TSE Composite Index Series

The TSE Composite Index Series is designed to cover a broader universe of constituents than TOPIX, etc., and includes domestic class stocks, foreign stocks listed only on TSE and domestic preferred equity contribution securities.

Outline

- The composite indices include domestic class stocks, foreign stocks listed only on TSE and domestic preferred equity contribution securities, in addition to the TOPIX series constituent universe, which only covers domestic common stocks.
  - The Composite Index Series has three indices TOPIX Composite, TSE Second Section Composite and TSE Mothers Composite index
  - The price return index is calculated and disseminated in real-time (15 sec).
  - The total return index is calculated on a daily basis.
- (Note)
Although domestic preferred subscription certificates have no "Section" in the listing rules, they are included in any indices based on free-float market capitalization and trading value.
