Listing Ceremony Satellite Event Actively managed ETFs are finally here!

To celebrate the first listing of actively managed ETFs in Japan, Tokyo Stock Exchange will hold the Actively Managed ETF Listing Ceremony Satellite Event. The details of which are as follows.

Actively managed ETFs, which operate flexibly without tracking indices, will finally be listed for the first time in Japan. In order to celebrate the first listing of actively managed ETFs, an event will be held at KABUTO ONE 1F Atrium Space from 12:30 p.m. on Thursday, September 7, 2023.

The actively managed ETF listing ceremony held at the TSE Arrows will be live streamed at this event, and a talk session on actively managed ETFs will be held. In addition, souvenirs exclusive to this event will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Pre-registration is required for this event.

We sincerely look forward to seeing you there.
