

JPX Prime 150 Index is composed of 150 issues representing Japanese companies that are estimated to create value.

Outline

- JPX Prime 150 Index is composed of leading Japanese companies that are estimated to create value and calculated by JPX Market Innovation & Research, Inc.
- 150 stocks are selected based on two measures of value creation: “return on capital” which is based on financial results, and “market valuation” which is based on future information and non-financial information from among the top-ranked stocks listed on TSE Prime Market by market capitalization.
- The price return index is calculated and disseminated in real-time (1 sec).
- The total return index is calculated on a daily basis.
