exchange; and
 - (9) The person does not have ties to anti-social forces.

Rule 310. Maintaining J-QS Eligibility

1. A J-Adviser must ensure that its J-QS continue to satisfy the matters enumerated in each of the items of the preceding paragraph.
2. Where the Exchange deems that a J-QS does not satisfy the matters enumerated in each of the items of the preceding paragraph, it may revoke the J-QS certification.

Chapter 3
Obligations of J-Adviser

Section 1
General Obligations

Rule 311. General Obligations

A J-Adviser must always maintain the required ability and act with due care of a prudent manager to fulfill its obligations based on these special regulations

Rule 312. Obligation to Maintain Independence from Supervised Company

1. A J-Adviser must maintain its independence from the supervised company by complying with matters enumerated in each of the following items and taking other necessary measures. In this case, details shall be specified by the Enforcement Rules.
 - (1) The officers or employees of the J-Adviser are not concurrently officers or employees of the supervised company; and
 - (2) The J-Adviser has no conflict of interest with the supervised company, and maintains sufficient systems and frameworks within the company and the group to prevent a conflict of interest with the supervised company.
2. A J-Adviser may provide services other than those as a J-Adviser to its supervised company or a company which such supervised company controls or has ties with, as long as there is no conflict of interest concerning fulfillment of the J-Adviser obligations specified in this chapter.

Rule 313. Conclusion of Appropriate Agreement with Supervised Company

A J-Adviser must enter into with its supervised company an agreement concerning the rights and obligations of the J-Adviser and the supervised company and other matters specified by the Enforcement Rules.

Section 2

Obligations at the Time of Initial Listing Application

Rule 314. Investigation and Confirmation of Listing Eligibility

A J-Adviser must investigate and confirm whether an entity it supervises, which intends to make an initial listing application, satisfies the listing eligibility requirements prescribed in Rule 113, and whether such entity is able to fulfill the obligations prescribed in Part 2, Chapter 2. Thereafter, the J-Adviser must prepare the "Written Oath Regarding Listing Eligibility" and the "Matters to which attention should be given when preparing the written oath pertaining to listing eligibility" pursuant to the provisions of the Enforcement Rules and submit them together to the Exchange.

Rule 315. Work Related to Initial Listing

A J-Adviser shall give advice to an initial listing applicant that it supervises on the fulfillment of obligations of an initial listing applicant prescribed in Part 2, Chapter 2 and carry out work related to initial listing in accordance with the provisions of the same chapter.

Section 3

Obligations After Listing

Rule 316. Investigation, etc. Related to Obligations that a Listed Company should Fulfill

1. A J-Adviser must investigate and confirm whether its supervised listed company is able to appropriately fulfill the obligations pursuant to the provisions of Part 2, Chapter 3.
2. A J-Adviser must appropriately give advice and guidance to make its supervised listed company to fulfill its obligations pursuant to the provisions of Part 2, Chapter 3.
3. In the case where a supervised listed company does not heed the advice or guidance of the preceding paragraph, the J-Adviser must immediately report such matter to the Exchange and consider terminating the agreement prescribed in Rule 313.

Rule 317. Administrative Work Related to Obligations of a Listed Company

A J-Adviser shall carry out the necessary work to enable its supervised listed company to fulfill its obligations prescribed in Part 2, Chapter 3.

Rule 318. Securing a Liquidity Provider

1. A J-Adviser shall become the liquidity provider or make efforts for its supervised listed company to secure a liquidity provider to ensure smooth trading of the listed stock, etc. issued by the supervised listed company.
2. In the case where the supervised listed company secures a liquidity provider in the preceding paragraph, the J-Adviser shall support such liquidity provider in the execution of such work.

Rule 319. Analyst Reports

A J-Adviser shall make efforts toward the widespread publication of analyst reports pertaining to its supervised listed company.

Section 4
Other Obligations

Rule 320. Response to Inquiry Matters

1. A J-Adviser shall notify the Exchange of an appropriate office for correspondence with the Exchange as a liaison office.
2. A J-Adviser shall appoint a person as a liaison responsible for matters concerning reports in response to inquiries from the Exchange and other correspondence by the Exchange and notify the Exchange of such person.
3. In the case where the Exchange deems it necessary to make inquiries on the status and systems of J-Adviser business, the J-Adviser must accurately report the inquiry matters immediately.
4. In the case where a J-Adviser is not sure of the application or interpretation of any provisions of these special regulations, it must quickly consult the Exchange.

Rule 321. Maintenance of Records Related to Operation

A J-Adviser shall prepare appropriate records regarding content pertaining to operations it carried out as a J-Adviser including the main content of discussions with a supervised company, and the content, etc. of advice and guidance provided to a supervised company, and shall keep such records for five (5) years from the day of carrying out such discussion, or giving such advice or guidance.

Rule 322. Procedures when Changing Supervising J-Adviser

In the case where a listed company intends to change its supervising J-Adviser and enter with another J-Adviser the agreement prescribed in Rule 313, such other J-Adviser shall notify the Exchange in advance and investigate and confirm whether such listed company satisfies the listing eligibility requirements prescribed in Rule 113, and whether such entity is able to fulfill the obligations prescribed in Part 2, Chapter 3. Thereafter, the J-Adviser must prepare the "Written Oath Regarding Listing Eligibility" prescribed in Rule 314 and submit it to the Exchange together with other documents deemed necessary by the Exchange promptly after the conclusion of such agreement.

Rule 323. Payment of Annual Registration Fee

A J-Adviser shall pay annual registration fee to the Exchange in accordance with the provisions of the Enforcement Rules.

Rule 324. Obligation to Give Advance Notification

1. In the case of a decision made on the matters or the expected occurrence of a fact enumerated in each of the following items, a J-Adviser shall notify the Exchange in advance.
 - (1) A merger, demerger, business transfer or acquisition, stock swap or stock transfer, etc. which result in a material change in the controlling relationship or organization of J-Adviser;
 - (2) An important change in an officer or significant change in organization;
 - (3) Suspension or abolition of all or a significant part of the business;
 - (4) A drastic deterioration in financial situation that is risky, which leads to a state of liabilities in excess of assets or a situation equivalent thereto; and
 - (5) Other matters for advance notification that the Exchange requires in advance.
2. In the case of carrying out the notification of the preceding paragraph, a J-Adviser shall submit documents deemed necessary by the Exchange. However, the submission pursuant to this paragraph may be substituted with submission carried out based on these special regulations or other rules as well as disciplinary actions pursuant thereto.

3. When the Exchange deems the matters or facts enumerated in each item of Paragraph 1 inappropriate in consideration of the appropriate operation and reputation of the market of the Exchange, it may revoke J-Adviser qualification and take other measures in accordance with the provisions of Rule 327.
4. In the case where a prior notice is given pertaining to termination of an agreement based on the agreement prescribed in Rule 313 entered into with a supervised company, or the case where such agreement is terminated, a J-Adviser must immediately notify the Exchange.

Rule 325. Reporting Obligations

1. At the end of a business year, a J-Adviser shall immediately report to the Exchange the content of work as a J-Adviser in such business year.
2. In addition to the obligation specified in the preceding paragraph, where a J-Adviser falls under any of the cases specified by the Enforcement Rules, it shall immediately report such content to the Exchange.
3. In the case of reporting to the Exchange pursuant to the provisions of the preceding two (2) paragraphs, a J-Adviser shall submit documents deemed necessary by the Exchange. However, the submission pursuant to this paragraph may be substituted with submission carried out based on these special regulations or other rules as well as disciplinary actions pursuant thereto.

Chapter 4 Maintaining Eligibility

Rule 326. Investigation of J-Advisers

1. Where the Exchange deems it necessary in light of operations of the market of the Exchange in consideration of the provisions of Article 7-3 of the Cabinet Office Ordinance on Exchanges, the Exchange may require a J-Adviser to submit a report or materials which will serve as reference concerning the operation or financial assets of such J-Adviser, or carry out an on-site inspection of the status of operation or financial assets, or books, documents or other objects.
2. A J-Adviser must immediately respond to a request to submit a report or materials pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

Rule 327. Measures, etc. Against J-Adviser

1. Where the Exchange deems, based on the result of an investigation prescribed in the preceding rule or other reason, that a J-Adviser has violated laws and regulations or these special regulations or other rules, or failed to abide by dispositions by the administrative authorities pursuant to laws and regulations or disciplinary actions based on these special regulations or other rules (hereinafter referred to as "laws and regulations, etc."), or has committed an act in violation of the just and equitable principles of trade and is no longer eligible as a J-Adviser, the Exchange may revoke the J-Adviser qualification of such J-Adviser pursuant to the provisions of the Enforcement Rules.
2. In addition to the preceding paragraph, where the Exchange deems that a J-Adviser has violated laws and regulations, etc. or has committed an act in violation of the just and equitable principles of trade, the Exchange may take the measures enumerated in each of the following items.
 - (1) Warning;
 - (2) Imposition of a violation penalty; or
 - (3) Temporary suspension of J-Adviser qualification.
3. Where the Exchange carries out the revocation of J-Adviser qualification prescribed in Paragraph 1, it shall immediately announce such revocation of qualification.
4. Where the Exchange takes a measure referenced in each item of Paragraph 2, it may announce such fact when it deems necessary.

Rule 328. Filing Appeal

1. When a J-Adviser considers the measures of Paragraphs 1 and 2 of the preceding rule to be unjustified, it may file an appeal to the Exchange pursuant to the provisions of the Enforcement Rules.
2. Where an appeal prescribed in the preceding paragraph is filed, the Exchange may alter or withdraw the measures of Paragraphs 1 and 2 of the preceding rule after examining the content of the appeal.
3. After the Exchange has carried out the examination prescribed in the preceding paragraph, it shall notify the J-Adviser that filed the appeal of the result of such examination.
4. Where the Exchange announced a measure pursuant to Paragraphs 3 and 4 of the preceding rule, when it alters or withdraws such measure pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph 2, the Exchange shall announce such fact.

Chapter 5

Application, etc. for Waiver of J-Adviser Qualification

Rule 329. Application for Waiver of J-Adviser Qualification

When a J-Adviser intends to waive its J-Adviser qualification, it must apply to the Exchange for waiving its J-Adviser qualification pursuant to the provisions of the Enforcement Rules.

Rule 330. Procedures for Waiver of J-Adviser Qualification

When the J-Adviser qualification of a J-Adviser is waived (including cases of waiver due to revocation), the Exchange must immediately announce such waiver of qualification.

Rule 331. Application for Cancellation of J-QS Certification

Where a J-Adviser intends to have the J-QS certification of its employee cancelled, the J-Adviser must submit to the Exchange the "Application Form for Cancellation of J-QS Certification" predetermined by the Exchange.
