Operating and Financial Review

The following operating and financial review of JFM, which forms the remainder of the Supplement, is based on information contained in the unaudited semiannual financial statements of JFM as of and for the six months ended 30 September 2023 and, with respect to the amounts of loans under "— Overview" below and the amounts of bonds issued under "— Liquidity and Capital Resources — Fundraising Operations for the Six Months Ended 30 September 2023" below, the accounting records of JFM, and is intended to convey management's perspective on the operating performance and financial condition of JFM as of the date and during the period under review, as measured in accordance with Japanese GAAP. The following supplements the operating and financial review as of and for the years ended 31 March 2022 and 2023 contained in the Base Prospectus.

Overview

JFM's net income for the six months ended 30 September 2023 decreased by 2.2 per cent. to ¥10.0 billion compared to ¥10.3 billion in the six months ended 30 September 2022. The decrease was primarily a result of a decrease in interest income and an increase in interest expenses, notwithstanding a decrease in special losses. JFM's ordinary income for the six months ended 30 September 2023 decreased by 14.4 per cent. to ¥38.1 billion compared to ¥44.5 billion in the six months ended 30 September 2022. The decrease was due primarily to a decrease of 5.5 per cent. in interest income to ¥96.8 billion in the six months ended 30 September 2023 and an increase of 0.4 per cent. in interest expenses to ¥55.1 billion in the six months ended 30 September 2023.

Based on its lending plan, JFM extended 7,376 loans to local governments in an aggregate amount of ¥744.6 billion with the consent or approval of the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications and prefectural governors in the six months ended 30 September 2023. These loans included:

- loans, for a total of ¥609.6 billion, for general account-related businesses such as local road construction and special municipal merger projects;
- loans, in the amount of ¥70.4 billion, for temporary financial countermeasures funding to make up for a shortfall of local allocation tax pursuant to the provisions of the Local Government Finance Law; and
- loans, for a total of ¥64.5 billion, for municipal enterprise-related businesses such as sewerage and water supply.

In accordance with its fundraising plan, during the six months ended 30 September 2023, JFM issued ¥765.6 billion (issue price) of public offering bonds without government guarantee and ¥264.0 billion of private placement bonds without government guarantee subscribed to by pension funds and mutual aids for local government officials, including the Pension Fund Association for Local Government Officials for lending.

Factors Affecting Results of Operations

Reduction of JFM's Reserves for Interest Rate Volatility through Transfers to the National Treasury

JFM manages assets and liabilities succeeded from the Predecessor in its management account. JFM manages its other assets and liabilities in its general account. For a breakdown, see note 11 to JFM's unaudited semiannual financial statements for the six months ended 30 September 2023. Total assets and liabilities in the management account are expected to decline as time passes because no new loans or bonds (other than bonds issued to refinance Predecessor bonds) have been issued in this account since October 2008 and no such loans or bonds are expected to be issued.

Under the JFM Law, if any assets remain when the asset management operations of the Predecessor are completed and the management account is closed, those assets shall be returned to the national treasury. Even before the management account is closed, in the event that the businesses of JFM are determined to have been executed smoothly in light of the condition of the management of JFM, the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications and the Minister of Finance (the "Ministers") shall, if the management account reserve for interest rate volatility and the management account surplus reserve are determined to exceed the amount necessary for the smooth operation of the asset management operations of the Predecessor in the future, cause the amount that is determined to be in excess to be transferred to the national treasury. Accordingly, JFM has regularly made transfers of varying amounts to the national treasury from its reserve for interest rate volatility maintained in the management account. Under current determinations by the Ministers, the following amounts are to be transferred to the national treasury from JFM's reserves for interest rate volatility maintained in the management account within the specified time frame: (i) up to ¥1.5 billion over the six-year period ending 31 March 2024, of which ¥0.06 billion has already been transferred as of 30 September 2023 and (ii) ¥230.0 billion over the five-year period ending 31 March 2025, of which a total of ¥175.0 billion has already been transferred prior to 30 September 2023, including ¥25.0 billion during the six months ended 30 September 2023. In response to these determinations, JFM plans to make additional transfers of (i) ¥0.01 billion by the end of the year ending 31 March 2024 and (ii) ¥55.0 billion by the end of the year ending 31 March 2025. The completed transfers have not had, and JFM does not expect the additional planned transfers to have, a material effect on JFM's business, results of operations or financial condition. This is due primarily to the fact that the margins on the management account loan portfolio are generally improving in the current low interest rate environment because bonds are being refinanced at lower rates and that interest rate risk in the management account is expected to decline overall as the size of that portfolio declines over time.

References in this Base Prospectus to Notes being "listed" on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (and all related references) shall mean that such Notes have been admitted to listing on the Official List and have been admitted to trading on the Euro MTF Market. The Euro MTF Market is not a regulated market for the purposes of the Directive 2014/65/EU on markets in financial instruments. In relation to Notes listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, this Base Prospectus is valid for a period of one year from the date hereof. However, unlisted Notes may be issued pursuant to the Programme. The Notes have been assigned a provisional rating of "(P)A1" by Moody's Japan K.K. ("Moody's") and a rating of "A+" by S&P Global Ratings Japan Inc. ("S&P") Notes issued under the Programme may or may not be rated. Any credit ratings assigned to an issue of Notes will be specified in the applicable Final Terms (as defined herein).

A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

Investing in Notes issued under the Programme involves certain risks. The principal risk factors that may affect the abilities of JFM to fulfil its obligations under the Notes are discussed under "Risk Factors" below.

The Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States, and Notes in bearer form are subject to U.S. tax law requirements. The Notes may not be offered, sold or (in the case of Notes in bearer form) delivered within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act ("Regulation S")) except in certain transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Notes in bearer form are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions or to United States persons, except in certain transactions permitted by U.S. tax regulations.

Each Tranche (as defined herein) of Notes will be issued on the terms set out herein under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" (the "Conditions") and a document specific to such Tranche called the final terms (the "Final Terms"). This Base Prospectus must be read and construed together with any amendments or supplements hereto and with any information incorporated by reference herein and, in relation to any Tranche of Notes, must be read and construed together with the relevant Final Terms.

JFM has confirmed to the Dealers named under "Subscription and Sale" below that this Base Prospectus contains the information, which according to the particular nature of JFM and the Notes, is necessary to enable investors and their investment advisors to make an informed assessment of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses and prospects of JFM and of the rights attaching to the Notes; that such information is true and accurate in all material respects and is not misleading in any material respect; that any opinions, predictions or intentions expressed herein are honestly held or made and are not misleading in any material respect; that this Base Prospectus does not omit to state any material fact necessary to make such information, opinions, predictions or intentions (in the context of the Programme and the issue, offering and sale of the Notes) not misleading in any material respect; and that all proper enquiries have been made to verify the foregoing.

No person has been authorised to give any information or to make any representation not contained in or not consistent with this Base Prospectus or any other document entered into in relation to the Programme or any information supplied by JFM or such other information as is in the public domain and, if given or made, such information or representation should not be relied upon as having been authorised by JFM or any Dealer.

Neither the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates have authorised the whole or any part of this Base Prospectus and none of them makes any representation or warranty or accepts any responsibility as to (i) the accuracy or completeness of the information contained in this Base Prospectus or (ii) the acts or omissions of JFM or any other person (other than the relevant Dealer) in connection with the issue and offering of the Notes. Neither the delivery of this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms, nor the offering, sale or delivery of any Note shall, in any circumstances, create any implication that the information contained in this Base Prospectus is true subsequent to the date hereof or the date upon which this Base Prospectus has been most recently amended or supplemented or that there has been no adverse change, or any event reasonably likely to involve any adverse change, in the prospects or financial or trading position of JFM since the date thereof or, if later, the date upon which this Base Prospectus has been most recently amended or supplemented or that any other information supplied in connection with the Programme is correct at any time subsequent to the date on which it is supplied or, if different, the date indicated in the document containing the same.

Product Governance under Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended): A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the "EU MiFID Product Governance Rules"), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the EU MiFID Product Governance Rules. The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "EU MiFID II Product Governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a "distributor") should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, "EU MiFID II") is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

Product Governance under UK MiFIR: A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the UK MiFIR product governance rules set out in the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the "UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules"), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules. The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "UK MiFIR Product Governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any distributor should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

The distribution of this Base Prospectus and any Final Terms and the offering, sale and delivery of the Notes in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms comes are required by JFM and the Dealers to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. For a description of certain restrictions on offers, sales and deliveries of Notes and on the distribution of this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms and other offering material relating to the Notes, see "Subscription and Sale". In particular, the Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act or with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States, and Bearer Notes are subject to U.S. tax law requirements. The Notes may not be offered, sold, or in the case of Bearer Notes, delivered within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S) except in certain transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

The Notes may be offered and sold (A) as Bearer Notes or Registered Notes outside the United States to non-U.S. persons in reliance on Regulation S ("Regulation S Only Note Offerings") or (B) in registered form outside the United States to non-U.S. person in reliance on Regulation S and within the United States to qualified institutional buyers (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act ("Rule 144A")) in reliance on Rule 144A ("Rule 144A and Regulation S Note Offerings"). Prospective purchasers are hereby notified that sellers of the Notes may be relying on the exemption from the provisions of Section 5 of the Securities Act provided by Rule 144A. For a description of these and certain further restrictions on offers, sales and transfers of Notes, see "Subscription and Sale" and "Transfer Restrictions".

THE PROGRAMME AND THE NOTES HAVE NOT BEEN APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED BY THE U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION (THE "SEC"), ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION IN THE UNITED STATES OR ANY OTHER U.S. REGULATORY AUTHORITY, NOR HAS ANY OF THE FOREGOING AUTHORITIES PASSED UPON OR ENDORSED THE MERITS OF ANY OFFERING OF NOTES OR THE ACCURACY OR ADEQUACY OF THIS BASE PROSPECTUS. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENCE IN THE UNITED STATES.

This Base Prospectus has been prepared on the basis that, except to the extent sub-paragraph (ii) below may apply, any offer of Notes in any Member State of the European Economic Area (the "EEA") or the United Kingdom (a "Relevant State") will be made pursuant to an exemption under Prospectus Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the "EU Prospectus Regulation") or the Prospectus Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (as it forms part of domestic law in the United Kingdom by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018) (the "UK Prospectus Regulation"), as applicable, from the requirement to publish a prospectus for offers of Notes. Accordingly, any person making or intending to make an offer in a Relevant State of Notes which are the subject of an offering contemplated in this Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms in relation to the offer of those Notes may only do so (i) in circumstances in which no obligation arises for JFM or any Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to the EU Prospectus Regulation or the UK Prospectus Regulation, as applicable, or supplement a prospectus pursuant to the EU Prospectus Regulation or the UK Prospectus Regulation, as applicable, in each case, in relation to such offer, or (ii) if a prospectus for such offer has been approved by the competent authority in that Relevant State or, where appropriate, approved in another Relevant State and notified to the competent authority in that Relevant State and (in either case) published, all in accordance with the EU Prospectus Regulation or the UK Prospectus Regulation, as applicable, provided that such offer is made in the period beginning and ending on the dates specified for such purpose in such prospectus, and JFM has consented in writing to its use for the purpose of such offer. Except to the extent subparagraph (ii) above may apply, neither JFM nor any Dealer have authorised, nor do they authorise, the making of any offer of Notes in circumstances in which an obligation arises for JFM or any Dealer to publish or supplement a prospectus for such offer.

IMPORTANT – PROHIBITION OF SALES TO EEA RETAIL INVESTORS: The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the EEA. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of EU MiFID II; or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of EU MiFID II. Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No. 1286/2014 (the "EU PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the EU PRIIPs Regulation.

IMPORTANT – PROHIBITION OF SALES TO UK RETAIL INVESTORS: The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom ("UK"). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No. 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (the "EUWA"); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, as amended ("FSMA") and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No. 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA. Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No. 1286/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the "UK PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

Notes issued as "green bonds": None of the Dealers accepts any responsibility for any environmental assessment of any Notes issued as "green bonds" or makes any representation or warranty or assurance whether such Notes will meet any investor expectations or requirements regarding such "green" or similar labels. None of the Dealers is responsible for the use or allocation of proceeds for any Notes issued as "green bonds", nor the impact or monitoring of such use of proceeds nor do any of the Dealers undertake to ensure that there are at any time sufficient eligible projects or financings, as described in the relevant Final Terms ("Eligible Projects") to allow for allocation of a sum equal to the net proceeds of the issue of such Notes issued as "green bonds" in full. No representation or assurance is given by the Dealers as to the suitability or reliability of any opinion or certification of any third party made available in connection with an issue of Notes issued as "green bonds", nor is any such opinion or certification a recommendation by any Dealer to buy, sell or hold any such Notes. In the event any such Notes are, or are intended to be, listed, or admitted to trading on a dedicated "green" or other equivalently-labelled segment of a stock exchange or securities market, no representation or assurance is given by the Dealers that such listing or admission will be obtained or maintained for the lifetime of the Notes.

PRODUCT CLASSIFICATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 309B OF THE SECURITIES AND FUTURES ACT 2001 OF SINGAPORE: The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "Singapore Securities and Futures Act Product Classification" which will state the product classification of the Notes pursuant to section 309B(1) of the Securities and Futures Act 2001 (the "SFA"). JFM will make a determination and provide the appropriate written notification to "relevant persons" in relation to each issue about the classification of the Notes being offered for the purposes of section 309B(1)(a) and section 309B(1)(c) of the SFA.

The Notes are exempt from the requirement for registration under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan (Law No. 25 of 1948, as amended, the "Financial Instruments and Exchange Act") and are subject to the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation of Japan (Law No. 26 of 1957, as amended, the "Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation"). Each Dealer has represented and agreed that it has not, directly or indirectly, offered or sold, and will not, directly or indirectly, offer or sell as part of its primary distribution (boshu) at any time, any Notes to, or for the benefit of, any person other than a beneficial owner that is, (i) for Japanese tax purposes, neither (x) an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation, nor (y) an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation that in either case is a Specially-Related Party of JFM (as defined in "Taxation") or (ii) a Japanese financial institution designated in Article 6, Paragraph 11 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation.

BY SUBSCRIBING FOR THE NOTES, AN INVESTOR WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE REPRESENTED THAT IT IS A PERSON WHO FALLS INTO THE CATEGORY OF (i) OR (ii) ABOVE.

In addition, interest payments on the Notes will generally be subject to Japanese withholding tax unless it is established that the Notes are held by or for the account of a beneficial owner that falls within either clause (i) or (ii) set forth above and complies with the applicable requirement for tax exemption, or is a Japanese public corporation, a Japanese financial institution or a Japanese financial instruments business operator, etc. described in Article 3-3, Paragraph 6 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation which complies with the requirement for tax exemption under that paragraph.

JFM will not issue "Taxable Linked Securities" (securities of which the amount of interest is to be calculated by reference to certain indexes (as prescribed by the Cabinet Order under Article 6, Paragraph 4 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation) relating to JFM or a Specially-Related Party of JFM) under the Programme.

Neither this Base Prospectus nor any Final Terms constitutes an offer or an invitation to subscribe for or purchase any Notes and should not be considered as a recommendation by JFM, the Dealers or any of them that any recipient of this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms should subscribe for or purchase any Notes. Each recipient of this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms shall be taken to have made its own investigation and appraisal of the condition (financial or otherwise) of JFM.

Notice to capital market intermediaries and prospective investors pursuant to paragraph 21 of the Hong Kong SFC Code of Conduct – Important Notice to Prospective Investors: Prospective investors should be aware that certain intermediaries in the context of certain offerings of Notes pursuant to this Programme (each such offering, a "CMI Offering"), including certain Dealers, may be "capital market intermediaries" (the "CMIs") subject to Paragraph 21 of the Code of Conduct for Persons Licensed by or Registered with the Securities and Futures Commission (the "SFC Code"). This notice to prospective investors is a summary of certain obligations the SFC Code imposes on such CMIs, which require the attention and cooperation of prospective investors. Certain CMIs may also be acting as "overall coordinators" (the "OCs") for a CMI Offering and are subject to additional requirements under the SFC Code. The application of these obligations will depend on the role(s) undertaken by the relevant Dealer(s) in respect of each CMI Offering.

Prospective investors who are the directors, employees or major shareholders of JFM, a CMI or its group companies would be considered under the SFC Code as having an association (an "Association") with JFM, the CMI or the relevant group company. Prospective investors associated with JFM, or any CMI (including its group companies) should specifically disclose this when placing an order for the relevant Notes and should disclose, at the same time, if such orders may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering. Prospective investors who do not disclose their Associations are hereby deemed not to be so associated. Where prospective investors disclose their Associations but do not disclose that such order may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering, such order is hereby deemed not to negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering. Prospective investors should ensure, and by placing an order prospective investors are deemed to confirm, that orders placed are bona fide, are not inflated and do not constitute duplicated orders (i.e. two or more corresponding or identical orders placed via two or more CMIs). A rebate may be offered by the JFM to all private banks for orders they place (other than in relation to Notes subscribed by such private banks as principal whereby it is deploying its own balance sheet for onward selling to investors), payable upon closing of the relevant CMI Offering based on the principal amount of the Notes distributed by such private banks to investors. Private banks are deemed to be placing an order on a principal basis unless they inform the CMIs otherwise. As a result, private banks placing an order on a principal basis (including those deemed as placing an order as principal) will not be entitled to, and will not be paid, the rebate. Details of any such rebate will be set out in the applicable Final Terms or otherwise notified to prospective investors. If a prospective investor is an asset management arm affiliated with any relevant Dealer, such prospective investor should indicate when placing an order if it is for a fund or portfolio where the relevant Dealer or its group company has more than 50 per cent. interest, in which case it will be classified as a "proprietary order" and subject to appropriate handling by CMIs in accordance with the SFC Code and should disclose, at the same time, if such "proprietary order" may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering. Prospective investors who do not indicate this information when placing an order are hereby deemed to confirm that their order is not a "proprietary order". If a prospective investor is otherwise affiliated with any relevant Dealer, such that its order may be considered to be a "proprietary order" (pursuant to the SFC Code), such prospective investor should indicate to the relevant Dealer when placing such order. Prospective investors who do not indicate this information when placing an order are hereby deemed to confirm that their order is not a "proprietary order". Where prospective investors disclose such information but do not disclose that such "proprietary order" may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering, such "proprietary order" is hereby deemed not to negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering.

Prospective investors should be aware that certain information may be disclosed by CMIs (including private banks) which is personal and/or confidential in nature to the prospective investor. By placing an order, prospective investors are deemed to have understood and consented to the collection, disclosure, use and transfer of such information by the relevant Dealers and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, including to JFM, any OCs, relevant regulators and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, it being understood and agreed that such information shall only be used for the purpose of complying with the SFC Code, during the bookbuilding process for the relevant CMI Offering. Failure to provide such information may result in that order being rejected.

In this Base Prospectus, unless otherwise specified, references to a "Member State" are references to a Member State of the EEA, references to "¥", "Japanese yen" or "yen" are to the Japanese yen, references to "U.S.$", "U.S. dollars" or "dollars" are to United States dollars, references to "£", "GBP" or "pounds" are to pounds sterling and references to "€", "EUR" or "euro" are to the currency introduced at the start of the third stage of European economic and monetary union, and as defined in Article 2 of Council Regulation (EC) No. 974/98 of 3 May 1998 on the introduction of the euro, as amended.

In this Base Prospectus, references to the "JFM Law" are to the Japan Finance Organization for Municipalities Law of Japan (Law No. 64 of 2007, as amended).

In this Base Prospectus, "billion" means thousand million, and, in respect of the financial statements and amounts reproduced directly therefrom, where financial information is presented in millions of yen, amounts of less than one million have been rounded down to the nearest one million, and where financial information is presented in one hundred millions (one-tenth of a billion) of yen, amounts of less than one-tenth of a billion have been rounded down to the nearest one-tenth of a billion, except that, in certain cases, the rounding has been adjusted to make the total of individual figures equal to the total figure representing the aggregate of those individual figures. In cases where financial information other than those reproduced directly from the financial statements is presented in one hundred millions (one-tenth of a billion) of yen, amounts of less than one-tenth of a billion have been rounded down to the nearest one-tenth of a billion, and the total of individual figures may not equal to the total figure representing the aggregate of those individual figures. All other figures and percentages, including operating data, have been rounded up or down (in the case of percentages, to the nearest 0.1 per cent. or to the nearest 0.01 per cent.), unless otherwise specified; however, certain percentages in tables may have been rounded otherwise than to the nearest 0.1 per cent. or 0.01 per cent., as the case may be, to make the total of the relevant items equal to 100 per cent.

In connection with the issue of any Tranche of Notes, the Dealer(s) (if any) named as the Stabilising Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilising Manager(s)) in the applicable Final Terms may over allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However, stabilisation may not necessarily occur. Any stabilisation action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offer of the relevant Tranche of Notes is made and, if begun, may cease at any time, but it must end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of Notes and 60 days after the date of the allotment of the relevant Tranche of Notes. Any stabilisation action or over-allotment must be conducted by the Stabilising Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of the Stabilising Manager(s)) in accordance with all applicable laws and rules.

RISK FACTORS

Prospective investors should read the entire Base Prospectus.

Any investment in the Notes is subject to a number of risks. Prior to investing in the Notes, prospective investors should carefully consider risk factors associated with any investment in the Notes, the business of JFM and the industry in which it operates together with all other information contained in this Base Prospectus, including, in particular the risk factors described below. Words and expressions defined in the "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" below or elsewhere in this Base Prospectus have the same meanings in this section.

The following is not an exhaustive list or explanation of all risks which investors may face when making an investment in the Notes and should be used as guidance only. Additional risks and uncertainties relating to JFM that are not currently known to JFM, or that JFM currently deems immaterial, may individually or cumulatively also have a material adverse effect on the business, prospects, results of operations and/or financial position of JFM and, if any such risk should occur, the price of the Notes may decline and investors could lose all or part of their investment. Investors should consider carefully whether an investment in the Notes is suitable for them in light of the information in this Base Prospectus and their personal circumstances.

Risks Relating to JFM

JFM's business operations, results of operations and financial condition are affected by the policies of the Japanese national and local governments.

JFM is an entity established by the JFM Law, which is a national law of Japan. JFM's primary objective is to contribute to the sound operation of local government financing and to improve the welfare of local residents by providing long-term funding at low interest rates to local governments. It also supports local governments by providing them with staff training, conducting surveys and research on local government funding and dispatching experts in local government finances in response to specific requirements, so that they can efficiently and effectively raise funds from private financial institutions and other investors. JFM is the primary public financial institution for supplying long-term, low-cost financing to local governments for funding national policy targets, and it is a preferred lender to local governments for basic infrastructure-related funding. JFM loans, which accounted for approximately 17.2 per cent. of local government funding during the year ended 31 March 2023 based on the 2022 Local Government Borrowing Programme, constitute an integral part of the support system provided to local governments by the national government's Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications under its Local Government Borrowing Programme.

As an entity created to facilitate public policy, JFM's business, financial condition and results of operations are significantly affected by the policies of the Japanese national and local governments. Such policies may determine, among other things, local government borrowing requirements and are affected by many factors, including the political, socioeconomic and financial conditions and developments in Japan and of such governments. In particular, local government outlays for public works projects, shortfalls between overall outlays and tax and other revenues, extraordinary events such as natural and man-made disasters and public health crises and other factors may affect the demand of local governments for borrowing. Social policy may affect JFM's management of its assets, as illustrated by various forms of relief granted to borrowers in the wake of the Great East Japan Earthquake. Moreover, a policy change leading to a change in the JFM Law could change JFM's mandate and negatively affect its operations and other aspects of its business.

Although the national government guarantees a certain amount of bonds issued by JFM, the national government does not, without specific grant, guarantee, directly or indirectly, JFM's securities or other obligations, and the amount of JFM bonds so guaranteed has been shrinking in recent periods as only those bonds which are issued to replace bonds previously issued by the Predecessor (as defined in "Japan Finance Organization for Municipalities") may be so guaranteed. Even JFM bonds issued without a national government guarantee, however, have received credit ratings consistent with the credit rating received by national government bonds ("JGBs"). For example, according to S&P, this is largely because it considers JFM a "government-related entity" with an extremely high likelihood of extraordinary government support and accordingly link JFM's rating to that of Japan, and according to Moody's, the alignment of JFM's ratings with that of the sovereign reflects the close integration of JFM's activities with the government (sources: S&P RatingsDirect®, 22 February 2023, Moody's Credit Opinion, 14 December 2022). This view arises from JFM's important role in facilitating public policy. If the perceived likelihood of such implicit support were to fall, credit ratings of JFM and its bonds would also likely fall.

The close relationship between the national government and JFM's borrowers means that JFM's business and results of operations can be directly affected by national government policy. For example, when there have been shortfalls in local revenue sources, which have arisen in part due to local government financial conditions, the national government has allowed local governments to prepay, without penalty, higher interest rate loans from JFM and to refinance those loans at current lower interest rates, and may continue to do so, under certain conditions. In addition, it is commonly perceived that there is implicit national government support for local government bonds and loans, which permits access by local governments to cheap funding. Although such bonds and loans are not explicitly guaranteed by the national government, their issues have been authorised by the national government and there have been no substantial credit risk spreads among local government issuers. This suggests a perception of implicit national government support for local government bonds and loans, including JFM loans. Moreover, the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications has itself indicated that such bonds and loans will be reimbursed due to arrangements in place for ensuring local governments have access to financial resources necessary to make reimbursements, and for monitoring local government financial situations and ensuring local government financial soundness.

The national government's policies could change in a way that affects its relationships with JFM or the local governments. It is possible the national government could further distance itself from JFM. Moreover, in recent years, government policy has been to increase the independence of local governments, and if further steps in this direction are taken, the implicit support of local governments by the national government could be reduced.

If actual or perceived national government support for JFM or JFM's borrowers declines, this would make obtaining funds by JFM and its borrowers from the capital markets more expensive. This could negatively affect their access to liquidity and their ability to pay their obligations when they come due.

If Japanese economic conditions do not improve or if they worsen, JFM's business operations, results of operations and financial condition may be negatively affected.

Prospective investors in JFM bonds should be aware of the challenges faced by the Japanese economy.

The significant disruption in economic activity as a result of the 2019 Novel Coronavirus ("COVID-19") and the measures taken in response have had a significant negative impact on overall economic conditions in Japan, as reflected in the 3.5 per cent. year-over-year decline in nominal GDP in the year ended 31 March, 2020, according to the Cabinet Office of Japan. In the years ended 31 March, 2021 and 2022, nominal GDP increased by 2.4 per cent. and 2.0 per cent. year-over-year, respectively. In June 2023, the Cabinet Office of Japan affirmed that the Japanese economy continued to recover at a moderate pace, citing increases in private consumption, business investment and improvements in corporate profits, firms' business sentiment and the labour market. Notwithstanding recent increases in GDP, the outlook of the Japanese economy remains uncertain and economic conditions in Japan may not improve or could worsen.

While Japanese and global economies have faced challenges raised by COVID-19, a variety of other macroeconomic and geopolitical factors could weigh on economic conditions in Japan. Geopolitical instability in various parts of the world including the ongoing military conflict between Russia and Ukraine, changes to less accommodative economic policy in developed economies, material changes in regional economic or political unions or associations between countries, increased protectionism affecting trade relations globally could also contribute to economic instability in those and other regions and affect Japanese and global economic conditions. Recent inflationary pressures and supply shortages are also significantly affecting Japanese and global economic conditions, and inflation in major global economies, interest rate increases, monetary policy tightening and high levels of volatility in global financial markets are expected to continue. In December 2022, the Bank of Japan decided to modify its yield curve control policy, including allowing the upper end of its yield target range for 10-year Japanese government bonds to fluctuate in a range of up to 0.5 per cent., an increase from the previous limit of 0.25 per cent. This policy shift and any future actions or inaction by the Bank of Japan could result in increases in interest rates, which could in turn impact economic conditions in Japan. Further, certain recent developments in the global banking sector, such as regional bank failures in the United States and the acquisition of Credit Suisse Group AG by UBS Group AG, have contributed to increased volatility and uncertainty in financial markets in Japan and globally in recent months which could continue in the future.

Domestically, the long term impact of such issues as well as others on Japan's economy, trade balance and interest rates remains uncertain.

Other challenges for the Japanese economy also include an increased dependence on liquid natural gas ("LNG") and other energy imports as a result of the nuclear accident at the Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Plant and suspension of operations at other nuclear power plants. Such dependence may prove increasingly problematic for Japan as the conflict in Ukraine and related sanctions imposed against Russia by the international community impact global fuel markets and prices. Furthermore, the recent depreciation of yen against other major foreign currencies had led to increased costs of imports. Moreover, over the long term, Japan faces demographic challenges, such as an aging workforce and population decrease, and high levels of public debt and associated debt servicing payments.

If economic conditions do not improve or if they worsen, particularly in Japan, the national government may be unable to support JFM or JFM's borrowers. In addition, JFM could experience a deterioration in the credit quality of its loan portfolio and a related increase in its credit costs, which could adversely affect its results of operations and financial condition.

The COVID-19 global pandemic has had a negative impact on economic activity in Japan and worldwide which has impacted and could continue to adversely affect JFM's business, results of operations and financial condition.

The outbreak of COVID-19, which was declared by the World Health Organization as a public health emergency of international concern in January 2020 and subsequently characterised as a pandemic, has significantly and adversely affected global economic systems, global supply chains, and financial markets worldwide, causing diminished investment sentiment, sporadic volatility in global capital markets and a precipitous decline of value in stock markets around the globe. Governments around the world, including the Japanese government, have made efforts to contain the spread of COVID-19 and its multiple variants. In Japan, for example, the central and local governments imposed a number of measures to try to contain the spread of the disease, including declarations of state of emergency or other emergency measures in affected areas at various times throughout 2020 to 2022.

In January 2023, the Japanese government downgraded COVID-19 from category 2 to category 5, the category used for infectious diseases such as seasonal influenza, on its five tier severity system under the Act on the Prevention of Infectious Diseases and Medical Care for Patients with Infectious Diseases of Japan (Act No. 114 of 1998, as amended), which took effect in May 2023. This downgrade means that the Japanese government would no longer be able to declare a state of emergency or take pre-emergency measures unless the category is upgraded.

If there is a sustained material deterioration in financial markets or economic conditions as a result of any future impact of the COVID-19 pandemic or any other health crisis or pandemic that might arise in the future, particularly in Japan, the national government policy with respect to JFM or the local governments to which JFM regularly lends may change and such change may adversely affect JFM's business, results of operations and financial condition. In addition, JFM could experience a deterioration in the credit quality of its loan portfolio and a related increase in its credit costs, as well as an increase in funding costs, which could adversely affect its results of operations and financial condition. Any of these factors could have a material adverse effect on JFM's business, results of operations and financial condition.

JFM's credit rating is linked to that of Japan, which means a downgrading of Japan would likely result in a downgrading of JFM.

Due to JFM's public-sector role, for example, S&P considers JFM a "government-related entity" with an extremely high likelihood of extraordinary government support, and Moody's considers the alignment of JFM's ratings with that of the sovereign reflects the close integration of JFM's activities with the government (sources: S&P RatingsDirect®, 22 February 2023, Moody's Credit Opinion, 14 December 2022), any rating action taken with respect to Japan can be expected to impact JFM's ratings.

Japan's debt rating has been subject to downgrades and lowered rating outlooks in recent years as a result of certain factors including its fiscal deficit and economic growth. Each of those downgrades has resulted in a commensurate downgrade of JFM's rating. Currently, JGBs are rated A+ (Stable Outlook) by S&P, A (Negative Outlook) by Fitch and A1 (Stable Outlook) by Moody's. While JFM has not experienced any significant negative effects as a result of those rating actions, and while S&P revised JFM's rating outlook from Positive to Stable following the same revision to Japan's rating outlook, any future adverse rating actions may adversely affect JFM's rating, or its ability to raise funds in a desirable manner. There can be no assurance JGB ratings will not be downgraded in the future.

Investors should also note that, notwithstanding the S&P and Moody's view that JFM is a "government-related entity", JFM is not a government entity and its debts (including the Notes) are not direct or indirect obligations of Japan or guaranteed in any way by Japan.

JFM is exposed to credit risk.

JFM is exposed to credit risk, which is the risk of loss arising from a credit event, such as deterioration in the financial condition of a borrower or a counterparty, which causes an asset to lose value or become worthless. Loans and financial transactions involve credit risk. JFM makes loans exclusively to local governments. Local taxes are a major source of revenue for local governments, and some local tax items are subject to local economic conditions. Accordingly the revenue of local governments may be subject to fluctuations in the relevant local economies. There can be no assurance that JFM will not experience a credit event, including with counterparties, in the future.

JFM is exposed to various market risks.

JFM is exposed to various market risks, including the risk of loss resulting from changes in the value of assets and liabilities due to fluctuations in risk factors such as interest rates, securities prices and foreign exchange rates, and the risk of loss resulting from changes in earnings generated from assets and liabilities.

Interest Rate Risk. JFM is exposed to interest rate risk, which is the risk of loss resulting from fluctuations in interest rates, and more specifically, the risk of losses being incurred or profits decreasing from fluctuations in interest rates when there is a duration gap between assets and liabilities. Loans constitute a large part of the assets of JFM, and the maximum term to maturity of JFM loans is 40 years. However, the majority of the funds for these loans is raised through issuance of 10-year bonds. This gap exposes JFM to the interest rate risk associated with bond refinancing. In addition, JFM's results of operations could be affected more generally by a declining interest rate environment, as JFM's average interest rate on loans would decrease as existing loans with relatively high interest rates mature or are prepaid, and are refinanced by lower interest rate loans, reflecting the then current interest rate environment. Although JFM implements measures to address the interest rate risk resulting from a duration gap between lending and fundraising, there can be no assurance that such measures will always be effective in reducing such losses, and if such measures prove to be ineffective or insufficient, this could materially adversely affect JFM's profitability, results of operations and financial condition.

JFM is also exposed to "pipeline" risk. JFM generally raises funds required to finance a loan by issuing bonds prior to making the loan. Proceeds from bond issuances may not be earmarked for a particular loan. Fluctuations in interest rates between the time JFM issues bonds and the time it ultimately lends the proceeds therefrom may affect the profitability of a loan. Although JFM uses swap transactions to hedge against pipeline risk, there can be no assurance that such hedging transactions will cover all such risks.

Foreign Exchange and Other Risks. JFM is exposed to various other risks, for example foreign exchange risk, associated with bond principal and interest payments, which are generally hedged by swap transactions. JFM's investments of surplus funds are exposed to the risk of losses on the sale of securities resulting from price declines and the risk of losses on foreign currency-denominated deposits resulting from fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. Accordingly, in principle, JFM reduces the risk of price decline by holding investments until maturity, and hedges foreign exchange risk with forward foreign exchange contracts. However, there can be no assurance that such measures will always be effective.

JFM may be subject to liquidity risk.

JFM may become subject to liquidity risk, which is the risk that JFM would incur losses because of difficulty in fundraising, or because of funding at far higher interest rates than under ordinary conditions. It also includes the risk that JFM would incur losses because of the inability to conduct market transactions or because of transactions at prices far more unfavourable than under normal conditions due to market disruption or other situations.

JFM believes its current exposure to liquidity risk is low because JFM conducts daily cash and liquidity management based on quarterly cash planning, and the possibility of the occurrence of an unexpected funding shortfall is low as JFM's loans are made based on a pre-set schedule and most of the funds of JFM are raised by long-term funding. Moreover, JFM has entered into overdraft agreements with a wide range of financial institutions to prepare for unexpected funding shortfalls, and invests surplus funds only in short-term financial products. However, if severe circumstances relating to liquidity unforeseen by JFM occur, JFM's funding costs, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected. In addition, liquidity may be limited if JFM makes large allocations to a limited number of investors.

JFM is exposed to operational risk.

JFM is exposed to operational risk, which is the risk of loss resulting from inadequate operation processes, inadequate activities by management and staff, and inadequate computer systems, or from external events, and includes, among other factors, administrative risk and systems risk.

Administrative Risk. JFM is exposed to administrative risk, which is the risk of loss resulting from the neglect or inadequacy of attention by management and staff to properly conduct administrative work, accidents caused by them and violations of law by them in the course of the administrative work process. While JFM endeavours to mitigate its exposure to administrative risk by preparing operational manuals, holding educational seminars and reducing operational workload through systematisation, there can be no assurance that such measures will always be successful in preventing such losses.

Systems Risk. JFM is exposed to systems risk, which is the risk that the confidentiality, integrity and availability of information assets will be impaired as a result of computer system inadequacies or the fraudulent use of computer systems (including security breaches and hacking). JFM has established and implemented a Systems Risk Management Policy and a Systems Risk Management Standard to manage systems risk and ensure smooth business operations. JFM has also prepared a Contingency Plan to limit the scope of losses and the impact on operations and restore normal operations promptly and efficiently in the event that computer systems break down or cannot be used due to unexpected accidents, disasters or malfunctions. However, there can be no assurance that such policies, standards and plans will always be successful in effectively managing such risk.

JFM is exposed to risk of geographical concentration of its operational capabilities.

JFM has its office only in Tokyo. As a result, an earthquake or other disaster affecting Tokyo could significantly disrupt JFM's operations. JFM has prepared a Contingency Plan to minimise the scope of losses and the impact on operations and restore normal operations promptly and efficiently in the event of such disaster. Furthermore, to prepare for a contingency, JFM has an externally located backup server so that its business can be continued despite an emergency. However, there can be no assurance that such policies, standards and plans will always be successful in effectively managing such risk.

JFM's business, financial condition or results of operations may be adversely affected by changes in rating agencies' and market professionals' assessment of JFM.

JFM's business, financial condition or results of operations may be affected by changes in rating agencies' and market professionals' assessment of JFM. A downgrade in the credit ratings assigned to JFM, or negative assessments made by market professionals in respect of JFM, could have an adverse effect on JFM's business, financial condition or results of operations, including through:

- increased costs or difficulty in raising funds;
- the termination or cancellation of existing agreements; and
- the need to provide additional collateral in connection with derivatives transactions.

Credit ratings are based upon information furnished by JFM or obtained from independent sources and are subject to revision, suspension or withdrawal by the rating organisation at any time.

JFM is exposed to risk of concentration of its loan portfolio and type of borrowers.

As of 31 March 2023, 100 per cent. of JFM's outstanding loan portfolio consisted of loans to Japanese local governments. Adverse changes in the financial, economic and fiscal conditions within Japan may have significant consequences for the local government borrowers whose obligations include JFM loans, and consequently, on the credit quality of such obligations.

JFM is reliant on third parties to which it has outsourced certain functions.

JFM relies on a third-party provider for substantial parts of its IT services. Any interruption in the services of this third party or deterioration in its performance of the outsourced services could impair the timing and quality of JFM's services to its clients. Furthermore, if the contract with this third-party provider is terminated (or with any third-party provider of critical services in the future), JFM may not find alternative service providers on a timely basis or on as favourable terms or may suffer disruption as a result of the transition of functions to the new services provider. The occurrence of any of these events could adversely affect JFM's business, reputation, results of operation or financial condition.

Risks Relating to the Notes

There is no active trading market for the Notes.

Notes issued under the Programme will be new securities which may not be widely distributed and for which there is currently no active trading market (unless in the case of any particular Tranche, such Tranche is to be consolidated with and form a single series with a Tranche of Notes which is already issued). If the Notes are traded after their initial issuance, they may trade at a discount to their initial offering price, depending upon prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, general economic conditions and the financial condition of JFM. Although applications have been made to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for the Notes issued under the Programme to be admitted to listing on the Official List and to trading on the Euro MTF Market, and an application has also been made to the Tokyo Stock Exchange for the Notes issued under the Programme to be listed and traded on the TOKYO PRO-BOND Market, there is no assurance that such applications will be accepted, that any particular Tranche of Notes will be so admitted or that an active trading market will develop. Accordingly, there is no assurance as to the development or liquidity of any trading market for any particular Tranche of Notes.

The Notes may be redeemed prior to maturity.

Unless in the case of any particular Tranche of Notes the relevant Final Terms specifies otherwise, in the event that JFM would be obliged to increase the amounts payable in respect of any Notes due to any withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or on behalf of Japan or any political subdivision thereof or any authority therein or thereof having power to tax, JFM may redeem all outstanding Notes of any Series in accordance with the Conditions.

In addition, if in the case of any particular Tranche of Notes the relevant Final Terms specifies that the Notes are redeemable at JFM's option, in certain other circumstances JFM may choose to redeem the Notes at times when prevailing interest rates may be relatively low. In such circumstances an investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds in a comparable security at an effective interest rate as high as that of the relevant Notes.

Market values of notes issued at a substantial discount or premium may be volatile.

The market values of securities issued at a substantial discount or premium to their principal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of the securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

Risks related to Green Notes

Notes issued under the Programme, in respect of which an amount equal to the net proceeds is to be used exclusively to finance or re-finance eligible "green projects/businesses" ("Green Notes"), may not meet investor expectations or requirements.

The Final Terms relating to a specific Tranche of Notes may provide that it is JFM's intention to apply the proceeds of those Notes for projects that promote climate-friendly and other environmental purposes or goals.

A prospective investor should have regard to the information set out in the section "Use of Proceeds" of the Final Terms of any Green Notes and determine for itself the relevance of such information for the purpose of an investment in such Notes together with any other investigation it deems necessary.

No assurance is given that such use of proceeds will satisfy any present or future investment criteria or guidelines with which an investor is required, or intends, to comply, in particular with regard to any direct or indirect environmental impact of any project or uses.

No assurance can be given that Eligible Projects will meet investor expectations or requirements regarding such "green" or similar labels (including Regulation (EU) 2020/852 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment (the so-called "EU Taxonomy") or Regulation (EU) 2020/852 as it forms part of domestic law of the United Kingdom by virtue of the EUWA). Each prospective investor should have regard to the factors described in the relevant Final Terms and the relevant information contained in this Base Prospectus and seek advice from their independent financial adviser or other professional adviser regarding its purchase of the Notes before deciding to invest.

While it is the intention of JFM to apply the proceeds of any Notes issued as Green Notes for Eligible Projects and to report on the use of proceeds as described in the applicable Final Terms, there is no contractual obligation to do so. There can be no assurance that any such Eligible Projects will be available or capable of being implemented in the manner and timeframe anticipated and, accordingly, that JFM will be able to use the proceeds for such Eligible Projects as intended. In addition, there can be no assurance that such Eligible Projects will be completed as expected or achieve the impacts or outcomes (environmental or otherwise) originally expected or anticipated. None of a failure by JFM to allocate the proceeds of any Notes issued as Green Notes or to report on the use of proceeds for Eligible Projects as anticipated or a failure of a third party to issue (or to withdraw) any Second Party Opinion (as defined below) or any other opinion or certification in connection with an issue of Green Notes or a failure of the Notes issued as Green Notes to meet investors' expectations or requirements regarding any "green" or similar labels will constitute an Event of Default or breach of contract with respect to any of the Notes issued as Green Notes.

The net proceeds of the issue of any Green Notes which, from time to time, are not allocated as funding for Eligible Projects are intended by JFM to be held pending allocation for purposes to be set out in the relevant Final Terms.

JFM does not undertake to ensure that there are at any time sufficient Eligible Projects to allow for allocation of a sum equal to the net proceeds of the issue of such Green Notes in full.

No assurance of suitability or reliability of any Second Party Opinion or any other opinion or certification of any third party relating to any Green Notes.

Independent opinions on any Tranche of Notes ("Second Party Opinions") may be issued from time to time. Such Second Party Opinions are expected to provide opinions on certain environmental and related considerations, which is a statement of opinion, not a statement of fact. No representation or assurance is given as to the suitability or reliability of such Second Party Opinions or any opinions or certifications of any third party made available in connection with an issue of Notes issued as Green Notes. Such Second Party Opinions and any other such opinions or certifications are not intended to address any credit, market or other aspects of any investment in any Note, including without limitation market price, marketability, investor preference or suitability of any security or any other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. Such Second Party Opinions and any other opinions or certifications are not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold any such Notes and is current only as of the date it is issued. The criteria and/or considerations that form the basis of such Second Party Opinions and any other such opinions or certifications may change at any time and such Second Party Opinions may be amended, updated, supplemented, replaced and/or withdrawn. Prospective investors must determine for themselves the relevance of any such opinions or certifications and/or the information contained therein. Such Second Party Opinions and any other such opinions or certifications do not form part of, nor are incorporated by reference, in this Base Prospectus.

No assurance that Green Notes will be admitted to trading on any dedicated "green" (or similar) segment of any stock exchange or market, or that any admission obtained will be maintained.

In the event that any such Notes are listed or admitted to trading on a dedicated "green" or other equivalently-labelled segment of a stock exchange or securities market or are included in any dedicated "green" or other equivalently-labelled index, no representation or assurance is given that such listing or admission satisfies any present or future investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor is required, or intends, to comply. Furthermore, it should be noted that the criteria for any such listings or admission to trading may vary from one stock exchange or securities market to another. No representation or assurance is given or made that any such listing or admission to trading will be obtained in respect of any such Notes or that any such listing or admission to trading will be maintained during the life of the Notes.

If any of the risks outlined in this risk factor were to materialise this may have a material adverse effect on the value of such Notes and/or may have material adverse consequences for certain investors with portfolio mandates to invest in green assets (which consequences may include the need to sell the Notes as a result of the Notes not falling within the investor's investment criteria or mandate).

Green Notes are not linked to the performance of the Eligible Projects, do not benefit from any arrangements to enhance the performance of the Notes or any contractual rights derived solely from the intended use of proceeds of such Notes.

The performance of the Green Notes is not linked to the performance of the relevant Eligible Projects or the performance of JFM in respect of any environmental or similar targets. Consequently, neither payments of principal and/or interest on the Green Notes nor any rights of Noteholders shall depend on the performance of the relevant Eligible Projects or the performance of JFM in respect of any such environmental or similar targets. Holders of any Green Notes shall have no preferential rights or priority against the assets of any Eligible Projects nor benefit from any arrangements to enhance the performance of the Notes.

Risks relating to benchmark rates and risk-free rates (including overnight rates)

Certain benchmark rates, including EURIBOR, may be discontinued or reformed in the future.

The Euro Interbank Offered Rate ("EURIBOR") and other interest rates or other types of rates and indices which are deemed to be benchmarks are the subject of ongoing national and international regulatory discussions and proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective whilst others are still to be implemented.

Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011 (the "EU Benchmarks Regulation") applies, subject to certain transitional provisions, to the provision of benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a benchmark and the use of a benchmark, within the European Union. Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011 as it forms part of domestic law of the United Kingdom by virtue of the EUWA (the "UK Benchmarks Regulation") applies to the provision of benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a benchmark and the use of a benchmark, within the UK. The EU Benchmarks Regulation or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable, could have a material impact on any Notes linked to EURIBOR or another benchmark rate or index, in particular, if the methodology or other terms of the benchmark are changed in order to comply with the terms of the EU Benchmarks Regulation or UK Benchmarks Regulation, and such changes could (amongst other things) have the effect of reducing or increasing the rate or level, or affecting the volatility of the published rate or level, of the benchmark. More broadly, any of the international, national or other proposals for reform, or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of benchmarks, could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements. Such factors may have the effect of discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to certain "benchmarks," trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in certain "benchmarks" or lead to the discontinuance or unavailability of quotes of certain "benchmarks".

As an example of such benchmark reforms, on 21 September 2017, the European Central Bank announced that it would be part of a new working group tasked with the identification and adoption of a "risk free overnight rate" which can serve as a basis for an alternative to current benchmarks used in a variety of financial instruments and contracts in the euro area. On 13 September 2018, the working group on Euro risk-free rates recommended the new Euro short-term rate ("€STR") as the new risk-free rate for the euro area. The €STR was published for the first time on 2 October 2019. Although EURIBOR has subsequently been reformed in order to comply with the terms of the EU Benchmarks Regulation, it remains uncertain as to how long it will continue in its current form, or whether it will be further reformed or replaced with €STR or an alternative benchmark.

The elimination of EURIBOR or any other benchmark, or changes in the manner of administration of any benchmark, could require or result in an adjustment to the interest calculation provisions of the Conditions (as further described in Condition 7 (Floating Rate Note Provisions)), or result in adverse consequences to holders of any Notes linked to such benchmark (including Floating Rate Notes whose interest rates are linked to EURIBOR or any other such benchmark that is subject to reform). Furthermore, even prior to the implementation of any changes, uncertainty as to the nature of alternative reference rates and as to potential changes to such benchmark may adversely affect such benchmark during the term of the relevant Notes, the return on the relevant Notes and the trading market for securities (including the Notes) based on the same benchmark.

The Conditions of the Notes provide for certain fallback arrangements in the event that a published benchmark, such as EURIBOR (including any page on which such benchmark may be published (or any other successor service)), becomes unavailable or a Benchmark Event (as defined in the Conditions), as applicable, otherwise occurs. Such an event may be deemed to have occurred prior to the issue date for a Series of Notes. Such fallback arrangements include the possibility that the rate of interest could be set by reference to a successor rate or an alternative rate and that such successor rate or alternative reference rate may be adjusted (if required) in accordance with the recommendation of a relevant governmental body or in order to reduce or eliminate, to the extent reasonably practicable in the circumstances, any economic prejudice or benefit (as applicable) to investors arising out of the replacement of the relevant benchmark, although the application of such adjustments to the Notes may not achieve this objective. The circumstances which could trigger such adjustments are beyond JFM's control and the subsequent use of a replacement benchmark may result in changes to the Conditions (which could be extensive and include technical, administrative or operational changes) and/or interest payments that are lower than or that do not otherwise correlate over time with the payments that could have been made on the relevant Notes if the relevant benchmark remained available in its current form. Furthermore, such adjustment may not be applied, if such adjustment is unable to be determined. Any such changes may result in the Notes performing differently (which may include payment of a lower interest rate) than if the original benchmark continued to apply. There is no assurance that the characteristics of any replacement benchmark would be similar to the affected benchmark or that any replacement benchmark would produce the economic equivalent of the affected benchmark or would be a suitable replacement for the affected benchmark. The choice of replacement benchmark is uncertain and could result in the use of risk-free rates (for which the market continues to develop) and/or in the replacement benchmark being unavailable or indeterminable. In certain circumstances the ultimate fallback of interest for a particular Interest Period may result in the rate of interest for the last preceding Interest Period being used. This may result in the effective application of a fixed rate for Floating Rate Notes based on the rate which was last observed on the Relevant Screen Page or the Initial Rate of Interest.

In addition, due to the uncertainty concerning the availability of successor rates and alternative reference rates and the involvement of an Independent Adviser (as defined in the Conditions) in certain circumstances, the relevant fallback provisions may not operate as intended at the relevant time.

The Conditions may require the exercise of discretion by JFM, its designee or an Independent Adviser, as the case may be, and the making of potentially subjective judgments (including as to the occurrence or non-occurrence of any events which may trigger amendments to the Conditions) and/or the amendment of the Conditions without the consent of Holders. The interests of JFM or those of its designee or the Independent Adviser, as applicable, in making such determinations or amendments may be adverse to the interests of the Holders.

Any such consequences could have a material adverse effect on the market value or liquidity of and the amount payable under on any such Notes.

Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks imposed by the EU Benchmarks Regulation and the UK Benchmarks Regulation reforms or arising from the possible cessation or reform of certain reference rates in making any investment decision with respect to any Notes linked to or referencing a benchmark.

The market continues to develop in relation to risk-free rates (including overnight rates) as reference rates for Floating Rate Notes.

The use of risk-free rates, including those such as the Sterling Overnight Index Average ("SONIA"), the Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR") and the euro short-term rate ("€STR"), as reference rates for international bonds continues to develop. This relates not only to the substance of the calculation and the development and adoption of market infrastructure for the issuance and trading of bonds referencing such rates, but also how widely such rates and methodologies might be adopted.

The market or a significant part thereof may adopt an application of risk-free rates that differs significantly from that set out in the Conditions and used in relation to Notes that reference risk-free rates issued under this Programme. JFM may in the future also issue Notes referencing SONIA, SONIA Compounded Index (as defined in the Conditions), SOFR, SOFR Compounded Index (as defined in the Conditions) or €STR that differ materially in terms of interest determination when compared with any previous Notes issued by it under this Programme. In particular, because risk-free rates does not measure bank-specific credit risk, it is less likely to correlate with the short-term funding costs of banks, which may mean that market participants would not consider certain risk-free rates a suitable substitute or successor for all of the purposes for any previous benchmark historically used (including, without limitation, as a representation of the short-term funding costs of banks), which may, in turn, lessen market acceptance of such risk-free rates. The development of risk-free rates for the international bond markets or any failure of risk-free rates to gain market acceptance could result in reduced liquidity or increased volatility, or could otherwise affect the market price of any Notes that reference a risk-free rate issued under this Programme from time to time.

In addition, the manner of adoption or application of risk-free rates in the international bond markets may differ materially compared with the application and adoption of risk-free rates in other markets, such as the derivatives and loan markets. Investors should carefully consider how any mismatch between the adoption of such reference rates in the bond, loan and derivatives markets may impact any hedging or other financial arrangements which they may put in place in connection with any acquisition, holding or disposal of Notes referencing such risk-free rates.

In particular, investors should be aware that several different methodologies have been used in risk-free rate notes issued to date. No assurance can be given that any particular methodology, including the compounding formula in the terms and conditions of the Notes, will gain widespread market acceptance. In addition, market participants and relevant working groups are still exploring alternative reference rates based on risk-free rates, including various ways to produce term versions of certain risk-free rates (which seek to measure the market's forward expectation of an average of these reference rates over a designated term, as they are overnight rates) or different measures of such risk-free rates. If the relevant risk-free rates do not prove to be widely used in securities like the Notes, the trading price of such Notes linked to such risk-free rates may be lower than those of Notes referencing indices that are more widely used.

Investors should consider these matters when making their investment decision with respect to any Notes which reference SONIA, SONIA Compounded Index, SOFR, SOFR Compounded Index or €STR. Investors should also bear in mind that the above factors highlighted in relation to SONIA, SONIA Compounded Index, SOFR, SOFR Compounded Index and €STR may apply equally to the use of any other risk-free rates used by JFM.

Risk-free rates may differ from LIBOR and other inter-bank offered rates in a number of material respects and have a limited history.

Risk-free rates may differ from the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") and other inter-bank offered rates in a number of material respects. These include (without limitation) being backwards-looking, in most cases, calculated on a compounded or weighted average basis, risk-free (in the sense such rates do not include the credit risks of commercial banks), overnight rates and, in the case of SOFR, secured, whereas such interbank offered rates are generally expressed on the basis of a forward-looking term, are unsecured and include a risk-element based on interbank lending. As such, investors should be aware that risk-free rates are not the economic equivalent of, and may behave materially differently to, interbank offered rates as interest reference rates for the Notes including, without limitation, as a result of changes in interest and yield rates in the market, bank credit risk, market volatility or global or regional economic, financial, political, geopolitical, regulatory, judicial or other events. Furthermore, SOFR is a secured rate that represents overnight secured funding transactions, and therefore will perform differently over time to an unsecured rate. For example, since publication of SOFR began on 3 April 2018, daily changes in SOFR have, on occasion, been more volatile than daily changes in comparable benchmarks or other market rates.

Risk-free rates offered as alternatives to interbank offered rates also have a limited history. For that reason, future performance of such rates may be difficult to predict based on their limited historical performance. The level of such rates during the term of the Notes may bear little or no relation to historical levels. Prior observed patterns, if any, in the behaviour of market variables and their relation to such rates such as correlations, may change in the future. Investors should not rely on historical performance data as an indicator of the future performance of such risk-free rates nor should they rely on any hypothetical data.

Furthermore, interest on Notes which reference a backwards-looking risk-free rate is only capable of being determined immediately prior to the relevant Interest Payment Date. It may be difficult for investors in Notes which reference such risk-free rates reliably to estimate the amount of interest which will be payable on such Notes, and some investors may be unable or unwilling to trade such Notes without changes to their IT systems, both of which could adversely impact the liquidity of such Notes. In addition, since SONIA, SONIA Compounded Index, SOFR, SOFR Compounded Index and €STR are relatively new reference rates, Notes referencing such risk-free rates may have no established trading market when issued, and an established trading market may never develop or may not be very liquid. If SONIA, SONIA Compounded Index, SOFR, SOFR Compounded Index or €STR does not prove to be widely used as a benchmark in securities that are similar or comparable to Notes referencing SONIA, SONIA Compounded Index, SOFR, SOFR Compounded Index or €STR, pricing volatility and market risk related to such Notes may increase. The trading price of such Notes may be lower than those of securities that are linked to rates that are more widely used. Further, in contrast to Notes linked to interbank offered rates, if Notes referencing backwards-looking rates become due and payable as a result of an Event of Default under Condition 13 (Events of Default), or are otherwise redeemed early on a date which is not an Interest Payment Date, the final

Rate of Interest payable in respect of such Notes shall be determined by reference to a shortened period ending immediately prior to the date on which the Notes become due and payable or are scheduled for redemption.

The administrator of SONIA (and SONIA Compounded Index), SOFR (and SOFR Compounded Index) or €STR may make changes that could change the value of SONIA, SONIA Compounded Index, SOFR, SOFR Compounded Index or €STR, or discontinue SONIA, SONIA Compounded Index, SOFR, SOFR Compounded Index or €STR.

The Bank of England, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York or the European Central Bank (or their successors) as administrators of SONIA (and SONIA Compounded Index), SOFR (and SOFR Compounded Index) or €STR, respectively, may make methodological or other changes that could change the value of these risk-free rates and/or indices, including changes related to the method by which such risk-free rate is calculated, eligibility criteria applicable to the transactions used to calculate SONIA, SONIA Compounded Index, SOFR, SOFR Compounded Index or €STR, or timing related to the publication of SONIA, SONIA Compounded Index, SOFR, SOFR Compounded Index or €STR. If the manner in which SONIA, SOFR or €STR is calculated is changed, that change may result in a reduction in the amount of interest that accrues on Notes which reference such risk-free rates, which may adversely affect the trading price of such Notes. In addition, the administrator may alter, discontinue or suspend calculation or dissemination of SONIA, SONIA Compounded Index, SOFR, SOFR Compounded Index or €STR in its sole discretion and without notice, in which case a fallback method of determining the interest rate on the Notes will apply. The administrator has no obligation to consider the interests of Noteholders when calculating, adjusting, converting, revising or discontinuing any such risk-free rate.

Because the Global Notes are held by or on behalf of DTC or Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable, investors will have to rely on their procedures for transfer, payment and communication with JFM.

Notes issued under the Programme may be represented by one or more Global Notes. Such Global Notes will be registered in the name of Cede & Co. (or such other entity as is specified in the applicable Final Terms) as nominee for DTC or deposited with a common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. Except in the circumstances described in the relevant Global Note, investors will not be entitled to receive definitive Notes. DTC or Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable, will maintain records of the beneficial interests in the Global Notes. While the Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes, investors will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through DTC or Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable.

While the Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes, JFM will discharge its payment obligations under the Notes by making payments through DTC or Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable, for distribution to their account holders. A holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Note must rely on the procedures of DTC or Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable, to receive payments under the relevant Notes. JFM has no responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of, beneficial interests in the Global Notes.

Holders of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will not have a direct right to vote in respect of the relevant Notes. Instead, such holders will be permitted to act only to the extent that they are enabled by DTC or Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable, to appoint appropriate proxies. Similarly, holders of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will not have a direct right under the Global Notes to take enforcement action against JFM in the event of a default under the relevant Notes but will have to rely upon their rights under the Deed of Covenant.

Notes may be issued with a minimum denomination.

Notes may be issued with a minimum denomination. The Final Terms of a Tranche of Notes may provide that, for so long as the Notes are represented by a Global Note and DTC or Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (or any other relevant clearing system), as applicable, so permit, the Notes will be tradable in principal amounts (a) equal to, or integral multiples of, the minimum denomination, and (b) equal to the minimum denomination plus integral multiples of an amount lower than the minimum denomination.

Where the Final Terms specifies that the Permanent Global Note will be exchangeable "only in the limited circumstances described in the Permanent Global Note", Definitive Notes will only be issued if (a) Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg (or other relevant clearing system), as applicable, is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or (b) any of the circumstances described in Condition 13 (Events of Default) occurs. The Final Terms may provide that, if Definitive Notes are issued, such Notes will be issued in respect of all holdings of Notes equal to or greater than the minimum denomination. However, Noteholders should be aware that Definitive Notes that have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade. Definitive Notes will under no circumstances be issued to any person holding Notes in an amount lower than the minimum denomination.

Credit ratings may not reflect all risks.

One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to an issue of Notes. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market factors, additional factors discussed above, and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be suspended, revised or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

Any adverse change in an applicable credit rating could adversely affect the trading price for the Notes.

The Notes have been assigned a provisional rating of "(P)A1" by Moody's and a rating of "A+" by S&P. Tranches of Notes issued under the Programme may be rated or unrated. Where a Tranche of Notes is to be rated, such rating will not necessarily be the same as the ratings described above. Any adverse change in an applicable credit rating could adversely affect the trading price for the Notes issued under the Programme.

ENFORCEMENT OF FOREIGN JUDGMENTS

JFM is an entity in Japan capitalised only by local governments under the laws of Japan. All of the directors and officers of JFM reside in Japan. All or a substantial portion of the assets of JFM and of such directors and officers are located in Japan. As a result, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process within the United States or elsewhere outside Japan upon JFM or its directors and officers or to enforce against JFM or such persons judgments obtained in U.S. courts, whether predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the U.S. federal or state securities laws or other laws of the United States or elsewhere. JFM has been advised by its Japanese counsel, Nagashima Ohno & Tsunematsu, that in original actions or in actions for enforcement of judgments of U.S. courts brought before Japanese courts, there is doubt as to the enforceability in Japan of liabilities based solely on U.S. federal and state securities laws.

AVAILABLE INFORMATION

JFM has agreed that, for so long as any Notes are "restricted securities" as defined in Rule 144(a)(3) under the Securities Act, it will, during any period that it is neither subject to Sections 13 or 15(d) of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") nor exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) thereunder, furnish, upon request, to any holder or beneficial owner of Notes or any prospective purchaser designated by any such holder or beneficial owner, the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

Status of the Notes:

JFM will not, so long as any of the Notes remain outstanding, create any mortgage, charge, pledge or other security interest (other than certain permitted security interests) upon the whole or any part of its property, assets or revenues, present or future, to secure (i) any payment due in respect of certain external indebtedness issued by it, or (ii) any payment under any guarantee of external indebtedness or indemnity relating to external indebtedness, without at the same time according to the Notes the same security as is granted to or is outstanding in respect of such external indebtedness or such guarantee or indemnity, or securing the Notes by such other security as shall be approved by an extraordinary resolution of Noteholders.

The Notes are (subject to the negative pledge as described above) direct, unconditional and (subject to the negative pledge as described above) unsecured obligations of JFM and rank pari passu and rateably without any preference among themselves and rank at least equally with all other unsecured indebtedness of JFM with the exception of certain preferential rights from time to time outstanding. Under the JFM Law, all holders of bonds and notes (including the Notes) issued by JFM have a preferential right to be paid prior to other unsecured indebtedness, and such preferential right shall rank immediately after the general preferential rights (ippan sakidori tokken) as provided for in the Civil Code of Japan (Law No. 89 of 1896, as amended).

General preferential rights (ippan sakidori tokken) as provided for in the Civil Code of Japan include, among others, expenses for the common benefit and employees' right to wages.

Where TEFRA D is applicable, Bearer Notes must initially be issued in the form of Temporary Global Notes, exchangeable for Permanent Global Notes or Definitive Notes upon certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

FORMS OF THE NOTES

Bearer Notes

Each Tranche of Notes in bearer form ("Bearer Notes") will initially be in the form of either a temporary global note in bearer form (the "Temporary Global Note"), without interest coupons, or a permanent global note in bearer form (the "Permanent Global Note"), without interest coupons, in each case as specified in the relevant Final Terms. Each Temporary Global Note or, as the case may be, Permanent Global Note (each a "Global Note") which is not intended to be issued in NGN form, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will be deposited on or around the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes with a depositary or a common depositary for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and each Global Note which is intended to be issued in NGN form, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will be deposited on or around the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes with a common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg.

On 13 June 2006 the European Central Bank (the "ECB") announced that Notes in NGN form are in compliance with the "Standards for the use of EU securities settlement systems in ESCB credit operations" of the central banking system for the euro (the "Eurosystem"), provided that certain other criteria are fulfilled. At the same time the ECB also announced that arrangements for Notes in NGN form will be offered by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as of 30 June 2006 and that debt securities in global bearer form issued through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg after 31 December 2006 will only be eligible as collateral for Eurosystem operations if the NGN form is used. Even if the Notes are intended to be held in a manner which would allow Eurosystem eligibility, the Notes may not be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue or at any or all times during their life. Such recognition will depend upon the ECB being satisfied that Eurosystem eligibility criteria have been met. If the Notes are recognised as eligible as collateral for Eurosystem operations, the Notes will be deposited initially upon issue with one of the ICSDs acting as common safekeeper or a non-ICSD common safekeeper.

Bearer Notes will be issued in compliance with the TEFRA D Rules unless (i) the relevant Final Terms states that the Bearer Notes are issued in compliance with the TEFRA C Rules or (ii) the Bearer Notes are issued other than in compliance with the TEFRA D Rules or the TEFRA C Rules; only Bearer Notes with a term of 365 days or less (taking into account any unilateral right to rollover or extend the term) may be issued other than in compliance with the TEFRA D Rules or the TEFRA C Rules, which will be referred to in the relevant Final Terms as a transaction to which TEFRA is not applicable. Where TEFRA D is applicable, Bearer Notes must initially be issued in the form of Temporary Global Notes, exchangeable for Permanent Global Notes or Definitive Notes upon certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

Temporary Global Note exchangeable for a Permanent Global Note

If the relevant Final Terms specifies the form of Notes as being "Temporary Global Note exchangeable for a Permanent Global Note", then the Notes will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Note which will be exchangeable, in whole or in part, for interests in a Permanent Global Note, without interest coupons, after the 40th day after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes (the "Exchange Date"), in the case of Notes issued in accordance with the TEFRA D Rules, upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership. No payments will be made under the Temporary Global Note unless exchange for interests in the Permanent Global Note is improperly withheld or refused. In addition, after the Exchange Date interest payments in respect of Notes issued in accordance with the TEFRA D Rules cannot be collected without such certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

Whenever any interest in the Temporary Global Note is to be exchanged for an interest in a Permanent Global Note, JFM shall procure (in the case of first exchange) the delivery of a Permanent Global Note to the bearer of the Temporary Global Note or (in the case of any subsequent exchange) an increase in the principal amount of the Permanent Global Note in accordance with its terms against:

- (i) presentation and (in the case of final exchange) surrender of the Temporary Global Note outside the United States to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent; and
- (ii) if the relevant Final Terms specifies that the TEFRA D Rules are applicable, receipt by the Fiscal Agent of a certificate or certificates of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

The principal amount of Notes represented by the Permanent Global Note shall be equal to the aggregate of the principal amounts of the interests in the Temporary Global Note delivered in exchange therefor in accordance with the terms of the Temporary Global Note, including, in the case of Notes issued in accordance with the TEFRA D Rules, required certificates of non-U.S. beneficial ownership; provided, however, that in no circumstances shall the principal amount of Notes represented by the Permanent Global Note exceed the initial principal amount of Notes represented by the Temporary Global Note.

If:

- (a) the Permanent Global Note has not been delivered or the principal amount thereof has not been increased by 5.00 p.m. (London time) on the seventh day after the bearer of the Temporary Global Note has requested exchange of an interest in the Temporary Global Note for an interest in a Permanent Global Note in accordance with the terms of the Temporary Global Note; or
- (b) the Temporary Global Note (or any part thereof) has become due and payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Notes or the date for final redemption of the Temporary Global Note has occurred and, in either case, payment in full of the amount of principal falling due with all accrued interest thereon has not been made to the bearer of the Temporary Global Note in accordance with the terms of the Temporary Global Note on the due date for payment, then the Temporary Global Note (including the obligation to deliver a Permanent Global Note) will become void at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such seventh day (in the case of (a) above) or at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such due date (in the case of (b) above) and the bearer of the Temporary Global Note will have no further rights thereunder (but without prejudice to the rights which the bearer of the Temporary Global Note or others may have under the Deed of Covenant).

The Permanent Global Note will become exchangeable, in whole but not in part only, at the request of the bearer of the Permanent Global Note, for Bearer Notes in definitive form ("Definitive Notes"):

- (a) on the expiry of such period of notice as may be specified in the Final Terms; or
- (b) at any time, if so specified in the Final Terms; or
- (c) if the Final Terms specifies "in the limited circumstances described in the Permanent Global Note", then if either of the following events occurs:
 - (i) Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business; or
 - (ii) any of the circumstances described in Condition 13 (Events of Default) occurs.

Whenever the Permanent Global Note is to be exchanged for Definitive Notes, JFM shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Notes, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of Notes represented by the Permanent Global Note to the bearer of the Permanent Global Note against the surrender of the Permanent Global Note to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

If:

- (a) Definitive Notes have not been duly delivered by 5.00 p.m. (London time) on the thirtieth day after the bearer has requested exchange of the Permanent Global Note for Definitive Notes; or
- (b) the Permanent Global Note was originally issued in exchange for part only of a Temporary Global Note representing the Notes and such Temporary Global Note becomes void in accordance with its terms; or
- (c) the Permanent Global Note (or any part thereof) has become due and payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Notes or the date for final redemption of the Permanent Global Note has occurred and, in either case, payment in full of the amount of principal falling due with all accrued interest thereon has not been made to the bearer in accordance with the terms of the Permanent Global Note on the due date for payment, then the Permanent Global Note (including the obligation to deliver Definitive Notes) will become void at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such thirtieth day (in the case of (a) above) or at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on the date on which such Temporary Global Note becomes void (in the case of (b) above) or at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such due date ((c) above) and the bearer of the Permanent Global Note will have no further rights thereunder (but without prejudice to the rights which the bearer of the Permanent Global Note or others may have under the Deed of Covenant).

Temporary Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes

If the relevant Final Terms specifies the form of Notes as being "Temporary Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes" and also specifies that the TEFRA C Rules are applicable or that neither the TEFRA C Rules or the TEFRA D Rules are applicable, then the Notes will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Note which will be exchangeable, in whole but not in part, for Definitive Notes not earlier than 40 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes.

If the relevant Final Terms specifies the form of Notes as being "Temporary Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes" and also specifies that the TEFRA D Rules are applicable, then the Notes will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Note which will be exchangeable, in whole or in part, for Definitive Notes after the 40th day after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership. Interest payments in respect of the Notes cannot be collected without such certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

Whenever the Temporary Global Note is to be exchanged for Definitive Notes, JFM shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Notes, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Temporary Global Note to the bearer of the Temporary Global Note against the surrender of the Temporary Global Note to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

If:

- (a) Definitive Notes have not been duly delivered by 5.00 p.m. (London time) on the thirtieth day after the bearer has requested exchange of the Temporary Global Note for Definitive Notes in accordance with the terms of the Temporary Global Note; or
- (b) the Temporary Global Note (or any part thereof) has become due and payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Notes or the date for final redemption of the Temporary Global Note has occurred and, in either case, payment in full of the amount of principal falling due with all accrued interest thereon has not been made to the bearer in accordance with the terms of the Temporary Global Note on the due date for payment, then the Temporary Global Note (including the obligation to deliver Definitive Notes) will become void at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such thirtieth day (in the case of (a) above) or at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such due date (in the case of (b) above) and the bearer of the Temporary Global Note will have no further rights thereunder (but without prejudice to the rights which the bearer of the Temporary Global Note or others may have under the Deed of Covenant).

In relation to any issue of Notes which are expressed to be Temporary Global Notes exchangeable for Definitive Notes on or about the exchange date other than in the limited circumstances specified in the Temporary Global Notes, such Notes shall be tradable only in principal amounts of at least the Specified Denomination (or if more than one Specified Denomination, the lowest Specified Denomination) and integral multiples thereof.

Permanent Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes

If the relevant Final Terms specifies the form of Notes as being "Permanent Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes", then the Notes will initially be in the form of a Permanent Global Note which will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for Definitive Notes:

- (a) on the expiry of such period of notice as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms; or

- (b) at any time, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (c) if the relevant Final Terms specifies "in the limited circumstances described in the Permanent Global Note", then if either of the following events occurs:
 - (i) Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business; or
 - (ii) any of the circumstances described in Condition 13 (Events of Default) occurs.

Whenever the Permanent Global Note is to be exchanged for Definitive Notes, JFM shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Notes, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of Notes represented by the Permanent Global Note to the bearer of the Permanent Global Note against the surrender of the Permanent Global Note to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

If:

- (a) Definitive Notes have not been duly delivered by 5.00 p.m. (London time) on the thirtieth day after the bearer has requested exchange of the Permanent Global Note for Definitive Notes in accordance with the terms of the Permanent Global Note; or
- (b) the Permanent Global Note (or any part thereof) has become due and payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Notes or the date for final redemption of the Permanent Global Note has occurred and, in either case, payment in full of the amount of principal falling due with all accrued interest thereon has not been made to the bearer in accordance with the terms of the Permanent Global Note on the due date for payment,

then the Permanent Global Note (including the obligation to deliver Definitive Notes) will become void at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such thirtieth day (in the case of (a) above) or at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such due date ((b) above) and the bearer of the Permanent Global Note will have no further rights thereunder (but without prejudice to the rights which the bearer of the Permanent Global Note or others may have under the Deed of Covenant).

In relation to any issue of Notes which are expressed to be Permanent Global Notes exchangeable for Definitive Notes on or about the exchange date other than in the limited circumstances specified in the Permanent Global Notes, such Notes shall be tradable only in principal amounts of at least the Specified Denomination (or if more than one Specified Denomination, the lowest Specified Denomination) and integral multiples thereof.

Rights under the Deed of Covenant

Under the Deed of Covenant, each Accountholder (as defined under "Summary of Provisions Relating to the Notes while in Global Form – Clearing System Accountholders") shown in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system as being entitled to an interest in a Temporary Global Note or a Permanent Global Note which becomes void will acquire directly against JFM all those rights to which they would have been entitled if, immediately before the Temporary Global Note or Permanent Global Note became void, they had been the holders of Definitive Notes in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of Notes they were shown as holding in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system.

Terms and Conditions applicable to the Notes

The terms and conditions applicable to any Definitive Note will be endorsed on that Note and will consist of the terms and conditions set out under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" below and the provisions of the relevant Final Terms which supplement, amend and/or replace those terms and conditions.

The terms and conditions applicable to any Note in global form will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Note were it in definitive form to the extent described under "Summary of Provisions Relating to the Notes while in Global Form" below.

Legend concerning United States persons

In the case of any Tranche of Bearer Notes having a maturity of more than 365 days (taking into account any unilateral right to rollover or extend the term), the Notes in global form, the Notes in definitive form and any Coupons and Talons appertaining thereto will bear a legend to the following effect:

"Any United States person who holds this obligation will be subject to limitations under the United States income tax laws, including the limitations provided in Sections 165(j) and 1287(a) of the Internal Revenue Code."

Registered Notes

Each Tranche of Notes in registered form ("Registered Notes") will be in the form of either:

- (a) individual Note Certificates in registered form ("Individual Note Certificates"); or
- (b) one or more Regulation S global Note in registered form ("Regulation S Global Registered Note") in the case of Regulation S Only Note Offerings; or
- (c) one or more unrestricted global registered Note ("Unrestricted Global Registered Note") in the case of Registered Notes sold outside the United States to non-U.S. persons in reliance on Regulation S in Rule 144A and Regulation S Note Offerings ("Unrestricted Registered Notes") and/or one or more restricted global registered Note ("Restricted Global Registered Note") in the case of Registered Notes sold to QIBs in reliance on Rule 144A in Rule 144A and Regulation S Note Offerings ("Restricted Registered Notes"), in each case as specified in the relevant Final Terms, and references in this Base Prospectus to "Global Registered Notes" shall be construed as a reference to Regulation S Global Registered Notes in the case of Regulation S Only Note Offerings and Unrestricted Global Registered Notes and/or Restricted Global Registered Notes in the case of Rule 144A and Regulation S Note Offerings.

In a press release dated 22 October 2008, "Evolution of the custody arrangement for international debt securities and their eligibility in Eurosystem credit operations", the ECB announced that it has assessed the new holding structure and custody arrangements for registered notes which the ICSDs had designed in cooperation with market participants and that Notes to be held under the New Safekeeping Structure would be in compliance with the "Standards for the use of EU securities settlement systems in ESCB credit operations" of the Eurosystem, subject to the conclusion of the necessary legal and contractual arrangements. The press release also stated that the new arrangements for Notes to be held in NSS form will be offered by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as of 30 June 2010 and that registered debt securities in global registered form issued through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg after 30 September 2010 will only be eligible as collateral in Eurosystem operations if the New Safekeeping Structure is used.

Each Note represented by a Regulation S Global Registered Note will either be: (a) in the case of a Note which is not to be held under the New Safekeeping Structure, registered in the name of a common depositary (or its nominee) for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and the relevant Regulation S Global Registered Note will be deposited on or about the issue date with the common depositary; or (b) in the case of a Note to be held under the New Safekeeping Structure, be registered in the name of a common safekeeper (or its nominee) for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and the relevant Regulation S Global Registered Note will be deposited on or about the issue date with the common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Each Note represented by an Unrestricted Global Registered Note will be registered in the name of a common depositary (or its nominee) for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and the Unrestricted Global Registered Note will be deposited on or about the issue date with the common depositary. Each Note represented by a Restricted Global Registered Note will be registered in the name of Cede & Co. (or such other entity as is specified in the applicable Final Terms) as nominee for DTC and the Restricted Global Registered Note will be deposited on or about the issue date with the custodian for DTC (the "DTC Custodian").

If the relevant Final Terms specifies the form of Notes as being "Individual Note Certificates", then the Notes will at all times be in the form of Individual Note Certificates issued to each Noteholder in respect of their respective holdings.

If the relevant Final Terms specifies the form of Notes as being "Global Registered Note exchangeable for Individual Note Certificates", then the Notes will initially be in the form of a Global Registered Note which will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for Individual Note Certificates:

- (a) on the expiry of such period of notice as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (b) at any time, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (c) if the relevant Final Terms specifies "in the limited circumstances described in the Global Registered Note", then:
 - (i) in the case of any Regulation S Global Registered Note or Unrestricted Global Registered Note, if Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business;
 - (ii) in the case of any Restricted Global Registered Note held by or on behalf of DTC, if DTC notifies JFM that it is no longer willing or able to discharge properly its responsibilities as depositary with respect to the Restricted Global Registered Note or DTC ceases to be a "clearing agency" registered under the Exchange Act or if at any time DTC is no longer eligible to act as such, and JFM is unable to locate a qualified successor within 90 days of receiving notice or becoming aware of such ineligibility on the part of DTC; or
 - (iii) in any case, any of the circumstances described in Condition 13 (Events of Default) occurs.

Whenever a Global Registered Note is to be exchanged for Individual Note Certificates, each person having an interest in a Global Registered Note must provide the Registrar (through the relevant clearing system) with such information as JFM and the Registrar may require to complete and deliver Individual Note Certificates (including the name and address of each person in which the Notes represented by the Individual Note Certificates are to be registered and the principal amount of each such person's holding). In addition, whenever a Restricted Global Registered Note is to be exchanged for Individual Note Certificates, each person having an interest in the Restricted Global Registered Note must provide the Registrar (through the relevant clearing system) with a certificate given by or on behalf of the holder of each beneficial interest in the Restricted Global Registered Note stating either (i) that such holder is not transferring its interest at the time of such exchange or (ii) that the transfer or exchange of such interest has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Notes and that the person transferring such interest reasonably believes that the person acquiring such interest is a QIB and is obtaining such beneficial interest in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A. Individual Note Certificates issued in exchange for interests in the Restricted Global Registered Note will bear the legends and be subject to the transfer restrictions set out under "Transfer Restrictions".

Whenever a Global Registered Note is to be exchanged for Individual Note Certificates, JFM shall procure that Individual Note Certificates will be issued in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Global Registered Note within five business days of the delivery, by or on behalf of the registered holder of the Global Registered Note to the Registrar of such information as is required to complete and deliver such Individual Note Certificates (including, without limitation, the names and addresses of the persons in whose names the Individual Note Certificates are to be registered and the principal amount of each such person's holding) against the surrender of the Global Registered Note at the specified office of the Registrar.

Such exchange will be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Agency Agreement and the regulations concerning the transfer and registration of Notes scheduled thereto and, in particular, shall be effected without charge to any holder, but against such indemnity as the Registrar may require in respect of any tax or other duty of whatsoever nature which may be levied or imposed in connection with such exchange.

If:

- (a) Individual Note Certificates have not been delivered by 5.00 p.m. (London time) on the thirtieth day after they are due to be issued and delivered in accordance with the terms of the Global Registered Note; or

- (b) any of the Notes represented by a Global Registered Note (or any part of it) has become due and payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Notes or the date for final redemption of the Notes has occurred and, in either case, payment in full of the amount of principal falling due with all accrued interest thereon has not been made to the holder of the Global Registered Note in accordance with the terms of the Global Registered Note on the due date for payment, then, at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such thirtieth day (in the case of (a) above) or at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such due date (in the case of (b) above) each Accountholder having an interest in the Notes shall acquire under the deed of covenant (the "Deed of Covenant") rights of enforcement against JFM ("Direct Rights") to compel JFM to perform its obligations to the holder of the Global Registered Note in respect of the Notes represented by the Global Registered Note, including the obligation of JFM to make all payments when due at any time in respect of such Notes in accordance with the Conditions as if such Notes had (where required by the Conditions) been duly presented and surrendered on the due date in accordance with the Conditions.

The Direct Rights shall be without prejudice to the rights which the holder of the Global Registered Note may have under the Global Registered Note or otherwise. Payment to the holder of the Global Registered Note in respect of any Notes represented by the Global Registered Note shall constitute a discharge of JFM's obligations under the Notes and the Deed of Covenant to the extent of any such payment and nothing in the Deed of Covenant shall oblige JFM to make any payment under the Notes to or to the order of any person other than the holder of the Global Registered Note.

As a condition of any exercise of Direct Rights by an Accountholder, such Accountholder shall, as soon as practicable, give notice of such exercise to the Noteholders in the manner provided for in the Conditions or the Global Registered Note for notices to be given by JFM to Noteholders.

Terms and Conditions applicable to the Notes

The terms and conditions applicable to any Individual Note Certificate will be endorsed on that Individual Note Certificate and will consist of the terms and conditions set out under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" and the provisions of the relevant Final Terms which supplement, amend and/or replace those terms and conditions.

The terms and conditions applicable to any Global Registered Note will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Note were it in definitive form to the extent described under "Summary of Provisions Relating to the Notes while in Global Form".

Legends relating to Japanese Withholding Tax

All Notes (including Notes in global form, the Notes in definitive form and any Coupons and Talons appertaining thereto, and any certificates in relation to Registered Notes (whether in individual or global form)) will bear a legend to the following effect:

"Interest payments on this security will generally be subject to Japanese withholding tax unless it is established that this security is held by or for the account of a beneficial owner that is (i) for Japanese tax purposes, neither (x) an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation, nor (y) an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation that in either case is a party having a special relationship with JFM as described in Article 6, Paragraph 4 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation of Japan (a "specially-related party of JFM"), (ii) a Japanese designated financial institution described in Article 6, Paragraph 11 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation of Japan which complies with the requirement for tax exemption under that paragraph, or (iii) a Japanese public corporation, a Japanese financial institution or a Japanese financial instruments business operator, etc. described in Article 3-3, Paragraph 6 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation of Japan which complies with the requirement for tax exemption under that paragraph.

Interest payments on this security to an individual resident of Japan, to a Japanese corporation (except as described in the preceding paragraph), or to an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation that in either case is a specially-related party of JFM will be subject to deduction in respect of Japanese income tax at a rate of currently 15.315 per cent. of the amount of such interest."

Maturities of Notes

Notes will be issued at any maturity, subject, in relation to specific currencies, to compliance with all applicable legal and/or regulatory and/or central bank requirements.

Where Notes have a maturity of less than one year and either (a) the issue proceeds are received by JFM in the United Kingdom or (b) the activity of issuing the Notes is carried on from an establishment maintained by JFM in the United Kingdom such Notes must:

- (a) have a minimum redemption value of £100,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies) and be issued only to persons whose ordinary activities involve them in acquiring, holding, managing or disposing of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of their businesses or who it is reasonable to expect will acquire, hold, manage or dispose of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of their businesses; or
- (b) be issued in other circumstances which do not constitute a contravention of section 19 of the FSMA by JFM.

Further Issues

JFM may from time to time, without the consent of the Noteholders or the Couponholders, create and issue additional notes having the same terms and conditions as the Notes in all respects (or in all respects except for the first payment of interest) so as to form a single series with the Notes; provided that if the additional Notes in registered form are not fungible with the outstanding Notes of a series for U.S. federal income tax purposes and either the additional Notes are or the outstanding Notes of such series were sold, in whole or in part, in reliance on Rule 144A, the additional Notes will have CUSIP, ISIN, or other identifying number(s) that are different from that of the outstanding Notes; and provided further that in the case of Bearer Notes that are issued under the TEFRA D Rules, any consolidation of additional Notes with outstanding Notes will occur only to the extent that certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership has been received in accordance with the TEFRA D Rules and the Temporary Global Note has been exchanged for a Permanent Global Note or Definitive Note.

Eurosystem Eligibility

The relevant Final Terms will indicate whether Notes are intended to be held in a manner which would allow Eurosystem eligibility. Any indication that Notes are to be so held does not necessarily mean that the Notes of the relevant Tranche will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue or at any times during their life as such recognition depends upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria.

- (g) Benchmark Replacement:
 - (i) Where the relevant Reference Rate applicable to the Notes is not SOFR or SOFR Compounded Index, in addition and notwithstanding the provisions above in this Condition 7 (Floating Rate Note Provisions), if JFM determines that a Benchmark Event (as defined below) has occurred when any Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) remains to be determined by such Reference Rate, then the following provisions shall apply:
 - (A) JFM shall use reasonable endeavours to appoint, as soon as reasonably practicable, an Independent Adviser (as defined below) to determine (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner), no later than five Business Days prior to the relevant Interest Determination Date relating to the next succeeding Interest Period (the "Interest Determination Cut-off Date"), a Successor Rate or, alternatively, if the Independent Adviser determines that there is no Successor Rate, an Alternative Reference Rate (as defined below) for purposes of determining the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) applicable to the Notes;
 - (B) if JFM is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser, or the Independent Adviser appointed by it fails to determine a Successor Rate or an Alternative Reference Rate prior to the Interest Determination Cut-off Date, JFM (acting in good faith and in a manner that is commercially reasonable taking into consideration the interests of the Noteholders) may determine a Successor Rate or, if JFM determines that there is no Successor Rate, an Alternative Reference Rate;
 - (C) if a Successor Rate or, failing which, an Alternative Reference Rate (as applicable) is determined in accordance with the preceding provisions, such Successor Rate or, failing which, an Alternative Reference Rate (as applicable) shall be the Reference Rate for each of the future Interest Periods (subject to the subsequent operation of, and to adjustment as provided in, this Condition 7(g) (Benchmark Replacement)); provided, however, that if sub-paragraph (B) applies and JFM is unable to or does not determine a Successor Rate or an Alternative Reference Rate prior to the relevant Interest Determination Date, the Rate of Interest applicable to the next succeeding Interest Period shall be equal to the Rate of Interest last determined in relation to the Notes in respect of the preceding Interest Period (or alternatively, if there has not been a first Interest Payment Date, the rate of interest shall be the Initial Rate of Interest) (subject, where applicable, to substituting the Margin that applied to such preceding Interest Period for the Margin that is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period); for the avoidance of doubt, the proviso in this sub-paragraph (C) shall apply to the relevant Interest Period only and any subsequent Interest Periods are subject to the subsequent operation of, and to adjustment as provided in, this Condition 7(g) (Benchmark Replacement);
 - (D) if the Independent Adviser (in consultation with JFM) or (if JFM is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser, or the Independent Adviser appointed by it fails to determine whether an Adjustment Spread (as defined below) should be applied) JFM (acting in good faith and in a manner that is commercially reasonable taking into consideration the interests of the Noteholders) determines that an Adjustment Spread should be applied to the relevant Successor Rate or the relevant Alternative Reference Rate (as applicable) and determines the quantum of, or a formula or methodology for determining, such Adjustment Spread, then such Adjustment Spread shall be applied to such Successor Rate or Alternative Reference Rate (as applicable). If the Independent Adviser or JFM (as applicable) is unable to determine, prior to the Interest Determination Date relating to the next succeeding Interest Period, the quantum of, or a formula or methodology for determining, such Adjustment Spread, then such Successor Rate or Alternative Reference Rate (as applicable) will apply without an Adjustment Spread;

- (E) if the Independent Adviser or JFM determines a Successor Rate or, failing which, an Alternative Reference Rate (as applicable) and, in each case, any Adjustment Spread in accordance with the above provisions, the Independent Adviser or JFM (as applicable), may also specify changes to these Conditions, including but not limited to the Day Count Fraction, Relevant Screen Page, Business Day Convention, Business Days, Interest Determination Date, and/or the definition of Reference Rate applicable to the Notes, and the method for determining the fall-back rate in relation to the Notes, in order to follow market practice in relation to the Successor Rate, the Alternative Reference Rate (as applicable) and/or the Adjustment Spread. For the avoidance of doubt, the Fiscal Agent shall, at the direction and expense of JFM, effect such consequential amendments to the Agency Agreement and these Conditions as may be required in order to give effect to this Condition 7(g) (Benchmark Replacement). Noteholder consent shall not be required in connection with implementing the Successor Rate, Alternative Reference Rate (as applicable) and/or any Adjustment Spread or such other changes, including for the execution of any documents, amendments or other steps by the Fiscal Agent (if required); and
 - (F) JFM shall promptly, following the determination of any Successor Rate, Alternative Reference Rate (as applicable) and/or any Adjustment Spread, give notice thereof to the Fiscal Agent and the Noteholders, which shall specify the effective date(s) for such Successor Rate, Alternative Reference Rate (as applicable) and/or any Adjustment Spread and any consequential changes made to these Conditions.
- (ii) For the purposes of this Condition 7(g) (Benchmark Replacement):
- "Adjustment Spread" means a spread (which may be positive or negative) or formula or methodology for calculating a spread, which the Independent Adviser (in consultation with JFM) or JFM (as applicable), determines is required to be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Reference Rate (as applicable) in order to reduce or eliminate, to the extent reasonably practicable in the circumstances, any economic prejudice or benefit (as applicable) to Noteholders and Couponholders as a result of the replacement of the Reference Rate with the Successor Rate or the Alternative Reference Rate (as applicable) and is the spread, formula or methodology which:
- (A) in the case of a Successor Rate, is recommended in relation to the replacement of the Reference Rate with the Successor Rate by any Relevant Nominating Body (as defined below); or
 - (B) in the case of a Successor Rate for which no such recommendation has been made or in the case of an Alternative Reference Rate, the Independent Adviser (in consultation with JFM) or JFM (as applicable) determines is recognised or acknowledged as being in customary market usage in international debt capital markets transactions which reference the Reference Rate, where such rate has been replaced by the Successor Rate or the Alternative Reference Rate (as applicable); or
 - (C) if no such customary market usage is recognised or acknowledged, the Independent Adviser (in consultation with JFM) or JFM in its discretion (as applicable), determines (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) to be appropriate;

"Alternative Reference Rate" means the rate that the Independent Adviser or JFM (as applicable) determines has replaced the relevant Reference Rate in customary market usage in the international debt capital markets for the purposes of determining rates of interest in respect of bonds denominated in the Specified Currency and of a comparable duration to the relevant Interest Period, or, if the Independent Adviser or JFM (as applicable) determines that there is no such rate, such other rate as the Independent Adviser or JFM (as applicable) determines in its discretion (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) is most comparable to the relevant Reference Rate;

"Benchmark Event" means any of:

- (A) the relevant Reference Rate has ceased to be published on the Relevant Screen Page permanently or indefinitely as a result of such benchmark ceasing to be calculated or administered; or
- (B) a public statement by the administrator of the relevant Reference Rate that it has ceased, or will cease, publishing such Reference Rate permanently or indefinitely (in circumstances where no successor administrator has been appointed that will continue publication of such Reference Rate); or
- (C) a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the relevant Reference Rate that such Reference Rate has been or will be permanently or indefinitely discontinued; or
- (D) a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the relevant Reference Rate as a consequence of which such Reference Rate will be prohibited from being used or that its use will be subject to restrictions or adverse consequences either generally, or in respect of the Notes; or
- (E) a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the relevant Reference Rate that, in the view of such supervisor, such Reference Rate is or will, by a specified future date, no longer, be representative of an underlying market or the methodology to calculate such Reference Rate has materially changed; or
- (F) a public statement by a Relevant Nominating Body (as defined below) formally recommending a successor or replacement for the relevant Reference Rate; or
- (G) a public statement by the administrator of the relevant Reference Rate that, as a result of it not having received sufficient submissions in order to be able to publish the Reference Rate on the Relevant Screen Page, it has re-published the Reference Rate published on the previous day (including, if applicable, to the extent adjusted as deemed necessary by the administrator); or
- (H) it has or will become unlawful for the Calculation Agent to calculate any payments due to be made to any Noteholder using the relevant Reference Rate (including, without limitation, under the Benchmarks Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 as it forms part of domestic law of the United Kingdom by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018, if applicable), provided that, in the case of paragraphs (B), (C), (D) and (E) above, the Benchmark Event shall occur on the date of the cessation of the Reference Rate, the discontinuation of the Reference Rate, the prohibition of use of the Reference Rate or the lack of representativeness of the Reference Rate, as the case may be, and not the date of the relevant public statement;

"Independent Adviser" means an independent financial institution of international repute or other independent financial adviser experienced in the international debt capital markets, in each case appointed by JFM at its own expense;

"Relevant Nominating Body" means, in respect of a reference rate:

authorities, (d) the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. or any part thereof, or (e) the Financial Stability Board or any part thereof; and

"Successor Rate" means a reference rate (and related alternative screen page or source, if available) that (a) the Independent Adviser or JFM (as applicable) determines is a successor to or replacement of the relevant Reference Rate (for the avoidance of doubt, whether or not such Reference Rate has ceased to be available), and (b) which has been formally recommended by any Relevant Nominating Body.

(h) Effect of Benchmark Transition Event:

- (i) Where the relevant Reference Rate applicable to the Notes is SOFR or SOFR Compounded Index, in addition and notwithstanding the provisions above in this Condition 7 (Floating Rate Note Provisions), then the following provisions shall apply:
 - (A) Benchmark Replacement: If JFM or its designee determines on or prior to the relevant Reference Time that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to the then-current Benchmark, the Benchmark Replacement will replace the then-current Benchmark for all purposes relating to the Notes in respect of all determinations on the date on which such relevant Reference Time falls and for all determinations on all subsequent dates.
 - (B) Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes: In connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, JFM or its designee will have the right to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes from time to time without consent from Holders of the Notes or any other party.
 - (C) Decisions and Determinations: Any determination, decision or election that may be made by JFM or its designee pursuant to this Condition 7(h) (Effect of Benchmark Transition Event), including any determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action or any selection, will be final and conclusive for all purposes, and binding absent manifest error, will be made in the sole discretion of JFM or its designee, as applicable, and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the documentation relating to the Notes, shall become effective without consent from the Holders or any other party.

In no event shall the Calculation Agent be responsible for determining if a Benchmark Transition Event has occurred or any substitute for SOFR, or for making any adjustments to any alternative benchmark or spread thereon, the business day convention, interest determination dates or any other relevant methodology for calculating any such substitute or successor benchmark. In connection with the foregoing, the Calculation Agent will be entitled to conclusively rely on any determinations made by JFM or its designee and will have no liability for such actions taken at the direction of JFM or its designee.

In the event that the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions by JFM or its designee, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be (i) that determined as at the immediately preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin or Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest (as specified in the relevant Final Terms) is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the immediately preceding Interest Period, the Margin or Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to the relevant Interest Period, in place of the Margin or Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to that immediately preceding Interest Period), or (ii) if there is no such preceding Interest Determination Date and the relevant Interest Period is the first Interest Period for the Notes, the Initial Rate of Interest which would have been applicable to such Series of Notes for the first Interest Period had the Notes been in issue for a period equal in duration to the scheduled first Interest Period but ending on (and excluding) the Interest Commencement Date (but applying the Margin and any Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest applicable to the first Interest Period), or (iii) if there is no such preceding Interest Determination Date and the relevant Interest Period is not the first Interest Period for the Notes, the Rate of Interest which applied to the immediately preceding Interest Period.

- (ii) For the purposes of this Condition 7(h) (Effect of Benchmark Transition Event):

"Benchmark" means, initially, SOFR; provided that if JFM or its designee determines on or prior to the Reference Time that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to SOFR or the then-current Benchmark, then "Benchmark" means the applicable Benchmark Replacement;

"Benchmark Replacement" means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by JFM or its designee as of the Benchmark Replacement Date:

- (A) the sum of: (a) the alternate rate of interest that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body as the replacement for the then-current Benchmark and (b) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment;
- (B) the sum of: (a) the ISDA Fallback Rate and (b) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment; or
- (C) the sum of: (a) the alternate rate of interest that has been selected by JFM or its designee as the replacement for the then-current Benchmark giving due consideration to any industry-accepted rate of interest as a replacement for the then-current Benchmark for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate notes at such time and (b) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment;

"Benchmark Replacement Adjustment" means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by JFM or its designee as of the Benchmark Replacement Date:

- (A) the spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero), that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body for the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement;
- (B) if the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement is equivalent to the ISDA Fallback Rate, the ISDA Fallback Adjustment; or
- (C) the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that has been selected by JFM or its designee giving due consideration to any industry-accepted spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, for the replacement of the then-current Benchmark with the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate notes at such time;

"Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes" means, with respect to any Benchmark Replacement, any technical, administrative or operational changes (including changes to the timing and frequency of determining rates and making payments of interest, rounding of amounts or tenors, and other administrative matters) that JFM or its designee decides may be appropriate to reflect the adoption of such Benchmark Replacement in a manner substantially consistent with market practice (or, if JFM or its designee decides that adoption of any portion of such market practice is not administratively feasible or if JFM or its designee determines that no market practice for use of the Benchmark Replacement exists, in such other manner as JFM or its designee determines is reasonably necessary);

"Benchmark Replacement Date" means the earliest to occur of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (including the daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

- (A) in the case of sub-paragraph (A) or (B) of the definition of "Benchmark Transition Event", the later of (a) the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein and (b) the date on which the administrator of the Benchmark permanently or indefinitely ceases to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or

- (B) in the case of sub-paragraph (C) of the definition of "Benchmark Transition Event", the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein.

For the avoidance of doubt, if the event that gives rise to the Benchmark Replacement Date occurs on the same day as, but earlier than, the Reference Time in respect of any determination, the Benchmark Replacement Date will be deemed to have occurred prior to the Reference Time for such determination;

"Benchmark Transition Event" means the occurrence of one or more of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (including the daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

- (A) a public statement or publication of information by or on behalf of the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) announcing that such administrator has ceased or will cease to provide the Benchmark (or such component) permanently or indefinitely, provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that will continue to provide the Benchmark (or such component);
- (B) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component), the central bank for the currency of the Benchmark (or such component), an insolvency official with jurisdiction over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component), a resolution authority with jurisdiction over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component) or a court or an entity with similar insolvency or resolution authority over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component), which states that the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) has ceased or will cease to provide the Benchmark (or such component) permanently or indefinitely, provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that will continue to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or
- (C) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) announcing that the Benchmark (or such component) is no longer representative;

"designee" means a designee as selected and separately appointed by JFM as designee for the Notes in writing;

"ISDA Fallback Adjustment" means the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that would apply for derivatives transactions referencing the 2021 ISDA Definitions to be determined upon the occurrence of an index cessation event with respect to the Benchmark (including any daily published component used in the calculation thereof) for the applicable tenor;

"ISDA Fallback Rate" means the rate that would apply for derivatives transactions referencing the 2021 ISDA Definitions to be effective upon the occurrence of an index cessation date with respect to the Benchmark (including any daily published component used in the calculation thereof) for the applicable tenor excluding the applicable ISDA Fallback Adjustment;

"Reference Time" with respect to any determination of the Benchmark means (1) if the Benchmark is SOFR or SOFR Compounded Index, the SOFR Determination Time, and (2) if the Benchmark is not SOFR or SOFR Compounded Index, the time determined by JFM or its designee after giving effect to the Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes;

"Relevant Governmental Body" means the Federal Reserve Board and/or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, or a committee officially endorsed or convened by the Federal Reserve Board and/or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York or any successor thereto; and

"Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement" means the Benchmark Replacement excluding the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment.

- (i) Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest: If any Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest is specified in the relevant Final Terms, then the Rate of Interest shall in no event be greater than the maximum or be less than the minimum so specified.
- (j) Calculation of Interest Amount: The Calculation Agent will, as soon as practicable after the time at which the Rate of Interest is to be determined in relation to each Interest Period, calculate the Interest Amount payable in respect of each Note for such Interest Period. The Interest Amount will be calculated by applying the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period to the Calculation Amount, multiplying the product by the relevant Day Count Fraction, rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit of the Specified Currency (half a sub-unit being rounded upwards) and multiplying such rounded figure by a fraction equal to the Specified Denomination of the relevant Note divided by the Calculation Amount. For this purpose a "sub-unit" means, in the case of any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, in the case of euro, means one cent.
- (k) Calculation of other amounts: If the relevant Final Terms specifies that any other amount is to be calculated by the Calculation Agent, the Calculation Agent will, as soon as practicable after the time or times at which any such amount is to be determined, calculate the relevant amount. The relevant amount will be calculated by the Calculation Agent in the manner specified in the relevant Final Terms.
- (l) Publication: The Calculation Agent will cause each Rate of Interest and Interest Amount determined by it, together with the relevant Interest Payment Date, and any other amount(s) required to be determined by it together with any relevant payment date(s) to be notified to the Paying Agents and each competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system (if any) by which the Notes have then been admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation as soon as practicable after such determination but (in the case of each Rate of Interest, Interest Amount and Interest Payment Date) in any event not later than the first day of the relevant Interest Period. Notice thereof shall also promptly be given to the Noteholders. The Calculation Agent will be entitled to recalculate any Interest Amount (on the basis of the foregoing provisions) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the relevant Interest Period. If the Calculation Amount is less than the minimum Specified Denomination, the Calculation Agent shall not be obliged to publish each Interest Amount but instead may publish only the Calculation Amount and the Interest Amount in respect of a Note having the minimum Specified Denomination.
- (m) Notifications, etc.: All notifications, opinions, determinations, certificates, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of this Condition by the Calculation Agent will (in the absence of manifest error) be binding on JFM, the Paying Agents, the Noteholders and the Couponholders and (subject as aforesaid) no liability to any such Person will attach to the Calculation Agent in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions for such purposes.

8. Zero Coupon Note Provisions

- (a) Application: This Condition 8 (Zero Coupon Note Provisions) is applicable to the Notes only if the Zero Coupon Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable.
- (b) Late payment on Zero Coupon Notes: If the Redemption Amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Note is improperly withheld or refused, the Redemption Amount shall thereafter be an amount equal to the sum of:
 - (i) the Reference Price; and
 - (ii) the product of the Accrual Yield (compounded annually) being applied to the Reference Price on the basis of the relevant Day Count Fraction from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) whichever is the earlier of (i) the day on which all sums due in respect of such Note up to that day are received by or on behalf of the relevant Noteholder and (ii) the day which is seven days after the Fiscal Agent has notified the Noteholders that it has received all sums due in respect of the Notes up to such seventh day (except to the extent that there is any subsequent default in payment).

9. Redemption and Purchase

- (a) Scheduled redemption: Unless previously redeemed, or purchased and cancelled, the Notes will be redeemed at their Final Redemption Amount on the Maturity Date, subject as provided in Condition 10 (Payments – Bearer Notes) and Condition 11 (Payments – Registered Notes).
- (b) Redemption for tax reasons: The Notes may be redeemed at the option of JFM in whole, but not in part:
- (i) at any time (if the Floating Rate Note Provisions are not specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable); or
 - (ii) on any Interest Payment Date (if the Floating Rate Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable), on giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at their Early Redemption Amount (Tax), together with interest accrued (if any) to the date fixed for redemption, if:

- (A) JFM has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as provided or referred to in Condition 12 (Taxation) as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of Japan or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations (including a holding by a court of competent jurisdiction), which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the date of issue of the first Tranche of the Notes; and
- (B) such obligation cannot be avoided by JFM taking reasonable measures available to it, provided, however, that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than:

- (1) where the Notes may be redeemed at any time, 90 days prior to the earliest date on which JFM would be obliged to pay such additional amounts if a payment in respect of the Notes were then due; or
- (2) where the Notes may be redeemed only on an Interest Payment Date, 60 days prior to the Interest Payment Date occurring immediately before the earliest date on which JFM would be obliged to pay such additional amounts if a payment in respect of the Notes were then due.

Prior to the giving of any notice of redemption pursuant to this paragraph, JFM shall deliver to the Fiscal Agent: (x) a certificate signed by an authorised officer of JFM stating that JFM is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of JFM so to redeem have occurred of, and (y) an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing to the effect that JFM has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment. Upon the expiry of any such notice as is referred to in this Condition 9(b) (Redemption for tax reasons), JFM shall be bound to redeem the Notes in accordance with this Condition 9(b) (Redemption for tax reasons).

- (c) Redemption at the option of JFM: If the Call Option is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable, the Notes may be redeemed at the option of JFM in whole or, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms, in part on any Optional Redemption Date (Call) at the relevant Optional Redemption Amount (Call) on JFM's giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable and shall oblige JFM to redeem the Notes or, as the case may be, the Notes specified in such notice on the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Call) at the Optional Redemption Amount (Call) plus accrued interest (if any) to such date).
- (d) Partial redemption: If the Notes are to be redeemed in part only on any date in accordance with Condition 9(c) (Redemption at the option of JFM), in the case of Bearer Notes, the Notes to be redeemed shall be selected by the drawing of lots in such place as the Fiscal Agent approves and in such manner as the Fiscal Agent considers appropriate, subject to compliance with applicable law, the rules of each competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system (if any) by which the Notes have then been admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation and the notice to Noteholders referred to in Condition 9(c) (Redemption at the option of JFM) shall specify the serial numbers of the Notes so to be redeemed, and, in the case of Registered Notes, each Note shall be redeemed in part in the proportion which the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes to be redeemed on the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Call) bears to the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Notes on such date. If any Maximum Redemption Amount or Minimum Redemption Amount is specified in the relevant Final Terms, then the Optional Redemption Amount (Call) shall in no event be greater than the maximum or be less than the minimum so specified.

- (e) Redemption at the option of Noteholders: If the Put Option is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable, JFM shall, at the option of the Holder of any Note, redeem such Note on the Optional Redemption Date (Put) specified in the relevant Put Option Notice at the relevant Optional Redemption Amount (Put) together with interest (if any) accrued to such date. In order to exercise the option contained in this Condition 9(e) (Redemption at the option of Noteholders), the Holder of a Note must, not less than 30 nor more than 60 days before the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Put), deposit with any Paying Agent such Note together with all unmatured Coupons relating thereto and a duly completed Put Option Notice in the form obtainable from any Paying Agent. The Paying Agent with which a Note is so deposited shall deliver a duly completed Put Option Receipt to the depositing Noteholder. No Note, once deposited with a duly completed Put Option Notice in accordance with this Condition 9(e) (Redemption at the option of Noteholders), may be withdrawn; provided, however, that if, prior to the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Put), any such Note becomes immediately due and payable or, upon due presentation of any such Note on the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Put), payment of the redemption moneys is improperly withheld or refused, the relevant Paying Agent shall mail notification thereof to the depositing Noteholder at such address as may have been given by such Noteholder in the relevant Put Option Notice and shall hold such Note at its Specified Office for collection by the depositing Noteholder against surrender of the relevant Put Option Receipt. For so long as any outstanding Note is held by a Paying Agent in accordance with this Condition 9(e) (Redemption at the option of Noteholders), the depositor of such Note and not such Paying Agent shall be deemed to be the Holder of such Note for all purposes.

While any Bearer Note that was issued in accordance with the TEFRA D Rules is held in the form of a Temporary Global Note, the Put Option will be available only to the extent that non-U.S. beneficial ownership certification has been received by JFM or its agent pursuant to the TEFRA D Rules.

- (f) No other redemption: JFM shall not be entitled to redeem the Notes otherwise than as provided in paragraphs (a) to (e) above.
- (g) Early redemption of Zero Coupon Notes: Unless otherwise specified in the relevant Final Terms, the Redemption Amount payable on redemption of a Zero Coupon Note at any time before the Maturity Date shall be an amount equal to the sum of:
- (i) the Reference Price; and
 - (ii) the product of the Accrual Yield (compounded annually) being applied to the Reference Price from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption or (as the case may be) the date upon which the Note becomes due and payable.

Where such calculation is to be made for a period which is not a whole number of years, the calculation in respect of the period of less than a full year shall be made on the basis of such Day Count Fraction as may be specified in the Final Terms for the purposes of this Condition 9(g) (Early redemption of Zero Coupon Notes) or, if none is so specified, a Day Count Fraction of 30E/360.

- (h) Purchase: JFM or any of its Subsidiaries (if any) may at any time purchase Notes in the open market or otherwise and at any price, provided that all unmatured Coupons are purchased therewith.
- (i) Cancellation: All Notes so redeemed or purchased by JFM or any of its Subsidiaries (if any) and any unmatured Coupons attached to or surrendered with them shall be cancelled and may not be reissued or resold.

10. Payments – Bearer Notes

This Condition 10 (Payments – Bearer Notes) is only applicable to Bearer Notes.

- (a) Principal: Payments of principal shall be made only against presentation and (provided that payment is made in full) surrender of Bearer Notes at the Specified Office of any Paying Agent outside the United States by cheque drawn in the currency in which the payment is due on, or by transfer to an account denominated in that currency (or, if that currency is euros, any other account to which euros may be credited or transferred) and maintained by the payee with, a bank in the Principal Financial Centre of that currency.

- (b) Interest: Payments of interest shall, subject to paragraph (h) below, be made only against presentation and (provided that payment is made in full) surrender of the appropriate Coupons at the Specified Office of any Paying Agent outside the United States in the manner described in paragraph (a) above.
- (c) Payments in New York City: Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b) above, in the case of payments in U.S. dollars, payments of principal or interest may be made at the Specified Office of a Paying Agent in New York City if (i) JFM has appointed Paying Agents outside the United States with the reasonable expectation that such Paying Agents will be able to make payment of the full amount of the interest or principal on the Notes in U.S. dollars when due, (ii) payment of the full amount of such interest or principal at the offices of all such Paying Agents is illegal or effectively precluded by exchange controls or other similar restrictions and (iii) payment is then permitted by applicable United States law.
- (d) Payments subject to fiscal laws: All payments in respect of the Bearer Notes are subject in all cases to any applicable fiscal or other laws and regulations in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 12 (Taxation). No commissions or expenses shall be charged to the Noteholders or Couponholders in respect of such payments.
- (e) Deductions for unmatured Coupons: If the relevant Final Terms specifies that the Fixed Rate Note Provisions are applicable and a Bearer Note is presented without all unmatured Coupons relating thereto:
 - (i) if the aggregate amount of the missing Coupons is less than or equal to the amount of principal due for payment, a sum equal to the aggregate amount of the missing Coupons will be deducted from the amount of principal due for payment; provided, however, that if the gross amount available for payment is less than the amount of principal due for payment, the sum deducted will be that proportion of the aggregate amount of such missing Coupons which the gross amount actually available for payment bears to the amount of principal due for payment;
 - (ii) if the aggregate amount of the missing Coupons is greater than the amount of principal due for payment:
 - (A) so many of such missing Coupons shall become void (in inverse order of maturity) as will result in the aggregate amount of the remainder of such missing Coupons (the "Relevant Coupons") being equal to the amount of principal due for payment; provided, however, that where this sub-paragraph would otherwise require a fraction of a missing Coupon to become void, such missing Coupon shall become void in its entirety; and
 - (B) a sum equal to the aggregate amount of the Relevant Coupons (or, if less, the amount of principal due for payment) will be deducted from the amount of principal due for payment; provided, however, that, if the gross amount available for payment is less than the amount of principal due for payment, the sum deducted will be that proportion of the aggregate amount of the Relevant Coupons (or, as the case may be, the amount of principal due for payment) which the gross amount actually available for payment bears to the amount of principal due for payment.

Each sum of principal so deducted shall be paid in the manner provided in paragraph (a) above against presentation and (provided that payment is made in full) surrender of the relevant missing Coupons.

- (f) Unmatured Coupons void: If the relevant Final Terms specifies that this Condition 10(f) (Unmatured Coupons void) is applicable or that the Floating Rate Note Provisions are applicable, on the due date for final redemption of any Note or early redemption in whole of such Note pursuant to Condition 9(b) (Redemption for tax reasons), Condition 9(e) (Redemption at the option of Noteholders), Condition 9(c) (Redemption at the option of JFM) or Condition 13 (Events of Default), all unmatured Coupons relating thereto (whether or not still attached) shall become void and no payment will be made in respect thereof.
- (g) Payments on business days: If the due date for payment of any amount in respect of any Bearer Note (in definitive form) or Coupon is not a Payment Business Day in the place of presentation, the Holder shall not be entitled to payment in such place of the amount due until the next succeeding Payment Business

Day in such place and shall not be entitled to any further interest or other payment in respect of any such delay.

- (h) Payments other than in respect of matured Coupons: Payments of interest other than in respect of matured Coupons shall be made only against presentation of the relevant Bearer Notes at the Specified Office of any Paying Agent outside the United States (or in New York City if permitted by paragraph (c) above).
- (i) Partial payments: If a Paying Agent makes a partial payment in respect of any Bearer Note or Coupon presented to it for payment, such Paying Agent will endorse thereon a statement indicating the amount and date of such payment.
- (j) Exchange of Talons: On or after the maturity date of the final Coupon which is (or was at the time of issue) part of a Coupon Sheet relating to the Bearer Notes, the Talon forming part of such Coupon Sheet may be exchanged at the Specified Office of the Fiscal Agent for a further Coupon Sheet (including, if appropriate, a further Talon but excluding any Coupons in respect of which claims have already become void pursuant to Condition 14 (Prescription)). Upon the due date for redemption of any Bearer Note, any unexchanged Talon relating to such Note shall become void and no Coupon will be delivered in respect of such Talon.

11. Payments – Registered Notes

This Condition 11 (Payments – Registered Notes) is only applicable to Registered Notes.

- (a) Principal: Payments of principal shall be made by cheque drawn in the currency in which the payment is due drawn on, or, upon application by a Holder of a Registered Note to the Specified Office of the Fiscal Agent not later than the fifteenth day before the due date for any such payment, by transfer to an account denominated in that currency (or, if that currency is euro, any other account to which euro may be credited or transferred) and maintained by the payee with, a bank in the Principal Financial Centre of that currency (in the case of a sterling cheque, a town clearing branch of a bank in the City of London) and (in the case of redemption) upon surrender (or, in the case of part payment only, endorsement) of the relevant Note Certificates at the Specified Office of any Paying Agent.
- (b) Interest: Payments of interest shall be made by cheque drawn in the currency in which the payment is due drawn on, or, upon application by a Holder of a Registered Note to the Specified Office of the Fiscal Agent not later than the fifteenth day before the due date for any such payment, by transfer to an account denominated in that currency (or, if that currency is euro, any other account to which euro may be credited or transferred) and maintained by the payee with, a bank in the Principal Financial Centre of that currency (in the case of a sterling cheque, a town clearing branch of a bank in the City of London) and (in the case of interest payable on redemption) upon surrender (or, in the case of part payment only, endorsement) of the relevant Note Certificates at the Specified Office of any Paying Agent.
- (c) Payments subject to fiscal laws: All payments in respect of the Registered Notes are subject in all cases to any applicable fiscal or other laws and regulations in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 12 (Taxation). No commissions or expenses shall be charged to the Noteholders in respect of such payments.
- (d) Payments on business days: Where payment is to be made by transfer to an account, payment instructions (for value the due date, or, if the due date is not Payment Business Day, for value the next succeeding Payment Business Day) will be initiated and, where payment is to be made by cheque, the cheque will be mailed (i) (in the case of payments of principal and interest payable on redemption) on the later of the due date for payment and the day on which the relevant Note Certificate is surrendered (or, in the case of part payment only, endorsed) at the Specified Office of a Paying Agent and (ii) (in the case of payments of interest payable other than on redemption) on the due date for payment. A Holder of a Registered Note shall not be entitled to any interest or other payment in respect of any delay in payment resulting from (A) the due date for a payment not being a Payment Business Day or (B) a cheque mailed in accordance with this Condition 11 (Payments – Registered Notes) arriving after the due date for payment or being lost in the mail.

In that event, JFM shall pay such additional amounts as will result in receipt by the Holders after such withholding or deduction of such amounts as would have been received by them had no such withholding or deduction been required, except that no such additional amounts in respect of any Note or Coupon shall be payable:
- (i) to, or to a third party on behalf of, any Holder or beneficial owner of a Note or Coupon that is an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation and is liable for such Taxes in respect of such Note or Coupon by reason of such Holder's or beneficial owner's (1) having some connection with Japan other than the mere holding of, receipt of interest on, or the enforcement of its rights under, such Note or Coupon or (2) being a Specially-Related Party of JFM;
 - (ii) to, or to a third party on behalf of, any Holder or beneficial owner of a Note or Coupon that would otherwise be exempt from any such withholding or deduction but that fails to comply with any applicable requirement to provide Interest Recipient Information (as defined below) or to submit a Claim for Exemption (as defined below) to the Fiscal Agent, the Paying Agent or the Registrar (as the case may be), or whose Interest Recipient Information is not duly communicated through the relevant Participant (as defined below) and the relevant international clearing organisation to such Fiscal Agent, Paying Agent or Registrar (as the case may be);

 - (iv) where the relevant Note or Coupon or Note Certificate is presented or surrendered (where presentation or surrender is required) for payment more than 30 days after the Relevant Date except to the extent that the Holder of such Note or Coupon would have been entitled to such additional amounts on presenting or surrendering such Note or Coupon or Note Certificate for payment on the last day of such period of 30 days;
 - (v) to a Holder that is a fiduciary, partnership or person other than the sole beneficial owner of any payment to the extent that such payment would be treated as income for Japanese tax purposes, of a beneficiary or settlor with respect to the fiduciary, or a Partner of that partnership or other beneficial owner, in each case, who would not have been entitled to such additional amounts had that beneficiary, settlor, partner or other beneficial owner been the Holder thereof; or
 - (vi) in any case that is a combination of any of (i) through (v) above.

No additional amounts will be payable for or on account of any deduction or withholding from a payment on, or in respect of, any Note where such deduction or withholding is imposed pursuant to Sections 1471-1474 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code and the U.S. Treasury regulations thereunder ("FATCA"), any Mutilated or defaced Notes, Note Certificates or Coupons must be surrendered before replacements will be issued.

16. Agents

In acting under the Agency Agreement and in connection with the Notes and the Coupons, the Agents act solely as agents of JFM and do not assume any obligations towards or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the Noteholders or Couponholders.

The initial Agents and their initial Specified Offices are listed below. The initial Calculation Agent (if any) is specified in the relevant Final Terms. JFM reserves the right at any time to vary or terminate the appointment of any Agent and to appoint a successor fiscal agent or registrar or Calculation Agent and additional or successor paying agents; provided, however, that:

- (a) JFM shall at all times maintain a fiscal agent and a registrar; and
- (b) if a Calculation Agent is specified in the relevant Final Terms, JFM shall at all times maintain a Calculation Agent; and
- (c) if and for so long as the Notes are admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by any competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system which requires the appointment of a Paying Agent and/or a Transfer Agent in any particular place, JFM shall maintain a Paying Agent and/or a Transfer Agent having its Specified Office in the place required by such competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system.

Notice of any change in any of the Agents or in their Specified Offices shall promptly be given to the Noteholders.

17. Meetings of Noteholders; Modification and Waiver

- (a) Meetings of Noteholders: The Agency Agreement contains provisions for convening meetings of Noteholders to consider matters relating to the Notes, including the modification of any provision of these Conditions. Any such modification may be made if sanctioned by an Extraordinary Resolution. Such a meeting may be convened by JFM and shall be convened by them upon the request in writing of Noteholders holding not less than one-tenth of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes. The quorum at any meeting convened to vote on an Extraordinary Resolution will be two or more Persons holding or representing one more than half of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes or, at any adjourned meeting, two or more Persons being or representing Noteholders whatever the principal amount of the Notes held or represented; provided, however, that Reserved Matters may only be sanctioned by an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a meeting of Noteholders at which (i) where "Three-Quarter Quorum" is specified in the relevant Final Terms, two or more Persons holding or representing not less than three-quarters or, at any adjourned meeting, one quarter of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes, or (ii) where "100 per cent. Quorum" is specified in the relevant Final Terms, two or more Persons holding or representing not less than 100 per cent. or, at any adjourned meeting, three-quarters of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes, form a quorum. Any Extraordinary Resolution duly passed at any such meeting shall be binding on all the Noteholders and Couponholders, whether present or not.

In addition, a resolution in writing signed by or on behalf of all Noteholders who for the time being are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Noteholders will take effect as if it were an Extraordinary Resolution. Such a resolution in writing may be contained in one document or several documents in the same form, each signed by or on behalf of one or more Noteholders.

- (b) Modification: The Notes, these Conditions and the Deed of Covenant may be amended without the consent of the Noteholders or the Couponholders to correct a manifest error. In addition, the parties to the Agency Agreement may agree to modify any provision thereof, but JFM shall not agree, without the consent of the Noteholders, to any such modification unless it is of a formal, minor or technical nature, it is made to correct a manifest error or it is, in the opinion of such parties, not materially prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders.

In addition, pursuant to Condition 7(g) (Benchmark Replacement) or Condition 7(h) (Effect of Benchmark Transition Event), as the case may be, certain changes may be made to the interest calculation provisions of the Floating Rate Notes in the circumstances and as otherwise set out in such Conditions, without the requirement for consent of the Noteholders.

18. Further Issues

JFM may from time to time, without the consent of the Noteholders or the Couponholders, create and issue additional notes having the same terms and conditions as the Notes in all respects (or in all respects except for the first payment of interest) so as to form a single series with the Notes.

If the additional Notes in registered form are not fungible with the outstanding Notes of a series for U.S. federal income tax purposes and either the additional Notes are or the outstanding Notes of such series were sold, in whole or in part, in reliance on Rule 144A, the additional Notes will have CUSIP, ISIN, or other identifying number(s) that are different from that of the outstanding Notes. Further, in the case of Bearer Notes that are issued under the TEFRA D Rules, any consolidation of additional Notes with outstanding Notes will occur only to the extent that certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership has been received in accordance with the TEFRA D Rules and the Temporary Global Note has been exchanged for a Permanent Global Note or Definitive Note.

19. Notices

- (a) Bearer Notes: Notices to the Holders of Bearer Notes shall be valid if published in a leading English language daily newspaper published in London (which is expected to be the Financial Times) or, if such publication is not practicable, in a leading English language daily newspaper having general circulation in Europe or the United Kingdom and, if the Bearer Notes are admitted to trading on the Euro MTF Market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and it is a requirement of applicable law or regulations, a leading newspaper having general circulation in Luxembourg (which is expected to be Luxemburger Wort) or published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.LuxSE.com). Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date of first publication (or if required to be published in more than one newspaper, on the first date on which publication shall have been made in all the required newspapers). Couponholders shall be deemed for all purposes to have notice of the contents of any notice given to the Holders of Bearer Notes.
- (b) Registered Notes: Notices to the Holders of Registered Notes shall be sent to them by first class mail (or its equivalent) or (if posted to an overseas address) by airmail at their respective addresses on the Register or if such publication is not practicable, in a leading English language daily newspaper having general circulation in Europe or the United Kingdom and, if the Registered Notes are admitted to trading on the Euro MTF Market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and it is a requirement of applicable law or regulations, notices to Noteholders will be published on the date of such mailing in a leading newspaper having general circulation in Luxembourg (which is expected to be Luxemburger Wort) or published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.LuxSE.com). Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the fourth weekday (being a day other than a Saturday or a Sunday) after the date of mailing.

So long as the Notes are represented or evidenced by Notes or Note Certificates in global form and such Notes are held on behalf of a clearing system, notices to Holders shall be given by delivery of the relevant notice to the relevant clearing system for communication by it to entitled accountholders in substitution for publication or mailing required by these Conditions.

20. Currency Indemnity

If any sum due from JFM in respect of the Notes or the Coupons or any order or judgment given or made in relation thereto has to be converted from the currency (the "first currency") in which the same is payable under these Conditions or such order or judgment into another currency (the "second currency") for the purpose of (a) making or filing a claim or proof against JFM, (b) obtaining an order or judgment in any court or other tribunal or (c) enforcing any order or judgment given or made in relation to the Notes, JFM shall indemnify each Noteholder, on the written demand of such Noteholder addressed to JFM and delivered to JFM, against any loss suffered as a result of any discrepancy between (i) the rate of exchange used for such purpose to convert the sum in question from the first currency into the second currency and (ii) the rate or rates of exchange at which such Noteholder may in the ordinary course of business purchase the first currency with the second currency upon receipt of a sum paid to it in satisfaction, in whole or in part, of any such order, judgment, claim or proof.

This indemnity constitutes a separate and independent obligation of JFM and shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action.

21. Rounding

For the purposes of any calculations referred to in these Conditions (unless otherwise specified in these Conditions or the relevant Final Terms), (a) all percentages resulting from such calculations will be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point (with 0.000005 per cent. being rounded up to 0.00001 per cent.), (b) all United States dollar amounts used in or resulting from such calculations will be rounded to the nearest cent (with one half cent being rounded up), (c) all Japanese Yen amounts used in or resulting from such calculations will be rounded downwards to the next lower whole Japanese Yen amount, and (d) all amounts denominated in any other currency used in or resulting from such calculations will be rounded to the nearest two decimal places in such currency, with 0.005 being rounded upwards.

22. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

- (a) Governing law: The Notes and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Notes are governed by English law. JFM hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits to the jurisdiction of the English courts for all purposes in connection with the Notes.
- (b) English courts: The courts of England have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute (a "Dispute") arising out of or in connection with the Notes (including any non-contractual obligation arising out of or in connection with the Notes).
- (c) Appropriate forum: JFM agrees that the courts of England are the most appropriate and convenient courts to settle any Dispute and, accordingly, that it will not argue to the contrary.
- (d) Rights of the Noteholders to take proceedings outside England: Notwithstanding Condition 22(b) (English courts), any Noteholder may take proceedings relating to a Dispute ("Proceedings") in any other courts with jurisdiction. To the extent allowed by law, Noteholders may take concurrent Proceedings in any number of jurisdictions.
- (e) Process agent: JFM agrees that the documents which start any Proceedings and any other documents required to be served in relation to those Proceedings may be served on it by being delivered to Trident Company Services (UK) Limited at 54 Portland Place, London W1B 1DY, United Kingdom or, if different, its registered office for the time being or at any address of JFM in Great Britain at which process may be served on it in accordance with English law. If such person is not or ceases to be effectively appointed to accept service of process on behalf of JFM, JFM shall, on the written demand of any Noteholder addressed and delivered to JFM, appoint a further person in England to accept service of process on its behalf and, failing such appointment within 15 days, any Noteholder shall be entitled to appoint such a person by written notice addressed to JFM and delivered to JFM. Nothing in this paragraph shall affect the right of any Noteholder to serve process in any other manner permitted by law. This Condition applies to Proceedings in England and to Proceedings elsewhere.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE NOTES WHILE IN GLOBAL FORM

Initial Issue of Notes

If the Global Notes or Regulation S Global Registered Notes are stated in the applicable Final Terms to be issued in NGN form or to be held under the NSS (as the case may be), on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche the Global Notes or Regulation S Global Registered Notes will be delivered to a Common Safekeeper and Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg will be informed whether or not the Notes are intended to be held as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra day credit operations by the Eurosystem ("Eurosystem eligible collateral").

Depositing the Global Notes or the Regulation S Global Registered Notes intended to be held as Eurosystem eligible collateral with a Common Safekeeper does not necessarily mean that the Notes will be recognised as Eurosystem eligible collateral either upon issue, or at any or all times during their life. Such recognition will depend upon the European Central Bank being satisfied that Eurosystem eligibility criteria have been met. In the case of Notes issued in NGN form or to be held under the NSS (as the case may be) which are not intended to be held as Eurosystem eligible collateral as of their issue date, should the Eurosystem eligibility criteria be amended in the future so that such Notes are capable of meeting the eligibility criteria, such Notes may then be deposited with Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as Common Safekeeper.

Clearing System Accountholders

In relation to any Tranche of Notes represented by a Global Note in bearer form, references in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes to "Noteholder" are references to the bearer of the relevant Global Note which, for so long as the Global Note is held by a depositary or a common depositary, in the case of a CGN, or a common safekeeper, in the case of an NGN for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, will be that depositary or common depositary or, as the case may be, common safekeeper.

In relation to any Tranche of Notes represented by a Global Registered Note, references in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes to "Noteholder" are references to the person in whose name such Global Registered Note is for the time being registered in the Register which, (a) in the case of a Regulation S Global Registered Note held by or on behalf of a depositary or a common depositary or a common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, will be that depositary or common depositary or common safekeeper or a nominee for that depositary or common depositary or common safekeeper, (b) in the case of an Unrestricted Global Registered Note held by or on behalf of a common depositary for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, will be that common depositary or a nominee for that common depositary and (c) in the case of a Restricted Global Registered Note held by or on behalf of DTC, will be Cede & Co. (or such other entity that is specified in the applicable Final Terms) as nominee for DTC.

Each of the persons shown in the records of DTC, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system as being entitled to an interest in a Global Note or a Global Registered Note (each an "Accountholder") must look solely to DTC, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or such other relevant clearing system (as the case may be) for such Accountholder's share of each payment made by JFM to the holder of such Global Note or Global Registered Note and in relation to all other rights arising under such Global Note or Global Registered Note. The extent to which, and the manner in which, Accountholders may exercise any rights arising under the Global Note or Global Registered Note will be determined by the respective rules and procedures of DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and any other relevant clearing system from time to time. For so long as the relevant Notes are represented by a Global Note or Global Registered Note, Accountholders shall have no claim directly against JFM in respect of payments due under the Notes and such obligations of JFM will be discharged by payment to the holder of such Global Note or Global Registered Note.

Transfers of Interests in Global Notes and Global Registered Notes

Transfers of interests in Global Notes and Global Registered Notes within DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system will be in accordance with their respective rules and operating procedures. None of JFM, the Registrar, the Dealers or the Agents will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records of any DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system or any of their respective participants relating to payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in a Global Note or Global Registered Note or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any of the records of DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system or the records of their respective participants relating to such beneficial ownership interests.

The laws of some states of the United States require that certain persons receive individual certificates in respect of their holdings of Notes. Consequently, the ability to transfer interests in a Global Registered Note to such persons will be limited. Because clearing systems only act on behalf of participants, who in turn act on behalf of indirect participants, the ability of a person having an interest in a Global Registered Note to pledge such interest to persons or entities which do not participate in the relevant clearing systems, or otherwise take actions in respect of such interest, may be affected by the lack of an Individual Note Certificate representing such interest.

Subject to compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Registered Notes described under "Transfer Restrictions", transfers between DTC participants, on the one hand, and Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg accountholders, on the other will be effected by the relevant clearing systems in accordance with their respective rules and through action taken by the DTC Custodian, the Registrar and the Fiscal Agent.

On or after the issue date for any Series, transfers of Notes of such Series between accountholders in Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg will generally have a settlement date three business days after the trade date (T+3) and transfers of Notes of such Series between participants in DTC will generally have a settlement date two business days after the trade date (T+2). The customary arrangements for delivery versus payment will apply to such transfers.

Transfers between DTC participants, on the one hand, and Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg accountholders, on the other will need to have an agreed settlement date between the parties to such transfer. For transfers between a holder of interests in a Restricted Global Registered Note and a holder of interests in an Unrestricted Global Registered Note, there is no direct link between DTC, on the one hand, and Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, on the other, and transfers of interests in the relevant Global Registered Note will be effected through the Fiscal Agent, the DTC Custodian, the relevant Registrar and any applicable Transfer Agent receiving instructions (and where appropriate certification) from the transferor and arranging for delivery of the interests being transferred to the credit of the designated account for the transferee. Transfers will be effected on the later of (i) three business days after the trade date for the disposal of the interest in the relevant Global Registered Note resulting in such transfer and (ii) two business days after receipt by the Fiscal Agent or the Registrar, as the case may be, of the necessary certification or information to effect such transfer. In the case of cross-market transfers, settlement between Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg accountholders and DTC participants cannot be made on a delivery versus payment basis. The securities will be delivered on a free delivery basis and arrangements for payment must be made separately. The customary arrangements for delivery versus payment between Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg account holders or between DTC participants are not affected.

For a further description of restrictions on the transfer of Notes, see "Subscription and Sale" and "Transfer Restrictions".

Upon the issue of a Restricted Global Registered Note to be held by or on behalf of DTC, DTC or the DTC Custodian will credit the respective principal amounts of the individual beneficial interests represented by such Restricted Global Registered Note to the account of DTC participants. Ownership of beneficial interests in such Restricted Global Registered Note will be held through participants of DTC, including the respective depositaries of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. Ownership of beneficial interests in such Restricted Global Registered Note will be shown on, and the transfer of such ownership will be effected only through, records maintained by DTC or its nominee. DTC has advised JFM that it will take any action permitted to be taken by a holder of Registered Notes represented by a Restricted Global Registered Note held by or on behalf of DTC (including, without limitation, the presentation of such Restricted Global Registered Note for exchange as described above) only at the direction of one or more participants in whose account with DTC interests in such Restricted Global Registered Note are credited, and only in respect of such portion of the aggregate principal amount of such Restricted Global Registered Note as to which such participant or participants has or have given such direction. However, in certain circumstances, DTC will exchange the Restricted Global Registered Note for Individual Note Certificates (which will bear the relevant legends set out in "Transfer Restrictions").

Although DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg have agreed to the foregoing procedures in order to facilitate transfers of interests in the Global Registered Note among participants and account holders of DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, they are under no obligation to perform or continue to perform such procedures, and such procedures may be discontinued at any time. None of JFM, the Registrar, the Dealers or the Agents will have any responsibility for the performance by DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or their respective direct or indirect participants or account holders of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their respective operations.

While a Global Registered Note is lodged with DTC, Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or any relevant clearing system, Individual Note Certificates for the relevant Series of Notes will not be eligible for clearing and settlement through such clearing systems.

Conditions applicable to Global Notes

Each Global Note and Global Registered Note will contain provisions which modify the Terms and Conditions of the Notes as they apply to the Global Note or Global Registered Note. The following is a summary of certain of those provisions:

Payments: All payments in respect of the Global Note or Global Registered Note which, according to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, require presentation and/or surrender of a Note, Note Certificate or Coupon will be made against presentation and (in the case of payment of principal in full with all interest accrued thereon) surrender of the Global Note or Global Registered Note to or to the order of any Paying Agent and will be effective to satisfy and discharge the corresponding liabilities of JFM in respect of the Notes. On each occasion on which a payment of principal or interest is made in respect of the Global Note, JFM shall procure that in respect of a CGN the payment is noted in a schedule thereto and in respect of an NGN the payment is entered pro rata in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Payment Business Day: In the case of a Global Note, or a Global Registered Note, shall be, if the currency of payment is euro, any day which is a TARGET Settlement Day and a day on which dealings in foreign currencies may be carried on in each (if any) Additional Financial Centre; or, if the currency of payment is not euro, any day which is a day on which dealings in foreign currencies may be carried on in the Principal Financial Centre of the currency of payment and in each (if any) Additional Financial Centre.

Payment Record Date: Each payment in respect of a Regulation S Global Registered Note will be made to the person shown as the Holder in the Register at the close of business (in the relevant clearing system) on the Clearing System Business Day before the due date for such payment, where "Clearing System Business Day" means a day on which each clearing system for which the Regulation S Global Registered Note is being held is open for business. Each payment in respect of an Unrestricted Global Registered Note or a Restricted Global Registered Note will be made to the person shown as the Holder in the Register at the close of business (in the relevant clearing system) on the fourth Clearing System Business Day before the due date for such payment, where "Clearing System Business Day" means a day on which all of the clearing systems for which the Unrestricted Global Registered Note and the Restricted Global Registered Note are being held are open for business.

Exercise of put option: In order to exercise the option contained in Condition 9(e) (Redemption at the option of Noteholders) the bearer of the Permanent Global Note or the holder of a Global Registered Note must, within the period specified in the Conditions for the deposit of the relevant Note and put notice, give written notice of such exercise to the Fiscal Agent specifying the principal amount of Notes in respect of which such option is being exercised. Any such notice will be irrevocable and may not be withdrawn. While any Bearer Note that was issued in accordance with the TEFRA D Rules is held in the form of a Temporary Global Note, the put option will be available only to the extent that non-U.S. beneficial ownership certification has been received by JFM or its agent pursuant to the TEFRA D Rules.

Partial exercise of call option: In connection with an exercise of the option contained in Condition 9(c) (Redemption at the option of JFM) in relation to some only of the Notes, the Permanent Global Note or Global Registered Note may be redeemed in part in the principal amount specified by JFM in accordance with the Conditions and the Notes to be redeemed will not be selected as provided in the Conditions but in accordance with the rules and procedures of DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (to be reflected in the records of DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as either a pool factor or a reduction in principal amount, at their discretion).

Notices: Notwithstanding Condition 19 (Notices), while all the Notes are represented by a Permanent Global Note (or by a Permanent Global Note and/or a Temporary Global Note) or a Global Registered Note and the Permanent Global Note is (or the Permanent Global Note and/or the Temporary Global Note are), or the Global Registered Note is, registered in the name of DTC's nominee or deposited with a depositary or a common depositary for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system or a common safekeeper, notices to Noteholders may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to DTC and/or Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and, in any case, such notices shall be deemed to have been given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 19 (Notices) on the date of delivery to DTC and/or Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system.

Further, for so long as such Notes are admitted to trading on the Euro MTF Market and it is a requirement of applicable law or regulations, such notices shall also be published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.LuxSE.com) or by JFM in a leading newspaper having general circulation in Luxembourg (which is expected to be Luxemburger Wort).

Eurosystem Eligibility

For Notes intended to be in NGN form, the Notes are intended upon issue to be deposited with one of the ICSDs as common safekeeper, and for Notes intended to be held under the NSS, to be registered in the name of a nominee of one of the ICSDs acting as common safekeeper, and does not necessarily mean that the Notes will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue or at any or all times during their life. Such recognition will depend upon the European Central Bank being satisfied that Eurosystem eligibility criteria have been met.

Where the Notes issued in respect of any Tranche are issued in NGN form or issued under the NSS, the ICSDs will be notified whether or not such Global Notes are intended to be held in a manner which would allow Eurosystem eligibility.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds from the issue of each Tranche of Notes will be applied by JFM for general loans to local governments. If, in respect of any particular issue, there is a particular identified use of proceeds, this will be stated in the applicable Final Terms.

JAPANESE LOCAL GOVERNMENT FINANCE AND THE ROLE OF JFM

JFM formulates its lending programme each fiscal year based on the Local Government Finance Programme and the Local Government Borrowing Programme, which are prepared in parallel with the national budget.

Local Government System in Japan

Local governments are responsible for extensive services closely related to the daily lives of citizens, including social welfare, public health, school education, social education, policing and fire fighting in their respective regions.

Local governments are comprised of prefectures, cities, special wards, towns, villages, local government associations and property wards. Cities, towns and villages handle administrative issues related to their respective regions. Prefectures are broader-based local governments.

Each prefecture, city, special ward, town or village has an assembly, which consists of representatives directly elected by the respective residents, and is granted certain legislative powers within the limitation set by the constitution and national laws and cabinet orders, and exercises its legal rights, in addition to the power to enact budgets. These local governments are administered by governors and mayors directly elected by the respective residents.

JFM can provide funds only to local governments and neither JFM nor the Predecessor (as defined in "Japan Finance Organization for Municipalities") has experienced any defaults on its loans.

Local Government Finance Programme

As local governments play a significant role in the national economy, the national government takes overall responsibility to provide local governments with the funds required to smoothly implement necessary measures and policies.

To this end, the national government formulates the Local Government Finance Programme each fiscal year in parallel with the national budget. The national government secures revenue sources including local allocation taxes for local governments.

The local allocation tax is an important source of funds for local governments, through which the national government distributes the money that is necessary to make up for the shortfall to maintain an appropriate level of public services.

Local Government Borrowing Programme

The national government also prepares the Local Government Borrowing Programme each fiscal year, based on the Local Government Finance Programme, to give an overall picture of long-term borrowings of local governments and to secure necessary revenue sources. The Local Government Borrowing Programme sets the amounts of fundraising by local governments by projects as well as procurement sources. Under the Local Government Borrowing Programme, JFM funds, as well as the national government funds, are treated as public funds. Under the Local Government Borrowing Programme for the year ending March 2024, JFM will provide approximately 17.3 per cent. of local government funding.

The Financial Soundness of Local Governments Law

The Financial Soundness of Local Governments Law (Law No. 94 of 2007, as amended), which was enacted and promulgated in June 2007, stipulates that local governments whose financial indices exceed specified levels are required to expeditiously restore financial soundness. Under the Financial Soundness of Local Governments Law, financial indices of local governments shall be disclosed, and the local governments whose financial indices exceed certain limits must map out their plans to restore fiscal soundness. The Financial Soundness of Local Governments Law is designed to ensure the fiscal soundness of local governments through administrative measures that help them execute their plans.

Under the Financial Soundness of Local Governments Law, local governments with financial indices exceeding the early warning limits (souki kenzenka kijun) or reconstruction limits (zaisei saisei kijun) shall restore their fiscal soundness in a carefully planned manner.

Municipal Enterprises

Local governments provide some types of services through municipal enterprises. Municipal enterprises are departments within local governments which undertake the construction and operation of public facilities or provision of public services, such as water supply, sewerage, hospital facilities and transportation. Municipal enterprises are operated basically upon their own revenues, and are accounted for independently from general services like social welfare and school education which are operated as part of the general account. However, holders of obligations of municipal enterprises have recourse against the general account, and holders of obligations of the general account have recourse against municipal enterprises.

Procedures for Local Governments' Fundraising

In principle, borrowings including the issue of bonds can be undertaken as revenue sources for expenditures of local governments only when the proceeds are used for the purposes specifically provided for in the Local Government Finance Law of Japan (Law No. 109 of 1948, as amended) and other related regulations. Authorised purposes include, for example, the payment of expenses associated with municipal enterprises, and the construction of public buildings and facilities. Furthermore, the purposes, amount limits, methods of issuances, interest rates and methods of redemptions of local government bonds and loans must be stipulated in the budget and approved by the relevant local government assembly.

To contribute to the sound fiscal management of local governments, the following consultation system has been established:

- Prefectures and government-designated cities (being large cities with population of over 0.5 million designated as such by the government) and local government associations constituted thereby must consult with the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications when they borrow funds and issue bonds.
- Cities, special wards, towns, villages and local government associations (except for such local government associations as are stipulated in the previous paragraph) must consult with the respective prefectural governors when they borrow funds and issue bonds.
- Local governments can borrow public funds, including loans from JFM, only with the consent of the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications or their respective prefectural governors, which is given through the consultation mentioned above.
- In the case of local government bonds and loans for which consent has been given by the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications or the relevant prefectural governors, the national government incorporates the total amount of the payment of the principal and interest of such local government debts in the "expenditures" of the Local Government Finance Programme, and the corresponding total amount of local allocation tax grants is secured. When calculating the amount to be allocated to individual local governments, a part of the payment of the principal and interest of such local government debts is included.
- If a local government undertakes to borrow money without obtaining consent from the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications or the relevant prefectural governor, the head of the local government must report that fact to the local government's assembly in advance.
- Certain local governments, such as those whose deficits exceed specified limits or whose debt payment ratios exceed specified limits, must obtain specific approval from the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications or the relevant prefectural governors before borrowing money. Local governments which borrow money for certain municipal enterprises, such as those having loss carried forward, must also obtain the approval (the "Early Correction Measure" (souki zesei sochi)).

In order to promote the autonomy and independence of local governments, this consultation system was partially amended as of 1 February 2012 by introducing a notification system. Under the notification system, those local governments planning to undertake bonds and loans from sources other than public funds including JFM funds will not, in principle, be required to consult in advance with the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications or the relevant prefectural governors, provided that the local governments satisfy specified conditions, such as having a real debt payment ratio of less than 16 per cent.

In the case of local government bonds and loans with respect to which notification has been made and the national government has recognised that consent would be given by the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications or the respective prefectural governors if a consultation was undertaken, the national government incorporates the payment of the principal and interest of these local government debts into the Local Government Finance Programme, and a part of these debt services are also included in the computation of local allocation tax grants to the relevant local government, as is the case with the local government bonds and loans to which consent has been given.

JAPAN FINANCE ORGANIZATION FOR MUNICIPALITIES

In this section "Japan Finance Organization for Municipalities", the term "JFM" refers to Japan Finance Organization for Municipalities, or where appropriate, Japan Finance Corporation for Municipal Enterprises as the predecessor (the "Predecessor") of Japan Finance Organization for Municipalities.

Overview

JFM is a public sector financial institution established by the JFM Law with a history dating back over 60 years to the establishment of the Predecessor in 1957.

JFM's primary objective is to contribute to the sound operation of local government financing and to improve the welfare of local residents by providing long-term funding at low interest rates to local governments. JFM also supports local governments by providing them with staff training, conducting surveys and research on local government funding and dispatching experts in local government finances in response to specific requirements. JFM is the primary public financial institution for supplying long-term, low-cost financing to local governments for funding national policy targets, and it is a preferred lender to local governments for basic infrastructure-related funding. JFM loans constitute an integral part of the support system provided to local governments by the national government's Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications under its Local Government Borrowing Programme.

JFM was established in 2008 to replace the Predecessor as part of a policy-based financial reform implemented by the national government intended, in part, to increase the independence of local governments. Pursuant to the reform, JFM succeeded to substantially all of the assets, and assumed all of the obligations of, the Predecessor on 1 October 2008 and the Predecessor was then dissolved. JFM was formed exclusively with capital from local governments, whereas the Predecessor had been formed exclusively with capital from the national government. The reform consequently resulted in the national government's divestiture of direct ownership of the assets and obligations of the Predecessor. JFM is autonomously managed by local governments through its representative board. Except as otherwise described herein, JFM conducts its affairs in essentially the same manner as the Predecessor.

JFM was originally established under the name Japan Finance Organization for Municipal Enterprises and originally made only loans to municipal enterprises. In June 2009, however, JFM changed its name to Japan Finance Organization for Municipalities and expanded the types of loans it could make to generally include loans for general account expenditures.

The contact address and telephone number for JFM for the purposes of this Base Prospectus is: Finance Department, Shisei Kaikan, 1-3, Hibiya Koen, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo 100-0012, Japan, telephone: +81-3-3539-2697.

Operations

Loan Operations

As a general rule, each local government is responsible for raising its own funds in the capital markets or by borrowing from private financial institutions. However, local governments often require significant additional funds, which may be obtained from JFM loans. JFM might lend such funds to provide a safety net function for local governments in weaker financial circumstances that would otherwise encounter difficulty in raising funds. JFM might also facilitate local budgeting by making loans with a longer amortisation than expected to be available from a private lender. A longer term may be desirable, for example, to fund improvements to social infrastructure which require a long time to recoup capital expenditures and to equalise the burden across generations. While the number of local governments endeavouring to raise funds in capital markets for longer terms of 20 or 30 years has been increasing, a 10-year or shorter term is still common. In March 2015, the maximum term of maturity of loans which may be extended by JFM was increased from 30 years to 40 years, effective from April 2015.

Types of Borrowers

JFM may only lend to local governments. As of 31 March 2023, loans extended to cities (excluding government-designated cities) and special wards of Tokyo represent 54.9 per cent. of the total loan outstanding. Loans extended to prefectures, government-designated cities, towns and villages, and local government associations and corporations represented 22.0 per cent., 12.7 per cent., 8.0 per cent., and 2.4 per cent., of the total loans outstanding, respectively.

Types of Loans by Business

Historically, municipal enterprise-related businesses such as sewerage and water supply businesses accounted for almost all of JFM's general loans. However, since the reorganisation on 1 June 2009, JFM has become generally eligible to extend loans for general account-related businesses. More specifically, JFM became eligible to extend loans for regional revitalisation, disaster prevention and special municipal mergers (mergers of municipalities under the Special Municipal Mergers Law of Japan (Law No. 59 of 2004, as amended)) in the year ended 31 March 2010; social welfare facilities development in the year ended 31 March 2011; public projects, etc., disaster prevention and general projects (investments, loans and contributions) in the year ended 31 March 2012; educational facilities development and general projects (regional development funding projects) in the year ended 31 March 2013; national disaster prevention in the year ended 31 March 2014; and general waste disposal in the year ended 31 March 2015. In addition, in the year ended 31 March 2010, JFM became eligible to extend loans for temporary financial countermeasures funding, i.e., funds extended to local governments to cover general resource shortfalls pursuant to the provisions of the Local Government Finance Law (Law No. 109 of 1948, as amended). As a result, the proportion of the loan amounts by business types of JFM has changed significantly.

A core distinction between municipal enterprise-related businesses and the other business categories is that, municipal enterprise-related businesses are in principal generally expected to repay JFM loans from usage fees charged to the public following completion.

The following table sets forth a breakdown of the current business categories for which JFM provides loans:

Municipal enterprise-related businesses	General account-related businesses	Other
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Water supply • Industrial water supply • Transportation • Electricity supply • Gas supply • Port facilities • Hospitals • Elderly care services • Markets • Slaughterhouses • Sewerage • Tourism facilities • Parking facilities • Industrial waste processing 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Public projects, etc. • Public housing • Disaster management and mitigation • National disaster prevention • Educational facilities development • Social welfare facilities development • General waste disposal • General projects • Regional revitalisation • Disaster prevention • Local road development • Special municipal merger • Public facilities optimisation • Depopulation measures 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Temporary financial countermeasures funding⁽¹⁾ • Loans covering decrease in local tax revenues

Note:

(1) Temporary financial countermeasures funding represents fundraising by local governments to cover shortfalls in the local allocation tax pursuant to the Local Government Finance Law of Japan.

Approximately 50.9 per cent., 21.2 per cent., 25.6 per cent. and 2.2 per cent. of JFM loans outstanding as of, and approximately 40.9 per cent., 41.3 per cent., 17.9 per cent. and 0.0 per cent. of JFM loans extended in the year ended, 31 March 2023 were for municipal enterprise-related businesses, general account-related businesses, temporary financial countermeasures funding and loans covering decrease in local tax revenues, respectively.

General and Entrusted Loans

JFM distinguishes between general loans and entrusted loans, although approximately 99 per cent. of the total amount of its loans are general loans. General loans are loans extended by JFM to local governments, which are not entrusted loans. Entrusted loans are loans extended by JFM using funds entrusted to JFM by Japan Finance Corporation ("JFC"), a governmental financial institution. Such entrusted funds are loaned by JFM to local governments for financing the maintenance of public forests and improvements of pastures.

Types of Loans by Term

JFM further classifies general loans into the following three categories depending on the term:

- Long-term loans;
- Pre-consent (approval) loans, which are bridge loans to cover the period up to disbursement of long-term loans for projects for which consent (approval) is assured; and
- Short-term loans, which are loans to be repaid with revenues in the same fiscal year.

Interest Rates on Loans

The following two types of interest rates on JFM loans were consented to, or approved, on or after the year ended 31 March 2023:

- Standard Interest Rate. The standard interest rate represents the rate at which the discounted present value of the cash flows of the loans roughly equals the discounted present value of the funds raised by JFM to make loans.
- Special Interest Rate. The special interest rate is set at a discount to the standard rate (0.35 per cent. per annum below the standard rate) for projects that are particularly important to the livelihood of residents and temporary financial countermeasures funding.

Effective from the year ended 31 March 2013, the former special interest rate (0.3 per cent. per annum below the standard rate) and the former extra-special interest rate (0.35 per cent. per annum below the standard rate) were integrated into the new special interest rate (0.35 per cent. per annum below the standard rate). The former special and extra-special interest rates are applied to loans consented or approved in or before the year ended 31 March 2012.

Approximately 99 per cent. of JFM loans outstanding as of 31 March 2023 consisted of special interest rate loans.

Because the amount of loans extended by JFM always exceeds the amount of JFM's borrowings (with a portion being funded from reserves, on which JFM does not pay interest), JFM's interest income exceeds its interest expense. Furthermore, JFM calculates loan interest rates based on the funding yield curve for 10-year and 20-year bonds. For loans with maturities of greater than 20 years, JFM sets the interest rate by extrapolating the curve to the corresponding maturity of the loan. As maturities of loans extended by JFM exceed the maturities of JFM's borrowings, JFM's interest income exceeds its interest expense. The difference between its interest income and its interest expense funds JFM's operating expenses.

Maturities of Loans

Loan maturities are established according to the business categories. Currently JFM's maximum loan term is 40 years.

Local Government Support Operations

JFM has been conducting local government support operations since 2009. Such operations include conducting surveys and collecting research on local governments' fundraising, providing training to local government staff and providing informational, advisory and other support services. JFM formulated its Local Government Support Operations Implementation Policy in October 2010 to promote these operations.

Fundraising Operations

As a joint funding organisation for local governments, JFM raises funds in a stable manner to provide local governments with low-interest and stable funds, while endeavouring to reduce the cost of funds.

JFM raises funds for its loan operations mainly by issuing non-guaranteed bonds in the domestic public capital markets. JFM also raises funds for its loan operations by issuing bonds through its global medium term note programme in the overseas markets, private placements to pension funds and mutual aids for local government officials including the Pension Fund Association for Local Government Officials and by borrowing from banks. JFM is permitted to issue Japanese government-guaranteed bonds to refinance previously issued Japanese government-guaranteed bonds (including those issued by the Predecessor). JFM issues bonds with a wide variety of maturities, ranging from medium-term to super long-term, and in a variety of markets to reduce the cost and provide stable fundraising, while closely monitoring conditions in domestic and overseas markets.

Domestic Public Offerings

Publicly offered bonds issued in the domestic market accounted for approximately 48.3 per cent. of the funds raised by JFM for the year ended 31 March 2023. In the domestic public markets, JFM has issued 5-, 10-, 20- and 30-year bonds since its establishment. In order to secure stable fundraising, JFM issues 10-year bonds every month. The average issue amount thereof per month for the year ended 31 March 2023 was ¥25.8 billion, and such issues accounted for approximately 35.8 per cent. of the JFM bonds issued via domestic public offering for the year. JFM also issues 5-year bonds and 30-year approximately twice a year and 20-year bonds approximately twice a quarter.

In addition to such conventional types of domestic public offerings, JFM issues domestic bonds under the flexible issuance programme ("FLIP"), in order to meet both the needs of investors in the domestic market and the borrowing needs of local governments in a timely and flexible manner.

FLIP is a programme unique to JFM, which is similar to the MTN programme in some ways. FLIP permits:

- Bonds to be issued with maturities ranging from 2 years to 40 years, but excluding 5, 10, 20 and 30 years, and maturities of benchmark bonds;
- Minimum issue amount of ¥3 billion; and
- Maximum issue amounts that vary on a periodic basis.

Issues under the Medium Term Note Programme

In addition to the public offerings in the domestic market, JFM has regularly issued bonds in the overseas markets, including under this global medium term note programme.

Private Placements with Pension Funds for Local Government Officials

Private placements with pension funds and mutual aids for local government officials are an important source of funds for JFM. JFM raised a total of ¥530.0 billion of 10-year and 20-year bonds through such private placements in the year ended 31 March 2023, of which ¥300.0 billion of 10-year and 20-year bonds were issued and purchased solely by the Pension Fund Association for Local Government Officials based upon the relevant law, while ¥230.0 billion of 10-year and 20-year bonds were purchased by other pension funds and mutual aids for local government officials.

Bank Loans

JFM first undertook borrowing by way of bank loans in the year ended 31 March 2012. As of 31 March 2023, the balance of borrowed money was ¥526.5 billion. While JFM intends to raise funds substantially through the regular issuance of bonds in accordance with its bond issuance plan, JFM also intends to utilise bank loans as a complementary means of fundraising, taking into consideration the relevant demand for funds, the financial environment and the relative terms on which financing is available.

Government-Guaranteed Bonds

JFM issues government-guaranteed bonds in order to refinance government-guaranteed bonds issued by the Predecessor.

General and Management Account

JFM manages assets and liabilities succeeded from the Predecessor, and related revenues and expenses, in its management account. JFM manages its other assets and liabilities and related revenues and expense in its general account. Newly issued bonds are normally recorded in the general account, unless issued to refinance a bond issued by the Predecessor, in which case it is recorded to the management account. JFM may issue Japanese government-guaranteed bonds to refinance Japanese government-guaranteed bonds issued by the Predecessor. JFM prepares an asset management plan every fiscal year to manage the Predecessor's assets and liabilities, and this plan is required to be approved by the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications and the Minister of Finance.

While the recording of assets and liabilities are kept separate between the general and management accounts, liabilities of JFM (including Notes issued under the Programme) have recourse to both the general and management accounts' assets.

The following table sets out the total assets in the general account and the management account as of the dates indicated:

	As of 31 March
	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023
	(Billions of yen)
General account total assets	¥16,824.5	¥17,583.7	¥19,039.4	¥19,892.6	¥20,406.9
Management account total assets	8,387.0	7,345.8	6,418.9	5,542.2	4,750.6

Properties

As of 31 March 2023, JFM owned 3,108m² of land, and ¥1.3 billion and ¥0.5 billion in book value of land and buildings, respectively, for JFM employee housing.

Legal Proceedings

JFM is not involved in any litigation or other legal proceedings that would individually, or in the aggregate, be expected to have a material adverse effect on its results of operations or financial condition.

Competition

JFM is the sole public sector financial institution that provides public funds with long-term and low interest rates for local governments. The maturities of JFM loans are up to 40 years, and it is generally recognised that it is difficult for private financial institutions to extend loans with such long maturities. In addition, JFM offered its special lending rates, which are as low as the national government's lending rates that are applicable to loans for specific public projects, to approximately 99 per cent. of its loans outstanding as of 31 March 2023. As a result, JFM does not engage in material competition with other financial institutions.

Risk Management

JFM established the Integrated Risk Management Committee as part of its efforts to identify and formulate appropriate responses to various risks JFM must manage in the course of its operations. In addition, JFM utilises advanced analytical procedures for its asset and liability management.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss arising from a credit event, such as deterioration in the financial condition of a borrower, which causes an asset to lose value or become worthless. In addition to credit risk associated with loans, market transactions also involve credit risk.

Credit Risk for Loans. JFM makes loans exclusively to local governments. For reasons outlined below, absent a significant change in government policy, JFM believes it is unlikely that any of its borrowers will default on those loans. There has been no default of interest or principal on any obligation of JFM or the Predecessor, and neither has accordingly experienced any loan losses.

- Financial sources for the payment of the principal and interest of local government bonds and loans are secured through the following mechanisms. First, local governments can obtain local tax revenues pursuant to their right to impose tax. Second, in addition to such local tax revenues, local allocation tax grants are allocated as follows: (i) the national government includes certain local government debt servicing costs, i.e., expenditures for the payment of the principal and interest of certain local government bonds and loans including those issued or borrowed with consents or approvals, in the amount of "expenditures" in the Local Government Finance Programme formulated by the national government; and (ii) the total amount of local allocation tax grants is calculated so that the total amount of local government expenditures, including such debt servicing costs, is equivalent to the total amount of the local government revenues, in the Local Government Finance Programme. Thus, the national government effectively secures revenue sources for the payment of principal and interest of such local governments bonds and loans in terms of the total amount. When calculating the amount of local allocation tax grants to be allocated to an individual local government, a part of the "expenditures" for the payment of the principal and interest of such local government bonds and loans are included.

- Before issuing a loan, JFM checks the financial and operational status of the local government, including its debt servicing costs, tax revenues and necessary funds. JFM also verifies that the local government has obtained any required consent or approval from the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications or their respective prefectural governors necessary to borrow the amount applied for in the loan application. This credit check process may include an interview of local government staff. Where consent or approval is required and obtained, JFM assumes the details, legality and possibility of repayment of each project has been confirmed during the consent or approval process. In addition, when reviewing the ability of a local government to repay the loan, where such local government's expenditures exceed the revenue generated by local taxes, JFM takes into account the local allocation tax grants from the national government described above. After a loan is disbursed, JFM conducts additional onsite reviews to verify the use of the funds and to check the operational status of the project or borrower and the financial and operational status of the borrower or borrowers.
- The Early Correction Measure requires certain local governments, such as those whose debt servicing costs or financial deficits exceed specified levels, to obtain approval from the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications or their respective prefectural governors in cases where they issue additional bonds or borrow additional loans. In addition, local governments whose fiscal indicators exceed certain early warning limits must make their own efforts toward achieving fiscal soundness, and local governments whose fiscal indicators exceed certain "reconstruction limits" must take necessary actions to restore fiscal soundness under the oversight of the national government with regard to redemption of local government bonds and loans, and other operations. This system facilitates the maintenance of the credit standing of local government bonds and loans.
- Japanese local governments are regarded as not being subject to proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act of Japan (Law No. 75 of 2004, as amended). However, it is generally believed that creditors can bring judicial actions to enforce claims against local governments, including by way of attaching their ordinary assets, which are any assets of the local government that are not currently in the governmental or public use and are not determined to be put to such use.

As of 31 March 2023, JFM's total outstanding loans stood at ¥23,300.2 billion. The amount of loans outstanding made to local governments whose fiscal indicators exceeded the early warning limits or the reconstruction limits accounted for less than 0.04 per cent. in aggregate of total loans outstanding as of 31 March 2023.

JFM is not subject to the Japanese Banking Law (Law No. 59 of 1981, as amended) or the Financial Reconstruction Law (Law No. 132 of 1998, as amended). JFM performs self-assessment of loans made to local government road corporations in accordance with the Financial Inspection Manual of the Financial Services Agency ("FSA"). All of these loans have been processed as unclassified assets based on the self-assessment.

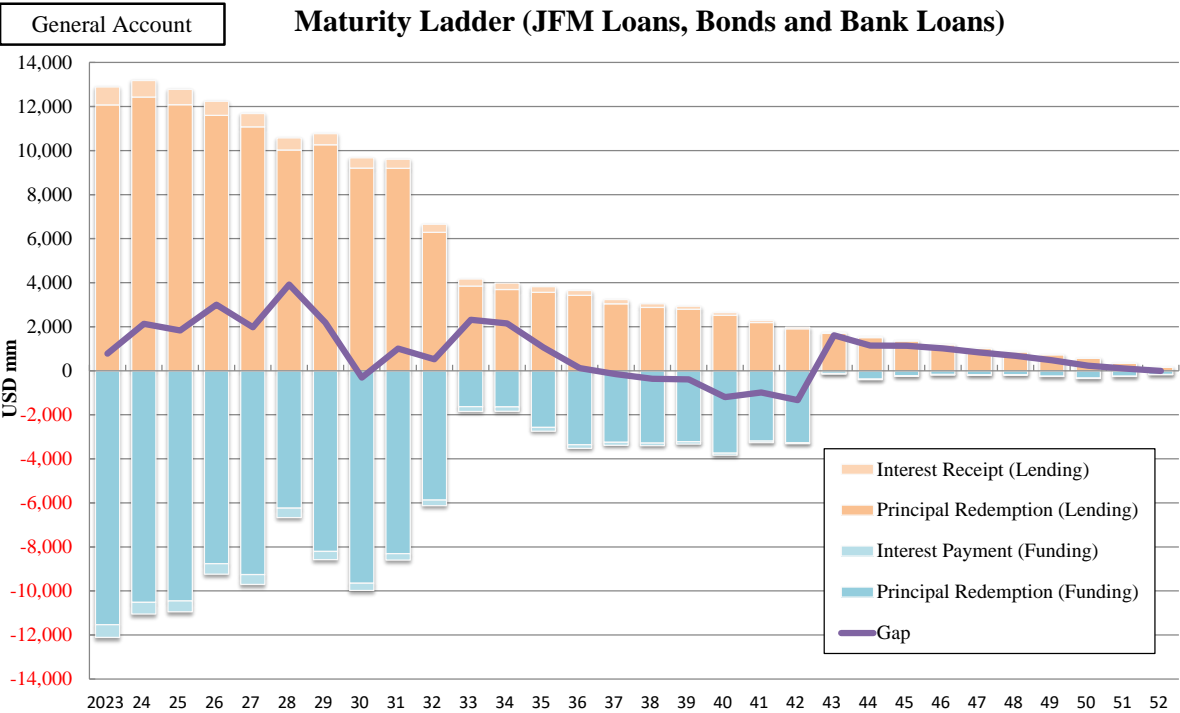

Credit Risk Associated with Market Transactions. JFM is exposed to the risk of loss arising from credit events, such as deterioration in the financial condition of a counterparty, which could cause an asset to lose value or become worthless. JFM manages credit risk of this type by monitoring the financial standing of its counterparties and by limiting counterparties to those financial institutions that meet certain credit rating and other criteria. In addition, JFM enters into ISDA Master Agreements and CSA (Credit Support Annex) with financial institutions which are its derivatives transaction counterparties to reduce credit risk resulting from fluctuations in the value of derivative transactions.

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk of loss resulting from changes in the value of assets and liabilities due to fluctuations in factors that affect the overall performance of the financial markets, such as interest rates, securities prices and foreign exchange rates, or the risk of loss resulting from changes in earnings generated from such assets and liabilities. Market risk includes interest rate risk, foreign exchange risk, inflation risk and price change risk.

Interest Rate Risk. JFM is exposed to interest rate risk, which is the risk of loss resulting from fluctuations in interest rates. Loans constitute a large part of the assets of JFM, and the maximum term to maturity of JFM loans is 40 years. However the majority of the funds for these loans are raised through issuance of 10-year bonds. This gap exposes JFM to the interest rate risk associated with bond refinance.

JFM takes the following measures to address the interest rate risk resulting from a duration gap between lending and fundraising.

- JFM maintains reserves for interest rate volatility to address the interest rate risk resulting from a duration gap between lending and fundraising. The amount of the above reserves stood at ¥2,200.0 billion in the general account and ¥701.5 billion in the management account for a total of ¥2,901.5 billion overall as of 31 March 2023.
- JFM manages assets and liabilities succeeded from the Predecessor in the management account. Total assets and liabilities in this account are expected to decline as time passes because no new loans or bonds (other than bonds issued to refinance Predecessor bonds) have been issued in this account since October 2008 and no such loans or bonds are expected. Interest rate risk in the management account is accordingly expected to decline.

The following table sets out the assets and liabilities in the management account as of the dates indicated:

	As of 31 March
	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023
	(Billions of yen)
Management Account
Total assets.....	¥8,387.0	¥7,345.8	¥6,418.9	¥5,542.2	¥4,750.6
Total liabilities.....	8,329.2	7,288.0	6,361.1	5,484.4	4,692.8

As total assets and liabilities in JFM's general account expand as a result of loan increases, JFM conducts an asset-liability management ("ALM") analysis of this account to best ensure the effectiveness of its management of interest rate risk. JFM also established a medium-term management target (for the five years beginning the year ended 31 March 2019) of maintaining a duration gap at below two years. In order to implement this management target, JFM takes the following measures:

- Controlling lending duration – Lending rates for loans for temporary financial countermeasures funding, which account for approximately 18 per cent. of JFM's outstanding loans in its general account as of 31 March 2023, are revised every 5 years or 10 years, depending on the loans, while maturities of the loans are set to be a maximum of 30 years.

- Extending funding duration – Utilising its FLIP and Open Issuance scheme, JFM aims to extend the funding duration by carefully choosing maturities of bonds to be issued e.g., continuously issuing long-dated bonds with maturities over 10 years.

The JFM Law allows the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications and the Minister of Finance (collectively the "Ministers") to transfer to the national treasury a portion of the reserves for interest rate volatility maintained in the management account. The management account was created by the JFM Law to manage the legacy obligations of the Predecessor, and the national treasury has a reversionary interest in the assets of the management account upon termination of the legacy obligations of the Predecessor. On 1 October 2008, JFM succeeded the reserve for losses on the refinancing of bonds in the amount of ¥3,476.5 billion from the Predecessor in order to ensure stable management going forward, and, out of this reserve, ¥220.0 billion was recorded in the general account and the remainder, ¥3,256.5 billion, was recorded in the management account. However, the JFM Law and the Cabinet Order concerning the Preparation of the Related Cabinet Orders and Transitional Measures in connection with the Abolishment of the Japan Finance Corporation for Municipal Enterprises Law (Cabinet Order 226 of 2008, as amended) requires a transfer of ¥220.0 billion per year from the management account to the general account for the period from the year ended 31 March 2010 to the year ended 31 March 2018. JFM has completed the transfers by the year ended 31 March 2018 accordingly.

The JFM Law prohibits reduction of JFM's reserves for interest rate volatility in the management account except to make the above transfers and to cover losses from refinancing the Predecessor's bonds and long-term borrowing.

In order to effect a transfer from the management account to the national treasury, the Ministers must determine that the sum of the management account reserves for interest rate volatility and the management account surplus reserve exceeds the amount necessary for JFM to operate smoothly on an ongoing basis. The Ministers, in consultation with JFM, determine this amount based on the financial resources JFM needs to maintain a solid financial base and to preserve market confidence. As part of the determination process, the Ministers and JFM model the potential for adverse cash flows resulting from interest rate volatility and stress test these models.

JFM has regularly made transfers of varying amounts to the national treasury from its reserve for interest rate volatility maintained in the management account. Under current determinations by the Ministers, the following amounts are to be transferred to the national treasury from JFM's reserves for interest rate volatility maintained in the management account within the specified time frame: (i) ¥100.0 billion during the year ending 31 March 2024, (ii) up to ¥1.5 billion over the six-year period ending 31 March 2024, of which ¥0.06 billion has already been transferred as of 31 March 2023 and (iii) ¥230.0 billion over the five-year period ending 31 March 2025, of which ¥150.0 billion has already been transferred as of 31 March 2023. In response to these determinations, JFM plans to make additional transfers of (i) ¥100.0 billion during the year ending 31 March 2024, (ii) ¥0.01 billion during the year ending 31 March 2024 and (iii) ¥80.0 billion by the end of the year ending 31 March 2025. The completed transfers have not had, and JFM does not expect the additional planned transfers to have, a material effect on JFM's business, results of operations or financial condition. This is due primarily to the fact that the margins on the management account loan portfolio are generally improving in the current low interest rate environment because bonds are being refinanced at lower rates and that interest rate risk in the management account is expected to decline overall as the size of that portfolio declines over time.

With respect to the reserves for interest rate volatility maintained in the general account, following the last annual transfer of ¥220.0 billion for the year ended 31 March 2018 described above¹, pursuant to the formula in the Ministerial Ordinance concerning the Finance and Accounting of the Japan Finance Organization for Municipalities (Ministerial Ordinance No. 87 of 2008, as amended), JFM will annually contribute a portion of profits generated from refinancing, if any, to the reserve. Specifically, JFM will contribute the lesser of the following:

- the difference between (i) 12.5 per cent. of the balance of the local government bonds and loans held by JFM at the end of the fiscal year and (ii) the reserve for interest rate volatility in the general account as of the end of the preceding fiscal year; or
- the profit generated from refinancing of bonds issued and loans taken out by JFM to fund local government loans ten or more years ago. This figure is calculated, in accordance with a prescribed formula, which is summarised as follows. First, the profits generated from the refinancing for each fiscal year are calculated and then aggregated. Profit is calculated for a given fiscal year ("Year X") by multiplying the average balance during the current fiscal year of loans extended in Year X by the difference between (a) the market interest rate for 10-year loans taken out by JFM in Year X and (b) the same rate for the fiscal year in which such loans were refinanced (i.e., Year X + 10 for loans issued between 10 and 20 years ago, and the Year X + 20 for loans issued between 20 and 30 years ago).

If either of the above is zero or a negative number, JFM does not need to contribute to the reserve for interest rate volatility in the general account for that fiscal year. In the year ended 31 March 2023, JFM did not make any transfer to the reserve for interest rate volatility in the general account.

The JFM Law and JFM's Articles of Incorporation prohibit reduction of the reserve for interest rate volatility in JFM's general account except to cover losses from refinancing JFM's bonds and long-term borrowing.

JFM is also exposed to "pipeline" risk. JFM generally raises funds required to finance a loan by issuing bonds prior to making the loan. Proceeds from bond issuances may not be earmarked for a particular loan. Fluctuations in interest rates between the time JFM issues bonds and ultimately lends the proceeds therefrom may affect the profitability of a loan. JFM uses swap transactions to hedge against pipeline risk.

Foreign Exchange and Other Risks. JFM is exposed to various other risks, for example foreign exchange risk, associated with bond principal and interest payments, which are generally hedged by swap transactions. JFM's investments of surplus funds are exposed to the risk of losses on the sale of securities resulting from price declines and the risk of losses on foreign currency-denominated deposits resulting from fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. Accordingly, in principle, JFM reduces the risk of price decline by holding investments until maturity, and hedges foreign exchange risk with forward foreign exchange contracts.

Liquidity Risk

JFM may become subject to liquidity risk, which is the risk that JFM would incur losses because of difficulty in fundraising, or because of funding at far higher interest rates than under ordinary conditions. It also includes the risk that JFM would incur losses because of the inability to conduct market transactions or because of transactions at prices far more unfavourable than under normal conditions due to market disruption or other situations.

JFM believes its current exposure to liquidity risk is low because JFM conducts daily cash and liquidity management based on quarterly cash planning, and the possibility of the occurrence of an unexpected funding shortfall is low as JFM's loans are made based on a pre-set schedule and most of the funds of JFM are raised by long-term funding. Moreover, JFM has entered into overdraft agreements with a wide range of financial institutions to prepare for unexpected funding shortfalls, and invests surplus funds only in short-term financial products. However, if severe circumstances relating to liquidity unforeseen by JFM occur, JFM's funding costs, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected. In addition, liquidity may be limited if JFM makes large allocations to a limited number of investors.

In addition, although JFM is not required to comply with the liquidity coverage ratio requirements of Basel III, as a voluntary measure, JFM has implemented a policy to maintain a certain amount of liquid assets so that, in the event of market disruption, JFM may continue to timely make its payments of interest and principal on the Notes and other debt securities.

Operational Risk

Operational risk is the risk of loss resulting from inadequate operation processes, inadequate activities by management and staff, and inadequate computer systems, or from external events, and includes, among other factors, administrative risk and systems risk.

Administrative Risk. Administrative risk is the risk of loss resulting from the neglect or inadequacy of attention by management and staff to properly conduct administrative work, accidents caused by them and violations of law by them in the course of the administrative work process. JFM endeavours to mitigate its exposure to administrative risk by preparing operational manuals, holding educational seminars and reducing operational workload through systematisation.

Systems Risk. Systems risk is the risk that the confidentiality, integrity and availability of information assets will be impaired as a result of computer system inadequacies or the fraudulent use of computer systems. JFM has established and implemented a Systems Risk Management Policy and a Systems Risk Management

Standard to manage systems risk and ensure smooth business operations. JFM has also prepared a Contingency Plan to limit the scope of losses and the impact on operations and restore normal operations promptly and efficiently in the event that computer systems break down or cannot be used due to unexpected accidents, disasters or malfunctions.

Local Government Control and Supervision

As of 31 March 2023, 1,789 local governments, encompassing all of the prefectures, cities, special wards, towns and villages, as well as some local government associations, contributed the capital to JFM. While the local governments do not have an obligation to provide additional capital to JFM, if JFM were to be dissolved for any reason, local government borrowers would have an obligation to bear the costs necessary to satisfy all JFM obligations which are not satisfied during the dissolution process.

Representative Board. JFM is subject to control and supervision of the local governments through its Representative Board, which consists of members nominated by the local governments. There are six members, three of whom are heads of local governments (governors of prefectures or mayors of cities, towns or villages), with the other three being individuals knowledgeable in the affairs of local administrations and their finances, economics, law and accounting.

The term of each member is three years. The Representative Board appoints JFM's President and Chief Executive Officer and Corporate Auditors. The Representative Board is authorised to approve such key management matters as appointment of management, business plans and annual budget. The Representative Board is also authorised to obtain from JFM's management information relating to JFM's operations and financial condition, and to order JFM's management to take corrective actions with respect to any illegal or other inappropriate activities.

OPERATING AND FINANCIAL REVIEW

The following operating and financial review is based on information contained in the 2022 annual report of JFM and the audited financial statements of JFM in respect of the years ended 31 March 2021, 2022 and 2023 as well as the accounting records of JFM and is intended to convey management's perspective on the operating performance and financial condition of JFM during the period under review, as measured in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan ("Japanese GAAP"). This disclosure is intended to assist readers in understanding and interpreting the financial statements of JFM incorporated by reference in this prospectus. The discussion should be read in conjunction with the "Selected Historical Financial Information" and the financial statements of JFM and the accompanying notes which are incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus. JFM is required to comply with Japanese GAAP, and its accounting policies have been established accordingly.

This discussion and analysis contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. JFM's actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including those discussed below and elsewhere in this Base Prospectus, particularly under the headings "Risk Factors" and "Forward-looking Statements".

Overview

JFM's net income for the year ended 31 March 2023 increased by 11.8 per cent. to ¥36.0 billion compared to ¥32.2 billion in the year ended 31 March 2022. The increase was due primarily to an increase in special gains. JFM's ordinary income for the year ended 31 March 2023 decreased by 7.7 per cent. to ¥101.7 billion compared to ¥110.3 billion in the year ended 31 March 2022. The decrease was due primarily to a decrease of 9.3 per cent. in interest income to ¥201.4 billion in the year ended 31 March 2023, which was partially offset by decreases in interest expenses and other operating expenses. See "— Results of Operations — Special Gains and Losses" below for more information about JFM's net special losses.

Based on its lending plan, JFM extended 12,694 loans to local governments in an amount of ¥1,588.5 billion with the consent or approval of the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications and prefectural governors in the year ended 31 March 2023. These loans included:

- loans, for a total of ¥655.6 billion, for general account-related businesses such as local road construction and special municipal merger projects;
- loans, in the amount of ¥283.8 billion, for temporary financial countermeasures funding to make up for a shortfall of local allocation tax pursuant to the provisions of the Local Government Finance Law; and
- loans, for a total of ¥649.1 billion, for municipal enterprise-related businesses such as sewerage and water supply.

In accordance with its fundraising plan, in the domestic market, JFM issued ¥865.0 billion as of 31 March 2023 of public offering bonds without government guarantee and ¥530.0 billion as of 31 March 2023 of private placement bonds without government guarantee subscribed to by pension funds and mutual aids for local government officials including the Pension Fund Association for Local Government Officials for lending. And, in the overseas markets, JFM issued ¥270.3 billion as of 31 March 2023 of non-Japanese denominated bonds without government guarantee. In addition, JFM conducted research and study and provided information on local governments' fundraising, trained local government staff, and provided administrative support for fundraising.

Principal Source of Ordinary Income

JFM's principal source of ordinary income is net interest income. Net interest income, or the difference between JFM's interest income and interest expenses, is a function of:

- the amount of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities;
- the spread (the difference between the rate of the interest earned on average interest-earning assets and the rate of interest paid on average interest-bearing liabilities);
- the general level of interest rates; and

- the proportion of interest-earning assets financed by non-interest-bearing liabilities and equity.

JFM's principal interest-earning assets are loans and, to a lesser extent, cash and bank deposits and securities. JFM's principal interest-bearing liabilities are bonds. JFM's interest expenses also include interest paid on other liabilities.

Factors Affecting Results of Operations

Policies of the Japanese National and Local Governments

JFM's business, financial condition and results of operations are significantly affected by the policies of the Japanese national and local governments. Such policies determine, among other things, local government borrowing requirements and are affected by many factors, including the political, socioeconomic and financial conditions and developments in Japan and of such governments. In particular, local government outlays for public works projects, shortfalls between overall outlays and tax and other revenues, extraordinary events such as natural disasters and other factors affect the demand of local governments for borrowing.

When there have been shortfalls in local revenue sources, which have arisen in part due to local government financial conditions, the national government has allowed local governments to prepay, without penalty, higher interest rate loans from JFM and to refinance those loans at current lower interest rates, and may continue to do so under certain conditions. In order to qualify for prepayment without penalty, local governments were required to take certain measures, such as establishing and implementing qualifying reform plans. JFM permitted such prepayments (including refinancings) for a total of ¥162.7 billion for the year ended 31 March 2014. There have been no prepayments in any subsequent fiscal year.

Interest Rate Changes

Fluctuations in interest rates affect JFM's results of operations primarily in the following ways:

- Maturity Gap. JFM generally issues 10-year bonds in order to finance loans with maturities of up to 40 years. This "maturity gap" can result in a need for JFM to refinance loans through subsequent bond issuances. If interest rates are higher at the time of such a refinancing, JFM may incur losses or reduced net interest income associated with the underlying loan.
- Prepayment Risk. In a declining interest rate environment, there is an increased risk of prepayment as local governments may seek to prepay their loans, without penalty, as described above.
- Pipeline Risk. JFM generally raises funds required to finance a loan by issuing bonds prior to making the loan. Proceeds from bond issuances may not be earmarked for a particular loan. Fluctuations in interest rates between the time JFM issues bonds and when it ultimately lends the proceeds therefrom may affect the profitability of a loan.

In addition, JFM's results of operations could be affected more generally by a declining interest rate environment as JFM's average interest rate on loans would decrease as existing loans with relatively high interest rates mature, or are prepaid, and are refinanced by lower interest rate loans, reflecting the then current interest rate environment. In such an environment, the average interest rates paid by JFM would also likely decline, but the spread between the average interest rate received on loans and the average interest rate paid on bonds could decrease, which would adversely affect JFM's net interest income. JFM takes measures to reduce the effect of interest rate fluctuations on its results of operations. For example, it maintains a reserve for interest rate volatility to hedge against maturity gap, and uses swap transactions to hedge against pipeline risk.

Reduction of JFM's Reserves for Interest Rate Volatility through Transfers to the National Treasury

JFM manages assets and liabilities succeeded from the Predecessor in its management account. JFM manages its other assets and liabilities in its general account. For a breakdown, see note 17 to JFM's financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2023. Total assets and liabilities in the management account are expected to decline as time passes because no new loans or bonds (other than bonds issued to refinance Predecessor bonds) have been issued in this account since October 2008 and no such loans or bonds are expected.

Under the JFM Law, if any assets remain when the asset management operations of the Predecessor are completed and the management account is closed, those assets shall be returned to the national treasury. Even before the management account is closed, in the event that the businesses of JFM are determined to have been executed smoothly in light of the condition of the management of JFM, the Ministers shall, if the management account reserve for interest rate volatility and the management account surplus reserve are determined to exceed the amount necessary for the smooth operation of the asset management operations of the Predecessor in the future, cause the amount that is determined to be in excess to be transferred to the national treasury. Accordingly, JFM has regularly made transfers of varying amounts to the national treasury from its reserve for interest rate volatility maintained in the management account. Under current determinations by the Ministers, the following amounts are to be transferred to the national treasury from JFM's reserves for interest rate volatility maintained in the management account within the specified time frame: (i) ¥100.0 billion during the year ending 31 March 2024, (ii) up to ¥1.5 billion over the six-year period ending 31 March 2024, of which ¥0.06 billion has already been transferred as of 31 March 2023 and (iii) ¥230.0 billion over the five-year period ending 31 March 2025, of which ¥150.0 billion has already been transferred as of 31 March 2023. In response to these determinations, JFM plans to make additional transfers of (i) ¥100.0 billion during the year ending 31 March 2024, (ii) ¥0.01 billion during the year ending 31 March 2024 and (iii) ¥80.0 billion by the end of the year ending 31 March 2025. The completed transfers have not had, and JFM does not expect the additional planned transfers to have, a material effect on JFM's business, results of operations or financial condition. This is due primarily to the fact that the margins on the management account loan portfolio are generally improving in the current low interest rate environment because bonds are being refinanced at lower rates and that interest rate risk in the management account is expected to decline overall as the size of that portfolio declines over time.

General and Management Accounts

JFM manages assets and liabilities succeeded from the Predecessor, and related revenues and expenses, in its management account. JFM manages its other assets and liabilities and related revenues and expenses, in its general account. Of the liabilities succeeded from the Predecessor, JFM succeeded to a ¥3.4 trillion reserve for losses on refinance of bonds on 1 October 2008. This reserve was transferred to the management account reserve for interest rate volatility and is being administered as follows:

- ¥2.2 trillion was deemed necessary to the continuity of JFM's operations and had been transferred to JFM's general account reserve for interest rate volatility in equal instalments over a ten year period. As of 31 March 2023, ¥2.2 trillion had been fully transferred accordingly; and
- the remaining was deemed necessary to appropriately manage the Predecessor's assets and liabilities to which JFM succeeded and to prepare for related bond refinancing risks. As such, this remainder is expected to remain in the management account reserve for interest rate volatility.

In accordance with the JFM Law, if any assets remain when the asset management operations of the Predecessor are completed and the management account is closed, those assets are to be returned to the Japanese national treasury.

Liquidity

JFM needs liquidity to pay its operating expenses, pay interest on and principal of debt, and maintain its lending activities. Adverse market and economic conditions in the domestic and global economy may limit or adversely affect JFM's ability to replace maturing liabilities in a timely manner, satisfy statutory capital requirements and access the capital necessary to operate its business.

The principal sources of JFM's liquidity are bond proceeds, cash flows from its loan portfolio, cash and bank deposits, and sales of assets, consisting mainly of assets that are readily convertible into cash. JFM depends on its ability to continue to refinance its bonds at commercially acceptable rates, and finances a portion of its operations with short-term funds. JFM has entered into overdraft agreements with a wide range of financial institutions to protect against unexpected fund shortfalls, and invests surplus funds only in short-term financial products.

Although presented as liabilities on JFM's balance sheet in accordance with the JFM Law, JFM maintains large reserves and other funds totalling ¥2,907.5 billion as of 31 March 2023 which it considers to provide additional liquidity in certain circumstances. For example, JFM maintains reserves for interest rate volatility in its general and management accounts totalling ¥2,901.5 billion as of 31 March 2023.

In addition, JFM maintains the fund for lending rate reduction totalling ¥923.8 billion as of 31 March 2023.

Derivatives and Hedging Activities

JFM follows the Accounting Standards for Financial Instruments issued by the Accounting Standards Board of Japan (the "ASBJ") and guidelines issued by the Japanese Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the "JICPA") regarding the application of hedge accounting to derivative financial instruments. Under such accounting standards and guidelines, derivative financial instruments designated as hedging instruments are recognised as either assets or liabilities and measured at fair value, and gains or losses on derivative transactions are deferred until gains or losses on hedged items are realised.

Over the life of a hedging instrument, changes in the fair value or cash flows of the hedged item can be expected to be almost fully offset by changes in the fair value or cash flows of the hedging instrument, making the net impact on profit over time relatively small. However, if the item to be hedged is one that would normally not be recorded at fair value (for instance if it is held at cost less impairment) but the hedging instrument is a type that would normally be accounted for at fair value, there could be substantial differences in the profit and loss affect for the two items during specific accounting periods, although over the whole life of the instrument these differences would be expected to balance out. Applying hedge accounting means that changes in the fair values of designated hedging instruments affect net income in a period based on the economic effectiveness of each hedge.

The Great East Japan Earthquake

Following the Great East Japan Earthquake on 11 March 2011, JFM implemented various support measures for the restoration and reconstruction of the affected regions. For example, 32 organisations faced challenges in making scheduled repayments because the disaster occurred 11 days before the regular repayment date of 22 March 2011. Complications included a temporary loss of administrative functions, financial system malfunctions and damage to the public infrastructure resulting from the disaster. The total amount of principal and interest scheduled to be repaid on that day by those organisations was ¥7.2 billion. Under the internal rules of JFM and special stipulations set forth in various the loan agreements, JFM extended the repayment date to 20 September 2011, which was the next regular repayment date. All of such principal and interest were repaid by the extended repayment date.

In addition, JFM revised its lending conditions for public housing projects relating to the Great East Japan Earthquake by extending the loan period from within 25 years to 30 years. JFM also decided in principle not to demand prepayment of loans advanced to public facilities that were affected by the disaster. However, JFM consented to the prepayment of some of the loans at the request of the relevant borrowers and provided funding for the refinancing of such loans, as some borrowers benefitted from more favourable lending conditions, such as lower interest rates. Further, JFM provided loans to three municipalities in the amount of ¥1.1 billion in the year ended 31 March 2012 to meet funding shortfalls of related municipal enterprises that had been or were likely to have been affected by the disaster. In addition, JFM expanded the scope of its lending to cover subletting loans for the relief of disaster and mother, child and widower welfare.

JFM believes that the Great East Japan Earthquake and its aftermath have not had, and will not have, a material adverse effect on JFM. JFM issued loans in the amount of ¥140.9 billion and ¥122.7 billion for disaster management and mitigation projects that needed to be implemented urgently, in the years ended 31 March 2022 and 2023, respectively. In the year ending 31 March 2024, JFM expects to extend loans for such projects in the amount of ¥120.4 billion.

JFM's Lending and Fundraising Plan for the Year Ending 31 March 2024

Lending Plan

JFM's lending plan is formulated based on the amounts of local government borrowings for which the consent or approval is scheduled to be given by the Minister for Internal Affairs and Communications or prefectural governors under the Local Governments Borrowing Programme. The Local Governments Borrowing Programme for the year ending 31 March 2024 was formulated by the Japanese government to address a shortfall in local revenue sources, which arose in part due to the severe local government financial situation. The programme intends to ensure funding so that local governments are able to continue providing necessary regional services and making strategic investments in priority areas. The programme promotes increased funding in the markets and narrows the priority areas into which public funds may be directed.

The Local Governments Borrowing Programme for the year ending 31 March 2024 targets borrowings of ¥9,499.4 billion, a 6.7 per cent., or ¥682.0 billion decrease compared to the year ended 31 March 2023, and contemplates borrowings from JFM in an amount of ¥1,641.9 billion. Based on the programme, JFM plans to extend loans in the total amount of ¥1,540.0 billion in the year ending 31 March 2024. This includes loans of:

- ¥692.1 billion for general account-related businesses;
- ¥172.5 billion for temporary financial countermeasures funding; and
- ¥675.4 billion for municipal enterprise-related businesses.

The aforementioned plan is subject to revision without notice, including as a result of the changes necessitated by any future supplementary budgets of the national government or amendments to the Local Governments Borrowing Programme.

Fundraising Plan

In the year ending 31 March 2024, JFM plans to raise the amount of ¥1,830.0 billion. Bonds planned to be issued by JFM in the year ending 31 March 2024 are ¥1,755.0 billion and include:

- ¥640.0 billion (face value) of non-guaranteed domestic public offering bonds, of which ¥20.0 billion are 5-year bonds, ¥270.0 billion are 10-year bonds, ¥110.0 billion are 20-year bonds and ¥20.0 billion are 30-year bonds;
- ¥300.0 billion under its global medium term note programme;
- ¥201.5 billion through its open issuance scheme, in which details of issuance such as tenor, issue size and issue market will be determined as necessary based on the lending status, market conditions and other factors;
- ¥533.5 billion of 10-year and 20-year private placement bonds subscribed to by pension funds and mutual aids for local government officials including the Pension Fund Association for Local Government Officials; and
- ¥80.0 billion of government-guaranteed domestic bonds to refinance the Predecessor's guaranteed bonds.

The issuance of FLIP bonds, global medium term notes and other bonds will be flexibly made within the various issuance ranges. The aforementioned plan is subject to revision without notice, including as a result of the changes necessitated by any future supplementary budgets of the national government or amendments to the Local Governments Borrowing Programme.

JFM also plans to raise ¥75.0 billion through long-term loans from banks in the year ending 31 March 2024.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The preparation of JFM's financial statements requires it to make estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts. Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

JFM considers the accounting estimates discussed in this section to be critical accounting estimates for the following reasons. First, the estimates require JFM to make assumptions about matters that are highly uncertain at the time the accounting estimates are made. Second, different estimates that JFM reasonably could have used for the accounting estimate in the current period, or changes in the accounting estimate that are reasonably likely to occur from period to period, could have a material impact on the presentation of JFM's financial condition, changes in financial condition or results of operations. JFM believes the following represent its critical accounting policies.

Reserve for Possible Loan Losses

JFM does not maintain a reserve for possible loan losses as neither JFM nor the Predecessor has ever experienced any loan losses. The determination not to maintain such a reserve requires significant management judgment and the use of estimates and assumptions. If actual events prove the estimates and assumptions, including the assumption that JFM will not experience loan losses going forward, used in this determination are incorrect, JFM may need to maintain a reserve for possible loan losses.

Impairment in Value of Securities

JFM only owns held-to-maturity securities in treasury discount bills and negotiable certificates of deposit, which are carried at amortised cost (straight-line method).

For securities with readily determinable fair values, if the fair value of a security at a measurement date has declined by more than 50 per cent. of its cost, JFM recognises an impairment loss in the carrying amount of the security since the decline in fair value is deemed to be other than temporary. If the fair value of the security has declined by an amount ranging from 30 per cent. to 50 per cent. of its cost, JFM must evaluate the probability of recovery of fair value in order to determine whether an other-than-temporary impairment has occurred. The judgment of the likelihood and magnitude of a future recovery in fair value relies on management's subjective views concerning market uncertainties, the categories of the issuers of the securities classified by JFM's self-assessment processes and various other factors.

Hedge Accounting

JFM follows the Accounting Standards for Financial Instruments issued by the ASBJ and guidelines issued by the JICPA regarding the application of hedge accounting to derivative financial instruments. Under such accounting standards and guidelines, derivative financial instruments designated as hedging instruments are recognised as either assets or liabilities and measured at fair value, and gains or losses on derivative transactions are deferred until gains or losses on hedged items are realised.

Over the life of a hedging instrument, changes in the fair value or cash flows of the hedged item can be expected to be almost fully offset by changes in the fair value or cash flows of the hedging instrument, making the net impact on profit over time relatively small. However, if the item to be hedged is one that would normally not be recorded at fair value (for instance if it is held at cost less impairment) but the hedging instrument is a type that would normally be accounted for at fair value, there could be substantial differences in the profit and loss affect for the two items during specific accounting periods, although over the whole life of the instrument these differences would be expected to balance out. Applying hedge accounting means that changes in the fair values of designated hedging instruments affect net income in a period based on the economic effectiveness of each hedge. However, JFM ensures hedging instruments and hedged items have the same major terms when entering into hedge transactions to offset bond and borrowed money market fluctuation risks. Accordingly, JFM deems these to be highly effective and thus does not assess effectiveness. Moreover, JFM omits a periodic assessment of hedge effectiveness for interest rate swaps, currency swaps and forward contracts that qualify for deferral hedge accounting when the exceptional accrual method is applied.

Description of Selected Income Statement Items

Net Interest Income. Net interest income is the difference between JFM's interest income and interest expenses, and is a function of:

- the amount of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities;
- the spread (the difference between the rate of the interest earned on average interest-earning assets and the rate of interest paid on average interest-bearing liabilities);
- the general level of interest rates; and
- the proportion of interest-earning assets financed by non-interest-bearing liabilities and equity.

JFM's principal interest-earning assets are loans and, to a lesser extent, cash and bank deposits and securities. JFM's principal interest-bearing liabilities are bonds. JFM's interest expenses also include interest paid on other liabilities.

Net Fees and Commissions. Net fees and commissions comprise commission income and commission expenses. Commission income includes income received from and to be received for services provided to third parties. Commission expense includes fees paid or to be paid for services rendered by third parties in relation to loans and credit facilities.

Other Operating Income. Other operating income comprises interest received on cash collateral paid for financial instruments.

Other Income. Other income primarily comprises contributions JFM received from the fund for lending rate reduction.

Other Operating Expenses. Other operating expenses primarily comprise bond issuance costs.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses include staff costs and other administrative expenses. Other administrative expenses includes the cost of outsourcing, rent and maintenance of property and equipment, printing costs, training expenses and advertising costs.

Special Gains and Losses. Pursuant to the relevant laws, part of the revenue generated from bond refinancings is provided to the reserve for interest rate volatility within the management account. Depending on the circumstances, a certain amount of prior fiscal year reserves may be reversed, creating additional income, and a certain amount of ordinary income may be allocated to the reserve for interest rate volatility within the general and management accounts thereby reducing net income.

Net Interest Income

Year Ended 31 March 2022 Compared to Year Ended 31 March 2023. JFM's net interest income decreased by ¥11.5 billion, or 11.2 per cent., from ¥103.2 billion in the year ended 31 March 2022 to ¥91.7 billion in the year ended 31 March 2023. This decrease was mainly due to a decrease in interest income caused by a decrease in the average interest rate on loans as a result of maturities of loans made in the past with relatively high interest rates. The decrease in interest income was partially offset by a decrease in interest expenses caused by a decrease in the average interest rate on bonds as a result of the maturity of bonds issued in the past with relatively high interest rates.

JFM distinguishes between general loans and entrusted loans, although more than 99 per cent. of all such loans are general loans. General loans are loans extended by JFM to local governments, which are not entrusted loans. Entrusted loans are loans extended by JFM using funds entrusted to JFM by the JFC. Such entrusted funds are loaned by JFM to local governments for financing the maintenance of public forests and improvements of pastures.

Historically, municipal enterprise-related businesses such as sewerage and water supply businesses accounted for almost all of JFM's general loans. However, due to the reorganisation on 1 June 2009, JFM became generally eligible to extend loans for general account-related businesses, such as special municipal mergers and temporary financial countermeasures funding. As a result, JFM's proportion of loan amounts by business type has changed significantly. Temporary financial countermeasures funding are funds extended to local governments to cover general resource shortfalls pursuant to the provisions of the Local Government Finance Law. The amounts to be paid for the payment of the principal and interest of temporary financial countermeasures funding borrowed by local governments are to be included in calculating the amount of the local allocation tax grant to be granted to such local governments.

The following tables provide information on JFM loans extended during the five years ended 31 March 2023 and JFM loans outstanding as of 31 March 2021, 2022 and 2023, respectively.

Entrusted Loans

JFM makes loans for public forest improvement projects and grasslands development projects, which are entrusted to JFM by the JFC. The total amount of entrusted loans made in the years ended 31 March 2022 and 2023 was not significant compared to the amount of JFM general loans made in those years.

Loan Terms

The terms and conditions applicable to JFM's loans other than entrusted loans are determined by JFM in accordance with the costs of funds procured by JFM. The terms and conditions of entrusted loans are determined by JFC.

Interest Rates

The following two types of interest rates on JFM loans were consented to, or approved, on or after the year ended 31 March 2013:

- Standard Interest Rate. The standard interest rate represents the rate at which the discounted present value of the cash flows of the loans roughly equals the discounted present value of the funds raised by JFM to make loans.
- Special Interest Rate. The special interest rate is set at a discount on the standard rate (0.35 per cent. per annum below the standard rate) for projects that are particularly important to the livelihood of residents and temporary financial countermeasures funding.

Effective from the year ended 31 March 2013, the former special interest rate (0.3 per cent. per annum below the standard rate) and the former extra-special interest rate (0.35 per cent. per annum below the standard rate) were integrated into the new special interest rate. The former special and extra-special interest rates are applied to loans consented or approved in or before the year ended 31 March 2012.

Approximately 99 per cent. of JFM loans outstanding as of 31 March 2023 consisted of special interest rate loans. Because the lower limit of the special interest rate and the extra-special interest rate is the interest rate assigned to loans from the national government, the discount rates which apply to the special interest rate and the extra-special interest rate may be lower than the discount rates set forth above.

Trends in Loan Interest Rates. The trend of loan interest rates for the three years ended 31 March 2023 is shown below. During this period, the special interest rates were at the same level as the rates of the fiscal loan fund provided by the national government.

Funding for Special Interest Rate. JFM uses investment income earned on its fund for lending rate reduction in part to facilitate lending at the special interest rates (i.e., the former special interest rate and the former extra special interest rate), which are equal to or lower than the standard interest rate. The fund is comprised of payments by local governments of a portion of the proceeds they earn from municipally operated horse, bicycle, motorcycle and speedboat racing. When further funds are required, racing contributions received for the same fiscal year and JFM's own funds can be used.

Maturities. The maximum loan maturity, which is set according to the purpose of the loan, was previously 28 years. As a result of the review of the loan maturity for each purpose, which was conducted at the time of the reorganisation of JFM in June 2009, the maximum term to maturity was extended to 30 years for loans issued from the beginning of the year ended 31 March 2009. In March 2015, the maximum term of maturity was further extended to 40 years, effective from April 2015.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

JFM raises funds for its loan operations mainly by issuing non-guaranteed bonds in the overseas and domestic capital markets. JFM is permitted to issue Japanese government-guaranteed bonds to refinance previously-issued Japanese government-guaranteed bonds (including those issued by the Predecessor). The national government prepares a Fiscal Investment and Loan Program (or, "Zaito Plan") each year. The Zaito Plan, which is subject to approval of the Diet, determines the allocation of funds and extent of government guarantees available for certain institutions, including JFM.

Contributions of the proceeds from horse, bicycle, motorcycle and boat races, operated exclusively by local governments, are paid to JFM in accordance with the Local Government Finance Law. The contributions are accumulated in a separate account (the fund for improvement of operations of municipalities) and monies transferred from returns from the management of the fund to the accounts are applied to contribute to the reduction of interest rates on loans to local governments. While the local governments do not have an obligation to provide additional capital to JFM, if JFM were to be dissolved for any reason, local government borrowers would have an obligation to bear the costs necessary to satisfy all JFM obligations which are not satisfied during the dissolution process.

In the year ended 31 March 2023, JFM issued bonds in the amount of ¥1,665.3 billion (issue price, the same shall apply hereinafter this section) and raised ¥127.0 billion of long-term bank loans. Bonds issued by JFM in the year ended 31 March 2023, included:

- ¥865.0 billion of non-guaranteed domestic public offering bonds, of which ¥32.0 billion were 5-year bonds, ¥310.0 billion were 10-year bonds, ¥130.0 billion were 20-year bonds, ¥20.0 billion were 30-year bonds and ¥373.0 billion were FLIP bonds;
- ¥270.3 billion under its global medium-term notes programme; and
- ¥250.0 billion of 10-year and ¥280.0 billion of 20-year private placement bonds subscribed to by pension funds and mutual aids for local government officials including the Pension Fund Association for Local Government Officials.

As a result, the outstanding balance of JFM bonds and bank loans amounted to ¥19,626.4 billion and ¥526.5 billion, respectively, as of 31 March 2023.

Cash Flow from Operating Activities

JFM's net cash flow from operating activities was a cash inflow of ¥0.9 billion in the year ended 31 March 2023, compared with a cash outflow of ¥399.3 billion in the year ended 31 March 2022 and a cash inflow of ¥827.6 billion in the year ended 31 March 2021. The cash inflow from operating activities in the year ended 31 March 2023 primarily resulted from a net decrease in loans (¥250.6 billion), whereas the cash outflow from operating activities in the year ended 31 March 2022 primarily resulted from a net increase in loans (¥406.4 billion).

Cash Flow from Investing Activities

JFM's net cash flow from investing activities was a cash inflow of ¥172.8 billion in the year ended 31 March 2023, compared with a cash outflow of ¥327.2 billion in the year ended 31 March 2022 and a cash outflow of ¥227.7 billion in the year ended 31 March 2021. The cash inflow from investing activities in the year ended 31 March 2023 primarily resulted from a decrease in purchase of securities, whereas the cash outflow from investing activities in the year ended 31 March 2022 primarily resulted from a greater net outflow from purchases of securities, partially offset by a greater net inflow from redemptions of securities.

Cash Flow from Financing Activities

JFM's net cash flow from financing activities was a cash outflow of ¥30.0 billion in the year ended 31 March 2023, compared with a cash outflow of ¥26.3 billion in the year ended 31 March 2022 and a cash outflow of ¥50.9 billion in the year ended 31 March 2021. The changes in the year ended 31 March 2023 as compared to the previous year were due primarily to a greater outflow from payment to the national treasury in the previous year.

TAXATION

The tax laws of the investor's state and of JFM's state of incorporation might have an impact on the income received from the securities. Prospective purchasers of Notes should consult their own tax advisers as to which countries' tax laws could be relevant to acquiring, holding and disposing of Notes and receiving payments of interest, principal and/or other amounts under the Notes and the consequences of such actions under the tax laws of those countries.

The following is a general description of certain Japanese and U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to the Notes. It does not purport to be a complete analysis of all tax considerations relating to the Notes, whether in Japan, the United States or elsewhere. Prospective purchasers of Notes should consult their own tax advisers as to which countries' tax laws could be relevant to acquiring, holding and disposing of Notes and receiving payments of interest, principal and/or other amounts under the Notes and the consequences of such actions under the tax laws of those countries. This summary is based upon the law as in effect on the date of this Base Prospectus and is subject to any change in law that may take effect after such date.

Japan

The following is a general description of certain Japanese tax aspects of the Notes and does not purport to be a comprehensive description of the tax aspects of the Notes. Prospective purchasers should note that, although the general tax information on Japanese taxation is described hereunder for convenience, the statements below are general in nature and not exhaustive.

Prospective purchasers are advised to consult their own legal, tax, accountancy or other professional advisers in order to ascertain their particular circumstances regarding taxation. The statements below are based on current tax laws and regulations in Japan and current income tax treaties executed by Japan all as in effect on the date hereof and all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations (possibly with retroactive effect). Neither such statements nor any other statements in this Base Prospectus are to be regarded as advice on the tax position of any beneficial owner of the Notes or any person purchasing, selling or otherwise dealing in the Notes or any tax implication arising from the purchase, sale or other dealings in respect of the Notes.

JFM will not issue "Taxable Linked Securities" (securities of which the amount of interest is to be calculated by reference to certain indexes (as prescribed by the Cabinet Order (Cabinet Order No. 43 of 1957) under Article 6, Paragraph 4 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation)) relating to JFM or a Specially-Related Party of JFM.

Representation by Investor upon Primary Distribution (Boshu)

The Notes are not, as part of the primary distribution (boshu) by the Dealers, to be, directly or indirectly, offered or sold to, or for the benefit of, any person other than a beneficial owner that is, (i) for Japanese tax purposes, neither (x) an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation, nor (y) an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation that in either case is a person having a "special relationship" with JFM (that is, in general terms, a party who directly or indirectly controls, or is directly or indirectly controlled by, or is under direct or indirect common control with, JFM) as described in Article 6, Paragraph 4 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation (a "Specially-Related Party of JFM"), or (ii) a Japanese financial institution, designated in Article 6, Paragraph 11 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation. BY SUBSCRIBING FOR THE NOTES, AN INVESTOR WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE REPRESENTED THAT IT IS A PERSON WHO FALLS INTO THE CATEGORY OF (i) OR (ii) ABOVE.

Capital Gains, Stamp Tax and Other Similar Taxes, Inheritance Tax and Gift Tax

Gains derived from the sale of Notes outside Japan by an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation having no permanent establishment within Japan are, in general, not subject to Japanese income tax or corporate tax.

No stamp, issue, registration or similar taxes or duties will, under current Japanese law, be payable in Japan by Noteholders in connection with the issue of the Notes, nor will such taxes be payable by Noteholders in connection with their transfer if such transfer takes place outside Japan.

Japanese inheritance tax or gift tax at progressive rates may be payable by an individual, wherever resident, who has acquired Notes from another individual as legatee, heir or donee.

Interest Payments on Notes and Redemption Gain or Redemption Loss

The following description of Japanese taxation (limited to national taxes) (subject always to the relevant tax treaty between Japan and the relevant country) applies exclusively to interest on the Notes and the redemption gain or the redemption loss, meaning any positive or negative difference between the acquisition price of the interest-bearing Notes of the holder and the amount which the holder receives upon redemption of such interest-bearing Notes (the "Redemption Gain" or the "Redemption Loss" as the case may be), where such Notes are issued outside Japan and payable outside Japan. In addition, the following description assumes that Notes are issued only in global form, and no Definitive Notes, Coupons or Individual Note Certificates that are independently traded are issued, in which case different tax consequences may apply. It does not address the tax treatment of the original issue discount of the Notes that fall under "discounted bonds" as prescribed by the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation. It is not intended to be exhaustive and prospective purchasers are recommended to consult their tax advisers as to their exact tax position, including any tax consequences resulting from the Redemption Loss of the Notes owned by such purchasers.

1. Non-Japanese Resident Investors

If the recipient of interest on the Notes or of the Redemption Gain with respect to interest-bearing Notes is an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation for Japanese tax purposes, as described below, the Japanese tax consequences on such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation are significantly different depending upon whether such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation is a Specially-Related Party of JFM (as defined below). Most importantly, if such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation is a Specially-Related Party of JFM, income tax at the rate of 15.315 per cent. of the amount of such interest will be withheld by JFM under Japanese tax law.

1.1 Interest

- (1) If the recipient of interest on the Notes is an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation having no permanent establishment within Japan or having a permanent establishment within Japan but where the receipt of the interest on the Notes is not attributable to the business of such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation carried on within Japan through such permanent establishment, no Japanese income tax or corporate tax is payable with respect to such interest whether by way of withholding or otherwise, if certain requirements are complied with, inter alia:
 - (i) if the relevant Notes or Coupons relating thereto are held through a certain participant in an international clearing organisation such as Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg and DTC, or a certain financial intermediary prescribed by the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation and the relevant Cabinet Order (together with the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation and the ministerial ordinance and other regulations thereunder, the "Law") (each, a "Participant"), the requirement that such recipient provide, at the time of entrusting a Participant with the custody of the relevant Notes, certain information prescribed by the Law to enable the Participant to establish that the recipient is exempt from the requirement for Japanese tax to be withheld or deducted (the "Interest Recipient Information"), and advise the Participant if such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation ceases to be so exempted (including the case where it becomes a Specially-Related Party of JFM), and that JFM prepare and file a certain confirmation prescribed by the Law (an "Interest Recipient Confirmation") with the competent local tax office in a timely manner based upon the Interest Recipient Information communicated through the Participant and the relevant international clearing organisation; and
 - (ii) if the relevant Notes or Coupons relating thereto are not held by a Participant, the requirement that such recipient submit to the Fiscal Agent, Paying Agent or Registrar (as the case may be) a claim for exemption from withholding tax (Hikazei Tekiyo Shinkokusho) (the "Claim for Exemption"), together with certain documentary evidence, and that JFM file the Claim for Exemption so received with the competent local tax office in a timely manner.

Failure to comply with such requirements described above (including the case where the Interest Recipient Information is not duly communicated as required under the Law) will result in the withholding by JFM of income tax at the rate of 15.315 per cent. of the amount of such interest.

- (2) If the recipient of interest on the Notes is an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation having a permanent establishment within Japan and the receipt of interest is attributable to the business of such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation carried on within Japan through such permanent establishment, such interest will not be subject to a 15.315 per cent. withholding tax by JFM, if the requirements concerning the Interest Recipient Information and the Interest Recipient Confirmation or the Claim for Exemption as set out in paragraph 1.1(1) above are complied with. Failure to do so will result in the withholding by JFM of income tax at the rate of 15.315 per cent. of the amount of such interest. The amount of such interest will be subject to regular income tax or corporate tax, as appropriate.
- (3) Notwithstanding paragraphs 1.1(1) and (2) above, if an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation mentioned above is a Specially-Related Party of JFM as of the beginning of the fiscal year of JFM in which the relevant Interest Payment Date falls, the exemption from Japanese withholding tax on interest mentioned above will not apply, and income tax at the rate of 15.315 per cent. of the amount of such interest will be withheld by JFM. If such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation has a permanent establishment within Japan, regular income tax or corporate tax, as appropriate, collected otherwise than by way of withholding, could apply to such interest under Japanese tax law.
- (4) If an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation (regardless of whether it is a Specially-Related Party of JFM) is subject to Japanese withholding tax with respect to interest on the Notes under Japanese tax law, a reduced rate of withholding tax or exemption from such withholding tax may be available under the relevant income tax treaty between Japan and the country of tax residence of such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation. As of the date of this Base Prospectus, Japan has income tax treaties, conventions or agreements in force, whereby the above-mentioned withholding tax rate is reduced, generally to 10 per cent. with, inter alia, Australia, Canada, Finland, France, Hong Kong, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Portugal and Singapore. Under the income tax treaties between Japan and Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Germany, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, the United Kingdom or the United States of America, interest paid to qualified Austrian, Belgian, Danish, German, Spanish, Swedish, Swiss, United Kingdom or United States residents is generally exempt from Japanese withholding tax (for Belgium, only for a Belgian enterprise). Under the current income tax treaties between Japan and Australia, France, The Netherlands or New Zealand, certain limited categories of qualified Australian, French, Dutch or New Zealand residents receiving interest on the Notes may, subject to compliance with certain procedural requirements under Japanese law, be fully exempt from Japanese withholding tax for interest on the Notes (provided that no exemption will apply to pension funds in the case of Australia and New Zealand). In order to avail themselves of such reduced rate of, or exemption from, Japanese withholding tax under any applicable income tax treaty, individual non-residents of Japan or non-Japanese corporations which are entitled, under any applicable income tax treaty, to a reduced rate of, or exemption from, Japanese withholding tax on payment of interest by JFM are required to submit an Application Form for Income Tax Convention regarding Relief from Japanese Income Tax and Special Income Tax for Reconstruction on Interest (as well as any other required forms and documents) in advance through JFM to the relevant tax authority before payment of interest.
- (5) Under the Law, (a) if an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation that is a beneficial owner of the Notes becomes a Specially-Related Party of JFM, or an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation that is a Specially-Related Party of JFM becomes a beneficial owner of the Notes, and (b) if such Notes are held through a Participant, then such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation would be obliged to notify the Participant of such change in status by the immediately following Interest Payment Date of the Notes. As described in paragraph 1.1(3) above, as the status of such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation as a Specially-Related Party of JFM for Japanese withholding tax purposes is determined based on the status as of the beginning of the fiscal year of JFM in which the relevant Interest Payment Date falls, such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation should, by such notification, identify and advise the Participant of the specific Interest Payment Date on which Japanese withholding tax starts to apply with respect to such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation as being a Specially-Related Party of JFM.

1.2 Redemption Gain or Redemption Loss

- (1) If the recipient of the Redemption Gain with respect to interest-bearing Notes is an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation having no permanent establishment within Japan or having a permanent establishment within Japan but where the receipt of such Redemption Gain is not attributable to the business of such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation carried on within Japan through such permanent establishment, no income tax or corporate tax is payable with respect to such Redemption Gain. If there is any Redemption Loss, such Redemption Loss will be disregarded for purposes of regular income tax or corporate tax, as appropriate, of the recipient of the redemption amount.
- (2) If the recipient of the Redemption Gain with respect to interest-bearing Notes is an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation having a permanent establishment within Japan and the receipt of such Redemption Gain is attributable to the business of such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation carried on within Japan through such permanent establishment, such Redemption Gain will not be subject to any withholding tax but will be subject to regular income tax or corporate tax, as appropriate. If there is any Redemption Loss, such Redemption Loss may be taken into account in computing the net taxable income, if any, for purposes of regular income tax or corporate tax, as appropriate, of the recipient of the redemption amount.
- (3) Notwithstanding paragraphs 1.2(1) and (2) above, if an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation mentioned above is a Specially-Related Party of JFM as of the beginning of the fiscal year of JFM in which such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation acquired such Notes, the Redemption Gain will not be subject to withholding tax but will be subject to regular income tax or corporate tax, as appropriate, under Japanese tax law, regardless of whether such individual non-resident of Japan or non-Japanese corporation has a permanent establishment within Japan; provided that exemption may be available under the relevant income tax treaty. If there is any Redemption Loss, such Redemption Loss may be taken into account in computing the net taxable income, if any, for purposes of regular income tax or corporate tax, as appropriate, of the recipient of the redemption amount.

2. Japanese Resident Investors

If the recipient of interest on the Notes is an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation for Japanese tax purposes, as described below, regardless of whether such recipient is a Specially-Related Party of JFM, in addition to any applicable local tax, income tax will be withheld at the rate of 15.315 per cent. of the amount of such interest, if such interest is paid to an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation (except for (i) a Designated Financial Institution (as defined below) which complies with the requirement for tax exemption under Article 6, Paragraph 11 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation or (ii) a Public Corporation (as defined below) or a Specified Financial Institution (as defined below), to which such interest is paid through the Japanese Custodian (as defined below) in compliance with the requirement for tax exemption under Article 3-3, Paragraph 6 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation).

In addition to the withholding tax consequences upon resident investors as explained in this section, resident investors should consult their own tax advisors regarding regular income tax or corporate tax consequences otherwise than by way of withholding, including the treatment of the Redemption Loss, bearing in mind, especially for individual residents of Japan, the change to the taxation regime relevant to Notes that took effect on 1 January 2016.

2.1 Interest

- (1) If an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation (other than a Specified Financial Institution (as defined below) or a Public Corporation (as defined below), who complies with the requirement as referred to in paragraph 2.1(2) below) receives payments of interest on the Notes through certain Japanese payment handling agents (each a "Japanese Payment Handling Agent"), income tax at the rate of 15.315 per cent. of the amount of such interest will be withheld by the Japanese Payment Handling Agent rather than by JFM. As JFM is not in a position to know in advance the recipient's status, the recipient of interest falling within this category should inform JFM through a Paying Agent of its status in a timely manner. Failure to so inform may result in double withholding.
- (2) If the recipient of interest on the Notes is a Japanese public corporation or a Japanese public-interest corporation designated by the relevant law (koukyohojin tou) (each, a "Public Corporation") or a Japanese bank, a Japanese insurance company, a Japanese financial instruments business operator or other Japanese financial institution falling under certain categories prescribed by the relevant Cabinet Order under Article 3-3, Paragraph 6 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation (each, a "Specified Financial Institution") that keeps its Notes deposited with, and receives the interest through, a Japanese Payment Handling Agent with custody of the Notes (the "Japanese Custodian") and such recipient submits through such Japanese Custodian to the competent tax authority the report prescribed by the Law, no withholding tax is levied on such interest. However, since JFM is not in a position to know in advance such recipient's tax exemption status, the recipient of interest falling within this category should inform JFM through a Paying Agent of its status in a timely manner. Failure to so notify JFM may result in the withholding by JFM of a 15.315 per cent. income tax.
- (3) If an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation (except for a Designated Financial Institution which complies with the requirements described in paragraph 2.1(4) below) receives interest on the Notes not through a Japanese Payment Handling Agent, income tax at the rate of 15.315 per cent. of the amount of such interest will be withheld by JFM.
- (4) If a Japanese bank, a Japanese insurance company, a Japanese financial instruments business operator or other Japanese financial institution falling under certain categories prescribed by the Cabinet Order under Article 6, Paragraph 11 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation (each, a "Designated Financial Institution") receives interest on the Notes not through a Japanese Payment Handling Agent and the requirements concerning the Interest Recipient Information and the Interest Recipient Confirmation or the Claim for Exemption as referred to in paragraph 1.1(1) above are complied with, no withholding tax will be imposed.

2.2 Redemption Gain

If the recipient of the Redemption Gain with respect to interest-bearing Notes is an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation, such Redemption Gain will not be subject to any withholding tax.

3. Special Additional Tax for Reconstruction from the Great East Japan Earthquake

Due to the imposition of a special additional withholding tax of 0.315 per cent. (or 2.1 per cent. of 15 per cent.) to secure funds for reconstruction from the Great East Japan Earthquake, the withholding tax rate has been effectively increased to 15.315 per cent. during the period beginning on 1 January 2013 and ending on 31 December 2037. On or after 1 January, 2038, all references to the tax rate of 15.315 per cent. in the foregoing descriptions will read 15 per cent.

Furthermore, special additional tax of 2.1 per cent. of the regular income tax amount for each year from 2013 to 2037 is also imposed in addition to regular income tax. In respect of such investors of the Notes on which regular income tax is imposed on the receipt of the interest on the Notes or the Redemption Gain of the Notes, the amount of income tax is affected by the imposition of such special additional tax.

United States Federal Income Taxation

This discussion applies only to Notes in registered form.

The following is a discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of Notes to the U.S. Holders described below. This discussion applies only to U.S. Holders that purchase Notes at their original issuance for their "issue price," which will equal the first price to the public (not including bond houses, brokers or similar persons or organisations acting in the capacity of underwriters, placement agents or wholesalers) at which a substantial amount of the Notes of the relevant series is sold for money, and hold the Notes as capital assets.

This discussion does not describe all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to a U.S. Holder in light of its particular circumstances, including any special tax accounting rules set forth in Section 451 of the Code, any alternative minimum tax and Medicare contribution tax consequences, as well as differing tax consequences that may apply to U.S. Holders subject to special rules, for instance:

- certain financial institutions;
- dealers in securities;
- traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of tax accounting;
- persons holding the Notes as part of a straddle or integrated transaction;
- persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;
- tax-exempt entities, individual retirement accounts or "Roth IRAs";
- partnerships or other entities or arrangements classified as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes; or
- persons holding the Notes in connection with a trade or business conducted outside the United States.

If a partnership or other entity or arrangement classified as a partnership holds the Notes, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will generally depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships and their partners should consult their tax advisers regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of acquiring, owning and disposing of the Notes.

This discussion is based on the Code, administrative pronouncements, judicial decisions and final, temporary and proposed Treasury regulations, changes to any of which subsequent to the date of this Base Prospectus may affect the tax consequences described herein, possibly with retroactive effect. U.S. persons considering the purchase of Notes are urged to consult their tax advisers with regard to the application of the U.S. federal income tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or non-U.S. taxing jurisdiction.

This discussion applies only to Notes that are classified as indebtedness for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Certain types of Notes may be subject to different U.S. federal income tax consequences from those described below. Additional or alternative U.S. federal income tax consequences of owning and disposing of Notes may be addressed in a supplement to this Base Prospectus.

As used herein, the term "U.S. Holder" means a person that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes a beneficial owner of a Note and:

- a citizen or resident of the United States;

- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation, created or organised in or under the laws of the United States, any state therein or the District of Columbia; or
- an estate or trust the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source.

Stated Interest

Stated interest on a Note will be taxable to a U.S. Holder as ordinary interest income at the time it accrues or is received, in accordance with the U.S. Holder's method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes, provided that the interest is qualified stated interest (as defined below). Special rules governing the treatment of interest paid with respect to OID Notes, certain Variable Rate Notes and Foreign Currency Notes (each as defined below), are described under "— Original Issue Discount and Short-Term Notes", "— Variable Rate Notes" and "— Foreign Currency Notes" below.

Interest earned by a U.S. Holder with respect to a Note will constitute foreign-source income for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Interest will be taxable as ordinary income and the amount thereof will include amounts, if any, withheld in respect of Japanese taxes and any additional amounts paid with respect thereto. Subject to applicable limitations, any Japanese income taxes withheld from interest payments on a Note (at a rate not exceeding any applicable rate under the U.S.-Japan income tax treaty) may be creditable against a U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability. Any Japanese withholding tax on an interest payment generally will not be creditable if the tax can be eliminated by providing the Interest Recipient Information or a Claim for Exemption, as described in "Taxation — Japan — Non-Japanese Resident Investors — Interest". Furthermore, Japanese withholding tax on an interest payment will not be creditable to the extent the tax can be reduced or eliminated under the U.S.-Japan income tax treaty. Because interest income is generally exempt from Japanese tax under the U.S.-Japan income tax treaty, U.S. Holders that are eligible for treaty benefits will generally not be entitled to a foreign tax credit for any Japanese tax withheld from interest payments on the Notes. In addition, recently issued Treasury regulations impose additional requirements for non-U.S. taxes to be eligible for credit in the absence of an election to apply the benefits of an applicable income tax treaty, and we have not determined whether these requirements have been met with respect to Japanese withholding tax, if any. The rules governing foreign tax credits are complex, and U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisers regarding the availability of foreign tax credits in their particular circumstances. Instead of claiming a credit, subject to applicable limitations, U.S. Holders may elect to deduct any creditable non-U.S. taxes in computing their taxable income. An election to deduct non-U.S. taxes instead of claiming foreign tax credits applies to all creditable non-U.S. taxes paid or accrued in the taxable year.

Original Issue Discount and Short-Term Notes

A Note that is issued at an issue price less than its "stated redemption price at maturity" will be considered to have been issued at an original issue discount for U.S. federal income tax purposes (and will be referred to in this section as an "OID Note"), unless the Note satisfies a de minimis threshold (as described below) or is a Short-Term Note (as defined below). The "stated redemption price at maturity" of a Note will equal the sum of all payments required under the Note other than payments of "qualified stated interest". "Qualified stated interest" is stated interest unconditionally payable as a series of payments in cash or property (other than in debt instruments of JFM) at least annually during the entire term of the Note and equal to the outstanding principal balance of the Note multiplied by a single fixed rate of interest or, subject to certain conditions, based on one or more floating rates or indices.

If the difference between a Note's stated redemption price at maturity and its issue price is less than a de minimis amount, i.e., generally 1/4 of one per cent. of the stated redemption price at maturity multiplied by the number of complete years to maturity, then the Note will not be considered to have original issue discount.

U.S. Holders of OID Notes will be required to include any qualified stated interest payments in income in accordance with their method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes as described above under "— Stated Interest". In addition, U.S. Holders of OID Notes will be required to include original issue discount in income for U.S. federal income tax purposes as it accrues, in accordance with a constant-yield method based on a compounding of interest. Under this method, U.S. Holders of OID Notes generally will be required to include in income increasingly greater amounts of original issue discount in successive accrual periods.

A U.S. Holder may make an election to include in gross income all interest that accrues on any Note (including, among other things, stated interest, original issue discount and de minimis original issue discount as adjusted by any amortisable bond premium) in accordance with a constant-yield method based on the compounding of interest (a "constant-yield election").

For purposes of calculating original issue discount, under applicable Treasury regulations, if JFM or the U.S. Holder has an unconditional option to redeem a Note prior to its maturity, this option will be presumed to be exercised if, by utilising any date on which the Note may be redeemed as the maturity date and the amount payable on that date in accordance with the terms of the Note as the stated redemption price at maturity, in the case of JFM's option, the yield on the Note would be lower than its yield to maturity or, in the case of the U.S. Holder's option, the yield on the Note would be higher than its yield to maturity. If this option is not in fact exercised, the Note will be treated solely for purposes of calculating original issue discount as if it were redeemed, and a new note were issued, on the presumed exercise date for an amount equal to the Note's adjusted issue price on that date. The adjusted issue price of a note is generally the issue price of such note, increased by the amount of original issue discount includible in gross income and decreased by the amount of any payment previously made, other than a payment of qualified stated interest.

A Note that matures one year or less from its date of issuance, taking into account the last possible date on which the Note could be outstanding in accordance with its terms (a "Short-Term Note"), will be treated as being issued at a discount and none of the interest paid on the Note will be treated as qualified stated interest. In general, a cash-method U.S. Holder of a Short-Term Note is not required to include in income the discount for U.S. federal income tax purposes as it accrues, unless it elects to do so, but should be required to recognise stated interest, if any, when it is paid. Cash-method U.S. Holders who so elect and certain other U.S. Holders, including those who report income on the accrual method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes, are required to include the discount in income as it accrues on a straight-line basis, unless an election is made to accrue the discount according to a constant-yield method based on daily compounding. Any gain realised on the sale, exchange or retirement of the Short-Term Note will be ordinary income to the extent of the discount accrued on a straight-line basis (or, if elected, according to a constant-yield method based on daily compounding) through the date of sale, exchange or retirement, to the extent not previously included in income. In addition, a U.S. Holder who is not required and who does not elect to include the discount in income as it accrues will be required to defer deductions for any interest paid on indebtedness incurred to purchase or carry Short-Term Notes in an amount not exceeding the accrued discount that has not been included in income.

Variable Rate Notes

All stated interest on a Variable Rate Note (as defined below) will constitute qualified stated interest if it is unconditionally payable at least annually at one of the rates described below in this paragraph throughout the term of the Note in cash or property (other than debt instruments of JFM). Therefore, such a Variable Rate Note will not be treated as having been issued with original issue discount unless it is issued at a "true" discount (i.e., at a price below the Note's stated redemption price at maturity where the difference equals or exceeds the de minimis amount described above). In general, a "Variable Rate Note" is a Note that provides for one or more qualified floating rates of interest, a single fixed rate and one or more qualified floating rates, a single objective rate, or a single fixed rate and a single objective rate that is a qualified inverse floating rate (as such terms are defined in applicable Treasury regulations), provided that the issue price of the Note does not exceed the total noncontingent principal payments due under the Note by more than an amount equal to the lesser of (x) 0.015, generally multiplied by the product of the total noncontingent principal payments and the number of complete years to maturity from the issue date and (y) 15 per cent. of the total noncontingent principal payments. Unless otherwise provided in the applicable supplement to this Base Prospectus, it is expected, and this discussion assumes, that a Floating Rate Note will qualify as a Variable Rate Note. If a Floating Rate Note does not qualify as a Variable Rate Note, then the Floating Rate Note will be treated as a "contingent payment debt instrument" and the applicable supplement to this Base Prospectus will describe certain U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. Holders of owning and disposing of such Notes.

In general, a "qualified floating rate" is any variable rate the variations in the value of which can reasonably be expected to measure contemporaneous variations in the cost of newly borrowed funds in the currency in which the Variable Rate Note is denominated. An interest rate that is based on the product of a qualified floating rate and a fixed multiple, or that subjects a qualified floating rate to a cap, floor, governor or similar restriction, may also be treated as a qualified floating rate if certain conditions are satisfied. An "objective rate" is generally a rate that is determined using a single fixed formula and that is based on objective financial or economic information. In general, a rate is a "qualified inverse floating rate" if it is equal to a fixed rate minus a qualified floating rate and the variations in the rate can reasonably be expected to inversely reflect contemporaneous variations in the qualified floating rate. If a Variable Rate Note provides for two or more qualified floating rates that can reasonably be expected to have approximately the same values throughout the term of the Note, the qualified floating rates together constitute a single qualified floating rate. If interest on a debt instrument is stated at a fixed rate for an initial period of one year or less followed by a variable rate that is either a qualified floating rate or an objective rate for a subsequent period, and the value of the variable rate on the issue date is intended to approximate the fixed rate, the fixed rate and the variable rate together constitute a single qualified floating rate or objective rate. Two or more qualified floating rates, or an initial fixed rate (as discussed in the prior sentence) and a variable rate, will be conclusively presumed to meet the requirements of the preceding two sentences if the values of the applicable rates on the issue date are within 1/4 of one percentage point of each other. If a Variable Rate Note is issued at a "true" discount (i.e., at a price below the Note's stated redemption price at maturity by at least the de minimis amount described above), such discount must be allocated to a U.S. Holder's accrual periods using the constant-yield method described below by assuming that the variable rate is a fixed rate equal to (i) in the case of a qualified floating rate, the value, as of the issue date, of the qualified floating rate, or (ii) in the case of an objective rate, a fixed rate that reflects the yield that is reasonably expected for the Variable Rate Note.

In general, a Variable Rate Note that provides for (i) multiple floating rates or (ii) one or more floating rates in addition to a single fixed rate (in circumstances such that the Note is not treated as having a single qualified floating rate or objective rate as described in the preceding paragraph) will be converted into an "equivalent" fixed rate debt instrument for purposes of determining the amount and accrual of original issue discount and qualified stated interest on the Variable Rate Note. A Variable Rate Note must be converted into an "equivalent" fixed rate debt instrument by substituting any qualified floating rate provided for under the terms of the Variable Rate Note with a fixed rate equal to the value of the qualified floating rate as of the Variable Rate Note's Original Issue Date. In the case of a Variable Rate Note that provides for stated interest at a fixed rate in addition to one or more qualified floating rates, the fixed rate is initially converted into a qualified floating rate such that the fair market value of the Variable Rate Note as of the Variable Rate Note's issue date is approximately the same as the fair market value of an otherwise identical debt instrument that provides for the replaced qualified floating rate rather than the fixed rate. Subsequent to converting the fixed rate into a qualified floating rate, the Variable Rate Note is then converted into an "equivalent" fixed rate debt instrument in the manner described above. Once the Variable Rate Note is converted into an "equivalent" fixed rate debt instrument pursuant to the foregoing rules, the amount of original issue discount and qualified stated interest, if any, are determined for the "equivalent" fixed rate debt instrument by applying the general original issue discount rules described in "—Original Issue Discount and Short-Term Notes" above to the "equivalent" fixed rate debt instrument. A U.S. Holder of the Variable Rate Note will account for any such original issue discount and qualified stated interest as if the U.S. Holder held the "equivalent" fixed rate debt instrument. In each accrual period, appropriate adjustments will be made to the amount of qualified stated interest (or, in certain circumstances, original issue discount) assumed to have been accrued or paid with respect to the "equivalent" fixed rate debt instrument in the event that such amounts differ from the actual amount of interest accrued or paid on the Variable Rate Note during the accrual period.

Amortisable Bond Premium

If a U.S. Holder purchases a Note for an amount that is greater than its stated redemption price at maturity, the U.S. Holder will be considered to have purchased the Note with amortisable bond premium. The U.S. Holder may elect to amortise this premium, using a constant-yield method, over the term of the Note. Special rules may limit the amount of bond premium that can be amortised during certain accrual periods in the case of Notes that are subject to unconditional optional redemption. A U.S. Holder may generally use the amortisable bond premium allocable to an accrual period to offset qualified stated interest required to be included in the U.S. Holder's income with respect to the Note in that accrual period. A U.S. Holder who elects to amortise bond premium must reduce the U.S. Holder's tax basis in the Note by the amount of the premium amortised in any year. An election to amortise bond premium applies to all taxable debt obligations owned by the U.S. Holder during the taxable year for which the election is made and all taxable debt obligations thereafter acquired by the U.S. Holder, and may be revoked only with the consent of the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS").

If a U.S. Holder makes a constant-yield election (as described under "—Original Issue Discount and Short-Term Notes" above) for a Note with amortisable bond premium, such election will result in a deemed election to amortise bond premium for all of the U.S. Holder's debt instruments with amortisable bond premium and may be revoked only with the permission of the IRS.

Sale, Exchange or Retirement of the Notes

Upon the sale, exchange or retirement of a Note, a U.S. Holder will recognise taxable gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realised on the sale, exchange or retirement and the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the Note. Gain or loss, if any, will generally be U.S.-source for purposes of computing a U.S. Holder's foreign tax credit limitation. For these purposes, the amount realised does not include any amount attributable to accrued qualified stated interest, which will be treated as interest as described under "—Stated Interest" above. A U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in a Note generally will equal such U.S. Holder's initial investment in the Note, increased by any original issue discount (or discount in the case of Short-Term Notes) included in income and decreased by any bond premium previously amortised and principal payments or payments other than qualified stated interest previously received.

Except as described below, gain or loss realised on the sale, exchange or retirement of a Note will generally be capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if at the time of sale, exchange or retirement the Note the U.S. Holder has held the Note for more than one year. Exceptions to this general rule apply in the case of a Short-Term Note, to the extent of any accrued discount not previously included in the U.S. Holder's taxable income. See "—Original Issue Discount and Short-Term Notes" above. Other exceptions to this general rule apply in the case of certain Foreign Currency Notes. See "—Foreign Currency Notes" below.

Foreign Currency Notes

The rules applicable to Notes denominated in, or the payments on which are determined by reference to, a single currency other than U.S. dollars (referred to in this section as "Foreign Currency Notes") could require some or all of the gain or loss on the sale, exchange or retirement of a Foreign Currency Note to be re-characterised as ordinary income or loss. The rules applicable to Foreign Currency Notes are complex and their application may depend on the U.S. Holder's particular U.S. federal income tax situation. For example, various elections are available under these rules, and whether a U.S. Holder should make any of these elections may depend on the U.S. Holder's particular U.S. federal income tax situation. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisers regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of Foreign Currency Notes.

A U.S. Holder who uses the cash method of tax accounting and who receives a payment of qualified stated interest (or who receives proceeds from a sale, exchange or retirement attributable to accrued qualified stated interest) in a foreign currency with respect to a Foreign Currency Note will be required to include in income the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency payment (determined based on a spot rate on the date the payment is received) regardless of whether the payment is in fact converted into U.S. dollars at that time, and this U.S. dollar value will be the U.S. Holder's tax basis in the foreign currency received.

An accrual-method U.S. Holder will be required to include in income the U.S. dollar value of the amount of interest income (including original issue discount, but reduced by amortisable bond premium to the extent applicable) that has accrued and is otherwise required to be taken into account with respect to a Foreign Currency Note during an accrual period. Absent a contrary election by the accrual-method U.S. Holder, the U.S. dollar value of the accrued income will be determined by translating the income at the average rate of exchange for the accrual period or, with respect to an accrual period that spans two taxable years, at the average rate for the partial period within the taxable year. An accrual-method U.S. Holder may elect to translate interest income (including original issue discount) into U.S. dollars at the spot rate on the last day of the interest accrual period (or, in the case of a partial accrual period, the spot rate on the last day of the taxable year) or, if the date of receipt is within five business days of the last day of the interest accrual period, the spot rate on the date of receipt. An accrual-method U.S. Holder that makes this election must apply it consistently to all debt instruments from year to year and cannot change the election without the consent of the IRS. The U.S. Holder may recognise ordinary income or loss (which will not be treated as interest income or expense and generally will be treated as U.S.-source income or loss) with respect to accrued interest income on the date that the interest payment or proceeds from the sale, exchange or retirement attributable to accrued interest is actually received in an amount equal to the difference between the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency payment received (determined based on a spot rate on the date the payment is received) in respect of the accrual period and the U.S. dollar value of the interest income accrued by the U.S. Holder for the accrual period (as determined above). Similar rules apply with respect to any original issue discount required to be accrued by a cash-method U.S. Holder with respect to a Foreign Currency Note.

Original issue discount and amortisable bond premium on a Foreign Currency Note are determined in the relevant foreign currency.

If an election to amortise bond premium is made, amortisable bond premium taken into account on a current basis will reduce interest income in units of the relevant foreign currency. Gain or loss attributable to fluctuations in exchange rates will be realised on amortised bond premium with respect to any period by treating the bond premium amortised in the period in the same manner as it would have been treated if it were principal received on the sale, exchange or retirement of the Foreign Currency Note as described below. Any exchange gain or loss will be taxed as ordinary income or loss. If a U.S. Holder does not make the election to amortise bond premium, any bond premium will be taken into account in determining the overall gain or loss on the Notes and any loss realised on the sale, exchange or retirement of a Foreign Currency Note with amortisable bond premium will be a capital loss to the extent of the bond premium, subject to the discussion of foreign currency loss below.

A U.S. Holder's tax basis in a Foreign Currency Note, and the amount of any subsequent adjustment to the U.S. Holder's tax basis (including adjustments for original issue discount included as income and any bond premium previously amortised or principal payments received), will generally be the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency amount paid for such Foreign Currency Note, as discussed below, or of the foreign currency amount of the adjustment, determined on the date of the purchase or adjustment. The amount realised on a sale, exchange or retirement of a Foreign Currency Note will generally be the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency received (except to the extent attributable to accrued interest), determined on the date of the sale, exchange or retirement. However, if a Foreign Currency Note is traded on an "established securities market" and the U.S. Holder is a cash-method taxpayer or an electing accrual-method taxpayer, the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency amount paid for such Note and the amount realised on the disposition of such Note will be determined based on the spot rate on the settlement date of the purchase or disposition. An accrual-method U.S. Holder making the election described in the preceding sentence must apply such election consistently to all debt instruments denominated in foreign currency which are traded on "established securities markets" and cannot change it without the consent of the IRS.

Gain or loss realised upon the sale, exchange or retirement of a Foreign Currency Note that is attributable to fluctuations in currency exchange rates ("exchange gain or loss") will be ordinary income or loss which will not be treated as interest income or expense. Exchange gain or loss will equal the difference between (i) the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency principal amount of the Note, determined on the date the payment is received or the Note is disposed of and (ii) the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency principal amount of the Note, determined on the date the U.S. Holder acquired the Note. For these purposes, principal amount of the Note means a U.S. Holder's purchase price as denominated in the foreign currency. Payments received attributable to accrued interest will be treated in accordance with the rules applicable to payments of interest on Foreign Currency Notes described above. The exchange gain or loss will be recognised only to the extent of the total gain or loss realised by a U.S. Holder on the sale, exchange or retirement of the Foreign Currency Note. Exchange gain or loss for U.S. Holders will generally be U.S.-source. Any gain or loss realised by a U.S. Holder in excess of the exchange gain or loss will be capital gain or loss (except, in the case of a Short-Term Note, to the extent of any discount not previously included in the U.S. Holder's income). Any gain or loss realised by a U.S. Holder on a sale or other disposition of foreign currency (including its exchange for U.S. dollars or its use to purchase Foreign Currency Notes) will be ordinary income or loss.

A U.S. Holder may be required to file a reportable transaction disclosure statement with the U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax return if such U.S. Holder realises a foreign currency loss on a sale or exchange of a Foreign Currency Note or foreign currency and such loss is greater than applicable threshold amounts, which differ depending on the status of the U.S. Holder. A U.S. Holder that claims a foreign currency loss with respect to a Foreign Currency Note should consult its tax adviser regarding the need to file a reportable transaction disclosure statement.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

Information returns may be filed with the IRS in connection with payments on the Notes and the proceeds from a sale or other disposition of the Notes. A U.S. Holder may be subject to U.S. backup withholding on these payments if the U.S. Holder fails to provide its taxpayer identification number to the payor and comply with certain certification procedures or otherwise establish an exemption from backup withholding. The amount of any backup withholding from a payment to a U.S. Holder will be allowed as a credit against the U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle the U.S. Holder to a refund, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Certain U.S. Holders who are individuals and certain specified entities may be required to report information relating to debt securities issued by non-U.S. persons, or non-U.S. financial accounts through which they may be held. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisers regarding their reporting obligations with respect to the Notes.

BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR CONSIDERATIONS

A fiduciary of a pension, profit-sharing or other employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), including entities such as collective investment funds, partnerships and separate accounts whose underlying assets include the assets of such plans (collectively, "ERISA Plans") should consider the fiduciary standards of ERISA in the context of the ERISA Plan's particular circumstances before authorising an investment in the Notes. Among other factors, the fiduciary should consider whether the investment would satisfy the prudence and diversification requirements of ERISA and would be consistent with the documents and instruments governing the ERISA Plan.

Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code prohibit ERISA Plans, as well as plans (including individual retirement accounts and Keogh plans) subject to Section 4975 of the Code (together with ERISA Plans, "Plans"), from engaging in certain transactions involving the "plan assets" with persons who are "parties in interest" under Section 3(14) of ERISA or "disqualified persons" under Section 4975(e)(2) of the Code (in either case, "Parties in Interest") with respect to such Plans. As a result of our business, we, the Dealers and our and their current and future affiliates, may be Parties in Interest with respect to many Plans. Where we or one of the Dealers (or our or its affiliate) are a Party in Interest with respect to a Plan (either directly or by reason of our or its ownership interests in our or its directly or indirectly owned subsidiaries), the purchase and holding of the Notes by or on behalf of the Plan could be a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA and/or Section 4975 of the Code, unless exemptive relief were available under an applicable exemption (as described below).

Certain prohibited transaction class exemptions ("PTCEs") issued by the U.S. Department of Labor may provide exemptive relief for direct or indirect prohibited transactions resulting from the purchase or holding of the Notes. Those class exemptions are PTCE 96-23 (for certain transactions determined by in-house asset managers), PTCE 95-60 (for certain transactions involving insurance company general accounts), PTCE 91-38 (for certain transactions involving bank collective investment funds), PTCE 90-1 (for certain transactions involving insurance company separate accounts) and PTCE 84-14 (for certain transactions determined by independent qualified asset managers). In addition, ERISA Section 408(b)(17) and Section 4975(d)(20) of the Code may provide a limited exemption for the purchase and sale of the Notes and related lending transactions, provided that neither JFM nor any of its affiliates have or exercise any discretionary authority or control or render any investment advice with respect to the assets of the Plan involved in the transaction (in other words, not a fiduciary) and provided further that the Plan pays no more, and receives no less, than "adequate consideration" in connection with the transaction (the so-called "service provider exemption"). There can be no assurance that any of these statutory or class exemptions will be available with respect to transactions involving the Notes.

Accordingly, the Notes may not be purchased or held by any Plan, any entity whose underlying assets include, or are deemed under the U.S. Department of Labor regulation at 29 C.F.R. § 2510.3-101, as modified by Section 3(42) of ERISA, or otherwise to include, "plan assets" by reason of any Plan's investment in the entity (such entities together with Plans, "Plan Asset Entities") or any person investing "plan assets" of any Plan, unless such purchaser or holder is eligible for the exemptive relief available under PTCE 96-23, 95-60, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14 or the service-provider exemption or there is some other basis on which the purchase and holding of the Notes will not constitute a non-exempt prohibited transaction under ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code. Each purchaser or holder of the Notes or any interest therein will be deemed to have represented by its purchase or holding of the Notes that (a) it is not a Plan Asset Entity and its purchase, holding and subsequent disposition of the Notes is not made on behalf of or with "plan assets" of any Plan or (b) its purchase, holding and subsequent disposition of the Notes will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code.

Certain governmental plans (as defined in Section 3(32) of ERISA), church plans (as defined in Section 3(33) of ERISA) that have made no election under Section 410(d) of the Code and non-U.S. plans (as described in Section 4(b)(4) of ERISA) ("Non-ERISA Arrangements") are not subject to these "prohibited transaction" rules of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, but may be subject to similar rules under any U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. law or regulation ("Similar Laws"). Accordingly, each such purchaser or holder of the Notes shall be required to represent (and deemed to have represented by its purchase or holding of the Notes) that its purchase, holding and subsequent disposition of the Notes will not violate any applicable Similar Laws.

None of JFM, the Agents, the Registrar, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates (collectively, the "Transaction Parties") is undertaking to provide impartial investment advice, or to give advice in a fiduciary capacity, in connection with the acquisition of any of the Notes by any Plan Asset Entity.

If the purchaser, holder or transferee of any Note or interest therein is a Plan Asset Entity, it will be required or deemed to represent, warrant and agree that (i) none of the Transaction Parties has provided any investment recommendation or investment advice on which it, or any fiduciary or other person investing on behalf of the Plan Asset Entity or who otherwise has discretion or control over the investment and management of the assets of the Plan Asset Entity (a "Plan Fiduciary"), has relied in connection with its decision to purchase, hold or transfer the Notes, and none of them is otherwise acting as a fiduciary, as defined in Section 3(21) of ERISA or Section 4975(e)(3) of the Code, to the Plan Asset Entity or the Plan Fiduciary in connection with the Plan Asset Entity's acquisition, holding or disposition of the Notes in connection with the initial offering of the Notes; and (ii) the Plan Fiduciary is exercising its own independent judgment in evaluating an investment in the Notes.

This Base Prospectus is not directed to any particular investor, nor does it address the specific needs of any particular type of investor. Due to the complexity of the rules under ERISA, the Code and Similar Laws, it is particularly important that fiduciaries or other persons considering purchasing and holding the Notes on behalf of or with "plan assets" of any Plan or Non-ERISA Arrangement consult with their counsel regarding the relevant provisions of ERISA, the Code or any Similar Laws and the availability of exemptive relief under PTCE 96-23, 95-60, 91-38, 90-1, 84-14, the service provider exemption or some other basis on which the acquisition and holding will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code or a violation of any applicable Similar Laws.

Each purchaser and holder of the Notes has exclusive responsibility for ensuring that its purchase, holding and subsequent disposition of the Notes does not violate the fiduciary or prohibited transaction rules of ERISA, the Code or any applicable Similar Laws. The sale of any Notes to any Plan Asset Entity or Non-ERISA Arrangement is in no respect a representation by us or any of our affiliates or representatives that such an investment meets all relevant legal requirements with respect to investments by Plan Asset Entities or Non-ERISA Arrangements generally or any particular Plan Asset Entity or Non-ERISA Arrangement, or that such an investment is appropriate for Plan Asset Entities or Non-ERISA Arrangements generally or any particular Plan Asset Entity or Non-ERISA Arrangement.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

Notes may be sold from time to time by JFM to any one or more of Barclays Bank PLC, BNP Paribas, BofA Securities, Inc., Citigroup Global Markets Limited, Daiwa Capital Markets Europe Limited, Goldman Sachs International, J.P. Morgan Securities plc, Merrill Lynch International, Mizuho International plc, Mizuho Securities Asia Limited, Mizuho Securities USA LLC, Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc and Nomura International plc (the "Dealers"). The arrangements under which Notes may from time to time be agreed to be sold by JFM to, and purchased by, Dealers are set out in an amended and restated dealer agreement dated 21 July 2023 (the "Dealer Agreement") and made between JFM and the Dealers. Any such agreement will, inter alia, make provision for the form and terms and conditions of the relevant Notes, the price at which such Notes will be purchased by the Dealers and the commissions or other agreed deductibles (if any) payable or allowable by JFM in respect of such purchase. The Dealer Agreement makes provision for the resignation or termination of appointment of existing Dealers and for the appointment of additional or other Dealers either generally in respect of the Programme or in relation to a particular Tranche of Notes. The Dealers are entitled in certain circumstances to be released and discharged from their obligations under the Subscription Agreement prior to the closing of the issue of the Notes.

The relevant Dealers will be entitled in certain circumstances to be released and discharged from their obligations in respect of a proposed issue of Notes under or pursuant to the Dealer Agreement prior to the closing of the issue of such Notes, including in the event that certain conditions precedent are not delivered or met to their satisfaction on or before the issue date of such Notes. In this situation, the issuance of such Notes may not be completed. Investors will have no rights against JFM or the relevant Dealers in respect of any expense incurred or loss suffered in these circumstances.

Notice to capital market intermediaries and prospective investors pursuant to paragraph 21 of the Hong Kong SFC Code of Conduct – Important Notice to CMIs (including private banks): This notice to CMIs (including private banks) is a summary of certain obligations the SFC Code imposes on CMIs, which require the attention and cooperation of other CMIs (including private banks). Certain CMIs may also be acting as OCs for the relevant CMI Offering and are subject to additional requirements under the SFC Code. The application of these obligations will depend on the role(s) undertaken by the relevant Dealer(s) in respect of each CMI Offering.

Prospective investors who are the directors, employees or major shareholders of JFM, a CMI or its group companies would be considered under the SFC Code as having an Association with JFM, the CMI or the relevant group company. CMIs should specifically disclose whether their investor clients have any Association when submitting orders for the relevant Notes. In addition, private banks should take all reasonable steps to identify whether their investor clients may have any Associations with JFM or any CMI (including its group companies) and inform the relevant Dealers accordingly.

CMIs are informed that, unless otherwise notified, the marketing and investor targeting strategy for the relevant CMI Offering includes institutional investors, sovereign wealth funds, pension funds, hedge funds, family offices and high net worth individuals, in each case, subject to the selling restrictions and any MiFID II product governance language or any UK MiFIR product governance language set out elsewhere in this Base Prospectus and/or the applicable Final Terms.

CMIs should ensure that orders placed are bona fide, are not inflated and do not constitute duplicated orders (i.e. two or more corresponding or identical orders placed via two or more CMIs). CMIs should enquire with their investor clients regarding any orders which appear unusual or irregular. CMIs should disclose the identities of all investors when submitting orders for the relevant Notes (except for omnibus orders where underlying investor information may need to be provided to any OCs when submitting orders). Failure to provide underlying investor information for omnibus orders, where required to do so, may result in that order being rejected. CMIs should not place "X-orders" into the order book.

CMIs should segregate and clearly identify their own proprietary orders (and those of their group companies, including private banks as the case may be) in the order book and book messages.

CMIs (including private banks) should not offer any rebates to prospective investors or pass on any rebates provided by JFM. In addition, CMIs (including private banks) should not enter into arrangements which may result in prospective investors paying different prices for the relevant Notes. CMIs are informed that a private bank rebate may be payable as stated above and in the applicable Final Terms, or otherwise notified to prospective investors.

The SFC Code requires that a CMI disclose complete and accurate information in a timely manner on the status of the order book and other relevant information it receives to targeted investors for them to make an informed decision. In order to do this, those Dealers in control of the order book should consider disclosing order book updates to all CMIs.

When placing an order for the relevant Notes, private banks should disclose, at the same time, if such order is placed other than on a "principal" basis (whereby it is deploying its own balance sheet for onward selling to investors). Private banks who do not provide such disclosure are hereby deemed to be placing their order on such a "principal" basis. Otherwise, such order may be considered to be an omnibus order pursuant to the SFC Code. Private banks should be aware that placing an order on a "principal" basis may require the relevant affiliated Dealer(s) (if any) to categorise it as a proprietary order and apply the "proprietary orders" requirements of the SFC Code to such order and will result in that private bank not being entitled to, and not being paid, any rebate.

In relation to omnibus orders, when submitting such orders, CMIs (including private banks) that are subject to the SFC Code should disclose underlying investor information in respect of each order constituting the relevant omnibus order (failure to provide such information may result in that order being rejected). Underlying investor information in relation to omnibus orders should consist of:

- The name of each underlying investor;
- A unique identification number for each investor;
- Whether an underlying investor has any "Associations" (as used in the SFC Code);
- Whether any underlying investor order is a "Proprietary Order" (as used in the SFC Code);
- Whether any underlying investor order is a duplicate order.

Underlying investor information in relation to omnibus order should be sent to the Dealers named in the relevant Final Terms.

By placing an order, prospective investors (including any underlying investors in relation to omnibus orders) are deemed to represent to the Dealers that it is not a Sanctions Restricted Person. General

Each Dealer has represented, warranted and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that, to the best of its knowledge and belief, it has complied and will comply with all applicable laws and regulations in each country or jurisdiction in or from which it purchases, offers, sells or delivers Notes or possesses, distributes or publishes this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms or any related offering material, in all cases at its own expense. Other persons into whose hands this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms comes are required by JFM and the Dealers to comply with all applicable laws and regulations in each country or jurisdiction in or from which they purchase, offer, sell or deliver Notes or possess, distribute or publish this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms or any related offering material, in all cases at their own expense.

Some of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged in, and may in the future engage in, investment banking and other commercial dealings in the ordinary course of business with JFM. They have received, or may in the future receive, customary fees and commissions for these transactions.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of JFM. Certain of the Dealers or their affiliates that have a credit-related relationship with JFM routinely hedge their credit exposure to JFM consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in JFM's securities, including potentially the Notes offered under the Programme. Any such short positions could adversely affect future trading prices of the Notes offered under the Programme. The Dealers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

Any purported purchase or transfer of the Notes (or any interest in a Note) that does not comply with the foregoing shall be null and void ab initio.

Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of a Restricted Global Registered Note or a Restricted Individual Note Certificate, or upon specific request for removal of the legend, JFM will deliver only a Restricted Global Registered Note or one or more Restricted Individual Note Certificates that bear such legend or will refuse to remove such legend, unless there is delivered to JFM and the Registrar such satisfactory evidence (which may include a legal opinion) as may reasonably be required by JFM that neither the legend nor the restrictions on transfer set forth therein are required to ensure compliance with the provisions of the Securities Act.

Any interest in a Restricted Global Registered Note that is transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in an Unrestricted Global Registered Note will, upon transfer, cease to be an interest in a Restricted Global Registered Note and become an interest in an Unrestricted Global Registered Note and, accordingly, will thereafter be subject to all transfer restrictions and other procedures applicable to an interest in an Unrestricted Global Registered Note.

Prospective purchasers that are QIBs are hereby notified that sellers of the Restricted Global Registered Notes may be relying on the exemption from the provisions of Section 5 of the Securities Act provided by Rule 144A.
