(as of December 8, 2025)

Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc.

I. General Provisions

(Purpose, etc.)

1. These guidelines shall prescribe necessary matters concerning listing examination, etc. pursuant to the Securities Listing Regulations (hereinafter referred to as the "Regulations").
2. At the time of carrying out listing examination, etc., listing examination, etc. concerning listing eligibility of initial listing applicants, etc. shall be carried out based on these guidelines, fully considering that the market should be operated so as to ensure stable trading in the market, that is, fair price formation and maintenance of appropriate transactions, and investor protection, that is, the protection of investors' rights and interests.

(Meanings of Terminology)

3. The meanings of the terminology pertaining to listing, etc. of securities that will be used in these guidelines shall be as specified in the Regulations and the Enforcement Rules for Securities Listing Regulations (hereinafter referred to the "Enforcement Rules").

II. Initial Listing Examination of Stocks, etc. [Standard Market]

(Listing Examination Pertaining to Application for Initial Listing on Standard Market)

1. Listing examination of a stock, etc. for which an initial listing application is made for the Standard Market as prescribed in Rule 207, Paragraph 1 of the Regulations shall be carried out pursuant to the provisions of this II. In this case, if such initial listing applicant is a foreign company, listing examinations shall be carried out in consideration of the legal system, and practices and customs, etc. of the home country, etc. for such initial listing applicant.

(Corporate Continuity and Profitability)

2. Listing examinations concerning items specified in Rule 207, Paragraph 1, Item (1) of the Regulations shall be carried out from viewpoints including those referred to in the following (1) to (3):
 - (1) The business plan of corporate group of an initial listing applicant is appropriately drawn up in light of its business model, business environment, risk factors, etc.;
 - (2) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant is reasonably expected to be able to maintain a stable profit in the future;

- (3) Management activities (meaning business activities, and investment activities and financial activities; the same shall apply hereinafter) of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant are recognized to be able to be carried out stably and continuously in light of matters including those referred to in the following a. to d.:
- a. Business activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant are in a state referred to in the following (a) and (b):
 - (a) Business activities are able to be conducted stably and continuously in light of purchases, production and sales, actual results of transactions with customers and suppliers, characteristics and demand trends for manufactured products and services, and the state of performance of any other business (excluding the viewpoint of the structure of the corporate group); and
 - (b) The structure of the corporate group is no serious obstacle to continuous business activities;
 - b. Investment activities such as capital investment and business investment, etc. of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant do not hinder continuous management activities in light of the trend and future outlook, etc. of the state of investment;
 - c. Financial activities such as fundraising, etc. of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant do not hinder continuous management activities in light of the trend and future outlook, etc. of the state of financial affairs; and
 - d. Concerning the matters which become the premise of the main business activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant (meaning permission, authorization, license, or registration pertaining to main businesses or manufactured goods and commodities or selling agent agreements or production entrustment agreements; the same shall apply hereinafter), there are no obstacles to the continuous business activities.

(Soundness of Corporate Management)

3. Listing examination concerning the items specified in Rule 207, Paragraph 1, Item (2) of the Regulations shall be carried out from viewpoints including those referred to in the following (1) to (3):
- (1) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant is recognized not to give or receive profits wrongfully through a trading act (including indirect trading acts and free supply of services and its reception; the same shall apply hereinafter) or any other management activities with relevant parties and other specific entities, in light of matters including those referred to in the following a. and b.:
 - a. Where a transaction has taken place between the corporate group of an initial listing applicant and its relevant parties (meaning relevant parties referenced in Rule 8, Paragraph 17 of the Financial Statements, etc. Rules; the same shall apply hereinafter in II through IV) or any other specific entities, and such transaction has rationality of continuing the transaction and reasonability of trading terms

- including trading prices; and
- b. Benefits of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant are not lost wrongfully because relevant parties and any other specific entities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant give priority to their own benefits;
- (2) The mutual relationship of relatives of officers (including board members, accounting advisors (where an accounting advisor is a corporation, including its employees who should carry out its office duties; the same shall apply hereinafter.), auditors, or executive officers (including governors and inspectors and any other entities corresponding to these); the same shall apply hereinafter.) of an initial listing applicant, its composition, actual working situation or the state of concurrent posts as officers and employees, etc. with any other company, etc. are recognized not to impair the fair, faithful and full execution of duties or the implementation of effective auditing as officers of such initial listing applicant. In this case, if a spouse, a blood relative within the second degree of kinship, or a relative by affinity within the same degree of kinship of a board member, an accounting advisor, an executive officer of an initial listing applicant, or a person equivalent thereto takes a position as an auditor, an audit and supervisory committee member, a member of an audit committee, or any other positions equivalent thereto, it shall be deemed to impair the implementation of an effective auditing; and
- (3) Where an initial listing applicant has a parent company, etc. (excluding cases where such applicant is expected to cease to own the parent company, etc. by the end of the first business year ending after the listing), management activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant are recognized to be carried out independently from such parent company, etc. in light of matters including those referred to in the following a. to c.:
- a. In light of the relationship between the business line of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant and that of the corporate group of the parent company, etc. (excluding the corporate group of an initial listing applicant; the same shall apply hereinafter.), the state of business adjustment made by the corporate group of the parent company, etc. and its possibility and any other matters, an initial listing applicant is not recognized to be substantially a business division of such parent company, etc.;
 - b. The corporate group of an initial listing applicant or that of a parent company, etc. does not coerce or induce transaction which become disadvantageous to such parent company, etc. or the corporate groups of such initial listing applicant such as transactions under markedly different terms from those of normal transactions (meaning a current market price, for example; the same shall apply hereinafter.); and
 - c. The state of receiving seconded persons of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant is recognized not to excessively depend on the parent company, etc. and not to hinder continuous management activities.

(Effectiveness of Corporate Governance and Internal Management System)

4. Listing examination concerning the items prescribed in Rule 207, Paragraph 1, Item (3) of the Regulations shall be carried out from viewpoints including those referred to in the following (1) to (5):
- (1) The system to ensure the appropriate execution of duties of officers of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant is recognized to be appropriately prepared and operated in light of matters including those referred to in the following a. and b.:
 - a. An initial listing applicant has an organizational structure and an officer composition which is able to effectively implement checks and balances as well as auditing concerning the execution of duties of officers of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant. A listing examination in such a case shall be conducted in consideration of the state of compliance with matters prescribed in the provisions of Rules 436-2 through 439 of the Regulations; and
 - b. In the corporate group of an initial listing applicant, checks and balances as well as auditing with regard to the execution of duties by officers for the purpose of the continuous and efficient management of the corporation are implemented, functioning effectively.
 - (2) The internal management system is deemed to be appropriately developed and operated so that an initial listing applicant and its corporate group carry out effective management activities in light of matters including those referred to in the following a. and b.:
 - a. A necessary managerial and administrative system (including various internal rules; the same shall apply hereinafter.) is properly developed and appropriately operated to ensure efficiency of management activities and internal check-and-balance functions of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant; and
 - b. An internal auditing system of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant is prepared and operated appropriately;
 - (3) Necessary personnel are deemed to be secured in order to carry out stable and continuous execution of management activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant and to maintain its appropriate internal management system;
 - (4) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant adopts accounting treatment standards adaptable to its actual condition, and a necessary accounting system is deemed to be developed and operated appropriately; and
 - (5) It is deemed that an effective system to comply with laws and regulations, etc. concerning management activities in the corporate group of an initial listing applicant is prepared and operated appropriately, and that no material breach of laws and regulations has recently been made, and no act which is likely to become a material breach of laws and regulations in the future is being carried out.

5. Listing examination concerning the items specified in Rule 207, Paragraph 1, Item (4) of the Regulations shall be carried out from viewpoints including those referred to in the following (1) to (5):
- (1) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant is deemed to be able to properly manage corporate information of facts, etc. which will have a material effect on management and to disclose it to investors in a timely and appropriate manner. Moreover, its system for the preemptive prevention of insider trading, etc. is deemed to be developed and operated appropriately;
 - (2) Documents pertaining to disclosure of corporate information, out of the initial listing application documents, are deemed to be prepared in compliance with laws and regulations, etc., and contain the following items referred to in the following a. and b. :
 - a. The financial condition and financial results of an initial listing applicant and its corporate group, and matters which may have an important effect on investment decisions of investors such as important matters, etc. concerning officers, major shareholders, affiliated companies, etc.; and
 - b. Items referred to in the following (a) to (d) pertaining to the matters which are the premises of main business activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant:
 - (a) Details of the matters which are the premises of the main business activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant;
 - (b) Where the validity period of permission and authorization, etc. and any other time limit is specified by laws and regulations or contract, etc., such time limit;
 - (c) Where cancellation, rescission, and any other event of permission and authorization, etc. are stipulated in laws and regulations or contract, etc., such event; and
 - (d) The effect that there is no factor which hinders their continuity concerning the matters which are the premises of the main business activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant, and if there is such factor, the fact that it will have a material effect on business activities;
 - (3) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant does not make distorted information disclosure on the actual state of the corporate group of the initial listing applicant by carrying out a trading act with its relevant party or any other specific entity or adjusting share ownership ratios, etc.;
 - (4) Where an initial listing applicant has a parent company, etc. (excluding cases where the applicant is expected not to have a parent company, etc. by the end of the first business year ending after the listing), any one of the following a. or b. shall be met on the condition that disclosure of such parent company, etc. is valid:
 - a. A stock, etc. issued by a parent company, etc. of an initial listing applicant (where there are multiple parent companies, etc., a company which is deemed to have the greatest influence on the initial listing applicant, or where their influence is deemed

- to be the same, it means one of such companies; the same shall apply hereinafter in these a. and b.) is listed on a domestic financial instruments exchange (including where a stock, etc. issued by such parent company, etc. is listed or continuously traded on a foreign financial instruments exchange, etc., and the state of disclosure on corporate affairs in a country in which such parent company, etc. or such foreign financial instruments exchange, etc. is located is not deemed to conspicuously lack investor protection); and
- b. An initial listing applicant can appropriately grasp company information such as facts concerning the parent company, etc. which has a material effect on its management (excluding a parent company, etc. which falls under the preceding a.), and the initial listing applicant pledges in writing that such parent company, etc. agrees to its disclosure of company information which has a material effect on its management, out of such company information concerning the parent company, etc., to investors in an appropriate manner; and
- (5) Where an initial listing applicant is a foreign company, accounting standards adopted by the initial listing applicant are deemed to be appropriate from the viewpoint of the protection of investors.

(Viewpoints of Public Interest or Investor Protection)

6. Listing examination concerning the items prescribed in Rule 207, Paragraph 1, Item (5) of the Regulations shall be carried out from viewpoints including those referred to in the following (1) to (6):
- (1) The contents of the rights of shareholders or holders of a foreign stock depositary receipt, etc. and the state of their exercise are deemed appropriate from the viewpoints of the public interest or the protection of investors, due to the matters referred to in the following a. and b.:
- a. The contents of the rights of shareholders or holders of a foreign stock depositary receipt, etc. and exercise thereof are not unreasonably restricted; and
- b. Where an initial listing applicant has introduced a takeover response policy, the initial listing applicant complies with the matters referred to in each item of the Rule 440 of the Regulations;
- (2) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant does not have an ongoing lawsuit or dispute, etc. which may have a material effect on management activities and business results;
- (3) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant is deemed to have developed an internal system to prevent criminal and extremist elements from being involved in management activities, and make efforts to prevent such involvement, and their actual state is deemed to be appropriate from the viewpoint of the public interest or the protection of investors;
- (4) Where domestic stocks pertaining to an initial listing application are shares without voting rights (limited to cases where no initial listing application is made for an issue(s) other than such domestic stocks) or shares with a small number of voting rights (meaning those referred to in Item (10), Sub-item b. of Rule 205 of the Regulations), all of the following a. to h. shall be met:

- a. It shall be deemed that a condition where a specific individual who has shares, etc. with a large number of voting rights (see Note below) may continue to be involved in management needs to be secured, etc., from a viewpoint of common interests of shareholders, and that the scheme is not unduly beneficial to shareholders with a large number of shares, etc., but appropriate. In this case, the judgment whether it is appropriate or not shall be made in line with needs of the following items referred to in the following (a) to (c) and other items;

(Note) This means shares with voting rights or a large number of voting rights in cases of non-voting shares being issued, (meaning shares with voting rights other than those with a small number of voting rights; the same shall apply hereinafter); the same shall apply hereinafter.

- (a) If such judgment is no longer necessary, the scheme of shares without voting rights or those with a small number of voting rights is likely to be dissolved;
 - (b) If a company is controlled with an extremely small ratio of capital contribution, the articles of incorporation, etc. appropriately stipulate that a scheme of shares without voting rights or a small number of voting rights is expected to be dissolved; and
 - (c) Where domestic stocks pertaining to the initial listing application are shares with a small number of voting rights, the articles of incorporation, etc. appropriately stipulate that, as a general rule, shares with a large number of voting rights shall be converted to shares with a small number of voting rights when they are transferred, etc.
- b. It shall be deemed that the main purpose of using shares with a large number of voting rights is not to secure positions of directors, etc. of the initial listing applicant or not to use such shares for resisting takeover;
- c. It shall be deemed that the purpose, necessity, and scheme of using shares with a large number of voting rights, etc., are appropriately described in the initial listing application documents pertaining to details of disclosed corporate information;
- d. Where a shareholder of a stock, etc. with a large number of voting rights is not a director, etc. of the initial listing applicant, the following (a) and (b) shall be met;
 - (a) Where it is deemed that the purpose or policy of exercise of voting rights of a shareholder with shares with a large number of voting rights is not clearly inappropriate in light of necessity of such exercise, and shall be appropriately described in the initial listing application documents pertaining to details of disclosed corporate information; and
 - (b) Where a corporate group of an initial listing applicant has, as a general rule, no relationships with a shareholder with a large number of voting rights (limited to cases where such shareholder is a parent company, etc. of the initial listing applicant) of shares, etc. in terms of business, personnel, and transactions.
- e. Where conflicts of interest arise between shareholders of different classes, protection measures are deemed to be able to be taken so that shareholders of a domestic stock pertaining to such initial listing application do not unreasonably suffer damage;

- f. When an issuer of a domestic stock pertaining to the initial listing application performs business transactions with any of entities referred to in the following (a) to (c) (see Note below), it shall be deemed that a measure to protect minority shareholders is likely to be available;

(Note) This includes, out of business transactions between the issuer and any of the entities referred to in such (a) to (c) that perform such business transactions on behalf of a third party, those in which any of such entities has a material impact on the issuer.

- (a) A parent company;
- (b) A controlling shareholder (excluding a parent company) and his/her close relatives; and
- (c) A company, etc. whose majority of voting rights are held by any of the entity referred to in the preceding (b) for its own account and a subsidiary of such company, etc.

- g. Where such domestic stocks pertaining to the initial listing application have preference on surplus dividend, as a general rule, expected income in two years from the end of the base business year (meaning the most recent business year for which financial statements, etc. are presented in the financial information section of an "Annual Securities Report for Initial Listing Application (Part I)"; the same shall apply hereinafter in II. through IV.) and an amount that can be distributed as dividend at the end of the base business year is deemed good, the issuer of such domestic stocks is likely to earn income enough for the distribution of surplus dividend pertaining to such domestic stocks; and

- h. Benefits of shareholders and investors are deemed to be highly unlikely to be infringed;

- (5) Where domestic stocks pertaining to an initial listing application are shares without voting rights (limited to the case where an initial listing application is made for an issue(s) other than such domestic stocks), each of the following a. to e. shall be met:

- a. The articles of incorporation, etc. appropriately stipulate that if a company falls under situations in which it is controlled with an extremely small ratio of capital contribution, a scheme of shares without voting rights is dissolved;
- b. Where conflicts of interest arise among shareholders with different classes of shares, it is deemed that a protection measure can be taken so that interests of shareholders of the domestic stocks pertaining to such initial listing application will not be unduly harmed;
- c. When an issuer of a domestic stock pertaining to the initial listing application performs business transactions with any of entities referred to in the following (a) to (c) (see Note below), it shall be deemed that a measure to protect minority shareholders is likely to be available;

(Note) This includes, out of business transactions between the issuer and any of the entities referred to in such (a) to (c) that perform such business transactions on behalf of a third party, those in which any of such entities has a material impact on the issuer.

- (a) A parent company;
 - (b) A controlling shareholder (excluding a parent company) and his/her close relatives; and
 - (c) A company, etc. whose majority of voting rights are held by any of the entity referred to in the preceding (b) for its own account and a subsidiary of such company, etc.
- d. Where such domestic stocks pertaining to the initial listing application have preference on surplus dividend, as a general rule, expected income in two years from the end of the base business year and an amount that can be distributed as dividend at the end of the base business year is deemed good, the issuer of such domestic stocks is likely to earn income enough for the distribution of surplus dividend pertaining to such domestic stocks; and
- e. Where it is deemed that interests of shareholders and investors are not highly likely to be harmed; and
- (6) Otherwise, it is deemed appropriate from the viewpoint of the public interest or the protection of investors.

(Special Exceptions to Foreign Companies)

7. Where an initial listing applicant is a foreign company, and the main market of a foreign stock, etc. issued by such initial listing applicant is other than the Exchange and, furthermore, where the Exchange deems it appropriate in light of listing of securities, timely disclosure of the issuer of listed securities, delisting, the state of the development and operation of the legal system and rules concerning listed securities in such main market, they shall be treated as appropriate for all or part of the examination as prescribed in the above 2. through the preceding 6.

(Listing Examination for Companies Established by Spin-off Type Company Split of Listed Companies)

8. Where an initial listing applicant is a company established by a spin-off type company split of a listed company, listing examination concerning the business to be inherited due to the company split and the plan, etc. of the company split shall be carried out, notwithstanding the provisions of the above 2. through the preceding 7, but pursuant to the provisions of the above 2. through the preceding 7, where an initial listing application is made before said company split.

III. Initial Listing Examination of Stocks, etc. [Prime Market]

(Listing Examination Pertaining to Initial Listing Application to Prime Market)

1. Listing examinations of a stock, etc. for which an initial listing application is made for the Prime Market as prescribed in Rule 213, Paragraph 1 of the Regulations shall be carried out as prescribed in this III. In this case, where such initial listing applicant is a foreign company, listing examinations shall be carried out in consideration of the legal systems and practices and customs, etc. in the home country, etc. of such initial listing applicant.

(Corporate Continuity and Profitability)

2. Listing examinations concerning items specified in Rule 213, Paragraph 1, Item (1) of the Regulations shall be carried out from viewpoints including those referred to in the following (1) to (3):
 - (1) The business plan of corporate group of an initial listing applicant is appropriately drawn up in light of its business model, business environment, risk factors, etc.;
 - (2) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant is reasonably expected to be able to maintain a stable profit in the future; and
 - (3) Management activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant are recognized to be able to be carried out stably and continuously in light of matters including those referred to in the following a. to d.:
 - a. Business activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant are in a state referred to in the following (a) and (b):
 - (a) Business activities are able to be conducted stably and continuously in light of purchases, production and sales, actual results of transactions with customers and suppliers, characteristics and demand trends for manufactured products and services, and the state of performance of any other business (excluding the viewpoint of the structure of the corporate group); and
 - (b) The structure of the corporate group is no serious obstacle to continuous business activities;
 - b. Investment activities such as capital investment and business investment, etc. of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant do not hinder continuous management activities in light of the trend and future outlook, etc. of the state of investment;
 - c. Financial activities such as fundraising, etc. of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant do not hinder continuous management activities in light of the trend and future outlook, etc. of the state of financial affairs; and
 - d. Concerning the matters which become the premise of the main business activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant, there are no obstacles to the continuous business activities.

(Soundness of Corporate Management)

3. Listing examination concerning the items specified in Rule 213, Paragraph 1, Item (2) of the Regulations shall be carried out from viewpoints including those referred to in the following (1) to (3):

- (1) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant is recognized not to give or receive profits wrongfully through a trading act or any other management activities with relevant parties and other specific entities, in light of matters including those referred to in the following a. and b.:
 - a. Where a transaction has taken place between the corporate group of an initial listing applicant and its relevant parties or any other specific entities, and such transaction has rationality of continuing the transaction and reasonability of trading terms including trading prices; and
 - b. Benefits of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant are not lost wrongfully because relevant parties and any other specific entities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant give priority to their own benefits;
- (2) The mutual relationship of relatives of officers of an initial listing applicant, its composition, actual working situation or the state of concurrent posts as officers and employees, etc. with any other company, etc. are recognized not to impair the fair, faithful and full execution of duties or the implementation of effective auditing as officers of such initial listing applicant. In this case, if a spouse, a blood relative within the second degree of kinship, or a relative by affinity within the same degree of kinship of a board member, an accounting advisor, an executive officer of an initial listing applicant, or a person equivalent thereto takes a position as an auditor, an audit and supervisory committee member, a member of an audit committee, or any other positions equivalent thereto, it shall be deemed to impair the implementation of an effective auditing; and
- (3) Where an initial listing applicant has a parent company, etc. (excluding cases where such applicant is expected to cease to own the parent company, etc. by the end of the first business year ending after the listing.), management activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant are recognized to be carried out independently from such parent company, etc. in light of matters including those referred to in the following a. to c.:
 - a. In light of the relationship between the business line of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant and that of the corporate group of the parent company, etc., the state of business adjustment made by the corporate group of the parent company, etc. and its possibility and any other matters, an initial listing applicant is not recognized to be substantially a business division of such parent company, etc.;
 - b. The corporate group of an initial listing applicant or that of a parent company, etc. does not coerce or induce transaction which become disadvantageous to such parent company, etc. or the corporate groups of such initial listing applicant such as transactions under markedly different terms from those of normal transactions; and
 - c. The state of receiving seconded persons of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant is recognized not to excessively depend on the parent company, etc. and not to hinder continuous management activities.

(Effectiveness of Corporate Governance and Internal Management System)

4. Listing examination concerning the items prescribed in Rule 213, Paragraph 1, Item (3) of the Regulations shall be carried out from viewpoints including those referred to in the following (1) to (5):
- (1) The system to ensure the appropriate execution of duties of officers of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant is recognized to be appropriately prepared and operated in light of matters including those referred to in the following a. and b.:
 - a. An initial listing applicant has an organizational structure and an officer composition which is able to effectively implement checks and balances as well as auditing concerning the execution of duties of officers of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant. A listing examination in such a case shall be conducted in consideration of the state of compliance with matters prescribed in the provisions of Rules 436-2 through 439 of the Regulations; and
 - b. In the corporate group of an initial listing applicant, checks and balances as well as auditing with regard to the execution of duties of officers for the purpose of the continuous and efficient management of the corporation are implemented and function effectively.
 - (2) The internal management system is deemed to be appropriately developed and operated so that an initial listing applicant and its corporate group carry out effective management activities in light of matters including those referred to in the following a. and b.:
 - a. A necessary managerial and administrative system is properly developed and appropriately operated to ensure efficiency of management activities and internal check-and-balance functions of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant; and
 - b. An internal auditing system of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant is prepared and operated appropriately;
 - (3) Necessary personnel are deemed to be secured in order to carry out stable and continuous execution of management activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant and to maintain its appropriate internal management system;
 - (4) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant adopts accounting treatment standards adaptable to its actual condition, and a necessary accounting system is deemed to be developed and operated appropriately; and
 - (5) It is deemed that an effective system to comply with laws and regulations, etc. concerning management activities in the corporate group of an initial listing applicant is prepared and operated appropriately, and that no material breach of laws and regulations has recently been made, and no act which is likely to become a material breach of laws and regulations in the future is being carried out.

5. Listing examination concerning the items specified in Rule 213, Paragraph 1, Item (4) of the Regulations shall be carried out from viewpoints including those referred to in the following (1) to (5):

- (1) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant is deemed to be able to properly manage corporate information of facts, etc. which will have a material effect on management and to disclose it to investors in a timely and appropriate manner. Moreover, its system for the preemptive prevention of insider trading, etc. is deemed to be developed and operated appropriately;
- (2) Documents pertaining to disclosure of corporate information, out of the initial listing application documents, are deemed to be prepared in compliance with laws and regulations, etc., and contain the following items referred to in the following a. and b.:
 - a. The financial condition and financial results of an initial listing applicant and its corporate group, and matters which may have an important effect on investment decisions of investors such as important matters, etc. concerning officers, major shareholders, affiliated companies, etc. (in cases where the corporate group of an initial applicant is likely to not record reasonable amount of profit temporarily due to investment activities to improve corporate value over the medium to long term, including matters pertaining to said investment activities); and
 - b. Items referred to in the following (a) to (d) pertaining to the matters which are the premises of main business activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant:
 - (a) Details of the matters which are the premises of the main business activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant;
 - (b) Where the validity period of permission and authorization, etc. and any other time limit is specified by laws and regulations or contract, etc., such time limit;
 - (c) Where cancellation, rescission, and any other event of permission and authorization, etc. are stipulated in laws and regulations or contract, etc., such event; and

- (3) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant does not make distorted information disclosure on the actual state of the corporate group of the initial listing applicant by carrying out a trading act with its relevant party or any other specific entity or adjusting share ownership ratios, etc.;
- (4) Where an initial listing applicant has a parent company, etc. (excluding cases where it is expected not to have a parent company, etc. by the end of the first business year ending after the listing), any one of the following a. or b. shall be met on the condition that disclosure of such parent company, etc. is valid:
 - a. A stock, etc. issued by a parent company, etc. of an initial listing applicant (where there are multiple parent companies, etc., a company which is deemed to have the greatest influence on the initial listing applicant, or where their influence is deemed

- to be the same, it means one of such companies; the same shall apply hereinafter in these a. and b.) is listed on a domestic financial instruments exchange (including where a stock, etc. issued by such parent company, etc. is listed or continuously traded on a foreign financial instruments exchange, etc., and the state of disclosure on corporate affairs in a country in which such parent company, etc. or such foreign financial instruments exchange, etc. is located is not deemed to conspicuously lack investor protection); and
- b. An initial listing applicant can appropriately grasp company information such as facts concerning the parent company, etc. which has a material effect on its management (excluding a parent company, etc. which falls under the preceding a.), and the initial listing applicant pledges in writing that such parent company, etc. agrees to its disclosure of company information which has a material effect on its management, out of such company information concerning the parent company, etc., to investors in an appropriate manner; and
- (5) Where an initial listing applicant is a foreign company, accounting standards adopted by the initial listing applicant are deemed to be appropriate from the viewpoint of the protection of investors.

(Viewpoints of Public Interest or Investor Protection)

6. Listing examination concerning the items prescribed in Rule 213, Paragraph 1, Item (5) of the Regulations shall be carried out from viewpoints including those referred to in the following (1) to (6):
- (1) The contents of the rights of shareholders or holders of a foreign stock depositary receipt, etc. and the state of their exercise are deemed appropriate from the viewpoints of the public interest or the protection of investors, due to the matters referred to in the following a. and b.:
- a. The contents of the rights of shareholders or holders of a foreign stock depositary receipt, etc. and exercise thereof are not unreasonably restricted; and
- b. Where an initial listing applicant has introduced a takeover response policy, the initial listing applicant complies with the matters referred to in each item of the Rule 440 of the Regulations;
- (2) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant does not have an ongoing lawsuit or dispute, etc. which may have a material effect on management activities and business results;
- (3) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant is deemed to have developed an internal system to prevent criminal and extremist elements from being involved in management activities, and make efforts to prevent such involvement, and their actual state is deemed to be appropriate from the viewpoint of the public interest or the protection of investors;
- (4) Where domestic stocks pertaining to initial listing applications are shares without voting rights (limited to cases where no initial listing application is made for an issue(s) other than such domestic stocks) or shares with a small number of voting rights, all of the following a. to h. shall be met:

- a. It shall be deemed that a condition where a specific individual who has shares, etc. with a large number of voting rights may continue to be involved in management needs to be secured, etc., from a viewpoint of common interests of shareholders, and that the scheme is not unduly beneficial to shareholders with a large number of shares, etc., but appropriate. In this case, the judgment whether it is appropriate or not shall be made in line with needs of the following items referred to in the following (a) to (c) and other items;
 - (a) If such judgment is no longer necessary, the scheme of shares without voting rights or those with a small number of voting rights is likely to be dissolved;
 - (b) If a company is controlled with an extremely small ratio of capital contribution, the articles of incorporation, etc. appropriately stipulate that a scheme of shares without voting rights or a small number of voting rights is expected to be dissolved; and
 - (c) Where domestic stocks pertaining to the initial listing application are shares with a small number of voting rights, the articles of incorporation, etc. appropriately stipulate that, as a general rule, shares with a large number of voting rights shall be converted to shares with a small number of voting rights when they are transferred, etc.
- b. It shall be deemed that the main purpose of using shares with a large number of voting rights is not to secure positions of directors, etc. of the initial listing applicant or not to use such shares for resisting takeover;
- c. It shall be deemed that the purpose, necessity, and scheme of using shares with a large number of voting rights, etc., are appropriately described in the initial listing application documents pertaining to details of disclosed corporate information;
- d. Where a shareholder of a stock, etc. with a large number of voting rights is not a director, etc. of the initial listing applicant, the following (a) and (b) shall be met;
 - (a) Where it is deemed that the purpose or policy of exercise of voting rights of a shareholder with shares with a large number of voting rights is not clearly inappropriate in light of necessity of such exercise, and shall be appropriately described in the initial listing application documents pertaining to details of disclosed corporate information; and
 - (b) Where a corporate group of an initial listing applicant has, as a general rule, no relationships with a shareholder with a large number of voting rights (limited to cases where such shareholder is a parent company, etc. of the initial listing applicant) of shares, etc. in terms of business, personnel, and transactions.
- e. Where conflicts of interest arise between shareholders of different classes, protection measures are deemed to be able to be taken so that shareholders of a domestic stock pertaining to such initial listing application do not unreasonably suffer damage;
- f. When an issuer of a domestic stock pertaining to the initial listing application performs business transactions with any of entities referred to in the following (a) to

(c) (see Note below), it shall be deemed that a measure to protect minority shareholders is likely to be available;

(Note) This includes, out of business transactions between the issuer and any of the entities referred to in such (a) to (c) that perform such business transactions on behalf of a third party, those in which any of such entities has a material impact on the issuer.

(a) A parent company;

(c) A company, etc. whose majority of voting rights are held by any of the entity referred to in the preceding (b) for its own account and a subsidiary of such company, etc.

g. Where such domestic stocks pertaining to the initial listing application have preference on surplus dividend, as a general rule, expected income in two years from the end of the base business year and an amount that can be distributed as dividend at the end of the base business year is deemed good, the issuer of such domestic stocks is likely to earn income enough for the distribution of surplus dividend pertaining to such domestic stocks; and

h. Benefits of shareholders and investors are deemed to be highly unlikely to be infringed;

(5) Where domestic stocks pertaining to an initial listing application are shares without voting rights (limited to the case where an initial listing application is made for an issue(s) other than such domestic stocks), each of the following a. to e. shall be met:

a. The articles of incorporation, etc. appropriately stipulate that if a company falls under situations in which it is controlled with an extremely small ratio of capital contribution, a scheme of shares without voting rights is dissolved;

b. Where conflicts of interest arise among shareholders with different classes of shares, it is deemed that a protection measure can be taken so that interests of shareholders of the domestic stocks pertaining to such initial listing application will not be unduly harmed;

c. When an issuer of a domestic stock pertaining to the initial listing application performs business transactions with any of entities referred to in the following (a) to (c) (see Note below), it shall be deemed that a measure to protect minority shareholders is likely to be available;

(Note) This includes, out of business transactions between the issuer and any of the entities referred to in such (a) to (c) that perform such business transactions on behalf of a third party, those in which any of such entities has a material impact on the issuer.

(a) A parent company;

(c) A company, etc. whose majority of voting rights are held by any of the entity referred to in the preceding (b) for its own account and a subsidiary of such company, etc.

- d. Where such domestic stocks pertaining to the initial listing application have preference on surplus dividend, as a general rule, expected income in two years from the end of the base business year and an amount that can be distributed as dividend at the end of the base business year is deemed good, the issuer of such domestic stocks is likely to earn income enough for the distribution of surplus dividend pertaining to such domestic stocks; and
 - e. Where it is deemed that interests of shareholders and investors are not highly likely to be harmed; and
- (6) Otherwise, it is deemed appropriate from the viewpoint of the public interest or the protection of investors.

(Special Exceptions to Foreign Companies)

- 7. Where an initial listing applicant is a foreign company, and the main market of a foreign stock, etc. issued by such initial listing applicant is other than the Exchange and, furthermore, where the Exchange deems it appropriate in light of listing of securities, timely disclosure of the issuer of listed securities, delisting, the state of the development and operation of the legal system and rules concerning listed securities in such main market, they shall be treated as appropriate for all or part of the examination as prescribed in the above 2. through the preceding 6.

(Listing Examination for Companies Established by Spin-off Type Company Split of Listed Companies)

- 8. Where an initial listing applicant is a company established by a spin-off type company split of a listed company, listing examination concerning the business to be inherited due to the company split and the plan, etc. of the company split shall be carried out, notwithstanding the provisions of the above 2. through the preceding 7, but pursuant to the provisions of the above 2. through the preceding 7, where an initial listing application is made before said company split.

IV. Initial Listing Examination of Stocks, etc. [Growth Market]

(Listing Examination Pertaining to Initial Listing Application to Growth Market)

- 1. Listing examinations of a stock, etc. for which an initial listing application is made for Growth Market as prescribed in Rule 219, Paragraph 1 of the Regulations shall be carried out as prescribed in this IV. In this case, where such initial listing applicant is a foreign company, listing examinations shall be carried out in consideration of the legal systems and practices and customs, etc. in the home country, etc. of such initial listing applicant.

(Appropriateness of Disclosure of Corporate Information, Risk Information, etc.)

2. Listing examination of the matters as prescribed in Rule 219, Paragraph 1, Item (1) of the Regulations shall be carried out from viewpoints including those referred to in the following (1) to (6):
 - (1) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant is deemed to be able to properly manage corporate information of facts, etc. which will have a material effect on management and to disclose it to investors in a timely and appropriate manner. Moreover, its system for the preemptive prevention of insider trading, etc. is deemed to be developed and operated appropriately;
 - (2) Documents pertaining to disclosure of corporate information, out of initial listing application documents, are deemed to be prepared in compliance with laws and regulations, and appropriately contain the matters referred to in the following a. to d. in consideration of the state of the business line and the business condition of an initial listing applicant and its corporate group:
 - a. Useful matters for investment decisions of investors such as analysis and explanation pertaining to the state of financial condition, financial results & receipt and disbursement of funds, the state of the related companies, the state of R&D activities, the state of major shareholders, the state of officers & employees, dividend policy, purposes of funds raised for capital increase through a public offering with respect to an initial listing applicant and its corporate group;

 - c. Useful matters for investment decisions of investors with respect to business plans and matters related to high growth potential of an initial listing applicant and its corporate group; and
 - d. Matters referred to in the following (a) to (d) with respect to matters which are the premises of the main business activities of an initial listing applicant and its corporate group:
 - (a) Details of the matters which are the premises of the main business activities of an initial listing applicant and its corporate group;
 - (b) Where the validity period of permission and authorization, etc. and any other time limit is specified by laws and regulations or a contract, etc., such time limit;
 - (c) Where cancellation, rescission, and any other event of permission and authorization, etc. are stipulated by laws and regulations or a contract, etc., such fact; and
 - (d) The effect that there is no factor which hinders their continuity concerning the matters which are the premises of the main business activities of the corporate

group of an initial listing applicant, and if there is such factor, the effect that it will have a material effect on business activities;

- (3) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant does not make distorted information disclosure on the actual state of the corporate group of the initial listing applicant by carrying out a trading act with its relevant party or any other specific entity or adjusting share ownership ratios, etc.;
- (4) Where an initial listing applicant has a parent company, etc. (excluding cases where it will cease to have a parent company, etc. by the end of the first business year ending after the listing), any one of the following a. or b. shall be met on the premise that disclosure of such parent company, etc. is valid; provided, however, that the same shall not apply to cases where the business relationship between the initial listing applicant and such parent company, etc. is weak and, in addition, it is clear that the ownership of the stock of the initial listing applicant by such parent company, etc. is for the purpose of encouraging investment, not for the substantial control of business activities of the initial listing applicant:
 - a. A stock, etc. issued by a parent company, etc. of an initial listing applicant (where there are multiple parent companies, etc., a company which is deemed to have the greatest influence on the initial listing applicant, or where their influence is deemed to be the same, one of such companies; the same shall apply hereinafter in these a. and b.) is listed on a domestic financial instruments exchange (including cases where a stock, etc. issued by such parent company, etc. is listed or continuously traded on such foreign financial instruments exchange, etc., and, the state of disclosure of corporate information in a country in which such parent company, etc. or such foreign financial instruments exchange, etc. is located is not deemed to conspicuously lack investor protection); and
 - b. An initial listing applicant can appropriately understand company information such as facts concerning the parent company, etc. which has a material effect on its management (excluding a parent company, etc. which falls under the preceding a.), and the initial listing applicant pledges in writing that such parent company, etc. agrees to its disclosure of company information which has a material effect on its management, out of such company information concerning the parent company, etc., to investors in an appropriate manner.
- (5) Where an initial listing company is a foreign company, the accounting system adopted by the initial listing company shall be deemed appropriate from the viewpoint of investor protection;
- (6) Where an initial listing company is a foreign company, and a stock, etc. pertaining to such initial listing applicant is not listed or continuously traded on a foreign financial instruments exchange, etc., and the initial listing application is made only to the Exchange, the "Annual Securities Report for Initial Listing Application (Part I)" shall contain matters referred to in the following a. and b.:
 - a. Matters referred to in the following (a) and (b) for a period from the day which falls one year prior to the end date of the base business year to a day immediately prior to the listing date:

- (a) The state of new stock issues, or issues of subscription warrants or subscription warrant securities by the method other than allocation to shareholders; and
 - (b) The state of change in the ownership of the shares pertaining to a stock, etc. by an entity with special interest, etc. (meaning an entity as prescribed in i) and ii) of Item (31) of Paragraph 1 of Article 2 of the Cabinet Office Ordinance on Disclosure);
- b. Where a holder of a stock, a subscription warrant or a subscription warrant security has made an arrangement concerning the holding of such securities for a certain period after listing with an initial listing applicant or with a financial instruments broker-dealer which enters into the principal underwriting agreement with an initial listing applicant, such details.

(Soundness of Corporate Management)

- (1) The corporate group of an initial listing applicant is recognized, as a general rule, not to give or enjoy profit wrongfully through a trading act or any other management activities with relevant parties or other specific entities, for the reason of the matters referred to in the following a. and b.:
 - a. Where a transaction has occurred between the corporate group of an initial listing applicant and its relevant parties or any other specific entities, and such transaction has rationality of continuing the transaction, and trading terms including trading prices are clearly not disadvantageous to the corporate group of an initial listing applicant; and
 - b. Benefits of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant are not lost wrongfully because relevant parties and any other specific entities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant give priority to their own benefits;
 - (2) The mutual relationship of relatives of officers of an initial listing applicant, its composition, actual situation of providing services or the state of concurrent posts as officers and employees, etc. with any other company, etc. are recognized not to impair the fair, faithful and full execution of duties or the implementation of effective auditing as officers of such initial listing applicant. In this case, if a spouse, a blood relative within the second degree of kinship, or a relative by affinity within the same degree of kinship of a board member, an accounting advisor, an executive officer of an initial listing applicant, or a person equivalent thereto takes a position as an auditor, an audit and supervisory committee member, a member of an audit committee, or any other positions equivalent thereto, it shall be deemed to impair the implementation of an effective auditing;
 - (3) Where an initial listing applicant has a parent company, etc. (excluding cases where such applicant is expected to cease to have the parent company, etc. by the end of the first business year ending after the listing), management activities of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant are recognized to have independence from such parent company, etc. for the reason of the matters referred to in the following a. to c. or any other matters:

- a. In light of the relationship between the business line of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant and that of the corporate group of the parent company, etc., the state of business adjustment made by the corporate group of the parent company, etc. and its possibility and any other matters, an initial listing applicant is not recognized to be substantially a business division of such parent company, etc.;
- b. The corporate group of an initial listing applicant or that of a parent company, etc., as a general rule, does not coerce or induce a trading act which becomes disadvantageous to such parent company, etc. or the corporate group of such initial listing applicant, such as transactions under markedly different terms from those of normal transactions in principle; and
- c. The state of receiving seconded persons of the corporate group of an initial listing applicant is recognized not to excessively depend on the parent company, etc. and not hinder continuing management activities.

(Effectiveness of Corporate Governance of Enterprises and Internal Management System)
