Because ETFs benchmarked by index invest in securities whose prices fluctuate, the market price or base value may decrease due to shifts in the underlying index or foreign exchange market, fluctuations in the price of constituent securities, bankruptcy or deterioration in the financial conditions of constituent securities of issuers, or other market causes. Losses may arise from these factors. As such, invested capital is not guaranteed. Additionally, in cases of margin trading, losses may occur in excess of the deposited margin.

When trading ETFs benchmarked by index, please fully read the documents distributed before concluding a contract with a financial instruments business operator, etc. Trading should be conducted on one's own judgment and responsibility, with sufficient understanding of the product's attributes, trading mechanism, existence of risk, sales commissions, Total Expense Ratio, etc.
