

Procedure Related to Energy Market and Chukyo-Oil Market
Same Delivery Goods Delivery

(As of July 27, 2020)

Tokyo Commodity Exchange, Inc.

Rule 1 (Purpose)

1. This Procedure shall prescribe necessary matters regarding physical delivery of the same delivery goods in the Energy Market and Chukyo-Oil Market.

Rule 2 (Investigation About Delivery)

1. In cases where the Exchange deems that duplicate deliveries have been made of the same delivery goods in the Energy or Chukyo-Oil Markets, it may request a Trading Participant (meaning a Trading Participant specified in Rule 6, Paragraph 1 of the Market Rules) to submit the physical commodity sales agreement (and/or other similar documents) and undergo investigation of (and/or revise) the matters related to said delivery including the delivery parties, delivery day, delivery point and method.

Rule 3 (Handling of Delivery of Same Delivery Goods)

1. In cases where the Exchange deems that there are no issues after the investigation (and/or revision) of the delivery pursuant to the preceding rule, it will permit the duplicate deliveries of the same delivery goods; provided, however, that in cases where the Exchange deems that there are issues, it may have the deliverer and receiver re-make the delivery by setting new terms.

Rule 4 (Revision or Abolition)

1. Revision or abolition of this Procedure shall be approved by the Representative Director, President.

Supplementary Provisions

This Procedure that was decided by the committee concerning oil delivery and quality held on September 13, 2001 shall apply to deliveries from October 1, 2001.
