BASE PROSPECTUS

Swedbank AB (publ)

(Incorporated with limited liability in the Kingdom of Sweden)

U.S.$40,000,000,000 Global Medium Term Note Programme

Under the U.S.$40,000,000,000 Global Medium Term Note Programme (the "Programme") described in this base prospectus (the "Base Prospectus"), Swedbank AB (publ) ("Swedbank" or the "Issuer"), subject to all applicable legal and regulatory requirements, may from time to time issue medium term notes in bearer or registered form (respectively, "Bearer Notes" and "Registered Notes" and together, the "Notes"). The aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding at any one time will not exceed U.S.$40,000,000,000 or the equivalent in other currencies.

Notes may be issued on a continuing basis to one or more of the dealers specified under "Overview of the Programme" and any additional dealer(s) appointed under the Programme from time to time by the Issuer (each a "Dealer" and together, the "Dealers"), which appointment may be for a specific issue or on an ongoing basis. References in this Base Prospectus to the "relevant Dealer" shall, in the case of an issue of Notes being (or intended to be) subscribed by more than one Dealer, be to all Dealers agreeing to subscribe such Notes.

This Base Prospectus has been approved as a base prospectus by the Central Bank of Ireland, as competent authority under Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the "Prospectus Regulation"). The Central Bank of Ireland only approves this Base Prospectus as meeting the standards of completeness, comprehensibility and consistency imposed by the Prospectus Regulation. Approval by the Central Bank of Ireland should not be considered as an endorsement of the Issuer or of the quality of the Notes. Investors should make their own assessment as to the suitability of investing in the Notes.

Such approval relates only to the Notes which are to be admitted to trading on the regulated market (the "Regulated Market of Euronext Dublin") of the Irish Stock Exchange plc trading as Euronext Dublin ("Euronext Dublin") or on another regulated market in the European Economic Area (the "EEA") or the United Kingdom ("UK") for the purposes of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended) ("MiFID II") and/or which are to be offered to the public in any Member State of the EEA or the UK in circumstances that require the publication of a prospectus.

Application has been made to Euronext Dublin for Notes issued under the Programme during the period of 12 months from the date of this Base Prospectus (other than Exempt Notes (as defined below)) to be admitted to its official list (the "Official List") and to trading on the Regulated Market of Euronext Dublin. The Regulated Market of Euronext Dublin is a regulated market for the purposes of MiFID II. In addition, application has been made to register the Programme on the SIX Swiss Exchange Ltd. Upon specific request, Notes issued under the Programme may then be listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange Ltd. References in this Base Prospectus to Notes being "listed" (and all related references) shall mean that such Notes have been (i) admitted to the Official List and to trading on the Regulated Market of Euronext Dublin or (ii) admitted to trading on the standard for bonds of the SIX Swiss Exchange Ltd, as the case may be.

This Base Prospectus (as supplemented as at the relevant time, if applicable) is valid for 12 months from its date in relation to Notes which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market in the EEA or the UK for the purposes of MiFID II. The obligation to supplement this Base Prospectus in the event of a significant new factor, material mistake or material inaccuracy does not apply when this Base Prospectus is no longer valid.

The Programme also provides that Notes may be listed or admitted to trading, as the case may be, on such other or further stock exchanges, markets or quotation systems as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer. The Issuer may also issue unlisted Notes and/or Notes not admitted to trading on any market.

The requirement to publish a prospectus under the Prospectus Regulation only applies to Notes which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market in the EEA and/or offered to the public in the EEA other than in circumstances where an exemption is available under Articles 1(4) and 3(2) of the Prospectus Regulation (and for these purposes, references to the EEA include the UK). References in this Base Prospectus to "Exempt Notes" are to (i) Swiss Domestic Notes (as defined below) and (ii) Notes for which no prospectus is required to be published under the Prospectus Regulation. The Central Bank of Ireland has neither approved nor reviewed information contained in this Base Prospectus in connection with Exempt Notes.

The Notes will be subject to Swedish Statutory Loss Absorption Powers (as defined below), as described in "Terms and Conditions of the Notes – Governing Law, Jurisdiction and Swedish Statutory Loss Absorption Powers".

There are certain risks related to any issue of Notes under the Programme, which investors should ensure they fully understand (see "Risk Factors" on pages 14-51 of this Base Prospectus).

The Issuer has been assigned ratings of A-1 (short term) and A+ (long term) (outlooks stable) from S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited ("Standard & Poor's"); P-1 (short term) and Aa3 (long term) (outlooks stable) from Moody's Investors Service (Nordics) AB ("Moody's"); and F1 (short term) and A+ (long term) (rating watch stable) from Fitch Ratings Ltd. ("Fitch"). Notes to be issued under the Programme are expected to be rated A+ (Senior Preferred Notes with a maturity of more than one year), BBB+ (Subordinated Notes) and A-1 (Senior Preferred Notes with a maturity of less than one year) by Standard & Poor's; Aa3 (Senior Preferred Notes), Baa2 (Subordinated Notes) and P-1 (short term) by Moody's; and AA- (Senior Preferred Notes with a maturity of more than one year), A- (Subordinated Notes) and F1+ (Senior Preferred Notes with a maturity of less than one year) by Fitch. Each of Standard & Poor's, Moody's and Fitch is established in the EU or the UK, as the case may be, and is registered under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (as amended) (the "CRA Regulation"). Notes issued under the Programme may be rated or unrated. Where a Tranche (as defined below) of Notes is rated, such rating will be specified in the applicable Final Terms (as defined below) or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement (as defined below) and will not necessarily be the same as the ratings assigned to the Programme. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency. THE NOTES HAVE NOT BEEN, AND WILL NOT BE, REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), AND MAY INCLUDE NOTES IN BEARER FORM THAT ARE SUBJECT TO U.S. TAX LAW REQUIREMENTS. ACCORDINGLY, THE NOTES MAY NOT BE OFFERED, SOLD OR DELIVERED WITHIN THE UNITED STATES OR TO U.S. PERSONS EXCEPT (1) IN REGISTERED FORM AND TO "QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYERS" (AS DEFINED IN RULE 144A ("RULE 144A") UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) IN TRANSACTIONS MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF RULE 144A OR (2) IN BEARER OR REGISTERED FORM AND TO CERTAIN NON-U.S. PERSONS IN ACCORDANCE WITH REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT SELLERS OF THE NOTES MAY BE RELYING ON THE EXEMPTION FROM THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 5 OF THE SECURITIES ACT PROVIDED BY RULE 144A. SEE "SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE" AND "NOTICE TO PURCHASERS OF RESTRICTED NOTES AND TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS" FOR A DESCRIPTION OF CERTAIN RESTRICTIONS ON OFFERS, SALES AND TRANSFERS OF THE NOTES.

The Issuer accepts responsibility for the information contained in this Base Prospectus and the Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the Pricing Supplement for each Tranche of Notes issued under the Programme. To the best of the knowledge of the Issuer the information contained in this Base Prospectus is in accordance with the facts and this Base Prospectus as completed by the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, makes no omission likely to affect the import of such information.

The Issuer has confirmed to the Dealers that this Base Prospectus contains all information which is material in the context of the Programme or the issue of the relevant Notes; that this Base Prospectus is true and accurate in all material respects and is not misleading and does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make statements herein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading and; there are no other facts in relation thereto the omission of which would, in the context of the Programme or the issue of the relevant Notes, make any statement herein misleading in any material respect; that all reasonable enquiries have been made to verify the foregoing; and that the opinions and intentions expressed herein are honestly held or made. The Issuer has further confirmed to the Dealers that this Base Prospectus together with, in relation to any Tranche of Notes, the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, contains the necessary information which is material to an investor for making an informed assessment of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses and prospects of the Issuer, of the rights attaching to the relevant Notes and the reasons for any issuance and its impact on the Issuer.

In relation to any Tranche, the aggregate nominal amount of the Notes of such Tranche, the interest (if any) payable in respect of the Notes of such Tranche, the issue price and certain other information which is relevant to such Tranche will be set out in a final terms document ("Final Terms") or, in the case of Exempt Notes, a pricing supplement ("Pricing Supplement"). In relation to Notes to be listed on Euronext Dublin, the Final Terms will be filed with the Central Bank of Ireland on or before the date of issue of the Notes of such Tranche. Copies of Final Terms relating to Notes listed on Euronext Dublin will be published on the website of Euronext Dublin at www.ise.ie.

This Base Prospectus contains information sourced from third parties – including Statistics Sweden, Euroclear Sweden AB, the Estonian Central Bank, the Association of Commercial Banks of Latvia, the Financial and Capital Market Commission (Latvia), the Association of Lithuanian Banks, Macrobond and Riksbank – where indicated with references to third party sources herein. The Issuer confirms that such information has been accurately reproduced and that, so far as it is aware, and is able to ascertain from information published by such sources, no facts have been omitted which would render the reproduced information inaccurate or misleading.

This Base Prospectus is to be read in conjunction with any amendment or supplement hereto, all information which is deemed to be incorporated herein by reference (see "Information Incorporated by Reference") and, in relation to any Tranche, the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement. This Base Prospectus shall be read and construed on the basis that such information is incorporated in, and forms part of, this Base Prospectus.

Other than in relation to the information which is deemed to be incorporated by reference herein (see "Information Incorporated by Reference"), the information on the websites to which this Base Prospectus refers does not form part of this Base Prospectus and has not been scrutinised or approved by the Central Bank of Ireland.

The Issuer has not authorised the making or provision of any representation or information regarding the Issuer or the Notes other than as contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus, in the Dealer Agreement (as defined under "Subscription and Sale"), in any other document prepared in connection with the Programme or any Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, any Pricing Supplement or as approved for such purpose by the Issuer. Any such representation or information should not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer, any of the Dealers or the Trustee (as defined under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes").

None of this Base Prospectus, any financial statements and any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes is intended to provide the basis of any credit or other evaluation of the Issuer. Neither this Base Prospectus nor any Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, any Pricing Supplement constitutes an offer or an invitation to subscribe for or purchase any Notes and should not be considered as a recommendation by the Issuer, the Dealers or any of them that any recipient of this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, any Pricing Supplement should subscribe for or purchase any Notes. Each recipient of this Base Prospectus, any Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, any Pricing Supplement shall be taken to have made its own investigation and appraisal of the condition (financial or otherwise) of the Issuer.

This Base Prospectus is to be used by the recipient hereof solely in connection with evaluating an investment in debt instruments issued by the Issuer under the Programme and for no other purpose. Copies of this Base Prospectus and any related offering documents must not be mailed or otherwise distributed or transmitted in or into the United States except to "qualified institutional buyers" as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act.

Neither the delivery of this Base Prospectus, any Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, any Pricing Supplement nor the offering, sale or delivery of any Notes shall, in any circumstances, create any implication that there has been no adverse change in the financial situation of the Issuer since the date hereof or, as the case may be, the date upon which this Base Prospectus has been most recently amended or supplemented. Investors should review, inter alia, the most recent financial statements of the Issuer when deciding whether or not to purchase any Notes. No representation or warranty is made or implied by the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or the Trustee, and neither the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates nor the Trustee makes any representation or warranty or accepts any responsibility, as to the accuracy or completeness of the information contained or incorporated in this Base Prospectus or any other information provided by the Issuer in connection with the Programme.

Neither the Issuer nor any of the Dealers nor the Trustee represents that this Base Prospectus may be lawfully distributed, or that the Notes may be offered, in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any jurisdiction, or pursuant to an exemption available thereunder, or assumes any responsibility for facilitating any such distribution or offering. The distribution of this Base Prospectus and any Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, any Pricing Supplement, and the offering, sale and delivery of the Notes in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, any Pricing Supplement, comes are required by the Issuer and the Dealers to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. For a description of certain restrictions on offers, sales and deliveries of Notes and on the distribution of this Base Prospectus, any Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, any Pricing Supplement and other offering material relating to the Notes, see "Subscription and Sale". Neither this Base Prospectus nor any Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, any Pricing Supplement, may be used for the purpose of an offer or solicitation by anyone in any jurisdiction in which such offer or solicitation is not authorised or to any person to whom it is unlawful to make such an offer or solicitation.

The maximum aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding at any one time under the Programme will not exceed U.S.$40,000,000,000 (and for this purpose, any Notes denominated in another currency shall be translated into United States dollars at the date of the agreement to issue such Notes calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Dealer Agreement). The maximum aggregate principal amount of Notes which may be outstanding at any one time under the Programme may be increased from time to time, subject to compliance with the relevant provisions of the Dealer Agreement.

The Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors. Each potential investor in the Notes must determine the suitability of an investment in the Notes in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor should consider, either on its own or with the help of its financial and other professional advisers, whether it:

- (i) has sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the relevant Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the relevant Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus or any applicable supplement;
- (ii) has access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the relevant Notes and the impact such investment will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (iii) has sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the relevant Notes, including Notes with principal or interest payable in one or more currencies, or where the currency for principal or interest payments is different from the currency in which such investor's financial activities are principally denominated;
- (iv) understands thoroughly the terms of the relevant Notes and is familiar with the behaviour of any relevant indices and financial markets; and
- (v) is able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

Legal investment considerations may restrict certain investments. The investment activities of certain investors are subject to investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal advisers to determine whether and to what extent (i) Notes are legal investments for it, (ii) Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing and (iii) other restrictions apply to its purchase or pledge of any Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisers or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

In this Base Prospectus, references to websites or uniform resource locators ("URLs") are inactive textual references and are included for information purposes only. The contents of any such website or URL shall not form part of, or be deemed to be incorporated into, this Base Prospectus.

All references in this Base Prospectus to "U.S. dollars", "USD", "U.S.$" and "$" refer to United States dollars; references to "CHF" refer to Swiss Francs; references to "CNY", "RMB" and "Renminbi" are to the lawful currency of the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") that is deliverable offshore; references to "SEK" or "Krona" refer to Swedish Krona; and references to "EUR", "Euro" and "€" refer to the currency introduced at the start of the third stage of European economic and monetary union pursuant to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, as amended. For the purposes of this Base Prospectus, references to the "PRC" exclude the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the PRC ("Hong Kong"), the Macau Special Administrative Region of the PRC ("Macau") and Taiwan.

Interest and/or other amounts payable under the Notes may be calculated by reference to certain reference rates. In the case of Notes other than Exempt Notes, any such reference rate may constitute a benchmark for the purposes of Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 (the "Benchmarks Regulation"). If any such reference rate does constitute such a benchmark, the applicable Final Terms will indicate whether or not the benchmark is provided by an administrator included in the register of administrators and benchmarks established and maintained by the European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA") pursuant to Article 36 (Register of administrators and benchmarks) of the Benchmarks Regulation. Transitional provisions in the Benchmarks Regulation may have the result that the administrator of a particular benchmark is not required to appear in the register of administrators and benchmarks at the date of the applicable Final Terms. The registration status of any administrator under the Benchmarks Regulation is a matter of public record and, save where required by applicable law, the Issuer does not intend to update the applicable Final Terms to reflect any change in the registration status of the administrator.

IMPORTANT – EEA AND UK RETAIL INVESTORS

If the applicable Final Terms in respect of any Notes or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement includes a legend titled "Prohibition of Sales to EEA and UK Retail Investors", the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the EEA or in the UK. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (the "Insurance Distribution Directive"), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Regulation. Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No. 1286/2014 (as amended) (the "PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA or in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA or in the UK may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

MIFID II PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / TARGET MARKET

In respect of each issue of Notes, the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement will include a legend titled "MiFID II Product Governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the relevant Notes and which channels for distribution of the relevant Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending such Notes (a "distributor") should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of such Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue of Notes about whether, for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the "MiFID Product Governance Rules"), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither J.P. Morgan Securities plc (the "Arranger") nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance Rules.

PRODUCT CLASSIFICATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 309B OF THE SECURITIES AND FUTURES ACT (CHAPTER 289) OF SINGAPORE, AS MODIFIED OR AMENDED FROM TIME TO TIME, (THE "SFA")

Unless otherwise specified before an offer of Notes, the Issuer has determined and hereby notifies all relevant persons (as defined in Section 309A(1) of the SFA) that all Notes issued or to be issued under the Programme shall be prescribed capital markets products (as defined in the Securities and Futures (Capital Markets Products) Regulations 2018 of Singapore) and Excluded Investment Products (as defined in MAS Notice SFA 04-N12: Notice on the Sale of Investment Products and MAS Notice FAA-N16: Notice on Recommendations on Investment Products).

AVAILABLE INFORMATION

FOR AS LONG AS ANY OF THE NOTES REMAIN OUTSTANDING AND ARE "RESTRICTED SECURITIES" WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144(a)(3) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT, THE ISSUER HAS AGREED THAT IT WILL, DURING ANY PERIOD IN WHICH IT IS NEITHER SUBJECT TO THE REPORTING REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 13 OR 15(d) UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934, AS AMENDED (THE "EXCHANGE ACT"), NOR EXEMPT FROM REPORTING UNDER THE EXCHANGE ACT PURSUANT TO RULE 12g3-2(b) THEREUNDER, FURNISH, UPON REQUEST, TO ANY PERSON IN WHOSE NAME SUCH RESTRICTED SECURITIES ARE REGISTERED, TO ANY OWNER OF A BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN SUCH RESTRICTED SECURITIES, AND TO ANY PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER OF SUCH RESTRICTED SECURITIES OR BENEFICIAL INTEREST THEREIN DESIGNATED BY ANY SUCH PERSON OR BENEFICIAL OWNER, IN CONNECTION WITH RESALE OF A BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN SUCH RESTRICTED SECURITIES BY SUCH PERSON OR BENEFICIAL OWNER, AS THE CASE MAY BE, THE INFORMATION SPECIFIED IN RULE 144A(d)(4) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT. THIS COVENANT IS INTENDED FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE HOLDERS (AS DEFINED BELOW), AND PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS DESIGNATED BY SUCH HOLDERS, FROM TIME TO TIME OF BENEFICIAL INTERESTS IN THE NOTES.

STABILISATION

IN CONNECTION WITH THE ISSUE OF ANY TRANCHE OF NOTES, THE DEALER OR DEALERS (IF ANY) NAMED AS THE STABILISATION MANAGER(S) (OR PERSONS ACTING ON BEHALF OF ANY STABILISATION MANAGER(S)) IN THE APPLICABLE FINAL TERMS OR, IN THE CASE OF EXEMPT NOTES, THE APPLICABLE PRICING SUPPLEMENT MAY OVER-ALLOT NOTES OR EFFECT TRANSACTIONS WITH A VIEW TO SUPPORTING THE MARKET PRICE OF THE NOTES AT A LEVEL HIGHER THAN THAT WHICH MIGHT OTHERWISE PREVAIL. HOWEVER, STABILISATION MAY NOT NECESSARILY OCCUR. ANY STABILISATION ACTION MAY BEGIN ON OR AFTER THE DATE ON WHICH ADEQUATE PUBLIC DISCLOSURE OF THE TERMS OF THE OFFER OF THE RELEVANT TRANCHE OF NOTES IS MADE AND, IF BEGUN, MAY CEASE AT ANY TIME, BUT IT MUST END NO LATER THAN THE EARLIER OF 30 DAYS AFTER THE ISSUE DATE OF THE RELEVANT TRANCHE OF NOTES AND 60 DAYS AFTER THE DATE OF THE ALLOTMENT OF THE RELEVANT TRANCHE OF NOTES. ANY STABILISATION ACTION OR OVER-ALLOTMENT MUST BE CONDUCTED BY THE RELEVANT STABILISATION MANAGER(S) (OR PERSONS ACTING ON BEHALF OF ANY STABILISATION MANAGER(S)) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE LAWS AND RULES.

2 Risk Factors

Investing in the Notes involves certain risks. If any of the risks described below materialise, the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations could suffer, and the trading price and liquidity of the Notes could decline, in which case an investor may lose some or all of the value of its investment. Swedbank believes that the factors described below represent the principal risks inherent in investing in Notes issued under the Programme, but it may be unable to pay interest, principal or other amounts on or in connection with Notes for other reasons which may not be considered significant risks by Swedbank based on information currently available to it or which it may not currently be able to anticipate and Swedbank does not represent that the statements below regarding the risks of holding any Notes are exhaustive.

Words and expressions defined in the "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" below or elsewhere in this Base Prospectus have the same meanings in this section.

2.1 Risks Relating to the Issuer's Financial Situation

2.1.1 Economic and market conditions have caused substantial credit impairments in the past, and future credit impairments could have a material adverse impact on the Group's financial condition and results of operations.

The Group is exposed to credit risk, or the risk that its borrowers may not repay their loans according to their contractual terms. A deteriorating macroeconomic environment or increased risk profile of the Group's credit portfolio could result in further provisioning and/or higher capital requirements. If the market value of collateral securing the payment of the loans made by the Group declines, the collateral may be insufficient to cover the loans.

The Group uses through the cycle estimates of probability of default for calculating its regulatory capital requirements. If the risks in the Group's credit portfolio increase, it would result in downgrades in the risk classification system. Any downgrades could result in a higher regulatory capital requirement, which could lead the Group to require additional capital. In addition, the Group values assets and assesses the capital adequacy position of its banking subsidiaries using financial models based on assumptions and estimates taking into account the then prevailing market conditions which may prove inadequate if market conditions deteriorate. Changes in foreign exchange rates, decreases in collateral ratios as a consequence of the deterioration of the market value of assets pledged as collateral, or deterioration in the economic environment, among other things, could result in further provisioning (e.g., previously known oil-related problem loans ongoing since 2015 within LC&I resulted in higher credit impairments) and/or an increase in risk exposure amount ("REA"), which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

There can be no assurance that the Group will not experience materially lower credit recoveries or higher impairments in the future.

2.1.2 A significant amount of the Group's long-term financing matures in the next 12 months, which the Group may not have the ability to refinance.

A significant portion, SEK 165 billion, or 23 per cent as of 31 December 2019, of the Group's external long-term financing, including maturing subordinated debt, matures in the next 12 months. Disruptions, uncertainty and/or increased volatility in the global capital markets may have a material adverse effect on the Group's ability to raise new financing at all or on favourable terms. This could have a material adverse effect on the Group's liquidity position, funding maturity profile and operating results. The availability of additional financing depends on a variety of factors, such as market conditions, the availability of credit generally and, specifically for borrowers in the financial services industry, the volume of trading activities.

In addition, an increase in interest rates and/or widening of credit spreads, as well as any restriction on the availability of credit, including, but not limited to, interbank credit, can affect the Group's ability to borrow on a secured or unsecured basis, which may have a material adverse effect on the Group's liquidity and results of operations. In difficult credit market conditions, the Group may be forced to fund its operations at a higher cost or it may be unable to raise as much short- or long-term funding as needed to support its business activities. This could increase the Group's funding costs or cause the Group to curtail its business activities, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The availability of financing is also affected by the Group's financial condition, its credit ratings and credit capacity, as well as any negative perception by the Group's customers or lenders of the Group's financial prospects if, for example, the Group incurs large loan losses or other losses, experiences significant deposit outflows or if the level of the Group's business activity decreases due to a market downturn or otherwise. The Group's access to funds may further be impaired if regulatory authorities impose additional regulatory capital requirements or if ratings agencies downgrade the credit ratings or outlook of Swedbank. This could have a material adverse effect on the Group's liquidity position, funding maturity profile and operating results. For more information about recent regulatory changes to capital requirements, see "— Swedbank or its financial institution subsidiaries may need additional capital and/or eligible liabilities in the future to maintain capital adequacy ratios or for other reasons, and it may be difficult to obtain such capital and/or eligible liabilities."

2.1.3 The Group's funding costs and its access to the debt capital markets depend significantly on its credit ratings.

On 26 March 2020, S&P lowered Swedbank's long-term and short-term issuer credit rating on Swedbank AB and its core subsidiary Swedbank Mortgage AB. On 2 April 2020, Moody's downgraded Swedbank's long-term deposit and senior unsecured debt ratings, junior senior unsecured debt ratings, subordinated debt ratings and baseline credit assessment. On 3 April 2020, Fitch downgraded Swedbank's long-term Issuer Default Rating ("IDR") to A+ from AA- and Viability Rating ("VR") to a+ from aa-. The downgrades follow the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority ("SFSA") and Estonian Financial Supervisory Authority ("EFSA") finding of serious anti-money laundering deficiencies and regulatory misconduct at Swedbank between 2015 and the first quarter of 2019 as a result of investigations into Swedbank's Baltic subsidiaries, as well as Swedbank's disclosure of the findings of its independent investigation by an external law firm. Any downgrade of Swedbank's credit rating, or the credit ratings of its significant subsidiaries such as Swedbank Mortgage, could increase its borrowing costs, adversely affect the liquidity position of the Group, limit its access to the capital markets, undermine confidence in, and the competitive position of, the Group, or trigger obligations under certain bilateral terms in some of its trading and collateralised financing contracts, including requiring the provision of additional collateral as well as limiting the range of counterparties willing to enter into transactions with the Group. Any such event could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. Any fines or sanctions imposed on the Group by relevant authorities, including the SFSA, which imposed an administrative fine of SEK 4 billion on the Group on 19 March 2020, could have an adverse impact on the Group's credit rating.

2.1.4 The Group may be unable to successfully foreclose on the collateral securing defaulted loans, and even if it is successful in its foreclosure efforts, it may be unable to successfully repossess the underlying assets, which may adversely affect its ability to recover the value of the collateral.

If a borrower defaults under one of the Group's loans, the Group may foreclose on the loan and/or acquire title to the assets pledged as collateral, and thereafter make substantial improvements or repairs in order to maximize the asset's realizable value. The borrower may contest enforcement of foreclosure or other compulsory measures, which may delay the foreclosure. The borrower may also seek bankruptcy protection, in which case certain regulatory measures may preclude the Group from enforcing foreclosure or pursuing other remedies against the borrower. Foreclosure-related costs, high LTV ratios or reductions in the value of the assets may prevent the Group from realising an amount equal to its loans upon foreclosure, and the Group may be required to record losses.

Even if the Group is able to successfully foreclose on the collateral securing its exposures, the Group may hold title to pledged assets that it is unable to efficiently repossess or force a sale of, which would adversely affect the Group's ability to recover the value of the collateral securing its exposure. Furthermore, the Group may, as part of its foreclosure on business assets, end up acquiring collateral that is not core to the Group's business and in respect of which it lacks the required operational or management expertise or experience or may be prohibited from owning under applicable regulations. Managing such assets may be costly and may require additional expertise, personnel or outsourcing, options which may not be readily available or available at all. All of the above may adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.1.5 The Group is exposed to foreign exchange risk. Fluctuations in the value of foreign currencies could have an adverse effect on the Group's assets, including its loan portfolio, and its results of operations.

Foreign exchange risk arises in relation to strategic holdings of foreign operations and when deposits and lending take place in different currencies. Exchange rate movements between SEK, EUR and USD, which are the main currencies of Swedbank's operations and funding, could have a significant adverse effect on the Group's assets and liabilities which are denominated in such currencies, but reported on the Group's income statement in SEK. Structural currency risks primarily arise in the banking book when assets and liabilities are denominated in different currencies. The trading book also generates currency risks. In addition, the Group has a strategic currency position in EUR derived primarily from goodwill in the Baltic subsidiaries. This position is financed in SEK and is not hedged since it does not affect either profit or the capital base. The Group's income statement is also affected by changes in exchange rates, as foreign currency cash flows from lending margins could affect net interest income. Fluctuations in the value of foreign currencies may also have a negative impact on the Group's liquidity, since the Group's overall liquidity includes balances which are held in foreign currencies. As the foreign currency balances value varies, the liquidity reserve value will also fluctuate. Additionally, fluctuations in the value of foreign currencies may also have a negative impact on the Group's capital position, since part of the Group's capital and REA is denominated in foreign currencies.

2.1.6 The Group is subject to the risk that liquidity may not always be readily available.

The Group's liquidity could be impaired by an inability to access debt markets, an inability to sell assets or redeem investments, outflows of deposits or collateral deterioration. This could be due to circumstances that the Group is unable to control, such as continued general market disruption, loss of confidence in financial markets, uncertainty and speculation regarding the solvency of market participants, rating downgrades, or operational problems that affect third parties. Even any perception among market participants that a financial institution is experiencing greater liquidity risk can cause significant damage to the institution, including deposit outflows and access to capital markets on less favourable terms, and consequently its ability to access liquidity. Perceived liquidity risks from rumours or speculation in the marketplace can, in certain circumstances, lead to real liquidity impairments, which can further lead to, amongst other things, a downgrade in credit ratings, thereby exacerbating a downward liquidity spiral.

The Group, like its Nordic peers, is reliant on wholesale funding due to a structural shortage of deposits in the Swedish banking system, which makes it sensitive to prolonged dislocations in the funding markets. The Group's ability to sell assets at commercially desirable prices, or at all, could be impaired if other market participants are seeking to sell similar assets at the same time or are not in the position to finance themselves, or when the market value of assets, including financial instruments underlying derivative transactions to which the Group is a party, is difficult to ascertain, which occurred during the last liquidity crisis. In addition, financial institutions with which the Group interacts could exercise set-off rights or the right to require additional collateral, which could further impair the Group's access to liquidity. The Group's internal sources of liquidity may prove to be insufficient, and in such case, the Group may not be able to successfully obtain additional financing on favourable terms or at all, which would have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations

2.1.7 Swedbank or its financial institution subsidiaries may need additional capital and/or eligible liabilities in the future to maintain capital adequacy ratios or for other reasons, and it may be difficult to obtain such capital and/or eligible liabilities.

The Group, on a consolidated basis, and Swedbank and its financial institution subsidiaries, on an individual basis, are required to maintain minimum capital ratios, eligible liability levels and solvency levels prescribed by law in each of the jurisdictions in which the Group operates. If the capital or eligible liabilities of the Group are not sufficient to meet the applicable requirements or if the applicable requirements increase or the rules concerning what counts as capital or eligible liabilities change, the Group may need to obtain additional capital and/or eligible liabilities in the future and it may not be able to obtain new equity capital or debt financing to meet such requirements on favourable terms, which would have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, if the capital ratios of Swedbank's financial institution subsidiaries deteriorate, Swedbank, as the parent company, could be required to provide funding by way of direct or indirect capital contributions, loans or guarantees of loans into its subsidiaries. To the extent that it does not, Group operations could be restricted in the relevant jurisdictions as a result of regulatory penalties, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Moreover, developments in the regulatory framework, such as changes in the risk weighting of assets, may cause reductions in the Group's capital adequacy ratios and solvency levels and/or cause the applicable minimum capital or eligible liability requirements to increase. Additionally, macro-prudential authorities may change the Group's capital and/or eligible liability requirements in the future, when they deem it necessary to contain systemic risk. For further detail, see "Certain Regulatory Considerations." Changing regulations may make it expensive or difficult for the Group to maintain its capital adequacy requirements.

In January 2020, the SFSA finalised a proposal to introduce increased capital requirements for commercial real-estate bank loans in the third quarter of 2020. The capital requirement will consist of a charge in Pillar 2 that represents the difference between the bank's average risk weights for commercial properties and the risk weights that the SFSA has set out. The average risk weight as determined by the SFSA will be 35 per cent for corporate exposures collateralised by commercial properties and 25 per cent for corporate exposures collateralised by commercial residential properties. According to the SFSA, Swedbank's total capital requirement will increase by 0.7 percentage points and Common Equity Tier 1 capital by 0.5 percentage points.

In November 2018, the SFSA published a memorandum explaining its view of the EBA's updated guidelines on banks' internal risk classification systems. In particular, the SFSA required Swedish banks to analyze their internal risk classification systems to ensure that they comply with updated requirements. Since the guidelines have not yet been finalized by the EBA or introduced into SFSA regulations, there is uncertainty as to how the changes will affect Swedbank. However, the implementation of new models is expected to increase Swedbank's REA.

The proposed reforms to Basel III, including the output floor of 72.5 per cent, are expected to increase the REA and the capital requirements for Swedbank. The magnitude of the increase is still uncertain and will depend on how Swedish and European competent financial authorities choose to implement the new regulatory framework for European and, in particular, Swedish banks. If the REA and capital requirements are increased for Swedbank, it may need to obtain additional capital and/or eligible liabilities in the future and it may not be able to obtain new equity capital or debt financing to meet such requirements on favourable terms, which would have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.2 Risks Relating to the Issuer's Operational and Strategic Situation

2.2.1 IT and other systems and infrastructure on which the Group depends are subject to disruptions and failures for a variety of reasons which could be outside the Group's control.

The Group's operations are highly dependent on its ability to process and monitor, on a daily basis, a large number of transactions, many of which are highly complex, across numerous and diverse markets in many currencies, as well as its ability to accommodate current and future regulatory provisions, such as anti-money laundering monitoring requirements and IFRS 9 record-keeping and calculations. Increased digitisation contributes to making operational risks more complex, not least because the number of places and ways in which the bank interacts with customers is growing. The Group's financial, accounting, data processing or other operating systems and facilities may fail to operate properly or become disabled due to, for example:

- infrastructure issues which are related to hardware, software, network and communication failures, power supply and cooling systems;
- external dependencies where the Group's operations are dependent on third parties such as stock exchanges, clearing houses, external information providers and, software vendors' maintenance providers;
- internal issues such as deterioration in the quality of IT development, support and operations processes, and a high turnover of employees or organisational changes, resulting in an inadequate number of personnel to handle the increasing complexity of operations or manual errors; and
- the Group's operations rely on the secure processing, storage and transmission of confidential and other information in its computer systems and networks. The Group's computer systems, software and networks may be vulnerable to unauthorised access, computer viruses or other malicious codes and other external attacks or internal breaches that could have a security impact. If one or more of such events occur, this potentially could jeopardise the Group's, or the Group's clients' or counterparties', confidential and other information. The Group may be required to spend significant additional resources to modify its protective measures or to investigate and remediate vulnerabilities or other exposures, and it may be subject to litigation and financial losses as well as reputational risks that are either not insured against or not fully covered through any insurance maintained by the Group.

Any disruption in the Group's IT or other systems may have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's ability to conduct business may be adversely impacted by a disruption in the IT infrastructure that supports the businesses and the Group's operations in the countries in which the Group is located. This may include a disruption involving electrical, communications, transportation or other services used by the Group or third parties with whom it conducts business, or a catastrophic event involving any location where the Group has a significant operational base.

In 2019 and 2020, the Group occasionally experienced system disruptions that affected customer access to services. Examples of such incidents include:

- A September 2019 incident involving a core router interface failed to trigger internal alarms and caused widespread outages.
- A February 2020 incident during planned maintenance work to reconfigure a faulty network controller in one of the Group's Swedish data centres impacted all service delivery channels in Sweden (i.e., cards, internet and mobile banking, Swish payments, contact centres, branch networks, trading and back-office functions) and certain services in the Baltics (including mobile and internet banking, payments and branch services), causing major customer outages.
- A failure in corporate payment file imports for Baltic customers resulting in delayed payments processing.
- Database errors spanning two days in Baltic cards processing led to downtime in debit card transaction acceptance, affecting several hundred thousand transactions.
- An incident involving financial ID technique in Sweden prevented customers from logging in to mobile and internet banking platforms for approximately two hours.
- A configuration error in a core network router in Sweden caused erroneous data traffic that affected several online services, causing services to become slow or unreachable for several hours.

These incidents are not an exhaustive list, but examples of availability issues that have affected customers during 2019 and 2020. The primary impact from such incidents is reputational, but can also have a financial impact due to lost business and additional costs related to incident management and recovery.

2.2.2 The Group is subject to a variety of risks as a result of its operations outside of Sweden, most notably in the Baltic countries.

The Group's operations in the Baltic countries present various risks that do not apply, or apply to a lesser degree, to its business in Sweden. In particular, the Group faces higher economic and political risks in these markets, including the potential for economic volatility, recession, inflationary pressure, exchange rate fluctuation risk and interruption of business, as well as sanctions relating to specific countries, renegotiation or nullification of existing contracts, sovereign default and changes in law or tax policy. The current geopolitical situation in Russia and Ukraine, including sanctions and embargos, poses a risk to the region. Risks such as these could impact the ability or obligations of the Group's borrowers to repay their loans, the value of the Group's collateral held as security, interest rates and foreign exchange rates, and the levels of economic activity. In addition, the Group may face a higher risk of money laundering activity in the Baltic countries and there can be no assurance that the Group's anti money laundering policies and procedures have effectively mitigated or will effectively mitigate the risk associated with these jurisdictions. As discussed in "—The Group is exposed to anti-money laundering and sanctions compliance risks, and is currently subject to investigations by authorities into allegations that the Group may have processed money laundering transactions and may have violated OFAC sanctions", the Group is responding to serious allegations that significant sums of money were transferred through the Group's Baltic subsidiaries by customers who may have been involved in money laundering. All of the foregoing factors could have a material adverse effect on the Group's reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.2.3 The Group is exposed to concentration risk

The Group is exposed to geographic concentration risk in the form of exposure to Sweden. For the full-year 2019, the Swedish Banking business segment generated 57 per cent of the Group's revenues and 69 per cent of its profits and therefore a downturn in this segment could materially impact the Group. The Group is also exposed to sector concentration risk in the form of large exposures to private mortgages and the property management industry. Private mortgage loans constituted 56 per cent of Swedbank's total loan portfolio as of 31 December 2019, with 90 per cent of the private mortgage loans in Sweden and the remaining 10 per cent in the Baltic countries. Property management was the largest corporate sector and constituted 16 per cent of the total loan portfolio and 46 per cent of the corporate portfolio as of 31 December 2019. The property management portfolio was distributed in Sweden (82 per cent), Baltic countries (9 per cent) and Norway and Finland (9 per cent) as of 31 December 2019. The economic situation and/or increased market competition in Sweden or deteriorating conditions in this sector could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.2.4 The Group's activities may be subject to cybercrime attacks.

Swedbank's activities continue to be exposed to an increasing risk of cyber-attacks, the nature of which is continually evolving. Digital developments, together with Swedbank's size and market share, make it a potential target for cybercrime, the cost of which is rising significantly. In particular, the Group is the subject of cyber fraud attempts, which are primarily related to the Group's card and internet banking operations. Instances of internet banking fraud largely stem from social engineering of our customers and employees, which results in unauthorised persons gaining access to customers' accounts, circumventing technical and logical protection mechanisms. Fraud related to card operations mainly results from theft of card information at retailers and other points of sale. Swedbank may need to compensate customers for their losses unless the customer has been grossly negligent.

The Group has experienced denial of service attempts against its infrastructure on a reoccurring basis, causing minor impacts on availability of services; such attacks may increase in frequency or severity. The Group also expects to face increased regulatory requirements going forward in relation to cybersecurity, such as the EU General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”), which entered into force in May 2018, or the EBA’s proposed technical standards on strong customer authentication. In 2019, the EBA published new guidelines that provide details on how financial institutions should address information and communication technology (“ICT”) and security risks. See “—The Group’s business is subject to substantial regulation and supervision and can be adversely affected by adverse regulatory, taxation and governmental developments.”

The Group may continue to experience security breaches or unexpected disruptions to its systems and services. Such security breaches and unexpected disruptions could in turn result in liability to the Group’s customers and third parties and have an adverse effect on the Group’s business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations.

2.2.5 Risks relating to changes in accounting and reporting standards.

From time to time, the International Accounting Standards Board (the “IASB”), the EU and other regulatory bodies change the financial accounting and reporting standards that govern the preparation of the Group’s financial statements. These changes can be difficult to predict and can materially impact how the Group records and reports its results of operations and financial condition, and impact its capital and eligible liability levels. Recently, IFRS 9, IFRS 16 and IFRS 17 have all been introduced. Implementation of IFRS 9 resulted mainly in changes in the presentation of the Group’s accrued interest and changes in the estimates and assumptions related to credit impairment provisions in 2018 compared to 2017. IFRS 16 sets out the principles for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of leases. These amendments were implemented in 2018 and 2019. IFRS 17 establishes principles for recognition, presentation, measurement and disclosure of insurance contracts. IFRS 17 was issued in May 2017 and is applicable from 1 January 2021, with an expected deferral to 1 January 2022. IFRS 17 has not yet been approved by the EU.

As a consequence of changes in accounting and reporting standards, the Group may need to obtain additional capital and eligible liabilities in the future and may not be able to obtain new equity capital or debt financing qualifying as regulatory capital or eligible liabilities on attractive terms, or at all. The Group may need to sell assets and these sales could be at distressed prices, to the extent that a market exists, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group’s business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

2.2.6 Substantially all of the Group’s retail mortgage portfolio comprises the cover pool for the covered bonds issued by Swedbank Mortgage.

As of 31 December 2019, substantially all of the Group’s Swedish retail mortgage portfolio was in the cover pool of Swedbank’s wholly owned subsidiary, Swedbank Mortgage. The retail mortgages issued by Swedbank Mortgage comprise the cover pool and thereby serve as security for holders of the covered bonds issued by Swedbank Mortgage and for counterparties under derivatives contracts entered into for hedging purposes in relation to such covered bonds. These mortgages do not form part of the general assets of Swedbank that would be available to holders of the Notes in the case of insolvency or liquidation of Swedbank. The Group intends to cover a significant part of its long term funding requirement through the additional issuance of covered bonds, which will be secured by future retail mortgages issued by Swedbank

Mortgage. The Notes are unsecured obligations of Swedbank, and Holders are structurally subordinated to the covered bondholders and hedge counterparties with respect to the covered bonds. Holders are not likely to ever have access to the cover pool securing the covered bonds issued by Swedbank Mortgage and the related derivatives if Swedbank should become insolvent or be liquidated.

2.2.7 The Group may be required to reassess assumptions used in the calculation of defined benefit pension schemes and to make further contributions to its pension schemes if the value of the plan assets is not sufficient to cover potential liabilities.

Nearly all employees hired in the Swedish part of the Group before 2013 are covered by the BTP2 defined benefit pension plan, which is a multi-employer occupational pension for Swedish banks. The Group is subject to the risk that the liabilities of the Group's various defined benefit pension schemes, which are long-term in nature, will be higher than the liabilities projected based on current assumptions. Major assumptions include those pertaining to salary increases, mortality, discount rates and inflation. Risk also arises from the plan assets because the value of these asset portfolios and the returns from them may be less than expected, especially if equity prices, interest rates, counterparty risk (including sovereigns) or inflation are subject to significant changes. Actual outcome might also differ from current assumptions. These changes or differences, as expressed by an actuarial loss, could be significant and could have a negative impact on the Group's results of operations.

The Group makes contributions to the pension schemes so that the plan assets cover obligations in accordance with Swedish legal requirements. If a deficit arises the Group could be obliged to, or may choose to, make additional contributions to the schemes. The rules in IAS 19 regarding defined benefit pension plans could create volatility in the estimated pension liability and thus to Swedbank's equity through other comprehensive income.

2.2.8 Litigation arising from the Group's business conduct could have an adverse impact on its performance and position.

Entities within the Group could be involved from time to time in legal proceedings arising from the conduct of their business. The reputational and aggregate potential liability in respect thereof cannot be accurately assessed. Any material legal proceedings, or publicity surrounding such legal or regulatory proceedings, could adversely impact the Group's business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations. For further details, please see "—Risks Relating to Internal Control and Compliance—The Group is exposed to anti-money laundering and sanctions compliance risks, and is currently subject to investigations by authorities into allegations that the Group may have processed money laundering transactions and may have violated OFAC sanctions" and "Swedbank—Legal Proceedings."

2.2.9 In order to successfully compete, the Group depends on the recruitment and retention of highly skilled individuals.

The Group's performance is largely dependent on the talents and efforts of highly skilled individuals. The Group's continued ability to compete effectively in its businesses depends on the Group's ability to attract new employees and to retain and motivate its existing employees. Competition from within the financial services industry and from businesses outside the financial services industry for qualified employees is intense. In addition, current and future laws, including laws relating to immigration and outsourcing, and remuneration restrictions under CRD, may restrict the Group's ability to move responsibilities or personnel from one jurisdiction to another or to offer competitive compensation to attract new employees and to retain and motivate its existing employees. The need for increased cost efficiency could also result in lower wage increases in coming years, which may also impact the Group's ability to retain or recruit employees. This may impact the Group's ability to take advantage of business opportunities, potential efficiencies, or profitably manage its existing or new assets.

Swedbank has recently experienced changes within the Group, including in the composition of its Group Executive Committee and its CEO. President and CEO Birgitte Bonnesen was dismissed on 28 March 2019. CFO Anders Karlsson was appointed Acting President and CEO. In addition, as a consequence of the Group's internal investigation, the Council of Swedbank's Estonian subsidiary decided on 17 June 2019 to appoint Olavi Lepp as acting Chairman of the Management Board and acting CEO of Swedbank Estonia. Anna Kõuts was appointed as acting CFO of Swedbank Estonia and acting member of the Management Board of Swedbank Estonia. Both of these appointments were made permanent later in 2019. Former CEO Robert Kitt and former CFO Vaiko Tammeväli left their positions in Swedbank Estonia. Council member Priit Perens ended his employment. All three have left the Group. In August, Jens Henriksson was appointed the new CEO, taking office on 1 October 2019. On 14 March 2020, Rolf Marquardt was appointed the new Chief Risk Officer ("CRO") and is expected to begin no later than 1 October 2020.

Several business areas merged or moved, including the merger of Group IT and Digital Banking; the transfer of most of Customer Value Management to the Swedish Banking business area and the integration of the cash management, PayEx and payment infrastructure functions into LC&I. In addition, the new unit Group Financial Products & Advice was created; and a Special Task Force dedicated to managing the ongoing investigation regarding anti-money laundering allegations was formed. Prolonged changes in management may lead to a decline in employee morale or employee engagement and may result in increased employee turnover. Employee competence and dedication to customer service impacts the Group's customers' experience and contributes to customer value. Employees have a high workload and the Group requires complex planning of resources, with a need to prioritize both business-driven development and regulatory-driven development while simultaneously managing day-to-day operations. Increased staff-related risks could materially adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.2.10 Impairment of goodwill and other intangible assets could have a negative effect on the Group's results of operations

Swedbank performs impairment tests on goodwill and other intangible assets at least once per year or whenever there are indications of a decrease in the value of goodwill or other intangible assets. The outcome of any impairment test model depends, among other things, on key input data on macroeconomic factors and long-term growth assumptions.

Should economic conditions worsen beyond the Group's expectations, or should there be a change in regulatory conditions affecting the Group's assets, either in any of the Group's home markets or in general, an impairment charge relating to goodwill and other intangible assets may need to be recognized, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business and financial condition results of operations.

2.3 Risks Relating to the Issuer's Business Activities and Industry

2.3.1 Swedish households have high levels of household debt and may be exposed to a risk of a decrease in housing prices. Regulatory responses to these concerns also pose risks for the Group.

A significant portion of the Group's profits are generated by Swedbank Mortgage. Swedbank Mortgage's credit risks arise primarily in its lending to the public, consisting of private individuals, tenant-owner associations and the agriculture and forestry and property management sectors. As of the date of this Base Prospectus, 79 per cent of Swedbank Mortgage's credit portfolio consists of lending to private individuals and is secured by single-family homes and tenant-owned apartments. 15 per cent consists of lending to residential and commercial real estate properties (mainly owned by tenant-owner associations and property management companies).

In recent years in Sweden, low interest rates (with real interest rates on mortgages in Sweden decreasing from 8.5 per cent to 0.4 per cent between 1995 and 2019), historically low inflation, higher housing prices and increased disposable household income have led to continued strong growth in demand for loans, especially in the residential mortgage market. Demand for housing has increased rapidly in Sweden, partly as a result of rapid growth in the population over the past decade due to increases in immigration. Rapid urbanisation in Sweden has also contributed to an increase in demand for housing in metropolitan areas and other growth regions. As of 31 December 2019, housing prices have more than tripled since 2000. In 2019, housing prices continued to increase after a temporary decline in 2017. In annual terms, housing prices increased by 4.5 per cent in December 2019, the eleventh consecutive month with annual price increases, driven by low interest rates, lack of housing and a solid labour market.

In addition to these trends, a significant risk facing the Swedish economy is the level of household debt, which has reached historically high levels, with Sweden's estimated household debt-to-disposable income ratio at 190 per cent as of the beginning of 2020, according to the Swedish Central Bank's December 2019 forecast. A shortage of housing, low interest rates and higher house prices have led to a rapid increase in the volume of home lending. As of 2018, 69 per cent of the household total mortgage stock in Sweden had a floating interest rate (with adjustments more frequently than annually), which means households were sensitive to increases in interest rates. A large number of Swedish households therefore may be exposed to the risk of a decrease in housing prices. If interest rates increase, Swedish households may no longer be able to afford their mortgage payments or new households may be deterred from entering the mortgage market, which could in turn decrease housing prices. If housing prices decrease, households may owe more on their houses than their property is worth, which may increase default rates among Swedish borrowers. As the Group, through Swedbank Mortgage, is one of Sweden's leading mortgage lenders with a market share of 24 per cent as of 31 December 2019¹, any increase in default rates whether due to a decrease in housing prices or otherwise could, in turn, have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Additionally, due to the historically high household indebtedness levels, significant decreases in housing prices, or increases in interest rates may cause a significant decrease in household incomes, net assets and/or wealth and consumption, which would in turn have an effect on the broader economy.

Successive Swedish governments have implemented policies to attempt to mitigate these risks and secure financial stability. However, such measures may be inadequate or have unpredictable consequences. The Central Bank of Sweden has expressed concern about the housing market and the increase in household lending and has asked for additional macro prudential tools, such as decreased interest deduction, debt ratio of disposable income and lower mortgage share with flexible interest rates. While discussions about reductions in interest deductibility have intensified, political consensus on this matter has not been reached. If such macro prudential tools are implemented and prove to be too stringent, this could have a negative impact both on Swedish growth and on the real estate market.

2.3.2 The Group's business is sensitive to changes in interest rates and to changes in the competitive environment affecting spreads on its lending and deposits.

The Group is subject to the risks typical of banking activities, including interest rate fluctuations. Changes in interest rate levels, yield curves and spreads may affect the Group's lending and deposit spreads. The Group is exposed to changes in the spread between the interest rates payable by it on deposits or its wholesale funding costs, and the interest rates that it charges on loans to customers and other banks. While both the interest rates payable by the Group on deposits, as well as the interest rates that it charges on loans to customers and credit institutions, are in each case mainly floating rates or swapped into floating rates, there is a risk that the Group will not be able to re-price its floating rate assets and liabilities at the same time, giving rise to re-pricing gaps in the short or medium term. The Group is also subject to intense competition for customer deposits and the current low interest rate environment puts pressure on the Group's deposit spreads. In recent years, the Group's market share of deposits in Sweden has fallen slightly. The Group may not be able to lower its funding costs, whether relating to deposits or wholesale funding, in line with decreases in interest rates on its interest-bearing assets.

Interest rates are sensitive to several factors over which the Group has no control, including fiscal and monetary policies of governments and central banks, as well as domestic and international political conditions. An increase in interest rates could reduce the demand for credit, as well as contribute to an increase in defaults by the Group's customers. Conversely, a reduction in interest rates could adversely affect the Group through, among other things, a decrease in demand for deposits and an increase in competition in deposit-taking and lending to customers. As a result of these factors, significant changes or volatility in interest rates could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition or results of operations of the Group. It is difficult to predict changes in economic or market conditions and to anticipate the effects that such changes could have on the Group's financial performance and results of operations. The Group does not hedge all its risk exposure and cannot assure that its hedging strategies will be effective. If the Group is unable to adjust the interest rate payable on deposits in line with the changes in market interest rates receivable by it on loans, or if the Group's monitoring procedures are unable to manage adequately the interest rate risk, its interest income could rise less or decline more than its interest expense, in which case the Group's results of operations and financial condition or prospects could be negatively affected.

2.3.3 The Group is exposed to systemic risk and its business, profitability and liquidity may be adversely affected by deterioration in the credit quality of, or defaults by, entities who owe the Group money, securities or other assets or whose securities or obligations the Group holds.

Given the high level of interdependence between financial institutions, the Group is, and will continue to be, subject to the risk of deterioration of the commercial and financial soundness, or perceived soundness, of other financial institutions. Within the financial services industry, concerns about, or a default by, one institution could lead to significant liquidity problems, losses or defaults by other institutions, because the commercial and financial soundness of many financial institutions may be closely interrelated as a result of their credit, trading, clearing or other relationships.

The Group is exposed to the risk that entities owing the Group money, securities or other assets will not perform their obligations. These entities may default on their obligations to the Group due to bankruptcy, lack of liquidity, operational failure or other reasons. The Group is also subject to the risk that its rights against these entities may not be enforceable in all circumstances. For example, different methods of holding collateral in different countries can affect the Group's exposures as well as the value of the collateral to the Group. In addition, deterioration in the credit quality of securities or obligations held by the Group could result in losses and/or adversely affect its ability to transfer or realise value from those securities or obligations in the event of liquidation. A significant downgrade in the credit ratings of the Group's counterparties could also have a negative impact on the Group's results. While in many cases the Group is permitted to require additional collateral from counterparties that experience financial difficulty or when collateral value decreases, disputes may arise as to the amount of collateral the Group is entitled to receive and the value of the counterparty's pledged assets. The termination of contracts and the foreclosure on collateral may subject the Group to claims asserting improper exercise of contractual rights. Bankruptcies, downgrades and disputes with counterparties as to the valuation of collateral tend to increase in times of market stress and illiquidity. Rapid changes in prices on the financial markets may cause the Group's exposure to such counterparties to increase, and in some of those cases the actual value of the Group's collateral is lower than it was when the agreement was entered into. The Group may not be able to retain the value of its collateral due to legal concerns and to the ability of the Group to manage real estate property and other assets.

Even the perceived lack of creditworthiness of, or questions about, a counterparty could lead to market-wide liquidity problems and losses or defaults by the Group or by other institutions. This risk is sometimes referred to as "systemic risk" and could adversely affect financial intermediaries, such as clearing agencies, clearing houses, banks, securities firms and exchanges with whom certain of the Group's subsidiaries interact on a daily basis. Systemic risk could have a material adverse effect on the Group's ability to raise new funding and on its business, financial condition, results of operations, liquidity and/or prospects.

2.3.4 Market fluctuations and volatility may adversely affect the value of the Group's positions, reduce its business activities and make it more difficult to assess the fair value of certain of its assets.

In the event of dislocation of financial markets, the fair value of certain of the Group's assets may decline significantly, causing the Group to record mark-to-market losses. The fair value may also fluctuate over short periods of time. In addition, these market conditions may affect the availability of observable market data. As a result, the Group's estimates of fair value may differ materially both from similar estimates made by other financial institutions and from the values that would have been used if a market for these assets had been readily available.

The fair value of interest bearing securities trading in active markets is ordinarily based on market prices (mark-to-market). However, where quoted prices on instruments are not readily and regularly available, as was the case in particular during autumn 2008, due in part to the dislocation of the global financial markets, fair value is estimated using internal valuation models (mark-to-model). These models are generally based on observable market data, meaning the prices of financial instruments that are as similar in nature as possible to the instrument being valued and for which quotes are available in the market. These values are then adjusted to best reflect the value of the Group's securities.

Market fluctuations, in particular fluctuations in the equity market, also influence the value of assets in funds managed by the Group's asset management business and have a direct impact on the income volatility of the asset management activities.

The Group's level of fees and returns from its equity investments in its insurance subsidiaries are impacted by any decrease in the value of their investment portfolios, poor investment returns and the requirement to maintain assets sufficient to cover mandatory provisions for insurance claims.

2.3.5 The Group operates in competitive markets and further increased competition may have an adverse effect on its financial condition and results of operations.

The Group is subject to significant competition in the markets in which it operates. Competition may increase in some or all of the Group's markets as a result of legislative, regulatory, technological or other factors. Increased competition or a decline in customer satisfaction could cause the Group to lose business or compel it to price products and services on less advantageous terms, or otherwise have an adverse effect on its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. Competition in the Swedish mortgage market, one of the Group's core areas, has increased in recent years and has had and may continue to have a negative effect on the Group's margins in the future. Digitisation continues at a brisk pace and customers are increasingly banking through digital channels rather than visiting a branch, which is placing higher demands on the stability of IT systems and on the banking sector to adapt products and distribution channels. In addition, increased competitor participation in the financial sector generally in the Group's principal markets may have an impact on the competitive landscape in such markets and on the way in which banks in those markets conduct their operations. At present, it is difficult to predict what the effects of this increased competitor participation will be or how it will differ from jurisdiction to jurisdiction, should it materialise. However, the Group expects that in order to remain competitive, it will need to continuously improve customer offerings and cost efficiency to produce increased customer value. The Group may experience stronger competition and greater pressure on profit margins. These and other changes in the competitive landscape could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, liquidity, markets and/or prospects.

2.3.6 Actions or inactions of savings banks which are parties to co-operation agreements with the Group may have a negative impact on the Group.

In the normal course of business, the Group enters into various commercial agreements with companies related to the banking industry. The Swedish part of the Group has co-operation agreements with Swedish savings banks, pursuant to which the co-operating banks market and distribute a range of the Group's products and services through their own local branch networks. If the reputation or financial condition of one or more of the co-operating banks, through action or inaction, were to be adversely affected while operating under the Group's trademark, the Group's reputation could also be adversely affected regardless of whether the Group contributed to the action or inaction causing such reputational or financial injury, which in turn could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.4 Risks Relating to Internal Control and Compliance

2.4.1 The Group is exposed to anti-money laundering and sanctions compliance risks, and is currently subject to investigations by authorities into allegations that the Group may have processed money laundering transactions and may have violated OFAC sanctions.

The Group is subject to anti-money laundering and sanctions laws and regulations. These laws and regulations are continually evolving, and compliance by the Group may be time consuming and require the Group to incur significant costs. In particular, in recent years, regulators and other authorities have steadily increased their demands and expectations regarding financial institutions' ability to counter money laundering and terrorist financing.

Violations of anti-money laundering laws and regulations, including in connection with the allegations and investigations discussed below, may have significant financial, legal and reputational consequences for the Group and may, as a result, have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial condition and results of operations.

The Group has been under investigation by the SFSA, EFSA and is under investigation by the Estonian state prosecutor's office and U.S. authorities due to allegations that customers who may have been involved in money laundering transferred significant sums of money through the Group's Baltic subsidiaries.

On 19 March 2020, the SFSA concluded that, during the period 2015 to the first quarter of 2019, Swedbank had large deficiencies in its governance of anti-money laundering measures in its Baltic subsidiaries. The SFSA also found that Swedbank had deficiencies in its Swedish Banking operations, and therefore has not met anti-money laundering requirements in its Swedish operations and that it did not sufficiently address the risk of money laundering in the Baltics. In addition, the SFSA noted that in their opinion, in some instances, Swedbank withheld documentation and information and, in one case, in March 2019, Swedbank also provided the SFSA with false information. The SFSA issued a warning to Swedbank and imposed an administrative fine of SEK 4 billion, which Swedbank expects to charge as an expense in the first quarter of 2020, for both the investigation regarding Swedish Banking anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing processes, initiated in 2018 and the investigation regarding Swedbank's internal control and governance of anti-money laundering measures in the Baltic operations, initiated in 2019.

On the same day, the EFSA concluded that the Estonian subsidiary had severe deficiencies in its anti-money laundering risk control systems and the bank failed to meet its anti-money laundering requirements. The EFSA issued a precept requiring the Estonian subsidiary to take comprehensive measures to properly understand and mitigate past and current risks, in addition it must review and amend its organizational framework to more effectively manage risks. If the Estonian subsidiary fails to comply with the requirements in the precept, fails to comply to the extent, or within the time, prescribed, the EFSA has the right to require the Estonian subsidiary to pay an initial fine of up to EUR 32,000 per day for the first occasion of a breach of the requirements, and a fine of up to EUR 100,000 per day for each subsequent identical or similar breach, up to a maximum of 10 per cent of the total net annual turnover of the Estonian subsidiary for the year, including gross income which consists of commissions and fees and interest and other similar income.

The issue of whether money laundering or other criminal acts took place in the Group is currently being investigated by the Estonian Prosecutor's Office. If the Estonian Prosecutor's Office finds evidence of money laundering or other criminal acts, it could charge individuals or Swedbank's Estonian subsidiary with criminal liability, which could include imprisonment for convicted individuals or a fine of up to EUR 16 million per conviction, though Swedbank does not have any information as to whether the Estonian subsidiary will be treated as a suspect in this case. Any additional fines or sanctions imposed on the Group could have an adverse impact on the Group's business operations or reputation.

In addition to the investigations regarding anti-money laundering controls, U.S. authorities are investigating as to whether any crime or fraud was committed in connection with Swedbank's disclosure of information regarding anti-money laundering compliance and related issues. The Group does not currently know when the investigations may be concluded, or whether any sanctions or penalties may be imposed.

In addition, on 11 March 2020, Swedbank notified the U.S. Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") of 586 transactions by the Baltic subsidiaries, amounting to approximately USD 4.8 million, that constitute potential sanctions violations (based on the OFAC country-based sanctions list). OFAC penalties generally can include significant fines (USD 250,000 or twice the amount of each underlying transaction up to USD 1,075,000 per violation) and potential jail time for culpable individuals.

There can be no assurance that other authorities will not take similar actions against the Group, including the imposition of fines which may be significant and have an adverse effect on the Group's financial condition and results of operations. As of the date of this Base Prospectus, Swedbank is not aware of when the investigations by other authorities may be concluded, or whether any additional sanctions or penalties may be imposed. For further details, please see "Swedbank—Legal Proceedings."

The Group's independent auditor, PricewaterhouseCoopers AB ("PwC"), audited administration of the Board of Directors and the Managing Directors for the financial year 2019. PwC recommended that the shareholders not discharge the former CEO from liability based on the fact that the outcome of the various investigations is uncertain. As the Group may be subject to corporate fines or significant sanctions, PwC could not exclude the potential harm derived from the former CEO's actions. For further details, please see "Swedbank—Legal Proceedings."

In February 2019, the Group hired an external law firm, Clifford Chance LLP, to lead an internal investigation to identify historical deficiencies in Swedbank's anti-money laundering systems and controls from January 2007 through March 2019 and an assessment of potential non-compliance by Swedbank's Baltic subsidiaries or their customers with OFAC sanctions regulations. On 23 March 2020, the Group announced the findings of the investigation, which have been published in a detailed report by Clifford Chance LLP on the investigation and its principal findings, and are summarized under "Swedbank—Legal Proceedings—Clifford Chance Investigation." In respect to the investigation of the Group's anti-money laundering systems and controls, Clifford Chance LLP concluded that the Group, throughout the period from January 2007 to March 2019 and to varying degrees across LC&I, Swedish Banking and Baltic Banking, had inadequate systems and controls to ensure proper management of anti-money laundering and economic sanctions risks from its customer base, thus exposing Swedbank and its Baltic subsidiaries to significant anti-money laundering and sanctions risk. The risk was most prevalent in the Baltic subsidiaries, primarily in Estonia from its high risk non-resident ("HRNR") business. The investigation also found that Swedbank's senior management historically failed to establish clear lines of anti-money laundering responsibilities, particularly as between the business and the Group's compliance function.

There can be no assurance that its Group-wide anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing and sanctions compliance policies and procedures will effectively prevent instances of money laundering or terrorism financing or breaches of applicable sanctions. Violations of anti-money laundering or counter terrorist financing or sanction rules, including in connection with the allegations and investigations discussed above, may have severe financial, legal and reputational consequences for the Group. The Group has experienced a decline in customer satisfaction and trust in relation to reputational harm related to these investigations. If the Group is unable to successfully combat this, it may, as a result, have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial condition and results of operations.

2.4.2 The Group's guidelines and policies for risk management may prove to be inadequate with respect to unidentified and unforeseen risks.

The management of business, regulatory and legal risks requires guidelines and policies for the accurate registration and control of a large number of transactions and events. Such guidelines and policies may not always be adequate. Some methods used by the Group to estimate, measure and manage risk are based on historical market behaviour. The methods may prove to be inadequate for predicting future risk exposure, which may differ from what is suggested by prior experience. Other methods for risk management are based on evaluation of information regarding markets, customers or other information that is publicly known or otherwise available to the Group. Such information has not always been, and may not always be, correct, updated or correctly evaluated and may be inadequate for the purpose of risk management. If any gaps in risk management exist, the Group may make decisions based on faulty information, which may in turn have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.4.3 Conflicts of interest, whether actual or perceived, and non-compliance or fraudulent acts may negatively impact the Group.

As the Group expands the scope of its businesses and its client base, the Group increasingly is required to implement policies on corporate governance on a Group-wide level and address potential conflicts of interest and compliance with applicable laws. However, appropriately identifying and dealing with conflicts of interest is complex, in part because internal breaches of policy can be difficult to discover. The Group is also subject to the potential risk of employee fraud.

The Group's reputation could be damaged and there may be a reluctance on the part of clients to enter into transactions where there is the possibility of a conflict, or if the Group is seen as failing to identify, or deal appropriately with, conflicts of interest or employee fraud.

There is no assurance that the policies the Group has regarding conflicts of interest will prevent all instances of actual or perceived conflict, and any actual or perceived conflict of interest or fraud, could have a material adverse effect on the Group's reputation and may, as a result, have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial condition and results of operations.

2.5 Risks Relating to Macro-economic and Political Events

2.5.1 The Group's business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected by uncertainties about the strength of the Eurozone and other geopolitical risks.

EU member states and public finances in Europe face many challenges, including those related to demographic and political trends. The UK withdrew from the EU ("Brexit") on 31 January 2020 on the basis of the Third Reading of the Withdrawal Agreement Bill. There will be a short transitional/implementation period which is currently due to end on 31 December 2020. Any changes that may occur post the transitional period are currently uncertain. There is still concern that the UK may exit the EU without an agreement and the UK government has commenced preparations for a "hard" or "no-deal" Brexit to minimise the risks for firms and businesses associated with an exit with no transitional agreement. The European authorities have not provided UK firms and businesses with similar assurances in preparation for a "hard" Brexit. These developments may contribute to the loosening of the political ties within the EU and could negatively impact the European economy and increase volatility in the financial markets, which could impact political cooperation within the EU. Growing populism and rising criticism against the EU contribute to the sense that geopolitical risks in Europe will still be an area of focus during 2020. The political climate between the US and EU is also problematic. Notably, President Trump threatened to impose import tariffs on European cars which could have a significant impact on European growth.

Other geopolitical events, such as a slowdown in China's economy and the prospect of an intensified trade war between the United States and China, or volatility in oil prices could negatively impact the global economy. In turn, sluggish global growth and declining world trade could have a dampening impact on Swedish export industries. For example, credit impairments increased in the fourth quarter of 2019, mainly due to additional provisions for previously known oil-related problem loans within LC&I.

As a result of the various geopolitical events, the Group may experience reductions in business activity, increased funding costs, decreased liquidity, decreased access to the wholesale funding markets, decreased asset values, additional credit impairment losses and lower profitability and revenues, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.5.2 The global coronavirus pandemic has led to significant volatility in financial, commodities and other markets and could harm the business and results of operations of the Group.

An outbreak of a novel strain of coronavirus (i.e. COVID-19), which first emerged in the PRC in late December 2019, has since spread to other parts of the world, including Sweden and our other markets. In March 2020, the World Health Organization declared COVID-19 to be a pandemic. Given the ongoing and dynamic nature of the circumstances, it is difficult to predict the impact of the coronavirus pandemic on the Group's business. The impact to date has included a sharp decline in consumption and travel and disruption in global supply chains, which in combination with general uncertainty regarding the evolution and resolution of the pandemic, has resulted in significant volatility in financial, commodities and other markets and substantial harm to the economies in which Swedbank operates.

In addition, measures by various governments to reduce the spread of COVID-19 have led to a sharp decline in economic activity, resulting in the closure of a number of companies and rising unemployment. According to the International Monetary Fund World Economic Outlook (April 2020), global GDP is expected to contract by 3 per cent. for 2020 in response to the economic slowdown caused by the spread of COVID-19, while GDP growth in Sweden, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania is expected to contract by 6.8 per cent., 7.5 per cent., 8.6 per cent. and 8.1 per cent., respectively. The COVID-19 outbreak could become more severe and result in a more widespread health crisis, which, in combination with the financial consequences for corporations and individuals due to the various lockdowns, may in turn result in protracted volatility in international markets and/or result in a deeper and extended global recession as a consequence of disruptions to nearly all economic sectors. This volatility, if it continues, or the global contraction in economic activity could have a material adverse effect on the Group's customers and on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Earlier in 2020, Swedbank announced that it would allow amortisation deferrals and outlined the structure of the grace periods for affected private and corporate customers together with information on how to apply for this relief. Swedbank is also prepared to support corporate customers that incur temporary liquidity problems due to COVID-19. This could have a significant effect on the Group's cash flows and liquidity. If business clients (particularly the Group's corporate customers in the manufacturing, retail, tourism and service industries) or home owners are unable to repay their loans due to the pandemic, this could increase default rates and result in increased credit impairments.

The financial strains caused by the COVID-19 pandemic are expected to be extensive in the Group's home markets, and deteriorating macroeconomic conditions have led to an increase, and will likely lead to further increases in, the Group's credit impairments. The situation caused by COVID-19 is unique and difficult to assess, and the situation is changing rapidly. In the first quarter of 2020, Swedbank's credit impairments amounted to SEK 2,151 million (compared with SEK 988 million in the fourth quarter of 2019), mainly due to increased provisions within LC&I. Deteriorating macroeconomic forecasts affected forward-looking scenarios for the various credit portfolios and led to increased impairment provisions. Downgrades for corporate customers in stages 1 and 2 credit impairment under IFRS 9 that have not been captured by the models at the end of the period have been incorporated by a post-model expert credit adjustment. Similarly, the recent plunge in oil prices caused, in part, by the decline in oil-consuming activity resulting from COVID-19 has affected the oil sector's outlook. This has led to lower investments and additional credit impairment provisions for oil-related sectors in the first quarter of 2020 on individual exposures already under restructuring. There is also a concern surrounding the heavily indebted U.S. oil companies, which are financed through corporate bonds.

The pandemic and measures taken in response to it are expected to have adverse effects on housing prices globally and in Sweden. As reported for March 2020 in the Valueguard-KTH Housing Index Sweden, housing prices fell by 0.5 per cent from February 2020 to March 2020, and may fall further if the unemployment rate continue to rise. Growing household concerns about unemployment and a worsening economy could lead to a decrease in housing prices during the year.

The commercial real estate market also is being adversely affected by the current situation with a sharp decline in demand, turbulence in the financial markets, refinancing risk and the expected recession. Property sales are expected to fall in the second quarter. Property owners who are dependent on tenants in retail, hotels, restaurants and service businesses risk lower rental income due to renegotiations and bankruptcies. Depending on the length and depth of the expected recession, other parts of the real estate sector could be affected as well, all of which could adversely affect borrowers' ability to repay their loans. The extent of the impacts resulting from COVID-19 and other events beyond the Group's control will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted, including new information which may emerge concerning the severity of the COVID-19 pandemic and actions taken to contain COVID-19 or its impact, among others. Any of these factors could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The spread of COVID-19 has led the Group to modify its business practices, including the imposition of restrictions on employee travel and changes to working locations. The Group has also increased its efforts to mitigate the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on its customers, which has led to rising costs. These initiatives include increased accessibility in channels that do not require physical meetings, such as the telephone bank and the digital channels, and extending branch hours in order to reduce crowding. In addition, the Group has increased the capacity and strengthened the stability of its IT systems to handle the increased data traffic. The Group expects these measures to increase costs for 2020 by approximately SEK 250 million, as compared to 2019. On April 8, 2020, Swedbank announced that total expenses for the full year of 2020 are expected to amount to around SEK 21.5 billion, excluding the administrative penalty of SEK 4 billion imposed by the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority ("SFSA") in connection with anti-money laundering matters and recognized in Q1 2020 financial statements.

The Group may take further actions required by authorities or that it determines are in the best interests of its employees, customers, partners or suppliers. There is no certainty that such measures will be sufficient to mitigate the risks posed by COVID-19, and the implementation of such measures (or their insufficiency) could harm the Group's ability to perform critical functions. The unavailability of staff could adversely impact the quality and continuity of service to customers and the reputation of the Group. Any of these factors could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations in addition to those described above.

2.5.3 Worsening economic conditions in the Group's home markets may adversely impact the Group.

The Group's performance is significantly influenced by the general economic conditions in the countries in which it operates, in particular its home markets of Sweden, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, and, to a lesser degree, Norway. Economic volatility in the Group's home markets have varied in the past, and this has had a material impact on the Group's financial business condition and results of operations, such as when the Baltics entered recession in 2009.

Future volatility or downturn in the economies of Group's home markets could result in increased default rates in the Group and/or decreased lending activity which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial business condition and results of operations.

2.5.4 The Group's business, financial condition and results of operations have been and may continue to be adversely affected by fluctuations in the global financial markets.

The global capital and credit markets have been characterised by volatility and disruption in recent years. As seen during and after the financial crisis in 2008, this resulted in liquidity constraints and other problems at many of the world's largest commercial banks, investment banks and insurance companies, a number of which are the Group's counterparties or customers in the ordinary course of its business. These conditions also resulted in a material reduction in the availability of financing, both for the Group as well as other financial institutions and their customers. If similar events occur, which have similar effects on financial markets, the Group may experience reductions in business activity, increased funding costs, decreased liquidity, decreased asset values, additional credit impairment losses and lower profitability and revenues. In addition, the Group may be adversely affected by the effects of the recent COVID-19 outbreak, particularly a slowing in global economic activity and significant volatility in financial markets. Any of the foregoing factors could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

2.5.5 The Group's business is subject to substantial regulation and supervision and can be adversely affected by adverse regulatory, taxation and governmental developments.

The Group conducts its businesses subject to ongoing regulation and associated regulatory risks, including the effects of changes in the laws, regulations, policies, voluntary codes of practice and interpretations in Sweden and the other countries in which the Group operates. This is particularly the case in the current market environment, which is experiencing increased levels of government and regulatory intervention in the financial sector, which the Group expects to continue for the foreseeable future. Swedbank is subject to supervision by the SFSA and to Swedish regulations regarding, among other things, capital adequacy, liquidity and solvency (see "Certain Regulatory Considerations"). Certain of the Group's subsidiaries and operations are subject to supervision of other local supervisory authorities. In Sweden and elsewhere, there is increased political and regulatory scrutiny of financial and mortgage institutions. Increased regulatory intervention may lead to requests from regulators to carry out wide ranging reviews of past sales and/or sales practices.

The Group's activities are also subject to tax at various rates in the jurisdictions in which it operates, computed in accordance with local legislation and practice. Revisions to tax legislation, such as a proposal by the Swedish government relating to increased taxes on banks or to such legislation's interpretation may have an adverse effect on the Group's financial condition. Future changes in regulation, fiscal or other policies are unpredictable and beyond the control of the Group and could materially adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. For example, on 18 September 2019, the Swedish government submitted a budget bill that would tax the financial sector, effective 1 January 2022.

The Group's operations are contingent upon licenses issued by financial authorities in the countries in which the Group operates. Violations of rules and regulations, whether intentional or unintentional, may lead to the withdrawal of some of the Group's licenses. Any breach of these or other regulations may adversely affect the Group's reputation, business, results of operations or financial condition.

Other regulations that have been implemented recently, including the GDPR, has resulted in new demands on operational processes, systems and resources. The Group is unable to predict what regulatory changes may be imposed in the future as a result of regulatory initiatives in the EU and elsewhere or by the SFSA and other supervisory authorities. If the Group is required to make additional provisions or to increase its reserves as a result of potential regulatory changes, this could adversely affect the results of operations of the Group. In addition, failure by the Group to comply with regulatory requirements could result in significant penalties.

2.5.6 The full scope and consequences of new derivatives and other financial regulations are as yet unknown and may impose additional regulatory burdens and costs that may affect the value of the Notes.

The European Market Infrastructure Regulation 648/2012 ("EMIR") entered into force in all EU member states, including Sweden, on 16 August 2012. EMIR aims to increase stability and transparency in European OTC derivatives markets and includes measures to require the clearing of certain OTC derivatives contracts through central clearing counterparties, reporting of derivatives and risk mitigation techniques (including margin requirements) for uncleared OTC derivative contracts. A number of EMIR implementing measures have already been adopted but there may be further changes introduced by way of further implementing measures (such as a requirement to clear further classes of OTC derivative contracts) and also EMIR itself is scheduled to be updated. Prospective investors should be aware that the regulatory changes arising from EMIR and its update could significantly increase the cost for Swedbank of entering into or taking any other action in relation to derivative contracts and may adversely affect the value and return on the Notes.

In the United States, passage of the Dodd Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 (the "Dodd Frank Act") has led to significant regulatory reforms affecting the financial services industry, including non U.S. banks. Among other things, the Dodd Frank Act addresses systemic risk oversight, bank capital standards, the orderly liquidation of failing systemically important financial institutions, over the counter ("OTC") derivatives, increases oversight of credit rating agencies and regulates the ability of banking entities to engage as principal in proprietary trading activities and sponsor and invest in certain private funds (the "Volcker Rule"). The Dodd Frank Act and other post financial crisis regulatory reforms in the United States have increased costs, imposed limitations on activities, and resulted in an increased intensity in regulatory enforcement.

In addition, Title VII of the Dodd Frank Act ("Title VII"), as well as other post financial crisis regulatory reforms in the U.S., have increased costs, imposed limitations on activities and resulted in an increased intensity in regulatory enforcement. Title VII established a comprehensive U.S. regulatory regime for derivatives, contracts, including swaps, security based swaps and mixed swaps. As these requirements have been implemented and continue to go into effect, it is clear that these new regulations could adversely affect the value, availability and performance of certain derivatives instruments and may result in additional costs and restrictions with respect to the use of those instruments. Swedbank's use of derivative instruments may be subject to the clearing, capital, margin, business conduct, reporting and/or recordkeeping requirements of Title VII or other related regulatory reforms, that may result in additional regulatory burdens and related costs and expenses.

2.5.7 Governmental responses to market disruptions may be inadequate and may have unintended consequences.

The Group has no control over governmental policy changes or over changes in the interpretation of fiscal legislation by any tax authority. Measures taken by various European governments to stimulate the economy and support the banking system in the event of another economic downturn may lead to an increase in its tax burden or to a reduction in tax benefits. Significant changes in governmental policy responses in Sweden or in the other countries where the Group operates, or difficulties in implementing such responses or with the type and effectiveness of the impact of such responses, could have an adverse impact on the activity, financial situation and operating results of the Group. The Group may have to enter into future contractual arrangements by operation of law or necessity under which the Swedish government may have the right to take possession over the Group or part of it or its assets. In such instance of government takeover, the value of the Group or its assets could be considered to be limited and the Group may not receive adequate compensation, which could therefore significantly reduce its assets.

The Group may be adversely affected by governmental responses to market disruptions in the countries in which it operates. As a result of the financial crisis in 2008 and subsequent government intervention, there has been and is expected to continue to be a substantial increase in governmental policy responses to market disruptions, including reductions in public spending and the imposition of further fiscal austerity measures, and changes in monetary and interest rate policies. Recent examples of such measures include the introduction by the SFSA of amortisation requirements for borrowers of new mortgage loans in 2016 and 2018 and the proposal of a risk weight floor for commercial real estate exposures in 2019 which may be introduced in 2020. In addition, prudential regulations such as increased capital and liquidity requirements as discussed in “Regulatory Considerations” may impact the Group’s profitability.

2.6 Risks Relating to the Notes

2.6.1 Risks Relating to the Market

2.6.1.1 The Secondary Market Generally

The Notes may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop (for example, the Notes may be allocated to a limited pool of investors). If a market for the Notes does develop, it may not be liquid and may be sensitive to changes in financial markets. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Notes easily or at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. This is particularly the case should the Issuer be in financial distress, which may result in the sale of the Notes having to be at a substantial discount to their principal amount or for Notes that are especially sensitive to interest rate, currency and market risks, are designed for specific investment objectives or strategies or have been structured to meet the investment requirements of limited categories of investors. These types of Notes would generally have a more limited secondary market and more price volatility than conventional debt securities. Illiquidity may have a severely adverse effect on the market value of the Notes.

2.6.1.2 Lack of Liquidity in the Secondary Market May Adversely Affect the Market Value of the Notes

Generally weak global credit market conditions could contribute to a lack of liquidity in the secondary market for instruments similar to the Notes. In addition, the recent liquidity crisis has limited the primary market for a number of financial products, including instruments similar to the Notes. While some measures have been taken by governments, there can be no assurance that the market for securities similar to the Notes will recover, either at all or at the same time or to the same degree as any other recovering global credit market sectors.

A failure of the market for securities similar to the Notes to recover could adversely affect the market value of the Notes.

2.6.1.3 Exchange Rate Risks and Exchange Controls

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in the Specified Currency. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the "Investor's Currency") other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (i) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Notes, (ii) the Investor's Currency equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes and (iii) the Investor's Currency equivalent market value of the Notes.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate or the ability of the Issuer to make payments in respect of the Notes. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

2.6.1.4 Interest Rate Risks

Interest rate risk occurs when the interest rate payable on assets and liabilities for a fixed period do not coincide. Investments in Notes with fixed interest involve a risk that subsequent changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the value of fixed interest Notes. Investments in Notes with floating interest involve a risk of adverse changes in the interest rate payable on such Notes.

2.6.1.5 Credit Ratings May Not Reflect All Risks

The Notes are expected to be assigned the following ratings: A+ (Senior Preferred Notes with a maturity of more than one year), BBB+ (Subordinated Notes) and A-1 (Senior Preferred Notes with a maturity of less than one year) by Standard & Poor's; Aa3 (Senior Preferred Notes), Baa2 (Subordinated Notes) and P-1 (short term) by Moody's; and AA- (Senior Preferred Notes with a maturity of more than one year), A- (Subordinated Notes) and F1+ (Senior Preferred Notes with a maturity of less than one year) by Fitch. There is no guarantee that such ratings will be assigned or maintained or that such credit ratings reflect the potential impact of all risks related to an investment in the relevant Notes. Rating agencies may change their rating methodologies, which could lead to a change in the credit ratings assigned to the relevant Notes. Accordingly, a credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold the relevant Notes and may be revised, suspended or withdrawn by the relevant rating agency at any time. Any such revision, suspension or withdrawal could adversely affect the market value of the relevant Notes.

In general, European and UK regulated investors are restricted under the CRA Regulation from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes, unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EU or the UK and registered under the CRA Regulation (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended, subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances). Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by non-EU and non-UK credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EU-registered or UK-registered credit rating agency or the relevant non-EU and non-UK rating agency is certified in accordance with the CRA Regulation (and such endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, has not been withdrawn or suspended, subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances). If the status of the rating agency rating the Notes changes, European and UK regulated investors may no longer be able to use the rating for regulatory purposes and the Notes may have a different regulatory treatment. This may result in European and UK regulated investors selling the Notes which may impact the value of the Notes and any secondary market. Certain information with respect to the credit rating agencies and ratings is set out on the front cover of this Base Prospectus and if a Tranche of Notes is rated such rating will be disclosed in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement.

2.6.2 General Risks Relating to Notes

2.6.2.1 Modification, Waivers and Substitution

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes and the Trust Deed contain provisions for convening meetings of holders of the Notes to consider any matter affecting their interests generally. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all holders of the Notes including holders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and holders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes also provide that the Trustee may agree, without the consent of the Holders and without regard to the interests of particular Holders, to (i) any modification of any provision of the Trust Deed which is of a formal, minor or technical nature or is made to correct a manifest or proven error and (ii) any other modification (except as mentioned in the Trust Deed) and any waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach, of any provision of the Terms and Conditions or the Trust Deed which is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not materially prejudicial to the interests of the Holders.

In addition, the Trust Deed contains provisions permitting the Trustee to agree, without the consent of the Holders, to the substitution of any other company in place of the Issuer, or of any previously substituted company as principal debtor under the Notes, in the circumstances described in Condition 12(c) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes and provided always that the Trustee is satisfied that the interests of the Holders will not be materially prejudiced by the substitution.

2.6.2.2 Change of Law

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes are governed by English law (except that the provisions in the Notes under Condition 3 and Clause 3 of the Trust Deed are governed by Swedish law) in effect as at the date of issue of the relevant Notes. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to English law, Swedish law or English or Swedish administrative practice after the date of issue of the relevant Notes and any such change could materially adversely impact the value of any Notes affected by it.

2.6.2.3 Notes Where Denominations Involve Integral Multiples: Definitive Bearer Notes

In relation to any issue of Bearer Notes which have denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount, it is possible that such Notes may be traded in amounts in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination that are not integral multiples of such minimum Specified Denomination. In such a case a holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in its account with the relevant clearing system would not be able to sell the remainder of such holding without first purchasing a principal amount of such Notes such that its holding amounts to (at least) a Specified Denomination. Further, a Holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in its account with the relevant clearing system at the relevant time may not receive a Definitive Bearer Note in respect of such holding (should such Definitive Bearer Notes be printed or issued) and would need to purchase a principal amount of Notes such that its holding amounts to (at least) a Specified Denomination.

If Definitive Bearer Notes are issued, Holders should be aware that Definitive Bearer Notes which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

2.6.2.4 Reliance on DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg procedures

Notes issued under the Programme will be represented on issue by one or more Global Notes that may be deposited with a custodian for DTC or a common depositary or common safekeeper for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. Except in the circumstances described in each Global Note, investors will not be entitled to receive Notes in definitive form. Each of DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and their respective direct and indirect participants will maintain records of the beneficial interests in each Global Note held through it. While the Notes are represented by a Global Note, investors will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through the relevant clearing systems and their respective participants.

While the Notes are represented by Global Notes, the Issuer will discharge its payment obligation under the Notes by making payments through the relevant clearing systems. A holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Note must rely on the procedures of the relevant clearing system and its participants to receive payments under the Notes. The Issuer has no responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of, beneficial interests in any Global Note.

Holders of beneficial interests in a Global Note will not have a direct right to vote in respect of the Notes so represented. Instead, such holders will be permitted to act only to the extent that they are enabled by the relevant clearing system and its participants to appoint appropriate proxies.

2.6.2.5 Differences between the Notes and bank deposits

An investment in the Notes may give rise to higher yields than a bank deposit. However, an investment in the Notes carries risks which are very different from the risks associated with a bank deposit, with the higher yield of the Notes generally attributable to the greater risks associated with investment in the Notes.

The Notes are expected to be less liquid than bank deposits. Bank deposits are generally repayable on demand, or with notice from the depositors, whereas holders of the Notes have no ability to require early repayment of their investment other than upon the occurrence of an applicable Event of Default (see “Terms and Conditions of the Notes – Condition 6”). Furthermore, although the Notes are transferable, the Notes may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. See “The Secondary Market Generally”.

2.6.2.6 The Notes may be subject to write-down or conversion into ordinary shares of Swedbank

Under the terms of the BRRD, any application of the general bail-in tool and, in the case of Subordinated Notes, non-viability loss absorption, is to be in accordance with the hierarchy of claims in normal insolvency proceedings. Accordingly, the impact of such application on Holders of Notes will depend on their ranking in accordance with such hierarchy at the relevant time, including any priority given to other creditors such as depositors.

To the extent any resulting treatment of Holders pursuant to the exercise of the general bail-in tool or non-viability loss absorption in combination with a resolution power is less favourable than would have been the case under such hierarchy in normal insolvency proceedings, a Holder has a right to compensation under the BRRD based on an independent valuation of the relevant entity (which is referred to as the “no creditor worse off safeguard” under the BRRD). Any such compensation is unlikely to compensate that Holder for the losses it has actually incurred and there is likely to be a considerable delay in the recovery of such compensation. Compensation payments (if any) are also likely to be made considerably later than when amounts may otherwise have been due under the Notes.

The powers set out in the BRRD will impact how credit institutions and investment firms are managed as well as, in certain circumstances, the rights of creditors. Holders may be subject to the application of the general bail-in tool and, in the case of Subordinated Notes, non-viability loss absorption, which may result in such Holders losing some or all of their investment. Such application could also involve modifications to or the disapplication of provisions in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, including alteration of the principal amount or any interest payable on the Notes, the maturity date or any other dates on which payments may be due, as well as the suspension of payments for a certain period. As a result, the exercise of the bail-in power, any resolution tools or the application of any non-viability loss absorption measure, or any suggestion of such exercise could materially adversely affect the rights of Holders, the price or value of their investment in any Notes and/or the ability of the Issuer to satisfy its obligations under the Notes.

2.6.3 Risks Relating to the Structure of a Particular Issue of Notes

A wide range of Notes may be issued under the Programme. A number of these Notes may have features which contain particular risks for potential investors. Set out below is a description of certain of those features:

2.6.3.1 The qualification of the Senior Preferred Notes and the Senior Non-Preferred Notes as “eligible liabilities” is subject to uncertainty

The Senior Preferred Notes and the Senior Non-Preferred Notes are intended to be MREL Eligible Liabilities which are available to meet any MREL Requirement (however called or defined by the Applicable MREL Regulations then applicable) of the Issuer and the Group. However, the Issuer cannot provide any assurance that such Senior Preferred Notes and Senior Non-Preferred Notes will be (or thereafter remain) MREL Eligible Liabilities. There is therefore a risk that a MREL Disqualification Event may occur in relation to any such Notes.

Upon the occurrence of a MREL Disqualification Event in relation to a Series of any Senior Preferred Notes or Senior Non-Preferred Notes, as the case may be, the Issuer may, at its option but subject to Condition 5(j), (i) where the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement specifies Condition 5(i) to be applicable, redeem all (but not some only) of such Series of Senior Preferred Notes or, as the case may be, Senior Non-Preferred Notes and (ii) where the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement specifies Condition 5(k) to be applicable, either substitute all (but not some only) of such Series of Senior Preferred Notes or, as the case may be, Senior Non-Preferred Notes for, or vary the terms of such Series of Senior Preferred Notes or, as the case may be, Senior Non-Preferred Notes and/or the terms of the Trust Deed so that they remain or, as appropriate, become Senior Preferred Qualifying Securities or, as the case may be, Senior Non-Preferred Qualifying Securities. See “The Issuer may redeem Notes prior to maturity” and “In certain circumstances, the Issuer can substitute or vary the terms of the Notes” for a description of the risks related to an early redemption of Notes or the substitution or variation, as the case may be, of Notes.

2.6.3.2 Fixed/Floating Rate Notes

Fixed/Floating Rate Notes will bear interest at a rate that converts from a fixed rate to a floating rate, or from a floating rate to a fixed rate. Such a feature to convert the interest basis, and any conversion of the interest basis, may affect the secondary market in, and the market value of, such Notes as the change of interest basis may result in a lower interest return for Holders. Where the Notes convert from a fixed rate to a floating rate, the spread on the Fixed/Floating Rate Notes may be less favourable than then prevailing spreads on comparable Floating Rate Notes tied to the same reference rate. In addition, the new floating rate at any time may be lower than the rates on other Notes. Where the Notes convert from a floating rate to a fixed rate, the fixed rate may be lower than then prevailing rates on other fixed rate Notes of the Issuer at the time and could affect the market value of an investment in the relevant Notes.

2.6.3.3 Reset Notes

Reset Notes will initially bear interest at the relevant Initial Rate of Interest until (but excluding) the relevant First Reset Date. On the relevant First Reset Date, the relevant Second Reset Date (if applicable) and each relevant Subsequent Reset Date (if any) thereafter, the interest rate will be reset to the sum of the relevant Reset Reference Rate and the relevant First Margin or relevant Subsequent Margin (as applicable) as determined by the Calculation Agent on the relevant Reset Determination Date (each such interest rate, a "Subsequent Reset Rate"). The Subsequent Reset Rate for any relevant Reset Period could be less than the relevant Initial Rate of Interest or the relevant Subsequent Reset Rate for prior Reset Periods and could affect the market value of an investment in the relevant Reset Notes.

2.6.3.4 Notes Issued at a Substantial Discount or Premium

The market values of securities issued at a substantial discount (such as Zero Coupon Notes) or premium to their principal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of such securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to more conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

2.6.3.5 The Senior Non-Preferred Notes rank junior to the Issuer's unsubordinated creditors

The Senior Non-Preferred Notes constitute direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of the Issuer. As provided under Condition 3(b)(iii), the rights of the Holders of any Senior Non-Preferred Notes shall rank (i) junior in right of payment to the claims of depositors and other unsubordinated creditors of the Issuer that are not creditors in respect of Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities; (ii) at least pari passu with all other Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities of the Issuer; and (iii) senior to holders of all classes of ordinary shares of the Issuer and any subordinated obligations or other securities of the Issuer (including the Subordinated Notes) which by law rank, or by their terms are expressed to rank, junior to the Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities. If, on a liquidation (Sw: likvidation) or bankruptcy (Sw: konkurs), the assets of the Issuer are insufficient to enable the Issuer to repay the claims of more senior-ranking creditors in full, the Holders of Senior Non-Preferred Notes will lose their entire investment in the Senior Non-Preferred Notes. If there are sufficient assets to enable the Issuer to pay the claims of senior-ranking creditors in full but insufficient assets to enable the Issuer to pay claims arising under its obligations in respect of the Senior Non-Preferred Notes and all other claims that rank pari passu with the Senior Non-Preferred Notes, the Holders of the Senior Non-Preferred Notes will lose some (which may be substantially all) of their investment in the Senior Non-Preferred Notes.

Although Senior Non-Preferred Notes may pay a higher rate of interest than comparable Notes which benefit from a preferential ranking, there is a risk that an investor in Senior Non-Preferred Notes will lose all or some of his investment should the Issuer become insolvent.

2.6.3.6 The Issuer's Obligations under Subordinated Notes are subordinated to most of the Issuer's liabilities

The Subordinated Notes constitute unsecured and subordinated obligations of the Issuer. As provided under Condition 3(c), the rights of the Holders of any Subordinated Notes shall, in the event of the liquidation (Sw: likvidation) or bankruptcy (Sw: konkurs) of the Issuer, be subordinated in right of payment to the claims of depositors and other unsubordinated creditors of the Issuer, but shall rank at least pari passu with all other subordinated indebtedness of the Issuer, which in each case, by law rank, or by their terms, are expressed to rank, pari passu, with the Subordinated Notes. If, on a liquidation (Sw: likvidation) or bankruptcy (Sw: konkurs), the assets of the Issuer are insufficient to enable the Issuer to repay the claims of more senior-ranking creditors in full, the Holders of Subordinated Notes will lose their entire investment in the Subordinated Notes. If there are sufficient assets to enable the Issuer to pay the claims of senior-ranking creditors in full but insufficient assets to enable the Issuer to pay claims arising under its obligations in respect of the Subordinated Notes and all other claims that rank pari passu with the Subordinated Notes, the Holders of the Subordinated Notes will lose some (which may be substantially all) of their investment in the Subordinated Notes.

Although Subordinated Notes may pay a higher rate of interest than comparable Notes which are not subordinated or are subordinated but not to the same extent, there is a significant risk that an investor in Subordinated Notes will lose all or some of his investment should the Issuer become insolvent.

2.6.3.7 Events of Default

The only Events of Default in relation to the Notes are set out in Condition 6. If a Note has been declared due and payable under Condition 6, the Trustee may institute such steps, including the obtaining of a judgment against the Issuer for any amount due in respect of the relevant Notes, as it thinks desirable with a view to having the Issuer declared bankrupt (Sw: konkurs) or put into liquidation (Sw: likvidation) but not otherwise and, consequently, if any Notes become due and payable under Condition 6, the Issuer shall, with the prior consent of the Relevant Regulator (if such consent is required), only be required to make such payment after it has been declared bankrupt (Sw: konkurs) or put into liquidation (Sw: likvidation).

2.6.3.8 The Issuer may redeem Notes prior to maturity in certain circumstances

Where the applicable Final Terms specify or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement specifies that Issuer Call is applicable, the Issuer may on any Optional Redemption Date, at its option, redeem all, or some only, of the relevant Notes at their Optional Redemption Amount, together with accrued interest (if any) thereon.

The Issuer may, at its option, but subject to obtaining the prior consent of the Relevant Regulator (if such consent is required), redeem the relevant Notes upon the occurrence of a Withholding Tax Event at their Early Redemption Amount, together with accrued interest (if any) thereon.

In addition to the above, where the applicable Final Terms specify or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement specifies that a Tax Event Call is applicable, the Issuer may, in certain circumstances and at its option, but in each case subject to obtaining the prior consent of the Relevant Regulator (if such consent is required), redeem all (but not some only) of the relevant Notes upon the occurrence of a Tax Event at their Early Redemption Amount, together with accrued interest (if any) thereon.

In the case of Subordinated Notes only, where the applicable Final Terms specify or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, specifies that Condition 5(h) is applicable, the Issuer may, at its option, but in each case subject to obtaining the prior consent of the Relevant Regulator (if such consent is required), redeem the relevant Subordinated Notes upon the occurrence of a Capital Event at their principal amount or the amount specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, together with accrued interest (if any) thereon.

In the case of Senior Preferred Notes and Senior Non-Preferred Notes only, where the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement specifies that Condition 5(i) is applicable, the Issuer may, at its option, but in each case subject to obtaining the prior consent of the Relevant Regulator (if such consent is required), redeem all (but not some only) of the relevant Senior Preferred Notes or, as the case may be, Senior Non-Preferred Notes upon the occurrence of a MREL Disqualification Event at their principal amount or the amount specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, together with accrued interest (if any) thereon.

An optional redemption feature is likely to limit the market value of Notes. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem Notes pursuant to the relevant option (or during any period when it is perceived that the Issuer may be able to redeem Notes pursuant to the relevant option), the market value of such Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period.

The Issuer may consider it favourable to redeem Notes when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on the Notes. At those times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

2.6.3.9 Redemption of the Notes is subject to the prior consent of the Relevant Regulator (if such consent is required) and Holders have no right to request the redemption of the Notes

The Notes may contain provisions allowing the Issuer to call them after a minimum period as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement (this would be expected to be at least five years in the case of Subordinated Notes), or even earlier than such specified date (and at any time) upon the occurrence of a Tax Event, a Withholding Tax Event or, in the case of Senior Preferred Notes and Senior Non-Preferred Notes only, a MREL Disqualification Event or, in the case of Subordinated Notes only, a Capital Event. If the Issuer considers it favourable to exercise any such call option, the Issuer must first obtain the prior consent of the Relevant Regulator (if such consent is required).

Holders of Notes have no rights to call for the redemption of their Notes and should not invest in Notes in the expectation that such a call will be exercised by the Issuer. In order for such Notes to be redeemed, (if such consent is required) the Relevant Regulator must first, in its discretion, agree to permit such a call, based upon its evaluation of the regulatory capital position of the Issuer and certain other factors at the relevant time. In addition, if the Issuer seeks approval to exercise a call option before five years from the date of issuance of the Subordinated Notes, the Relevant Regulator may only give its approval if certain conditions have been met. There can be no assurance that the Relevant Regulator will permit such a call or that the Issuer will exercise such a call.

Holders of Notes have no rights to call for the redemption of their Notes and should not invest in Notes in the expectation that a call option will be exercised by the Issuer. Holders of Notes should be aware that they may be required to bear the financial risks of an investment in Notes for a period of time in excess of the minimum period until the Maturity Date, which could affect the market value of an investment in the relevant Notes.

2.6.3.10 In certain circumstances, the Issuer can substitute or vary the terms of the Notes

Where the applicable Final Terms specify that Condition 5(k) applies, if at any time (in the case of Senior Preferred Notes and Senior Non-Preferred Notes) a MREL Disqualification Event occurs or (in the case of Subordinated Notes) a Capital Event occurs or, in any case, in order to ensure the effectiveness and enforceability of Condition 18(f), the Issuer may, subject to obtaining the prior consent (if such consent is required) of the Relevant Regulator (without any requirement for the consent or approval of the relevant Holders or, subject as provided in Condition 5(k), the Trustee) either substitute all (but not some only) of the relevant Notes for, or vary the terms of the relevant Notes and/or the terms of the Trust Deed (as defined under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes") so that they remain or, as appropriate, become, in the case of Senior Preferred Notes, Senior Preferred Qualifying Securities, in the case of Senior Non-Preferred Notes, Senior Non-Preferred Qualifying Securities or, in the case of Subordinated Notes, Subordinated Qualifying Securities, as the case may be, as further provided in Condition 5(k). The terms and conditions of such substituted or varied Senior Preferred Notes, Senior Non-Preferred Notes or Subordinated Notes, as the case may be, may have terms and conditions that contain one or more provisions that are substantially different from the terms and conditions of the original Senior Preferred Notes, Senior Non-Preferred Notes or Subordinated Notes, as the case may be, provided that the relevant Senior Preferred Notes, the relevant Senior Non-Preferred Notes or the relevant Subordinated Notes remain or, as appropriate, become, in the case of Senior Preferred Notes, Senior Preferred Qualifying Securities, in the case of Senior Non-Preferred Notes, Senior Non-Preferred Qualifying Securities or, in the case of Subordinated Notes, Subordinated Qualifying Securities, as the case may be, in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Notes. No assurance can be given as to whether any changes to the terms of Senior Preferred Notes, Senior Non-Preferred Notes or Subordinated Notes will negatively affect any particular Holder. In addition, the tax and stamp duty consequences of holding such substituted or varied Senior Preferred Notes, Senior Non-Preferred Notes or Subordinated Notes could be different for some categories of Holders from the tax and stamp duty consequences for them of holding the Senior Preferred Notes, Senior Non-Preferred Notes or the Subordinated Notes prior to such substitution or variation.

2.6.3.11 No limitation on issuing debt

There is no restriction on the amount of debt which the Issuer may issue which ranks senior to any class of Senior Non-Preferred Notes or Subordinated Notes or on the amount of securities which the Issuer may issue which ranks pari passu with any class of Senior Non-Preferred Notes or Subordinated Notes. As a result this may reduce the amount recoverable by Holders of Senior Non-Preferred Notes or Subordinated Notes, as the case may be, on the bankruptcy or any liquidation of the Issuer.

2.6.3.12 No right of set-off or counterclaim

Subject as provided in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, no Holder who in the event of the liquidation (Sw: likvidation) or bankruptcy (Sw: konkurs) of the Issuer shall be indebted to the Issuer shall be entitled to exercise any right of set-off or counterclaim against moneys owed by the Issuer in respect of the Notes (including any damages awarded for breach of any obligations under the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, if any are payable) held by such Holder.

2.6.3.13 In respect of any Notes issued with a specific use of proceeds, such as a 'Green Bond', there can be no assurance that such use of proceeds will be suitable for the investment criteria of an investor

The applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement relating to any specific Tranche of Notes may provide that it will be the Issuer's intention to apply the net proceeds from an offer of those Notes specifically for projects and activities that promote climate-friendly and other environmental purposes ("Green Projects" and Notes issued thereunder to be "Green Bonds"). Prospective investors should have regard to the information in this Base Prospectus and/or the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement regarding such use of proceeds and must determine for themselves the relevance of such information for the purpose of any investment in such Green Bonds together with any other investigation such investor deems necessary. In particular no assurance is given by the Issuer or the Dealers that the use of such proceeds for any Green Projects will satisfy, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates (in particular with regard to any direct or indirect environmental, sustainability or social impact of any projects or uses, the subject of or related to, the relevant Green Projects). Furthermore, it should be noted that there is currently no clearly defined definition (legal, regulatory or otherwise) of, nor market consensus as to what constitutes, a "green" or "sustainable" or an equivalently-labelled project or as to what precise attributes are required for a particular project to be defined as "green" or "sustainable" or such other equivalent label nor can any assurance be given that such a clear definition or consensus will develop over time. Accordingly, no assurance is or can be given to investors that any projects or uses the subject of, or related to, any Green Projects will meet any or all investor expectations regarding such "green", "sustainable" or other equivalently-labelled performance objectives or that any adverse environmental, social and/or other impacts will not occur during the implementation of any projects or uses the subject of, or related to, any Green Projects.

No assurance or representation is given as to the suitability or reliability for any purpose whatsoever of any opinion or certification of any third party (whether or not solicited by the Issuer) which may or may not be made available in connection with the issue of any Notes and in particular with any Green Projects to fulfil any environmental, sustainability, social and/or other criteria. For the avoidance of doubt, any such opinion or certification is not, nor shall be deemed to be, incorporated in and/or form part of this Base Prospectus. Any such opinion or certification is not, nor should be deemed to be, a recommendation by the Issuer, the Dealers or any other person to buy, sell or hold any such Green Bonds. Any such opinion or certification is only current as of the date that opinion was initially issued. Prospective investors must determine for themselves the relevance of any such opinion or certification and/or the information contained therein and/or the provider of such opinion or certification for the purpose of any investment in such Green Bonds. Currently, the providers of such opinions and certifications are not subject to any specific regulatory or other regime or oversight.

In the event that any such Green Bonds are listed or admitted to trading on any dedicated "green", "environmental", "sustainable" or other equivalently-labelled segment of any stock exchange or securities market (whether or not regulated), no representation or assurance is given by the Issuer, the Dealers or any other person that such listing or admission satisfies, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular with regard to any direct or indirect environmental, sustainability or social impact of any projects or uses, the subject of or related to, any Green Projects. Furthermore, it should be noted that the criteria for any such listings or admission to trading may vary from one stock exchange or securities market to another. Nor is any representation or assurance given or made by the Issuer, the Dealers or any other person that any such listing or admission to trading will be obtained in respect of any such Green Bonds or, if obtained, that any such listing or admission to trading will be maintained during the life of the Green Bonds.

While it is the intention of the Issuer to apply the proceeds of any Green Bonds in, or substantially in, the manner described in this Base Prospectus and/or the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, there can be no assurance that the relevant project(s) or use(s) the subject of, or related to, any Green Projects will be capable of being implemented in or substantially in such manner and/or in accordance with any timing schedule and that accordingly such proceeds will be totally disbursed for the specified Green Projects. Nor can there be any assurance that such Green Projects will be completed within any specified period or at all or with the results or outcome (whether or not related to the environment) as originally expected or anticipated by the Issuer.

Any such event or failure by the Issuer to apply the proceeds of any issue of Green Bonds for any Green Projects will not constitute an Event of Default under the relevant Green Bonds. Any such event or failure to apply the proceeds of any issue of Green Bonds for any Green Projects as aforesaid and/or withdrawal of any such opinion or certification or any such opinion or certification attesting that the Issuer is not complying in whole or in part with any matters for which such opinion or certification is opining or certifying on and/or any such Green Bonds no longer being listed or admitted to trading on any stock exchange or securities market as aforesaid may have a material adverse effect on the value of such Green Bonds and also potentially the value of any other Green Bonds which are intended to finance Green Projects and/or result in adverse consequences for certain investors with portfolio mandates to invest in securities to be used for a particular purpose.

2.6.3.14 There are risks that certain reference rates may be administered differently or discontinued in the future, including the potential phasing-out of LIBOR after 2021, which may adversely affect the trading market for, value of and return on, Floating Rate Notes or Reset Notes based on such reference rates.

LIBOR, EURIBOR and other reference rates which are deemed to be “benchmarks” are the subject of recent international, national and other regulatory guidance and proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective while others are still to be implemented. These reforms may cause such benchmarks to perform differently from the past or disappear entirely, or have other consequences that cannot be predicted as of the date of this Base Prospectus. Certain risks relating to such benchmarks are described below.

Benchmarks Regulation

The Benchmarks Regulation applies to the provision of benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a benchmark and the use of a benchmark, within the EU (which, for these purposes, includes the UK). It, among other things, (i) requires benchmark administrators to be authorised or registered (or, if non-EU based, to be subject to an equivalent regime or otherwise recognised or endorsed) and (ii) prevents certain uses by EU supervised entities (such as the Issuer) of benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised or registered (or, if non-EU based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed).

The Benchmarks Regulation could have a material impact on (i) any Floating Rate Note which specifies Screen Rate Determination in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined or (ii) any Reset Note, in each case where the applicable Original Reference Rate is deemed to be a benchmark, particularly if the methodology or other terms of such benchmark are changed in order to comply with the requirements of the Benchmarks Regulation. Such changes could, among other things, have the effect of reducing, increasing or otherwise affecting the volatility of the published rate or level of the benchmark. More broadly, any of the international, national or other proposals for reform, or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of benchmarks, could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements.

Such factors may (without limitation) have the following effects on certain benchmarks: (i) discourage market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to such benchmark; (ii) trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in the benchmarks or (iii) lead to the disappearance of the benchmark. Any of the above changes or any other consequential changes as a result of international, national or other proposals for reform or other initiatives or investigations, could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any Floating Rate Notes or Reset Notes linked to a benchmark.

Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks imposed by the Benchmarks Regulation reforms and investigations in making any investment decision with respect to any Floating Rate Notes or Reset Notes linked to a benchmark.

Discontinuation of benchmarks

LIBOR is the subject of ongoing regulatory reforms. Following the implementation of any of these reforms, the manner of administration of LIBOR may change, with the result that it may perform differently than in the past or be eliminated entirely, or there could be other consequences that cannot be predicted. The FCA has indicated through a series of announcements that the continuation of LIBOR on the current basis cannot and will not be guaranteed after 2021. At this time, it is not possible to predict the effect of any establishment of alternative reference rates or any other reforms to LIBOR that may be enacted in the UK or elsewhere. Uncertainty as to the nature of such alternative reference rates or other reforms may adversely affect the trading market for LIBOR-linked securities or the value of, or return on, such securities.

Separately, the euro risk free-rate working group for the euro area has published a set of guiding principles and high level recommendations for fallback provisions in, amongst other things, new euro denominated cash products (including bonds) referencing EURIBOR. The guiding principles indicate, among other things, that continuing to reference EURIBOR in relevant contracts (without robust fallback provisions) may increase the risk to the euro area financial system.

The potential elimination of benchmarks, such as LIBOR, EURIBOR and other reference rates which are deemed to be "benchmarks", the establishment of alternative reference rates or changes in the manner of administration of a benchmark could also require adjustments to the terms of benchmark-linked securities and may result in other consequences, such as interest payments that are lower than, or that do not otherwise correlate over time with, the payments that would have been made on those securities if the relevant benchmark was available in its current form.

Benchmark Discontinuation

If “Benchmark Discontinuation” is specified to be applicable in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement for a Floating Rate Note or Reset Note, in the event that the Issuer determines a Benchmark Event occurs in relation to an Original Reference Rate when any Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) remains to be determined by reference to such Original Reference Rate, then the Issuer shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint and consult with an Independent Adviser, as soon as reasonably practicable, with a view to the Issuer determining a Successor Rate, failing which an Alternative Rate. If any such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate is determined in such manner and the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines that amendments to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes and/or the Trust Deed are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate and/or Alternative Rate or any Adjustment Spread, then the Issuer shall, subject to giving notice thereof, without any requirement for the consent or approval of Holders, vary the Terms and Conditions of the Notes and/or the Trust Deed to give effect to such amendments with effect from the date specified in such notice.

If a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate is determined by the Issuer, the Terms and Conditions of the Notes also provide that an Adjustment Spread may be determined by the Issuer to be applied to such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate, as the case may be. The Adjustment Spread is (i) the spread, formula or methodology which is formally recommended in relation to the replacement of the Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate by any Relevant Nominating Body (which may include a relevant central bank, supervisory authority or group of central banks/supervisory authorities), (ii) if no such recommendation has been made, or in the case of an Alternative Rate, the spread, formula or methodology which the Independent Adviser determines is customarily applied to the relevant Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) in international debt capital markets transactions to produce an industry-accepted replacement rate for the Original Reference Rate, or (iii) if the Independent Adviser determines that no such spread is customarily applied, the spread, formula or methodology which the Independent Adviser determines and which is recognised or acknowledged as being the industry standard for over-the-counter derivative transactions which reference the Original Reference Rate, where such rate has been replaced by the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate, as the case may be. The application of an Adjustment Spread may result in the relevant Notes performing differently (which may include payment of a lower interest rate) than they would do if LIBOR or the relevant Original Reference Rate (as applicable) were to continue to apply in its current form. If no Adjustment Spread is determined, a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate may nonetheless be used to determine the Rate of Interest.

If the Issuer is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser, it may still determine (i) the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate; and (ii) in either case, an Adjustment Spread and/or any Benchmark Amendments itself (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner). If a Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread or any Benchmark Amendment is not determined pursuant to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, other fallback provisions under the Terms and Conditions of the Notes may be required to be used, which may in certain circumstances result in the Rate of Interest for an Interest Period continuing to apply at the Rate of Interest applicable to the immediately preceding Interest Period, resulting in the relevant Floating Rate Notes or Reset Notes becoming, in effect, fixed rate securities (potentially until the relevant maturity date of the Notes depending on whether (i) the Issuer exercises its option to re-apply the fallback provisions contained in Condition 4(d) and (ii) (if such fallback provisions are re-applied) a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate is determined pursuant to Condition 4(d)). Even if a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and associated Adjustment Spread and/or Benchmark Amendments (if any) are determined pursuant to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, the overall Rate of Interest payable on the relevant Floating Rate Notes or Reset Notes may be less than it would have been had no Benchmark Event occurred.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Condition 4(d), no Successor Rate, Alternative Rate or Adjustment Spread will be adopted, nor will any other amendment to the terms and conditions of any Series of Notes be made to effect any Benchmark Amendments, if and to the extent that, in the determination of the Issuer, the same could reasonably be expected to prejudice the qualification of the relevant Series of Subordinated Notes as Tier 2 capital or the relevant Series of Senior Preferred Notes or, as the case may be, the relevant Series of Senior Non-Preferred Notes as MREL Eligible Liabilities.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Condition 4(d) and in the case of Senior Preferred Notes and Senior Non-Preferred Notes only, no Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable) will be adopted, and no other amendments to the terms of the relevant Series of Senior Preferred Notes or, as the case may be, the relevant Series of Senior Non-Preferred Notes will be made pursuant to Condition 4(d) if, and to the extent that, in the determination of the Issuer, the same could reasonably be expected to result in the Relevant Regulator treating the next Interest Payment Date or Reset Date, as the case may be, as the effective maturity of such Series of Senior Preferred Notes or, as the case may be, such Series of Senior Non-Preferred Notes, rather than the relevant Maturity Date.

Any of the above changes or any other consequential changes to benchmarks as a result of EU, UK, or other international, national, or other proposals for reform or other initiatives or investigations, or any further uncertainty in relation to the timing and manner of implementation of such changes could have a material adverse effect on the trading market for, liquidity of, value of and return on any such affected Floating Rate Notes or Reset Notes.

2.6.4 Notes denominated in Renminbi are subject to additional risks

Set out below is a description of certain additional risks which may be relevant to an investor in Notes denominated in Renminbi:

2.6.4.1 The Renminbi is not completely freely convertible and there are significant restrictions on the remittance of the Renminbi into and outside the PRC which may adversely affect the liquidity of the Notes denominated in Renminbi

The Renminbi is not completely freely convertible at present. The PRC government continues to regulate conversion between the Renminbi and foreign currencies, including the Hong Kong dollar, despite the significant reduction over the years by the PRC government of control over trade transactions involving import and export of goods and services as well as other frequent routine foreign exchange transactions. These transactions are known as current account items. However, remittance of Renminbi by foreign investors into the PRC for purposes such as capital contributions, known as capital account items, is generally only permitted upon obtaining specific approvals from the relevant authorities on a case-by-case basis and subject to a strict monitoring system. Regulations in the PRC on the remittance of Renminbi into the PRC for settlement of capital account items are developing gradually.

Although, the Renminbi was added to the Special Drawing Rights basket created by the International Monetary Fund in 2016 and policies further improving accessibility to Renminbi to settle cross-border transactions in foreign currencies were implemented by the People's Bank of China (the "PBOC") in 2018, there is no assurance that the PRC government will continue to liberalise control over cross-border Renminbi remittances in the future, that any pilot schemes for Renminbi cross-border utilisation will not be discontinued or that new regulations in the PRC will not be promulgated in the future which have the effect of restricting or eliminating the remittance of Renminbi into or outside the PRC. In the event that funds cannot be repatriated outside the PRC in Renminbi, the Issuer will need to source Renminbi offshore to finance its obligations under the Notes, and its ability to do so will be subject to the overall availability of Renminbi outside the PRC.

2.6.4.2 There is only limited availability of Renminbi outside the PRC, which may affect the liquidity of the Notes and the Issuer's ability to source Renminbi outside the PRC to service the Notes

As a result of the restrictions imposed by the PRC government on cross-border Renminbi fund flows, the availability of Renminbi outside of the PRC is limited. Currently, licensed banks in Singapore and Hong Kong may offer limited Renminbi denominated banking services to Singapore residents, Hong Kong residents and specified business customers. The PBOC has also established a Renminbi clearing and settlement mechanism for participating banks in the applicable jurisdictions that have been permitted to engage in the settlement of current account trade transactions in Renminbi through settlement agreements (the "Settlement Agreements") on the clearing of Renminbi business with financial institutions in a number of financial centres and cities (each, an "RMB Clearing Bank") and these RMB Clearing Banks have been permitted to engage in the settlement of Renminbi trade transactions. However, the current size of RMB denominated financial assets outside the PRC is limited.

There are restrictions imposed by the PBOC on Renminbi business participating banks in respect of cross-border Renminbi settlement, such as those relating to direct transactions with the PRC enterprises. Furthermore, Renminbi business participating banks do not have direct Renminbi liquidity support from the PBOC. The relevant Renminbi Clearing Bank only has access to onshore liquidity support from the PBOC for the purpose of squaring open positions of participating banks for limited types of transactions. The relevant Renminbi Clearing Bank is not obliged to square for participating banks any open positions resulting from other foreign exchange transactions or conversion services and the participating banks will need to source Renminbi from the offshore market to square such open positions.

Although it is expected that the offshore Renminbi market will continue to grow in depth and size, its market is subject to many constraints as a result of PRC laws and regulations on foreign exchange. There is no assurance that no new PRC regulations will be promulgated or the Settlement Agreements will not be terminated or amended so as to have the effect of restricting the availability of Renminbi offshore. The limited availability of Renminbi outside the PRC may affect the liquidity of the Notes. To the extent the Issuer is required to source Renminbi in the offshore market to service the Notes, there is no assurance that the Issuer will be able to source such Renminbi on satisfactory terms, if at all.

2.6.4.3 Payments in respect of Notes denominated in Renminbi will only be made to investors in the manner specified in the terms and conditions of the relevant Notes

Investors may be required to provide certificates and other information (including Renminbi account information) in order to be allowed to receive payments in Renminbi in accordance with the Renminbi clearing and settlement system for participating banks in Hong Kong. All Renminbi payments to investors in respect of Notes denominated in Renminbi will be made solely (i) for so long as such Notes are represented by a temporary global Note or a permanent global Note held with the common depositary or common safekeeper, as the case may be, for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or any alternative clearing system, by transfer to a Renminbi bank account maintained in Hong Kong in accordance with prevailing Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg rules and procedures or those of such alternative clearing system, or (ii) for so long as such Notes are in definitive form, by transfer to a Renminbi bank account maintained in Hong Kong in accordance with prevailing rules and regulations. The Issuer cannot be required to make payment by any other means (including in any other currency or in bank notes, by cheque or draft, or by transfer to a bank account in the PRC).

2.6.4.4 There may be PRC tax consequences with respect to investment in the RMB Notes

In considering whether to invest in the RMB Notes, investors should consult their individual tax advisers with regard to the application of PRC tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences arising under the laws of any other tax jurisdictions. The value of the Holder's investment in the RMB Notes may be materially and adversely affected if the Holder is required to pay PRC tax with respect to acquiring, holding or disposing of and receiving payments under those RMB Notes.

2.6.4.5 Investment in Notes denominated in Renminbi is subject to interest rate risks

The PRC Government has gradually liberalised its regulation of interest rates in recent years. Further liberalisation may increase interest rate volatility. Notes denominated in Renminbi may carry a fixed interest rate. Consequently, the trading price of such Notes will vary with the fluctuations in the Renminbi interest rates. If holders of Notes denominated in Renminbi propose to sell their Notes before their maturity, they may receive an offer lower than the amount they have invested.

2.6.4.6 Investment in the Notes is subject to exchange rate risks

The value of the Renminbi against the U.S. dollar and other foreign currencies fluctuates from time to time and is affected by changes in the PRC and international political and economic conditions and by many other factors. All payments of interest and principal with respect to RMB Notes will be made in Renminbi unless otherwise specified. As a result, the value of these Renminbi payments in U.S. dollar terms may vary with the prevailing exchange rates in the marketplace. If the value of Renminbi depreciates against the U.S. dollar or other foreign currencies, the value of investment in U.S. dollar or other applicable foreign currency terms will decline.

2.6.4.7 Where Renminbi Currency Events are specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, if the Renminbi is not available in certain circumstances as described in the Notes, the Issuer can make payments under the Notes in U.S. dollars

There can be no assurance that access to Renminbi for the purposes of making payments under the Notes by the Issuer or generally will remain or that new PRC regulations will not be promulgated which have the effect of restricting availability of Renminbi outside of the PRC.

Although the Issuer's primary obligation is to make all payments of interest and principal with respect to the Notes in Renminbi, where Renminbi Currency Events are specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, in the event access to Renminbi deliverable in Hong Kong becomes restricted to the extent that, by reason of Renminbi Inconvertibility, Renminbi Non-Transferability or Renminbi Illiquidity (each as defined in the Terms and Conditions of Notes), the Issuer is unable to pay interest or principal in Renminbi in Hong Kong, the terms of the Notes allow the Issuer to make payment in U.S. dollars at the prevailing spot rate of exchange, all as provided for in more detail in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes. The value of these Renminbi payments in U.S. dollar terms may vary with the prevailing exchange rates in the market place. If the value of Renminbi depreciates against the U.S. dollar or other foreign currencies, the value of the investment in U.S. dollar or other applicable foreign currency terms will decline.

4 Terms and Conditions of the Notes

The following are the Terms and Conditions of the Notes which, when construed together with Part A of the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement in relation to any Notes, will be applicable to each Series of Notes:

The Notes are constituted by a Trust Deed dated 3 March 1998 (as supplemented and/or amended from time to time, the "Trust Deed") and made between Swedbank AB (publ) (the "Issuer", which term, for the avoidance of doubt, shall include its legal successors following universal succession (Sw: universalsuccession), by operation of law applicable in Sweden, upon consolidation, amalgamation, merger or any other similar occurrence) and BNY Mellon Corporate Trustee Services Limited (the "Trustee", which expression shall include all persons for the time being the trustee or trustees under the Trust Deed) as trustee for the Holders (as described below). These Terms and Conditions include summaries of, and are subject to, the detailed provisions of the Trust Deed, which includes the form of the Notes and any Coupons relating to them. Copies of the Trust Deed and of an amended and restated Agency Agreement (as supplemented or amended from time to time, the "Agency Agreement") dated 13 May 2020 and made between the Issuer, the Trustee, Citibank, N.A., London Branch in its capacities as principal paying agent (the "Principal Paying Agent", which expression shall include any successor to Citibank, N.A., London Branch in its capacity as such), as paying agent, as transfer agent and as exchange agent (the "Exchange Agent", which expression shall include any successor to Citibank, N.A., London Branch in its capacity as such), Citigroup Global Markets Europe AG in its capacity as registrar (the "Registrar", which expression shall include any successor to Citigroup Global Markets Europe AG in its capacity as such) and The Bank of New York Mellon SA/NV, Luxembourg Branch as paying agent (a "Paying Agent" and, together with the Principal Paying Agent and any substitute or additional paying agents appointed in accordance with the Agency Agreement, the "Paying Agents") and as transfer agent (a "Transfer Agent" and, together with the Principal Paying Agent and any substitute or additional transfer agents appointed in accordance with the Agency Agreement, the "Transfer Agents"), are available for inspection at the specified office of the Trustee (presently at The Bank of New York Mellon, One Canada Square, London E14 5AL) and each of the Paying Agents and the Registrar. In respect of Swiss Domestic Notes (as defined below), the principal Swiss paying agent (the "Principal Swiss Paying Agent") and the other Swiss paying agents (the "Swiss Paying Agents", which expression shall include the Principal Swiss Paying Agent) will be specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement (as defined below), which entities shall act as Principal Paying Agent and Paying Agents, respectively, in respect of the Swiss Domestic Notes and the expressions "Principal Paying Agent" and "Paying Agents" as used herein shall be construed accordingly. In respect of each issue of Swiss Domestic Notes, the Issuer shall enter into a Supplemental Agency Agreement (substantially in the form of Schedule 7 to the Agency Agreement) with, inter alia, the Principal Swiss Paying Agent and any other Swiss Paying Agents. All persons from time to time entitled to the benefit of obligations under any Notes shall be deemed to have notice of and to be bound by all of the provisions of the Trust Deed insofar as they relate to the Notes. References herein to "Agents" shall, where the context so requires, be to the Paying Agents, the Registrar, the Transfer Agents, the Exchange Agent and, in the case of Swiss Domestic Notes, the Swiss Paying Agents. References herein to the Paying Agents and the Transfer Agents shall include any additional Paying Agent(s) and/or Transfer Agent(s) specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement.

References herein to "Exempt Notes" are to (i) Swiss Domestic Notes and (ii) Notes for which no prospectus is required to be published under the Prospectus Regulation. For the purposes of these Terms and Conditions of the Notes, "Prospectus Regulation" means Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, and references to the European Economic Area (the "EEA") include the United Kingdom (the "UK").

The final terms of the Notes (or the relevant provisions thereof) are set out in (i) in the case of Notes other than Exempt Notes, Part A of a final terms document (the "Final Terms") relating to the Notes which completes these Terms and Conditions (the "Conditions") or (ii) in the case of Exempt Notes, a pricing supplement (the "Pricing Supplement") which supplements, amends, modifies and replaces these Conditions and may specify other terms and conditions which shall, to the extent so specified or to the extent inconsistent with the Conditions, amend, modify or replace the Conditions for the purposes of the Exempt Notes. References to the "applicable Final Terms" are accordingly to Part A of the Final Terms (or the relevant provisions thereof) relating to the Notes and references to the "applicable Pricing Supplement" are accordingly to Part A of the Pricing Supplement (or the relevant provisions thereof) relating to the Exempt Notes.

Copies of the Final Terms will, in the case of Notes admitted to trading on the regulated market of the Irish Stock Exchange plc, trading as Euronext Dublin ("Euronext Dublin"), be published on the website of the Central Bank of Ireland at <https://www.centralbank.ie/regulation/industry-market-sectors/securities-markets/prospectus-regulation/prospectuses> and on the website of Euronext Dublin at www.ise.ie. If the Notes are to be admitted to trading on any other regulated market in the EEA or the UK, the applicable Final Terms will be published in accordance with the rules and regulations of the relevant listing authority or stock exchange and otherwise in accordance with Article 21 of the Prospectus Regulation. Copies of the Final Terms will also be available, upon request, free of charge, at the registered office of the Issuer and the specified office of the Principal Paying Agent and, in relation to a Tranche of Registered Notes, the Registrar save that, if the Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the Pricing Supplement relates to Notes which are neither admitted to trading on a regulated market in the EEA nor offered in the EEA in circumstances where a prospectus is required to be published under the Prospectus Regulation (including Exempt Notes), copies will only be obtainable by a Holder of such Notes upon production of evidence satisfactory to the Issuer and the Principal Paying Agent or, as the case may be, the Registrar as to its holding of such Notes and identity.

As used herein, "Tranche" means Notes which are identical in all respects (including as to listing and admission to trading and save that a Tranche may comprise Notes in more than one denomination) and "Series" means a Tranche of Notes together with any further Tranche or Tranches of Notes which are (a) expressed to be consolidated and form a single series and (b) identical in all respects (including as to listing and admission to trading) except for their respective Issue Dates, Interest Commencement Dates and/or Issue Prices.

Words and expressions defined in the Trust Deed, the Agency Agreement or used in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, shall have the same meanings where used in the Conditions unless the context otherwise requires or unless otherwise stated and provided that, in the event of inconsistency between the Trust Deed and the Agency Agreement, the Trust Deed will prevail and, in the event of inconsistency between the Trust Deed or the Agency Agreement and the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, will prevail.

For the purposes of these Conditions, references to "Notes" are to Notes of the same Series and shall, as the context may require, be deemed to include any Temporary Global Note, Permanent Global Note, Swiss Global Note, Definitive Bearer Notes, Restricted Registered Global Note, Unrestricted Registered Global Note or, as the case may be, Definitive Registered Notes (each as defined below). References to "Holders" shall include holders of Coupons (as defined below), as the context may require.

References herein to "RMB Notes" are to Notes denominated in Renminbi. References herein to "Renminbi", "RMB" and "CNY" are to the lawful currency of the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") that is deliverable offshore. For the purposes of these Terms and Conditions, references to the "PRC" exclude the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the PRC ("Hong Kong"), the Macau Special Administrative Region of the PRC ("Macau") and Taiwan.

1. Form and Denomination

(a) Form

The Notes are issued in bearer form ("Bearer Notes") or in registered form ("Registered Notes") and, in the case of definitive Notes, serially numbered, in the currency (the "Specified Currency") and the denomination(s) (the "Specified Denomination(s)") specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement. Notes of one Specified Denomination may not be exchanged for Notes of another Specified Denomination.

The Notes may be Fixed Rate Notes, Reset Notes, Floating Rate Notes, Zero Coupon Notes or a combination of any of the foregoing, depending upon the Interest Basis shown in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement.

The Notes may be Senior Preferred Notes, Senior Non-Preferred Notes or Subordinated Notes, depending upon the Status of the Notes shown in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement.

(b) Notes in Global Form and Exchanges Thereof

- (i) Bearer Notes (other than Swiss Domestic Notes) will be represented upon issue by a temporary global Note (a "Temporary Global Note") in substantially the form (subject to amendment and completion) set out in the Trust Deed. On or after the date (the "Exchange Date") which is 40 days after the completion of the distribution of the Notes of the relevant Tranche and provided certification as to the beneficial ownership thereof as required by U.S. Treasury regulations has been received, interests in the Temporary Global Note may be exchanged for either (as so specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement):

- (A) interests in a permanent global Note in bearer form (a "Permanent Global Note") representing the Notes of that Series and in substantially the form (subject to amendment and completion) set out in the Trust Deed; or

- (B) Bearer Notes in definitive form ("Definitive Bearer Notes"), serially numbered and in substantially the form (subject to amendment and completion) set out in the Trust Deed.

- (ii) In the case of Bearer Notes (other than Swiss Domestic Notes), interests in a Permanent Global Note will be exchangeable, in whole but not in part, (free of charge to the Holder) for Definitive Bearer Notes as indicated in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, either (A) upon not less than 60 days' written notice (expiring at least 30 days after the Exchange Date) from the bearer to the Principal Paying Agent as described therein or (B) only upon the occurrence of an Exchange Event as described therein, upon notice from the bearer to the Principal Paying Agent or, upon the occurrence of an Exchange Event described in (iii) below, from the Issuer to the Principal Paying Agent.

"Exchange Event" means (i) either of Euroclear (as defined below) or Clearstream, Luxembourg (as defined below) or any other clearing system by which the Notes have been accepted for clearing is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention to cease business permanently, (ii) an Event of Default in relation to the Notes as set out in Condition 6 occurs and is continuing, or (iii) at the option of the Issuer, if the Issuer or any Paying Agent, by reason of any change in, or amendment to, Swedish law, is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment under the Notes which would not be required if such Notes were in definitive form. The Issuer will promptly give notice to Holders in accordance with Condition 15 if an Exchange Event occurs. Any such exchange following the occurrence of an Exchange Event shall occur not later than 45 days after the date of receipt of the first relevant notice by the Principal Paying Agent.

- (iii) Bearer Notes which are denominated in Swiss Francs ("Swiss Domestic Notes") will be represented by a permanent global Note (the "Swiss Global Note") which will be deposited with SIX SIS Ltd, the Swiss Securities Services Corporation located in Olten, Switzerland ("SIS") or, as the case may be, with any other intermediary in Switzerland recognised for such purposes by SIX Swiss Exchange Ltd (SIS or any such other intermediary, the "Intermediary"), until final redemption or the printing of Definitive Bearer Notes.

Once the Swiss Global Note is deposited with the Intermediary and entered into the accounts of one or more participants of the Intermediary, the Swiss Domestic Notes will constitute intermediated securities (Bucheffekten) ("Intermediated Securities") in accordance with the provisions of the Swiss Federal Intermediated Securities Act (Bucheffektengesetz).

Each Holder (as such term shall be construed in accordance with the following paragraph) of Swiss Domestic Notes shall have a quotal co-ownership interest (Miteigentumsanteil) in the Swiss Global Note to the extent of his claim against the Issuer, provided that for so long as the Swiss Global Note remains deposited with the Intermediary the co-ownership interest shall be suspended and the Swiss Domestic Notes may only be transferred or otherwise disposed of by the entry of the transferred Swiss Domestic Notes in a securities account of the transferee.

The records of the Intermediary will determine the number of Swiss Domestic Notes held through each participant in that Intermediary. In respect of the Swiss Domestic Notes held in the form of Intermediated Securities, the holders of the Swiss Domestic Notes will be the persons holding the Swiss Domestic Notes in a securities account in their own name and for their own account or in case of intermediaries (Verwahrungsstellen), the intermediaries (Verwahrungsstellen) holding the Swiss Domestic Notes for their own account in a securities account (Effektenkonto) which is in their name. The term "Holders" as used herein shall, in relation to any such Swiss Domestic Notes held in the form of Intermediated Securities, be construed accordingly.

Holders of Swiss Domestic Notes do not have the right to request the printing and delivery of Definitive Bearer Notes. Interests in the Swiss Global Note will be exchangeable, in whole but not in part, for Definitive Bearer Notes if the Principal Swiss Paying Agent (i) determines that the printing and delivery of Definitive Bearer Notes is required by Swiss or other applicable laws and regulations in connection with the enforcement of rights or (ii) deems the printing and delivery of Definitive Bearer Notes to be useful or desirable for any other reason. Should the Principal Swiss Paying Agent so determine, it shall provide for the printing of Definitive Bearer Notes without cost to the Holders. Upon delivery of the Definitive Bearer Notes, the Swiss Global Note will be cancelled and the Definitive Bearer Notes shall be delivered to the Holders against cancellation of the Swiss Domestic Notes in the Holders' securities accounts.

- (iv) The following legend will appear on all permanent and definitive Bearer Notes which have an original maturity of more than 1 year and on all Coupons and Talons relating to such Notes:

"ANY UNITED STATES PERSON WHO HOLDS THIS OBLIGATION WILL BE SUBJECT TO LIMITATIONS UNDER THE UNITED STATES INCOME TAX LAWS, INCLUDING THE LIMITATIONS PROVIDED IN SECTIONS 165(J) AND 1287(A) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE."

The sections referred to provide that United States persons, with certain exceptions, will not be entitled to deduct any loss on Bearer Notes or Coupons and will not be entitled to capital gains treatment of any gain on any sale, disposition, redemption or payment of principal in respect of Bearer Notes or Coupons.

- (v) Registered Notes will be represented upon issue by Notes in the following form:
 - (A) Notes initially sold to non-U.S. persons in reliance on Regulation S under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") will be represented by beneficial interests in an unrestricted Registered Global Note (an "Unrestricted Registered Global Note") which will be deposited with Citibank, N.A., London Branch, as common depositary or a common safekeeper, as the case may be, for, and in respect of, interests held through Euroclear Bank SA/NV ("Euroclear") and Clearstream Banking S.A. ("Clearstream, Luxembourg") and registered in the name of a nominee of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or in the name of a nominee of the common safekeeper; and
 - (B) Notes initially sold within the United States in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act will be represented by beneficial interests in a restricted Registered Global Note (a "Restricted Registered Global Note") which will be deposited with the Registrar as custodian for The Depository Trust Company ("DTC") and registered in the name of a nominee of DTC.

An interest in either the Unrestricted Registered Global Note or the Restricted Registered Global Note (each a "Registered Global Note") may be exchanged for a definitive Registered Note (a "Definitive Registered Note") in the limited circumstances set out in such Registered Global Note. A Definitive Registered Note may be exchanged for another Definitive Registered Note under certain circumstances described in the Agency Agreement. In relation to any Tranche, prior to the expiry of the period that ends 40 days after the later of the date of issue of such Tranche and the completion of the distribution of such Tranche, beneficial interests in an Unrestricted Registered Global Note will only be exchangeable for interests in a Restricted Registered Global Note in accordance with the certification requirements described in the Agency Agreement (see "Form of Notes; Summary of Provisions Relating to the Notes while in Global Form").

- (c) Surrender of Global Notes (other than Swiss Global Notes) in Exchange for Definitive Notes

In order to exchange interests in a global Note (other than a Swiss Global Note) for definitive Notes, a Holder must surrender or, as the case may be, present the relevant Temporary Global Note or Permanent Global Note at the specified office of the Principal Paying Agent or, as the case may be, present the relevant Registered Global Note at the specified office of the Registrar or its agent, together, in each case, with a request in writing specifying the principal amount of such Temporary Global Note or Permanent Global Note or, as the case may be, Registered Global Note, to be exchanged.

- (d) Coupons

Interest-bearing Definitive Bearer Notes will have attached thereto at the time of their initial delivery coupons ("Coupons") and, if applicable, talons for further Coupons ("Talons"), presentation of which will be a prerequisite to the payment of interest in certain circumstances specified below. Any reference herein to Coupons or coupons shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be deemed to include a reference to Talons or talons. Bearer Notes in global form do not have Coupons or Talons attached on issue.

(e) Exchange of Registered Notes

Registered Notes will not be exchangeable for Bearer Notes and vice versa.

(f) The Depository Trust Company

Registered Notes will, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, be the subject of an application by the Issuer to DTC for the acceptance of such Registered Notes into DTC's book-entry settlement system. If such application is accepted, one or more Registered Global Notes (each, a "DTC Note") in denominations equivalent in aggregate to the aggregate principal amount of relevant Registered Notes which are to be held in such system will be issued to DTC and registered in the name of Cede & Co., or such other person as may be nominated by DTC for the purpose, as nominee for DTC. Thereafter, such registered nominee will be the holder of record and entitled to rights in respect of each DTC Note. Accordingly, each person having a beneficial interest in a DTC Note must rely on the procedures of the institutions having accounts with DTC to exercise any rights of such person. So long as Registered Notes are traded through DTC's book-entry settlement system, ownership of a beneficial interest in the relevant DTC Note will (unless otherwise required by applicable law) be shown on, and transfers of such beneficial interest may be effected only through, records maintained by (i) DTC or its registered nominee (as to DTC participant-interests) or (ii) institutions having accounts with DTC (including, without limitation, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg).

2. Title

(a) Title to Bearer Notes

Title to Bearer Notes and Coupons passes by delivery and references herein to "Holders" of Bearer Notes and Coupons are to the bearers of such Bearer Notes and Coupons, subject as provided above in relation to Swiss Domestic Notes.

(b) Title to Registered Notes

Title to Registered Notes passes by registration in the register which is kept by the Registrar. References herein to "Holders" of Registered Notes are to the persons in whose names such Notes are so registered or, in the case of joint holders, the first named thereof.

(c) Ownership

The Holder of any Note or Coupon will (except as otherwise required by applicable law or regulatory requirement) be treated as its absolute owner for all purposes (whether or not it is overdue and regardless of any notice of ownership, trust or any interest thereof or therein, any writing thereon, or any theft or loss thereof) and no person shall be liable for so treating such Holder.

(d) Transfer of Registered Notes in definitive form

Definitive Registered Notes may, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Agency Agreement, be transferred in whole or in part only (in the authorised denominations set out in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement) upon the surrender of the Registered Note to be transferred for registration of the transfer of the Registered Note (or the relevant part thereof), together with the form of transfer endorsed on it duly completed and executed, at the specified office of the Registrar or any Transfer Agent. A new Registered Note will be issued to the transferee and, in the case of a transfer of part only of a Registered Note, a new Registered Note in respect of the balance not transferred will be issued to the transferor.

(e) Delivery of New Registered Notes in definitive form

Each new Registered Note to be issued upon the transfer of Registered Notes in definitive form shall be available for delivery within five business days at the specified office of the Registrar or the relevant Transfer Agent after receipt of the form of transfer. Delivery of the new Registered Note shall be made at the specified office of the Registrar or of the Transfer Agent, as the case may be, to whom delivery of such form of transfer shall have been made or, at the option of the Holder making such delivery as aforesaid and as specified in the relevant form of transfer or otherwise in writing, be mailed by uninsured post at the risk of the Holder entitled to the new Registered Note to such address as may be so specified, unless such Holder requests otherwise and pays in advance to the relevant Agent the costs of such other method of delivery and/or such insurance as it may specify. For these purposes, a form of transfer received by the Registrar during the period of 15 days ending on the due date for any payment on the relevant Registered Notes shall be deemed not to be effectively received by the Registrar until the day following the due date for such payment. For the purposes of this Condition 2(e), "business day" means a day on which commercial banks are open for business (including dealings in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the place where the specified office of the Registrar is located.

(f) Charges on Transfer

The issue of new Registered Notes on transfer will be effected without charge by or on behalf of the Issuer or the Registrar, but upon payment by the applicant of (or the giving by the applicant of such indemnity as the Registrar may require in respect of) any tax or other governmental charges which may be imposed in relation thereto.

(g) Private Placement Legend

Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Restricted Registered Notes of any Series bearing a private placement legend set forth in the form of Restricted Registered Note scheduled to the Trust Deed and in "Notice to Purchasers of Restricted Notes and Transfer Restrictions", the Registrar shall deliver only Registered Notes of such Series that shall bear such legend unless there is delivered to the Issuer and the Registrar an opinion, reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer, of counsel experienced in giving opinions with respect to questions arising under the securities laws of the United States to the effect that neither such legend nor the restrictions on transfer set forth therein are required in order to maintain compliance with the provisions of such laws.

(h) Rule 144A(d)(4)

For so long as any of the Notes remain outstanding and are "restricted securities" within the meaning of Rule 144(a)(3) under the Securities Act, the Issuer has agreed and has covenanted in the Trust Deed that it will, during any period in which it is not subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) under the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), nor exempt from reporting under the Exchange Act pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) thereunder, furnish, upon request, to any Holder, to any owner of a beneficial interest in such restricted securities, and to any prospective purchaser of such restricted securities or beneficial interest therein designated by any such Holder or beneficial owner, in connection with resale of a beneficial interest in such restricted securities by such Holder or beneficial owner, as the case may be, the information specified in Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

(i) Transfers of Registered Notes in global form

Transfers of beneficial interests in Registered Global Notes will be effected by DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, and, in turn, by other participants and, if appropriate, indirect participants in such clearing systems acting on behalf of transferors and transferees of such interests. A beneficial interest in a Registered Global Note will, subject to compliance with all applicable legal and regulatory restrictions, be transferable for Notes in definitive form or for a beneficial interest in another Registered Global Note only in the authorised denominations set out in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement and only in accordance with the rules and operating procedures for the time being of DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, and in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in the Agency Agreement. Transfers of a Registered Global Note registered in the name of a nominee for DTC shall be limited to transfers of such Registered Global Note, in whole but not in part, to another nominee of DTC or to a successor of DTC or such successor's nominee.

3. Status

(a) Status - Senior Preferred Notes

(i) This Condition 3(a) is applicable in relation to Notes specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement as being Senior Preferred Notes.

(ii) The Senior Preferred Notes constitute unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of the Issuer and rank pari passu without any preference among themselves. The rights of the Holder of any Senior Preferred Note in respect of or arising from the Senior Preferred Notes (including any damages awarded for breach of any obligations under these Conditions, if any are payable) shall, in the event of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation (Sw: likvidation) or bankruptcy (Sw: konkurs) of the Issuer rank:

4. Interest

(a) Interest on Fixed Rate Notes

Each Fixed Rate Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date at the rate(s) per annum equal to the Rate(s) of Interest. Interest will be payable in arrear on the Interest Payment Date(s) in each year up to (and including) the Maturity Date.

In the case of RMB Notes, if:

- (i) Interest Payment Date Adjustment is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement; and
- (ii) (x) there is no numerically corresponding day in the calendar month in which an Interest Payment Date should occur or (y) if any Interest Payment Date would otherwise fall on a day which is not a Business Day, then such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

For these purposes, "Business Day" has the meaning given to it in Condition 4(c)(i).

If the Notes are in definitive form, except as provided in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the amount of interest payable on each Interest Payment Date in respect of the Fixed Interest Period ending on (but excluding) such date will amount to the Fixed Coupon Amount. Payments of interest on any Interest Payment Date will, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, amount to the Broken Amount so specified.

As used in the Conditions, "Fixed Interest Period" means the period from (and including) an Interest Payment Date (or the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the next (or first) Interest Payment Date.

Except in the case of Notes in definitive form where an applicable Fixed Coupon Amount or Broken Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, interest shall be calculated in respect of any period by applying the Rate of Interest to:

- (A) in the case of Fixed Rate Notes which are represented by a global Note, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Fixed Rate Notes represented by such global Note; or

and, in each case, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention. Where the Specified Denomination of a Fixed Rate Note in definitive form is a multiple of the Calculation Amount, the amount of interest payable in respect of such Fixed Rate Note shall be the product of the amount (determined in the manner provided above) for the Calculation Amount and the amount by which the Calculation Amount is multiplied to reach the Specified Denomination, without any further rounding.

"Day Count Fraction" means, in respect of the calculation of an amount of interest in accordance with this Condition 4(a):

- (i) if "Actual/Actual (ICMA)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement:
 - (A) in the case of Notes where the number of days in the relevant period from (and including) the most recent Interest Payment Date (or, in the case of RMB Notes if Interest Payment Date Adjustment is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the relevant payment date or the next Interest Payment Date, as the case may be) (or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the relevant payment date (the "Accrual Period") is equal to or shorter than the Determination Period during which the Accrual Period ends, the number of days in such Accrual Period divided by the product of (I) the number of days in such Determination Period and (II) the number of Determination Dates (as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement) that would occur in one calendar year; or
 - (B) in the case of Notes where the Accrual Period is longer than the Determination Period during which the Accrual Period ends, the sum of:
 - (aa) the number of days in such Accrual Period falling in the Determination Period in which the Accrual Period begins divided by the product of (x) the number of days in such Determination Period and (y) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year; and
 - (bb) the number of days in such Accrual Period falling in the next Determination Period divided by the product of (x) the number of days in such Determination Period and (y) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year;
- (ii) if "30/360" is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the number of days in the period from (and including) the most recent Interest Payment Date (or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the relevant payment date (such number of days being calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days with 12 30-day months) divided by 360; and
- (iii) if "Actual/365 (Fixed)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the actual number of days in the relevant period divided by 365.

- (C) for each Subsequent Reset Period thereafter (if any), at the rate per annum equal to the relevant Subsequent Reset Rate of Interest, payable, in each case, in arrear on the date(s) so specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement on which interest is payable in each year (each an "Interest Payment Date") and on the Maturity Date if that does not fall on an Interest Payment Date.

The Calculation Agent will, at or as soon as practicable after each time at which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, determine the Rate of Interest for the relevant period, and will calculate the amount of interest (the "Interest Amount") payable on the Reset Notes for the relevant period by applying the Rate of Interest to:

- (aa) in the case of Reset Notes which are represented by a global Note, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Reset Notes represented by such global Note; or
- (bb) in the case of Reset Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount;

and, in each case, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention. Where the Specified Denomination of a Reset Note in definitive form is a multiple of the Calculation Amount, the amount of interest payable in respect of such Reset Note shall be the product of the amount (determined in the manner provided above) for the Calculation Amount and the amount by which the Calculation Amount is multiplied to reach the Specified Denomination, without any further rounding.

(i) Interest Payment Dates

Each Floating Rate Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date and such interest will be payable in arrear on either:

- (A) the Specified Interest Payment Date(s) in each year specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement; or
- (B) if no Specified Interest Payment Date(s) is/are specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, each date (each such date, together with each Specified Interest Payment Date, an "Interest Payment Date") which falls the number of months or other period specified as the Specified Period in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, after the preceding Interest Payment Date or, in the case of the first Interest Payment Date, after the Interest Commencement Date.

Such interest will be payable in respect of each Interest Period (which expression shall, in the Conditions, mean the period from (and including) an Interest Payment Date (or the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the next (or first) Interest Payment Date).

If a Business Day Convention is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, and (x) if there is no numerically corresponding day in the calendar month in which an Interest Payment Date should occur or (y) if any Interest Payment Date would otherwise fall on a day which is not a Business Day, then, if the Business Day Convention specified is:

- (aa) in any case where Specified Periods are specified in accordance with Condition 4(c)(i)(B) above, the Floating Rate Convention, such Interest Payment Date (a) in the case of (x) above, shall be the last day that is a Business Day in the relevant month and the provisions of (ii) below shall apply mutatis mutandis or (b) in the case of (y) above, shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event (i) such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day and (ii) each subsequent Interest Payment Date shall be the last Business Day in the month which falls the Specified Period after the preceding applicable Interest Payment Date occurred; or
- (bb) the Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day; or
- (cc) the Modified Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day; or

- (dd) the Preceding Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

In the Conditions, "Business Day" means:

- (1) a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in each Business Centre (other than TARGET2 System (as defined below)) specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement;
- (2) if TARGET2 System is specified as a Business Centre in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, a day on which the Trans-European Automated Real-Time Gross Settlement Express Transfer (TARGET2) System (the "TARGET2 System") is open; and
- (3) either (i) in relation to any sum payable in a Specified Currency other than Euro or Renminbi, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the relevant Specified Currency (which if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars shall be Sydney and Auckland, respectively) or (ii) in relation to any sum payable in Euro, a day on which the TARGET2 System is open or (iii) in relation to any sum payable in Renminbi, a day (other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday) on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets in Hong Kong are generally open for business and settlement for Renminbi payments in Hong Kong.

(ii) Rate of Interest

The Rate of Interest payable from time to time in respect of Floating Rate Notes will be determined in the manner specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement.

(A) ISDA Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where ISDA Determination is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will be the relevant ISDA Rate plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement) the Margin (if any). For the purposes of this subparagraph (A), "ISDA Rate" for an Interest Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate that would be determined by the Principal Paying Agent under an interest rate swap transaction if the Principal Paying Agent were acting as Calculation Agent for that swap transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the 2006 ISDA Definitions, as published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. and as amended and updated as at the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes (the "ISDA Definitions") and under which:

- (I) the Floating Rate Option is as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement;
- (II) the Designated Maturity is a period specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement; and

- (III) the relevant Reset Date is the day specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement.

For the purposes of this subparagraph (A), "Floating Rate", "Calculation Agent", "Floating Rate Option", "Designated Maturity" and "Reset Date" have the meanings given to those terms in the ISDA Definitions.

Unless otherwise stated in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the Minimum Rate of Interest shall be deemed to be zero.

(B) Screen Rate Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where Screen Rate Determination is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will, subject as provided below, be either:

- (I) the offered quotation; or
- (II) the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the offered quotations, (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate which appears or appear, as the case may be, on the Relevant Screen Page as at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date in question plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Principal Paying Agent. If five or more of such offered quotations are available on the Relevant Screen Page, the highest (or, if there is more than one such highest quotation, one only of such quotations) and the lowest (or, if there is more than one such lowest quotation, one only of such quotations) shall be disregarded by the Principal Paying Agent for the purpose of determining the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of such offered quotations.

For the purposes of these Conditions:

"Interest Determination Date" shall mean the date specified as such in the Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, or if none is so specified:

- (i) if the Reference Rate is the London interbank offered rate ("LIBOR") (other than Sterling or Euro LIBOR), the second London business day prior to the start of each Interest Period;
- (ii) if the Reference Rate is Sterling LIBOR, the first day of each Interest Period;
- (iii) if the Reference Rate is Euro LIBOR or the Euro-zone interbank offered rate ("EURIBOR"), the second day on which the TARGET2 System is open prior to the start of each Interest Period;
- (iv) if the Reference Rate is the Stockholm interbank offered rate ("STIBOR"), the second Stockholm business day prior to the start of each Interest Period;

- (v) if the Reference Rate is the Norwegian interbank offered rate ("NIBOR"), the Second Oslo business day prior to the start of each Interest Period;
- (vi) if the Reference Rate is the Copenhagen interbank offered rate ("CIBOR"), the first day of each Interest Period;
- (vii) if the Reference Rate is the Tokyo interbank offered rate ("TIBOR"), the second Tokyo business day prior to the start of each Interest Period;
- (viii) if the Reference Rate is the Hong Kong interbank offered rate ("HIBOR"), the first day of each Interest Period; or
- (ix) if the Reference Rate is the CNH Hong Kong interbank offered rate ("CNH HIBOR"), the second Hong Kong business day prior to the start of each Interest Period.

"Reference Banks" shall mean, in the case of a determination of LIBOR, the principal London office of four major banks in the London inter-bank market and in the case of a determination of EURIBOR, the principal Euro-zone office of four major banks in the Euro-zone inter-bank market and, in the case of a determination of CNH HIBOR, the principal Hong Kong office of four major banks dealing in Renminbi in the Hong Kong inter-bank market and, in each case of a determination of a Reference Rate that is not LIBOR, EURIBOR or CNH HIBOR, the principal office in the Relevant Financial Centre of four major banks in the inter-bank market of the Relevant Financial Centre in each case selected by the Issuer on the advice of an investment bank of international repute.

"Reference Rate" shall mean (i) LIBOR; (ii) EURIBOR; (iii) STIBOR; (iv) NIBOR; (v) CIBOR; (vi) TIBOR; (vii) HIBOR; or (viii) CNH HIBOR, in each case for the relevant period, as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, or, in the case of Exempt Notes only, such other Reference Rate as shall be specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement.

"Relevant Financial Centre" shall mean (i) London, in the case of a determination of LIBOR; (ii) Brussels, in the case of a determination of EURIBOR; (iii) Stockholm, in the case of a determination of STIBOR; (iv) Oslo, in the case of a determination of NIBOR; (v) Copenhagen, in the case of a determination of CIBOR; (vi) Tokyo, in the case of a determination of TIBOR; or (vii) Hong Kong, in the case of a determination of HIBOR or CNH HIBOR, as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, or, in the case of Exempt Notes only, such other Relevant Financial Centre as shall be specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement.

"Relevant Screen Page" has the meaning given to it in Condition 4(b).

"Relevant Time" shall mean (i) in the case of LIBOR, 11.00 a.m.; (ii) in the case of EURIBOR, 11.00 a.m.; (iii) in the case of STIBOR, 11.00 a.m.; (iv) in the case of NIBOR, 12.00 noon; (v) in the case of CIBOR, 11.00 a.m.; (vi) in the case of TIBOR, 11.00 a.m.; (vii) in the case of HIBOR, 11.00 a.m.; or (viii) in the case of CNH HIBOR, 11.15 a.m. or if, at or around that time it is notified that the fixing will be published at 2.30 p.m., then 2.30 p.m., in each case in the Relevant Financial Centre, or, in the case of Exempt Notes, such other time as shall be specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement.

If the Relevant Screen Page is not available or if, in the case of Condition 4(c)(ii)(B)(I), no offered quotation appears or, in the case of Condition 4(c)(ii)(B)(II), fewer than three offered quotations appear, in each case as at the Relevant Time, the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as the case may be, shall request each of the Reference Banks to provide the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as the case may be, with its offered quotation (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate at approximately the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date in question. If two or more of the Reference Banks provide the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as the case may be, with offered quotations, the Rate of Interest for the Interest Period shall be the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the offered quotations plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as the case may be.

If on any Interest Determination Date one only or none of the Reference Banks provides the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as the case may be, with an offered quotation as provided in the preceding paragraph, the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period shall be the rate per annum which the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as the case may be, determines as being the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the rates, as communicated to (and at the request of) the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as the case may be, by the Reference Banks or any two or more of them, at which such banks were offered, at approximately the Relevant Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date, deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate by leading banks in the London interbank market (if the Reference Rate is LIBOR) or the Eurozone interbank market (if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR) or the interbank market of the Relevant Financial Centre (if any other Reference Rate is used) plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any) or, if fewer than two of the Reference Banks provide the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as the case may be, with offered rates, the offered rate for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, or the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of the offered rates for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, at which, at approximately the Relevant Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date, any one or more banks (which bank or banks is or are in the opinion of the Issuer suitable for the purpose) informs the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as the case may be, it is quoting to leading banks in the London interbank market (if the Reference Rate is LIBOR) or the Eurozone interbank market (if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR) or the interbank market of the Relevant Financial Centre (if any other Reference Rate is used) plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), provided that, if the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the Rate of Interest shall be determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Period, the Margin relating to the relevant Interest Period in place of the Margin relating to that last preceding Interest Period).

Unless otherwise stated in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the Minimum Rate of Interest shall be deemed to be zero.

(iii) Minimum Rate of Interest and/or Maximum Rate of Interest

If the applicable Final Terms specify or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement specifies a Minimum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of such Interest Period determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (ii) above is less than such Minimum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be such Minimum Rate of Interest.

If the applicable Final Terms specify or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement specifies a Maximum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of such Interest Period determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (ii) above is greater than such Maximum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be such Maximum Rate of Interest.

(iv) Determination of Rate of Interest and Calculation of Interest Amounts

The Principal Paying Agent will, at or as soon as practicable after each time at which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, determine the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period.

The Principal Paying Agent will calculate the amount of interest (the "Interest Amount") payable on the Floating Rate Notes for the relevant Interest Period by applying the Rate of Interest to:

- (A) in the case of Floating Rate Notes which are represented by a global Note, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Notes represented by such global Note; or
- (B) in the case of Floating Rate Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount;

and, in each case, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention. Where the Specified Denomination of a Floating Rate Note in definitive form is a multiple of the Calculation Amount, the Interest Amount payable in respect of such Note shall be the product of the amount (determined in the manner provided above) for the Calculation Amount and the amount by which the Calculation Amount is multiplied to reach the Specified Denomination, without any further rounding.

"Day Count Fraction" means, in respect of the calculation of an amount of interest in accordance with this Condition 4(c):

- (A) if "Actual/Actual (ISDA)" or "Actual/Actual" is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365 (or, if any portion of that Interest Period falls in a leap year, the sum of (I) the actual number of days in that portion of the Interest Period falling in a leap year divided by 366 and (II) the actual number of days in that portion of the Interest Period falling in a non-leap year divided by 365);
- (B) if "Actual/365 (Fixed)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365;

- (C) if "Actual/365 (Sterling)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365 or, in the case of an Interest Payment Date falling in a leap year, 366;
- (D) if "Actual/360" is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360;
- (E) if "30/360", "360/360" or "Bond Basis" is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

"Y₁" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

"Y₂" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

"M₁" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

"M₂" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

"D₁" is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless such number is 31, in which case D₁ will be 30; and

"D₂" is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31 and D₁ is greater than 29, in which case D₂ will be 30;

- (F) if "30E/360" or "Eurobond Basis" is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

"Y₁" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

"Y₂" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

"M₁" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

"M₂" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

"D₁" is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D₁ will be 30; and

"D₂" is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D₂ will be 30; and

- (G) if "30E/360 (ISDA)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

"Y₁" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

"Y₂" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

"M₁" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

"M₂" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

"D₁" is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless (i) that day is the last day of February or (ii) such number would be 31, in which case D₁ will be 30; and

"D₂" is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless (i) that day is the last day of February but not the Maturity Date or (ii) such number would be 31, in which case D₂ will be 30.

(v) Linear Interpolation

Where Linear Interpolation is specified as applicable in respect of an Interest Period in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be calculated by the Calculation Agent by straight line linear interpolation by reference to two rates based on the relevant Reference Rate (where Screen Rate Determination is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement) or the relevant Floating Rate Option (where ISDA Determination is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement), one of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Period and the other of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period provided however that if there is no rate available for a period of time next shorter or, as the case may be, next longer, then the Calculation Agent shall determine such rate at such time and by reference to such sources as it determines appropriate.

For the purposes of this Condition 4(c)(v), "Designated Maturity" means, (a) in relation to Screen Rate Determination, the period of time designated in the Reference Rate and (b) in relation to ISDA Determination, the Designated Maturity, as referred to in Condition 4(c)(ii)(A).

(vi) Notification of Rate of Interest and Interest Amounts

The Principal Paying Agent will cause the Rate of Interest and each Interest Amount for each Interest Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date to be notified to the Issuer, the Trustee, the Registrar (in the case of Registered Notes) and any stock exchange on which the relevant Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed and notice thereof to be published in accordance with Condition 15 as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than the fourth London Business Day thereafter. Each Interest Amount and Interest Payment Date so notified may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without prior notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period. Any such amendment will be promptly notified to each stock exchange on which the relevant Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed and to the Holders of the Notes in accordance with Condition 15. For the purposes of this paragraph, the expression "London Business Day" means a day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday) on which banks and foreign exchange markets are open for general business in London.

(vii) Certificates to be Final

All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the provisions of this Condition 4(c) by the Principal Paying Agent shall (in the absence of wilful default, bad faith, manifest error and proven error) be binding on the Issuer, the Principal Paying Agent, the other Paying Agents and all Holders of the Notes and (in the absence of wilful default and bad faith) no liability to the Issuer or the Holders shall attach to the Principal Paying Agent or the Trustee in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions pursuant to such provisions.

(viii) Calculation Agent

If the applicable Final Terms specify or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement specifies that a Calculation Agent will be appointed in place of the Principal Paying Agent for the purposes of calculating the Rate(s) of Interest and Interest Amount(s) as aforesaid, references in this Condition 4(c) to the Principal Paying Agent shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as references to such Calculation Agent.

(d) Benchmark Discontinuation

This Condition 4(d) applies only if "Benchmark Discontinuation" is specified to be applicable in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement.

- (i) Independent Adviser: If the Issuer determines that a Benchmark Event occurs in relation to an Original Reference Rate when any Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) remains to be determined by reference to such Original Reference Rate, then the Issuer shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint and consult with an Independent Adviser, as soon as reasonably practicable, with a view to the Issuer determining a Successor Rate, failing which an Alternative Rate (in accordance with Condition 4(d)(ii)(B)) and, in either case, an Adjustment Spread, if any (in accordance with Condition 4(d)(iii)) and/or any Benchmark Amendments (in accordance with Condition 4(d)(iv)).

An Independent Adviser appointed pursuant to this Condition 4(d) shall act in good faith and (in the absence of fraud) shall have no liability whatsoever to the Issuer, the Trustee, the Principal Paying Agent, the Paying Agents or the Holders for any determination made by it or for any advice given to the Issuer in connection with any determination made by the Issuer, pursuant to this Condition 4(d).

- (ii) Successor Rate or Alternative Rate: If the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines that:
 - (A) there is a Successor Rate, then such Successor Rate and the applicable Adjustment Spread shall subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for all future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the operation of this Condition 4(d)); or
 - (B) there is no Successor Rate but that there is an Alternative Rate, then such Alternative Rate and the applicable Adjustment Spread shall subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for all future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the operation of this Condition 4(d)).
- (iii) Adjustment Spread: The Adjustment Spread (or the formula or methodology for determining the Adjustment Spread) shall be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be). If the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser is unable to determine the quantum of, or a formula or methodology for determining, such Adjustment Spread, then the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable) will apply without an Adjustment Spread.
- (iv) Benchmark Amendments: If any Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and, in either case, the applicable Adjustment Spread is determined in accordance with this Condition 4(d) and the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines (i) that amendments to these Conditions and/or the Trust Deed are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and, in either case, the applicable Adjustment Spread (such amendments, the "Benchmark Amendments") and (ii) the terms of the Benchmark Amendments, then the Issuer shall, subject to giving notice thereof in accordance with Condition 4(d)(vi), without any requirement for the consent or approval of Holders, vary these Conditions and/or the Trust Deed to give effect to such Benchmark Amendments with effect from the date specified in such notice.

At the request of the Issuer, but subject to receipt by the Trustee of a certificate signed by two directors or other authorised signatories of the Issuer pursuant to Condition 4(d)(vi), the Trustee shall (at the expense of the Issuer), without any requirement for the consent or approval of the Holders, be obliged to concur with the Issuer in effecting any Benchmark Amendments (including, inter alia, by the execution of a deed supplemental to or amending the Trust Deed) and the Trustee shall not be liable to any party for any consequences thereof, provided that the Trustee shall not be obliged so to concur if in the opinion of the Trustee doing so would impose more onerous obligations upon it or expose it to any additional duties, responsibilities or liabilities or reduce or amend the protective provisions and/or rights afforded to the Trustee in these Conditions or the Trust Deed (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any supplemental trust deed) in any way.

In connection with any such variation in accordance with this Condition 4(d)(iv), the Issuer shall comply with the rules of any stock exchange on which the Notes are for the time being listed or admitted to trading.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Condition 4(d), no Successor Rate, Alternative Rate or Adjustment Spread will be adopted, nor will any other amendment to the terms and conditions of any Series of Notes be made to effect the Benchmark Amendments, if and to the extent that, in the determination of the Issuer, the same could reasonably be expected to prejudice the qualification (to the extent applicable to the relevant Notes at the relevant time) of the relevant Series of Notes (in the case of Subordinated Notes) as Tier 2 capital or (in the case of Senior Preferred Notes and Senior Non-Preferred Notes) as MREL Eligible Liabilities, as the case may be, such determination to be confirmed by the Issuer to the Trustee in a certificate signed by two directors or other authorised signatories of the Issuer (upon which certificate the Trustee is entitled to rely absolutely and without liability).

In the case of Senior Preferred Notes and Senior Non-Preferred Notes only, no Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable) will be adopted, and no other amendments to the terms of the Notes will be made pursuant to this Condition 4(d), if and to the extent that, in the determination of the Issuer and to the extent applicable to the relevant Notes at the relevant time, the same could reasonably be expected to result in the Relevant Regulator treating the next Interest Payment Date or Reset Date, as the case may be, as the effective maturity of the Notes, rather than the relevant Maturity Date, such determination to be confirmed by the Issuer to the Trustee in a certificate signed by two directors or other authorised signatories of the Issuer (upon which certificate the Trustee is entitled to rely absolutely and without liability).

- (v) Failure to appoint an Independent Adviser: If the Issuer is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser in accordance with this Condition 4(d), the Issuer, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, may still determine (i) a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and (ii) in either case, an Adjustment Spread and/or any Benchmark Amendments in accordance with this Condition 4(d) (with the relevant provisions in this Condition 4(d) applying mutatis mutandis to allow such determinations to be made by the Issuer without consultation with an Independent Adviser).

Where this Condition 4(d)(v) applies, without prejudice to the definitions thereof, for the purposes of determining any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread and/or Benchmark Amendments (as the case may be), the Issuer will take into account any relevant and applicable market precedents and customary market usage as well as any published guidance from relevant associations involved in the establishment of market standards and/or protocols in the international debt capital markets.

- (vi) Notices, etc: Any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread and the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments, determined under this Condition 4(d) will be notified promptly by the Issuer to the Trustee, the Principal Paying Agent, the Paying Agents and, in accordance with Condition 15, the Holders. Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the effective date of the Benchmark Amendments, if any.

No later than notifying the Trustee of the same, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee a certificate signed by two directors or other authorised signatories of the Issuer:

- (A) confirming (i) that a Benchmark Event has occurred, (ii) the Successor Rate or, as the case may be, the Alternative Rate and, (iii) where applicable, any Adjustment Spread and/or the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments, in each case as determined in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 4(d); and
- (B) certifying that the Benchmark Amendments (if applicable) are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread.

The Trustee shall be entitled to rely on any certificate delivered pursuant to this Condition 4(d) (without enquiry or liability to any person and without the obligation to verify or investigate the accuracy thereof) as sufficient evidence thereof. The Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread (if any) and/or the Benchmark Amendments (if any) specified in such certificate will (in the absence of manifest error and without prejudice to the Trustee's ability to rely on such certificate as aforesaid) be binding on the Issuer, the Trustee, the Principal Paying Agent, the Paying Agents and the Holders. For the avoidance of doubt, each of the Trustee and the Principal Paying Agent shall not be liable to the Holders or any other such person for so acting or relying on such certificate, irrespective of whether any such modification is or may be materially prejudicial to the interests of such person.

- (vii) Survival of the Original Reference Rate: Without prejudice to the obligations of the Issuer under Condition 4(d), the Original Reference Rate and the fallback provisions provided for in Condition 4(b)(ii) and Condition 4(c)(ii)(B) will continue to apply unless and until either a Successor Rate or an Alternative Rate (and any associated Adjustment Spread and/or Benchmark Amendments) is determined pursuant to this Condition 4(d).

In such circumstances, the Issuer will be entitled (but not obliged), at any time thereafter, to elect to re-apply the provisions of Condition 4(d), mutatis mutandis, on one or more occasions until a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (and, if applicable, any associated Adjustment Spread and/or Benchmark Amendments) has been determined and notified (and, until such determination and notification (if any), the fallback provisions provided for in Condition 4(b)(ii) and Condition 4(c)(ii)(B) will continue to apply).

- (iii) the Issuer determines, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, is recognised or acknowledged as being the industry standard for over-the-counter derivative transactions which reference the Original Reference Rate, where such rate has been replaced by the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be).

In such event, interest will continue to accrue thereon (as well after as before any demand or judgment) at the rate then applicable to the principal amount of the Notes or such other rate as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement until the date on which, upon (except in the case of any payment where presentation and/or surrender of the relevant Note is not required as a precondition of payment) due presentation of the relevant Note, the relevant payment is made or, if earlier (except in the case of any payment where presentation and/or surrender of the relevant Note is not required as a precondition of payment), the seventh day after the date on which, the Trustee, the Principal Paying Agent or, as the case may be, the Registrar having received the funds required to make such payment, notice is given to the Holders in accordance with Condition 15 of that circumstance (except to the extent that there is failure in the subsequent payment thereof to the relevant Holder).

For the purposes of these Conditions:

"MREL Disqualification Event" means, in respect of a Series of Senior Preferred Notes or, as the case may be, Senior Non-Preferred Notes, the determination by the Issuer that, as a result of a change in any Applicable MREL Regulations becoming effective on or after the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes, it is likely that the Notes will be fully excluded or partially excluded from the "eligible liabilities" (or any equivalent or successor term) available to meet any MREL Requirement (however called or defined by then Applicable MREL Regulations) if the Issuer or the Group is then or, as the case may be, will be subject to such MREL Requirement, such determination to be confirmed by the Issuer to the Trustee in a certificate signed by two directors or other authorised signatories of the Issuer, provided that a MREL Disqualification Event shall not occur where such exclusion is or will be caused by (1) the remaining maturity of such Notes being less than any period prescribed by any applicable eligibility criteria under the Applicable MREL Regulations or (2) any applicable limits on the amount of "eligible liabilities" (or any equivalent or successor term) permitted or allowed to meet any MREL Requirement(s) being exceeded.

(j) Conditions to Redemption, Purchase, Substitution and Variation

No early redemption, purchase, substitution or variation as contemplated by this Condition 5 of such Notes may be made without the prior consent of the Relevant Regulator (if such consent is required (to the extent applicable to the relevant Notes at the relevant time) (in the case of Subordinated Notes) by the Applicable Capital Adequacy Regulations or (in the case of Senior Preferred Notes and Senior Non-Preferred Notes) the Applicable MREL Regulations).

- (b) are listed on a recognised stock exchange, if the Senior Preferred Notes were listed immediately prior to such substitution or variation, as selected by the Issuer and approved by the Trustee.

"Subordinated Qualifying Securities" means securities issued directly or indirectly by the Issuer that:

- (a) (other than in respect of (i) the effectiveness and enforceability of Condition 18(f) and (ii) paragraph (4) below) have terms not materially less favourable to the Holders as a class than the terms of the Subordinated Notes (as reasonably determined by the Issuer, after having consulted an independent third party financial adviser of international standing, and provided that a certification to such effect of two directors or other authorised signatories of the Issuer shall have been delivered to the Trustee not less than five Business Days prior to (i) in the case of a substitution of the Subordinated Notes, the issue of the relevant securities or (ii) in the case of a variation of the Subordinated Notes, such variation, as the case may be), provided that they shall (1) include a ranking at least equal to that of the Subordinated Notes prior to such substitution or variation, as the case may be, (2) have the same interest rate and the same Interest Payment Dates as those from time to time applying to the Subordinated Notes prior to such substitution or variation, as the case may be, (3) have the same redemption rights and obligations as the Subordinated Notes prior to such substitution or variation, as the case may be, including, but not limited to, as to timing and amount, (4) comply with the then current requirements of the Relevant Regulator in relation to Tier 2 capital, (5) preserve any existing rights under the Subordinated Notes to any accrued interest which has not been paid in respect of the period from (and including) the Interest Payment Date last preceding the date of substitution or variation, as the case may be, or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date, (6) where the Subordinated Notes which have been substituted or varied had a solicited credit rating immediately prior to their substitution or variation, be assigned a solicited credit rating equal to or higher than (i) the solicited credit rating of the Subordinated Notes immediately prior to their substitution or variation or (ii) where the solicited credit rating of the Subordinated Notes was, as a result of Condition 18(f) becoming ineffective and/or unenforceable, amended prior to such substitution or variation, the credit rating of the Subordinated Notes immediately prior to such amendment, and (7) not include any loss absorbing provisions such as principal write-offs, write-downs or conversion to equity, unless the triggers are objective and measurable; and

- (b) are listed on a recognised stock exchange, if the Subordinated Notes were listed immediately prior to such substitution or variation, as selected by the Issuer and approved by the Trustee.

6. Events of Default

- (i) The following shall be events of default (each an “Event of Default”) in relation to the Notes of any Series, namely:
 - (A) the Issuer shall default in the payment of principal in respect of any Note due and payable in accordance with these Conditions or the Issuer shall default in the payment of interest due on any Notes on an Interest Payment Date or any other date on which the payment of interest is compulsory and any such default continues for 15 days; or
 - (B) a court or agency or supervisory authority in the Kingdom of Sweden (having jurisdiction in respect of the same) shall have instituted a proceeding or entered a decree or order for the appointment of a receiver or liquidator in any insolvency, rehabilitation, readjustment of debt, marshalling of assets and liabilities, or similar arrangements involving the Issuer or all or substantially all of its property and such proceeding, decree or order shall not have been vacated or shall have remained in force undischarged or unstayed for a period of 60 days; or
 - (C) the Issuer shall file a petition to take advantage of any insolvency statute or voluntarily suspends payment of its obligations.

If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing in relation to any Series of Notes, the Trustee may at its discretion, and if so requested by Holders of at least one-quarter in principal amount of the Notes of such Series then outstanding or if so directed by an Extraordinary Resolution (as defined in the Trust Deed) will, by written notice to the Issuer declare that such Notes are and shall, subject to the provisions set out below in this Condition 6, immediately become, due and payable at their Early Redemption Amount together with all interest (if any) accrued thereon.

If a Note becomes due and payable under this Condition 6(i), the Trustee may institute such steps, including the obtaining of a judgment against the Issuer for any amount due in respect of the Notes, as it thinks desirable with a view to having the Issuer declared bankrupt (Sw: konkurs) or put into liquidation (Sw: likvidation) but not otherwise and consequently if the Notes become due and payable under this Condition 6(i) the Issuer shall, with the prior consent of the Relevant Regulator (if such consent is required by the Applicable MREL Regulations (in the case of Senior Preferred Notes and Senior Non-Preferred Notes) or the Applicable Capital Adequacy Regulations (in the case of Subordinated Notes)), only be required to make such payment after it has been declared bankrupt (Sw: konkurs) or put into liquidation (Sw: likvidation).

- (ii) The Trustee may at its discretion institute such proceedings against the Issuer as it may think fit to enforce any obligation, condition, undertaking or provision binding on the Issuer under the Notes (other than, without prejudice to Condition 6(i)) above, any obligation for the payment of any principal or interest in respect of the Notes) provided that the Issuer shall not by virtue of the institution of any such proceedings be obliged to pay any sum or sums sooner than the same would otherwise have been payable by it.
- (iii) No remedy against the Issuer, other than as provided in Condition 6(i) and 6(ii) above or proving or claiming in the bankruptcy (Sw: konkurs) or liquidation (Sw: likvidation) of the Issuer in the Kingdom of Sweden or elsewhere, shall be available to the Trustee or the Holders of Notes, whether for the recovery of amounts owing in respect of the Notes or in respect of any breach by the Issuer of any of its obligations or undertakings under the Notes or the Trust Deed. For the avoidance of doubt, this does not affect the Trustee's personal rights to be paid and/or indemnified.

7. Taxation

- (a) All amounts payable (whether in respect of principal, redemption amount, interest or otherwise) in respect of the Notes or Coupons by or on behalf of the Issuer will be made without withholding or deduction for or on account of any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed or levied by or on behalf of any Taxing Jurisdiction, unless the withholding or deduction of such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges is required by law. In that event, in the case of a payment of interest only, the Issuer will pay such additional amounts as may be necessary in order that the net amounts received by any Holder after such withholding or deduction shall equal the respective amounts which would have been receivable by such Holder in the absence of such withholding or deduction; except that no such additional amounts shall be payable in respect of any payment in respect of any Note or Coupon:
 - (i) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Holder who is liable to such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges in respect of such Note or Coupon by reason of his having some connection with the Taxing Jurisdiction other than the mere holding of such Note or Coupon; or
 - (ii) presented for payment by a Holder who is able to avoid such withholding or deduction by making a declaration of non-residence or other similar claim for exemption; or
 - (iii) presented for payment more than 30 days after the Relevant Date, except to the extent that the relevant Holder would have been entitled to such additional amounts on presenting the same for payment on the expiry of such period of 30 days.
- (b) For the purposes of these Conditions, the "Relevant Date" means, in respect of any payment, the date on which such payment first becomes due and payable, but if the full amount of the moneys payable has not been received by the Trustee or the Principal Paying Agent on or prior to such due date, it means the first date on which the full amount of such moneys has been so received and notice to that effect shall have been duly given to the Holders of the Notes of the relevant Series in accordance with Condition 15.
- (c) Any reference in these Conditions to interest in respect of the Notes shall be deemed also to refer to any additional amounts which may be payable under this Condition 7.

8. Payments

(a) Method of Payment

Subject as provided below:

- (i) payments in a Specified Currency other than Euro or Renminbi will be made by credit or transfer to an account in the relevant Specified Currency (which, in the case of a payment in Japanese Yen to a non-resident of Japan, shall be a non-resident account maintained by the payee with, or, at the option of the payee, by a cheque in such Specified Currency drawn on, a bank in the principal financial centre of the country of such Specified Currency (which, if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars, shall be Sydney and Auckland, respectively);
- (ii) payments in Euro will be made by credit or transfer to a Euro account (or any other account to which Euro may be credited or transferred) specified by the payee or, at the option of the payee, by a Euro cheque; and
- (iii) payments in Renminbi will be made by transfer to a Renminbi account maintained by or on behalf of the payee with a bank in Hong Kong.

Payments will be subject in all cases to (a) any fiscal or other laws and regulations applicable thereto in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 7 and (b) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code (or any regulations thereunder or official interpretations thereof) or an intergovernmental agreement between the United States and another jurisdiction facilitating the implementation thereof (or any law implementing such an intergovernmental agreement). References to "Specified Currency" will include any successor currency under applicable law.

(b) Presentation of Definitive Bearer Notes and Coupons

Payments of principal in respect of Definitive Bearer Notes will (subject as provided below) be made in the manner provided in Condition 8(a) above against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due, endorsement) of Definitive Bearer Notes, and payments of interest in respect of Definitive Bearer Notes will (subject as provided below) be made as aforesaid only against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due, endorsement) of Coupons, in each case at the specified office of any Paying Agent outside the United States (which expression, as used herein, means the United States of America (including the States and the District of Columbia, its territories, its possessions and other areas subject to its jurisdiction)).

Except as provided below, all payments of interest and principal with respect to Bearer Notes will be made at such paying agencies outside the United States as the Issuer may appoint from time to time and to accounts outside the United States.

Fixed Rate Notes in definitive bearer form (other than Long Maturity Notes (as defined below)) should be presented for payment together with all unmatured Coupons appertaining thereto (which expression shall for this purpose include Coupons falling to be issued on exchange of matured Talons), failing which the amount of any missing unmatured Coupon (or, in the case of payment not being made in full, the same proportion of the amount of such missing unmatured Coupon as the sum so paid bears to the sum due) will be deducted from the sum due for payment. Each amount of principal so deducted will be paid in the manner mentioned above against surrender of the relative missing Coupon at any time before the expiry of 10 years after the Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 7) in respect of such principal (whether or not such Coupon would otherwise have become void under Condition 9) or, if later, five years from the date on which such Coupon would otherwise have become due, but in no event thereafter.

Upon any Fixed Rate Note in definitive bearer form becoming due and repayable prior to its Maturity Date, all unmatured Talons (if any) appertaining thereto will become void and no further Coupons will be issued in respect thereof.

Upon the date on which any Floating Rate Note, Reset Note or Long Maturity Note in definitive bearer form becomes due and repayable, unmatured Coupons and Talons (if any) relating thereto (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment or, as the case may be, exchange for further Coupons shall be made in respect thereof. A "Long Maturity Note" is a Fixed Rate Note (other than a Fixed Rate Note which on issue had a Talon attached) whose nominal amount on issue is less than the aggregate interest payable thereon provided that such Note shall cease to be a Long Maturity Note on the Interest Payment Date on which the aggregate amount of interest remaining to be paid after that date is less than the nominal amount of such Note.

If the due date for redemption of any Definitive Bearer Note is not an Interest Payment Date, interest (if any) accrued in respect of such Definitive Bearer Note from (and including) the preceding Interest Payment Date or, as the case may be, the Interest Commencement Date shall be payable only against surrender of the relevant Definitive Bearer Note.

On and after the Interest Payment Date on which the final Coupon comprised in any Coupon sheet matures, the Talon (if any) forming part of such Coupon sheet may be surrendered at the specified office of the Principal Paying Agent or any other Paying Agent in exchange for a further Coupon sheet including (if such further Coupon sheet does not include Coupons to (and including) the final date for the payment of interest due in respect of the Note to which it appertains) a further Talon, subject to the provisions of Condition 9.

(c) Payments in Respect of Bearer Notes in Global Form

Payments of principal and interest (if any) in respect of Notes represented by any bearer global Note will (subject as provided below) be made in the manner specified above in relation to Definitive Bearer Notes or otherwise in the manner specified in the relevant bearer global Note, where applicable, against presentation or surrender, as the case may be, of such bearer global Note at the specified office of any Paying Agent outside the United States. A record of each payment made, distinguishing between any payment of principal and any payment of interest, will be made on such bearer global Note either by the Paying Agent to which it was presented or in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable.

(d) Payments in Respect of Registered Notes

Payments of principal in respect of Registered Notes (whether in definitive or global form) will be made in the manner provided in Condition 8(a) above to the persons in whose name such Notes are registered at the close of business on the business day (being for this purpose a day on which banks are open for business in the city where the Registrar is located) immediately prior to the relevant payment date against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due only, endorsement) of such Notes at the specified office of the Registrar.

Payments of interest due on a Registered Note (whether in definitive or global form) will be made in the manner specified in Condition 8(a) to the person in whose name such Note is registered (i) where in global form, at the close of business on the business day (being for this purpose a day on which Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg are open for business) prior to such due date and (ii) where in definitive form, at the close of business on the fifteenth day (whether or not such fifteenth day is a business day (being for this purpose a day on which banks are open for business in the city where the specified office of the Registrar is located) (the "Record Date")) prior to such due date. In the case of payments by cheque, cheques will be mailed to the Holder (or the first named of joint Holders) at such Holder's registered address on the business day (as described above) immediately preceding the due date.

If payment in respect of any Registered Notes is required by credit or transfer as referred to in Condition 8(a) above, application for such payment must be made by the Holder to the Registrar not later than the relevant Record Date.

(e) General Provisions Applicable to Payments

The Holder of a global Note shall be the only person entitled to receive payments in respect of Notes represented by such global Note and the Issuer will be discharged by payment to, or to the order of, the Holder of such global Note in respect of each amount so paid. Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or DTC as the beneficial holder of a particular nominal amount of Notes represented by such global Note must look solely to Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or DTC, as the case may be, for his share of each payment so made by the Issuer to, or to the order of, the Holder of such global Note.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Condition, if any amount of principal and/or interest in respect of Bearer Notes is payable in U.S. dollars, such U.S. dollar payments of principal and/or interest in respect of such Bearer Notes will be made at the specified office of a Paying Agent in the United States if:

- (i) the Issuer has appointed Paying Agents with specified offices outside the United States with the reasonable expectation that such Paying Agents would be able to make payment in U.S. dollars at such specified offices outside the United States of the full amount of principal and interest on the Notes in the manner provided above when due;
- (ii) payment of the full amount of such principal and interest at all such specified offices outside the United States is illegal or effectively precluded by exchange controls or other similar restrictions on the full payment or receipt of principal and interest in U.S. dollars; and
- (iii) such payment is then permitted under United States law without involving, in the opinion of the Issuer, adverse tax consequences to the Issuer.

All amounts payable to DTC or its nominee as registered holder of a Registered Global Note in respect of Notes denominated in a Specified Currency other than U.S. dollars shall be paid by transfer by the Registrar (or the Principal Paying Agent acting on the Registrar's behalf) to an account in the relevant Specified Currency of the Exchange Agent on behalf of DTC or its nominee for conversion into and payment in U.S. dollars in accordance with the provisions of the Agency Agreement.

(f) Payment Day

If the date for payment of any amount in respect of any Note or Coupon is not a Payment Day, the Holder thereof shall not be entitled to payment until the next following Payment Day in the relevant place and shall not be entitled to further interest or other payment in respect of such delay. For these purposes, "Payment Day" means any day which (subject to Condition 9) is:

- (i) a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in:
 - (A) in the case of Notes in definitive form only, the relevant place of presentation;
 - (B) each Financial Centre (other than TARGET2 System) specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement; and
 - (C) if TARGET2 System is specified as a Financial Centre in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, a day on which the TARGET2 System is open; and
- (ii) either (I) in relation to any sum payable in a Specified Currency other than Euro or Renminbi, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the relevant Specified Currency (which, if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars, shall be Sydney and Auckland, respectively) or (II) in relation to any sum payable in Euro, a day on which the TARGET2 System is open or (III) in relation to any sum payable in Renminbi, a day (other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday) on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets in Hong Kong are generally open for business and settlement for Renminbi payments in Hong Kong.

(g) Interpretation of Principal and Interest

Any reference in the Conditions to principal in respect of the Notes shall be deemed to include, as applicable:

- (i) the Final Redemption Amount of the Notes;
- (ii) the Early Redemption Amount of the Notes;
- (iii) the Optional Redemption Amount(s) (if any) of the Notes;
- (iv) in relation to Zero Coupon Notes, the Amortised Face Amount (as defined in Condition 5(d)); and
- (v) any premium and any other amounts (other than interest) which may be payable by the Issuer under or in respect of the Notes.

Any reference in the Conditions to interest in respect of the Notes shall be deemed to include, as applicable, any additional amounts which may be payable with respect to interest under Condition 7 or under any undertaking or covenant given in addition thereto, or in substitution therefor, pursuant to the Trust Deed.

(h) Payments in respect of Swiss Domestic Notes

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Condition 8, payments of principal and interest in respect of Swiss Domestic Notes shall be made only (a) through the Principal Swiss Paying Agent and the Intermediary as long as the Swiss Domestic Notes constitute Intermediated Securities or (b) if the Swiss Domestic Notes are in the form of Definitive Bearer Notes, at the offices of any Swiss Paying Agent in Switzerland in freely disposable Swiss Francs without collection costs and whatever the circumstances may be, irrespective of nationality, domicile or residence of the Holder of Notes and without requiring any certification, affidavit or the fulfilment of any other formality. Payments on the Swiss Domestic Notes will also be made irrespective of any present or future transfer restrictions and regardless of any bilateral or multilateral payment or clearing agreement which may be applicable at any time to such payment.

The receipt in full by the Principal Swiss Paying Agent of the due and punctual payment of the funds in Swiss Francs in Zürich in the manner provided by these Conditions and in the applicable Pricing Supplement shall release the Issuer from its obligations under the Swiss Domestic Notes for the payment of principal and interest due on the respective payment dates to the extent of such payments, except to the extent that there is default in the subsequent payment thereof to the Holders of Notes or Coupons (as the case may be).

(i) Renminbi Account

All payments in respect of any Note or Coupon in Renminbi will be made solely by credit to a registered Renminbi account maintained by or on behalf of the payee at a bank in Hong Kong in accordance with applicable laws, rules, regulations and guidelines issued from time to time (including all applicable laws and regulations with respect to the settlement of Renminbi in Hong Kong).

(j) Renminbi Currency Event

If Renminbi Currency Events are specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, and a Renminbi Currency Event (as defined below) occurs, the Issuer, on giving not less than five nor more than thirty days' irrevocable notice in accordance with Condition 15 to the Holders and the Trustee prior to any due date for payment, shall be entitled to satisfy its obligations in respect of such payment (in whole or in part) by making such payment in U.S. dollars on the basis of the Spot Rate for the relevant Determination Date as promptly notified to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Paying Agents by the Calculation Agent.

In such event, any payment of U.S. dollars will be made by transfer to a U.S. dollar denominated account maintained by the payee with, or by a U.S. dollar denominated cheque drawn on, a bank in New York City; and the definition of "Payment Day" in Condition 8(f) shall mean any day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in: (A) in the case of Notes in definitive form only, the relevant place of presentation; and (B) London and New York City.

For the purpose of this Condition:

"Determination Business Day" means a day (other than a Saturday or Sunday) on which commercial banks are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange) in Hong Kong, London and New York City;

"Determination Date" means the day which is three Determination Business Days before the due date of the relevant payment under the Notes;

"Governmental Authority" means any de facto or de jure government (or any agency or instrumentality thereof), court, tribunal, administrative or other governmental authority or any other entity (private or public) charged with the regulation of the financial markets (including the central bank) of Hong Kong;

"Renminbi Currency Events" means any one of Renminbi Illiquidity, Renminbi Non-Transferability and Renminbi Inconvertibility;

"Renminbi Dealer" means an independent foreign exchange dealer of international repute active in the Renminbi exchange market in Hong Kong reasonably selected by the Issuer;

"Renminbi Illiquidity" means the general Renminbi exchange market in Hong Kong becomes illiquid as a result of which the Issuer cannot obtain sufficient Renminbi in order to satisfy its obligation to pay interest or principal (in whole or in part) in respect of the Notes, as determined by the Issuer acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner following consultation with two Renminbi Dealers;

"Renminbi Inconvertibility" means the occurrence of any event that makes it impossible for the Issuer to convert any amount due in respect of the Notes into Renminbi in the general Renminbi exchange market in Hong Kong, other than where such impossibility is due solely to the failure of the Issuer to comply with any law, rule or regulation enacted by any Governmental Authority (unless such law, rule or regulation is enacted after the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes and it is impossible for the Issuer, due to an event beyond its control, to comply with such law, rule or regulation);

"Renminbi Non-Transferability" means the occurrence of any event that makes it impossible for the Issuer to transfer Renminbi between accounts inside Hong Kong or from an account inside Hong Kong to an account outside Hong Kong (including where the Renminbi clearing and settlement system for participating banks in Hong Kong is disrupted or suspended), other than where such impossibility is due solely to the failure of the Issuer to comply with any law, rule or regulation enacted by any Governmental Authority (unless such law, rule or regulation is enacted after the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes and it is impossible for the Issuer, due to an event beyond its control, to comply with such law, rule or regulation); and

"Spot Rate" means the spot CNY/U.S. dollar exchange rate for the purchase of U.S. dollars with Renminbi in the over-the-counter Renminbi exchange market in Hong Kong for settlement in three Determination Business Days, as determined by the Calculation Agent at or around 11.00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Determination Date, on a deliverable basis by reference to Reuters Screen Page TRADCNY3, or if no such rate is available, on a non-deliverable basis by reference to Reuters Screen Page TRADNDF. If neither rate is available, the Calculation Agent shall (in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) determine the Spot Rate at or around 11:00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Determination Date as the most recently available CNY/U.S. dollar official fixing rate for settlement in three Determination Business Days reported by the State Administration of Foreign Exchange of the PRC, which is reported on the Reuters Screen Page CNY=SAEC. Reference to a page on the Reuters Screen means the display page so designated on the Reuters Monitor Money Rates Service (or any successor service) or such other page as may replace that page for the purpose of displaying a comparable currency exchange rate.

If for any reason at any relevant time the Calculation Agent defaults in its obligation to determine the Spot Rate, the Trustee shall determine (or, at the expense of the Issuer, appoint an expert to determine) the Spot Rate in such manner as, in its absolute discretion (having such regard as it shall think fit to the foregoing provisions of this Condition), it shall deem fair and reasonable in all the circumstances and such determination shall be deemed to have been made by the Calculation Agent.

All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the provisions of this Condition 8(j) by the Calculation Agent shall (in the absence of wilful default, bad faith, manifest error and proven error) be binding on the Issuer, the Principal Paying Agent, the other Paying Agents and all Holders of the Notes and (in the absence of wilful default and bad faith) no liability to the Issuer or the Holders shall attach to the Calculation Agent or the Trustee in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions pursuant to such provisions.

9. Prescription

- (a) The Notes (whether in bearer or registered form) and Coupons will become void unless claims in respect of principal and/or interest are made within a period of 10 years (in the case of principal) and five years (in the case of interest) after the Relevant Date therefor.
- (b) There shall not be included in any Coupon sheet issued on exchange of a Talon any Coupon the claim for payment in respect of which would be void pursuant to this Condition or Condition 8(b) or any Talon which would be void pursuant to Condition 8(b).

10. Agents

The initial Agents and their respective initial specified offices are specified below. If any additional Paying Agents are appointed in connection with any Series of Notes, the names of such Paying Agents will be specified in Part B of the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement. The Issuer (with the prior written approval of the Trustee (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld)) reserves the right at any time to vary or terminate the appointment of any Agent and to appoint additional or other Agents provided that (other than in the case of Swiss Domestic Notes):

- (a) there will at all times be a Paying Agent (in the case of Bearer Notes) in a jurisdiction within continental Europe;
- (b) so long as the Notes are listed on any stock exchange or admitted to trading by any other relevant authority, there will at all times be a Paying Agent, which may be the Principal Paying Agent, and a Registrar and a Transfer Agent (in the case of Registered Notes) with a specified office in such place as may be required by the rules and regulations of the relevant stock exchange or other relevant authority;
- (c) there will at all times be a Registrar (in the case of a Series of Registered Notes) which, if the Registrar originally appointed in respect of such Series had its specified office outside the United Kingdom, shall also have a specified office outside the United Kingdom; and
- (d) so long as any of the Registered Global Notes payable in a Specified Currency other than U.S. dollars are held through DTC or its nominee, there will at all times be an Exchange Agent.

In addition, the Issuer shall forthwith appoint a Paying Agent having a specified office in New York City in the circumstances described in Condition 8(e).

In the case of Swiss Domestic Notes, the Issuer will at all times maintain a Paying Agent having a specified office in Switzerland and will at no time appoint a Paying Agent having a specified office outside Switzerland.

The Agents reserve the right at any time to change their respective specified offices to some other specified office in the same city.

Notice of all changes in the identities or specified offices of the Agents, will be notified promptly to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Holders.

11. Replacement of Notes and Coupons

If any Note or Coupon is lost, stolen, mutilated, defaced or destroyed, it may be replaced at the specified office of the Principal Paying Agent (in the case of Bearer Notes) or of the Registrar (in the case of Registered Notes), subject to all applicable laws and the requirements of any stock exchange on which the Notes are listed, upon payment by the claimant of all expenses incurred in such replacement and upon such terms as to evidence, security, indemnity and otherwise as the Issuer and the Principal Paying Agent or, as the case may be, the Registrar may require. Mutilated or defaced Notes and Coupons must be surrendered before replacements will be delivered therefor.

12. Meetings of Holders, Modification and Waiver and Substitution

(a) Meetings of Holders

The Trust Deed contains provisions for convening meetings of Holders to consider any matter affecting their interests, including (without limitation) the modification of the Notes, the Coupons or of any provision of these Conditions or the Trust Deed. Any such modification may be made if sanctioned by an Extraordinary Resolution. Any Extraordinary Resolution (i) duly passed at any meeting of Holders or (ii) passed by way of electronic consents given by Holders through the relevant clearing system(s) will be binding on all Holders, whether or not they are present at any meeting and whether or not they had voted on the resolution.

Such a meeting may be convened by the Trustee, the Issuer or by the Trustee upon the request in writing of Holders holding not less than one-tenth of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes. The quorum at any meeting convened to vote on an Extraordinary Resolution will be one or more persons holding or representing not less than 50 per cent of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding or, at any adjourned meeting, one or more persons being or representing Holders whatever the aggregate principal amount of the Notes held or represented; Provided, however, that certain proposals (including any proposal to change any date fixed for payment of principal or interest in respect of the Notes, to reduce the amount of principal or interest payable on any date in respect of the Notes, to alter the method of calculating the amount of any payment in respect of the Notes or the date for any such payment, to change the currency of payments under the Notes or to change the quorum requirements relating to meetings or the majority required to pass an Extraordinary Resolution) may only be sanctioned by an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a meeting of Holders at which one or more persons holding or representing not less than 75 per cent or, at any adjourned meeting, one or more persons holding or representing not less than 50 per cent in principal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding form a quorum. Any Extraordinary Resolution duly passed at any such meeting shall be binding on all the Holders, whether present or not.

In addition, a resolution in writing signed by or on behalf of all Holders who for the time being are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Holders under the Trust Deed will take effect as if it were an Extraordinary Resolution. Such a resolution in writing may be contained in one document or several documents in the same form, each signed by or on behalf of one or more Holders.

(b) Modification and waiver

The Trustee may agree, without the consent of the Holders, to (i) any modification of any provision of the Trust Deed which is of a formal, minor or technical nature or is made to correct a manifest error or an error which is in the opinion of the Trustee proven and (ii) any other modification (except such modifications in respect of which an increased quorum is required, as mentioned in the Trust Deed) and any waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach, of any provision the Notes, of these Conditions or the Trust Deed or determine, without any such consent as aforesaid, that any Event of Default shall not be treated as such, where, in any such case, it is not, in the opinion of the Trustee materially prejudicial to the interests of the Holders. In addition, the Trustee shall be obliged to concur with the Issuer without the consent of the Holders in effecting (i) any Benchmark Amendments in the circumstances and as otherwise set out in Condition 4(d) and (ii) any substitution of a Series of Notes or variation of the terms of a Series of Notes and/or the terms of the Trust Deed in respect thereof in the circumstances and as otherwise set out in Condition 5(k). Any such modification, substitution, waiver, authorisation or determination shall be binding on the Holders and, if the Trustee so requires, such modification shall be notified to the Holders as soon as practicable.

In connection with the exercise by it of any of its trusts, powers, authorities and discretions (including, without limitation, any modification, waiver, authorisation or determination), the Trustee shall have regard to the general interests of the Holders as a class (but shall not have regard to any interests arising from circumstances particular to individual Holders whatever their number) and, in particular but without limitation, shall not have regard to the consequences of any such exercise for individual Holders (whatever their number) resulting from their being for any purpose domiciled or resident in, or otherwise connected with, or subject to the jurisdiction of, any particular territory or any political sub-division thereof and the Trustee shall not be entitled to require, nor shall any Holder be entitled to claim, from the Issuer, the Trustee or any other person any indemnification or payment in respect of any tax consequences of any such exercise upon individual Holders except to the extent already provided for in Condition 7 and/or any undertaking or covenant given in addition to, or in substitution for, Condition 7 pursuant to the Trust Deed.

(c) Substitution

The Trust Deed contains provisions permitting the Trustee to agree, subject to such amendments to the Trust Deed and such other conditions as the Trustee may require, without the consent of the Holders except as provided below, to the substitution of any other company in place of the Issuer, or of any previously substituted company as principal debtor under the Notes, Coupons and the Trust Deed provided always that the Trustee is satisfied that the interests of the Holders will not be materially prejudiced by the substitution, and certain other conditions set out in the Trust Deed are complied with. Any such substitution in relation to any Series of Notes is subject to the prior consent of the Relevant Regulator (if such consent is required (in the case of Subordinated Notes) by the Applicable Capital Adequacy Regulations or (in the case of Senior Preferred Notes and Senior Non-Preferred Notes) the Applicable MREL Regulations).

13. Enforcement

At any time after the Notes become due and payable (subject to Condition 6, as applicable), the Trustee may, at its discretion and without further notice, institute such proceedings against the Issuer as it may think fit to enforce the terms of the Trust Deed, the Notes and the Coupons, but it need not take any such proceedings unless (a) it shall have been so directed by an Extraordinary Resolution or so requested in writing by Holders holding at least one-quarter in principal amount of the Notes outstanding, and (b) it shall have been indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction. No Holder of Notes or Coupons may proceed directly against the Issuer unless the Trustee, having become bound so to proceed, fails to do so within a reasonable time and such failure is continuing. The Trustee shall not be obliged to make a declaration as referred to in Condition 6(i) unless indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction.

14. Indemnification of the Trustee

The Trust Deed contains provisions for the indemnification of the Trustee and for its relief from responsibility, including provisions relieving it from taking action unless indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction. The Trustee is entitled to enter into business transactions with the Issuer and any entity related to the Issuer without accounting for any profit.

15. Notices

To Holders of Bearer Notes

- (a) Notices to Holders of Bearer Notes (other than Swiss Domestic Notes) will be deemed to be validly given if published in a leading daily newspaper having general circulation in London (which is expected to be the Financial Times) or, if such publication is not practicable, if published in a leading English-language newspaper having general circulation in the United Kingdom approved by the Trustee or, in the case of Notes represented by a Temporary Global Note or a Permanent Global Note, if delivered to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg for communication by them to the persons shown in their respective records as having interests therein. Any notice so given will be deemed to have been validly given on the date of such publication (or, if published more than once, on the date of first such publication) or, as the case may be, on the fourth Business Day after the date of such delivery.

Notices to Holders of Swiss Domestic Notes will, save where another means of effective communication has been specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement, be deemed to be validly given (i) if published in a leading daily newspaper with national circulation in Switzerland (which is expected to be the Neue Zürcher Zeitung), (ii) in the case of Swiss Domestic Notes represented by a Swiss Global Note, if delivered to SIS for communication by it to the persons shown in its records as having interests therein or (iii) in the case of Swiss Domestic Notes listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange, if published in electronic form on the internet website of the SIX Swiss Exchange Ltd (www.six-swiss-exchange.com) under the section headed "Official Notices" or otherwise in accordance with the regulations of the SIX Swiss Exchange Ltd. Provided that, in the case of Swiss Domestic Notes listed on any other stock exchange or admitted to trading by another relevant authority and the rules of that stock exchange or relevant authority so require, such notice will be published in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the place or places required by those rules. Any notice so given will be deemed to have been validly given on the date of such publication (or, if published more than once, on the date of first such publication) or, as the case may be, on the fourth Business Day after the date of such delivery.

Holders of Coupons shall be deemed for all purposes to have notice of the contents of any notice to the Holders of Bearer Notes in accordance with this Condition.

To Holders of Registered Notes

- (b) In the case of any Registered Notes represented by a global Note, notices shall be deemed to be validly given if delivered to Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or DTC for communication by them to the persons shown in their respective records as having interests therein. Any notice so given will be deemed to have been validly given on the date of such delivery.

Notices to Holders of Registered Notes will be deemed to be validly given if sent by first class mail to them (or, in the case of joint Holders, to the first-named in the register kept by the Registrar) at their respective addresses as recorded in the register kept by the Registrar, and will be deemed to have been validly given on the fourth Business Day after the date of such mailing and, in addition, for so long as any Registered Notes are listed on a stock exchange or admitted to trading by another relevant authority and the rules of that stock exchange or relevant authority so require, such notice will be published in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the place or places required by those rules or by such other means as required by the relevant stock exchange or relevant authority.

To the Issuer

- (c) Notices to the Issuer will be deemed to be validly given if delivered to the Issuer at its official address registered with the Swedish Companies Office from time to time, for the attention of the Head of Group Treasury, and will be deemed to have been validly given at the opening of business on the next day on which the Issuer's principal office is open for business.

16. Further Issues

The Issuer may from time to time without the consent of the Holders of any Notes of any Series create and issue further notes, bonds or debentures having the same terms and conditions as the Notes of such Series in all respects (or in all respects except for the issue date, issue price, the first payment of interest, if any, on them and the date from which interest starts to accrue) and so that the same shall be consolidated and form a single series with the Notes of such Series.

17. Currency Indemnity

The currency in which the Notes are denominated or, if different, payable, as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement (the "Contractual Currency") is the sole currency of account and payment for all sums payable by the Issuer in respect of the Notes, including damages. Any amount received or recovered in a currency other than the Contractual Currency (whether as a result of, or of the enforcement of, a judgment or order of a court of any jurisdiction or otherwise) by any Holder of a Note or a Coupon in respect of any sum expressed to be due to it from the Issuer shall only constitute a discharge to the Issuer to the extent of the amount in the Contractual Currency which such Holder is able to purchase with the amount so received or recovered in that other currency on the date of that receipt or recovery (or, if it is not practicable to make that purchase on that date, on the first date on which it is practicable to do so). If that amount is less than the amount in the Contractual Currency expressed to be due to any Holder of a Note or a Coupon in respect of such Note or Coupon the Issuer shall indemnify such Holder against any loss sustained by such Holder as a result. In any event, the Issuer shall indemnify each such Holder against any cost of making such purchase which is reasonably incurred. These indemnities constitute a separate and independent obligation from the Issuer's other obligations, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by any Holder of a Note or a Coupon and shall continue in full force and effect despite any judgment, order, claim or proof for a liquidated amount in respect of any sum due in respect of the Notes or any judgment or order. Any such loss aforesaid shall be deemed to constitute a loss suffered by the relevant Holder of a Note or a Coupon and no proof or evidence of any actual loss will be required by the Issuer.

18. Governing Law, Jurisdiction and Swedish Statutory Loss Absorption Powers

- (a) Governing law: The Notes, the Agency Agreement and the Trust Deed, all matters arising from or connected with them and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection therewith are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, English law, except that the provisions in the Notes under Condition 3 and Clause 3 of the Trust Deed are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, Swedish law.
- (b) English courts: The Issuer agrees for the benefit of the Trustee and the Holders that the courts of England shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute (a "Dispute") arising from or connected with the Notes (including a Dispute relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection therewith).
- (c) Appropriate forum: The Issuer agrees that the courts referred to in Condition 18(b) are the most appropriate and convenient courts to settle any Dispute and, accordingly, that it will not argue that any other courts are more appropriate or convenient.
- (d) Rights of Holders to take proceedings outside England: Condition 18(b) is for the benefit of the Trustee and the Holders only. As a result, nothing in this Condition 18 prevents the Trustee or any Holder from taking proceedings relating to a Dispute ("Proceedings") (including any Proceedings relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Notes and the Trust Deed) in any other courts with jurisdiction. To the extent allowed by law, the Trustee and the Holders may take concurrent Proceedings in any number of jurisdictions.
- (e) Process agent: The Issuer agrees that the documents which start any Proceedings and any other documents required to be served in relation to those Proceedings may be served on it by being delivered in connection with any Proceedings in England to Business Sweden, The Swedish Trade & Invest Council at its office at 6th Floor, Winchester House, 5 Upper Montagu Street, London, W1H 2AG, United Kingdom. If such person is not or ceases to be effectively appointed to accept service of process on the Issuer's behalf, the Issuer shall, on the written demand of any Holder addressed to the Issuer and delivered to the Issuer or to the specified office of the Trustee, appoint a further person in England to accept service of process on its behalf and, failing such appointment within 15 days, any Holder shall be entitled to appoint such a person by written notice addressed to the Issuer and delivered to the Issuer or to the specified office of the Trustee. Nothing in this paragraph shall affect the right of any Holder to serve process in any other manner permitted by law. This Condition applies to Proceedings in England and to Proceedings elsewhere.
- (f) Acknowledgement of Swedish Statutory Loss Absorption Powers: Notwithstanding and to the exclusion of any other term of the Notes or any other agreements, arrangements or understanding between the Issuer and any Holder (which, for the purposes of this Condition 18(f), includes each holder of a beneficial interest in the Notes), by its acquisition of the Notes, each Holder acknowledges and accepts that any liability arising under the Notes may be subject to the exercise of Swedish Statutory Loss Absorption Powers by the Relevant Resolution Authority and acknowledges, accepts, consents to and agrees to be bound by:

- (i) the effect of the exercise of any Swedish Statutory Loss Absorption Powers by the Relevant Resolution Authority, which exercise (without limitation) may include and result in any of the following, or a combination thereof:
 - (I) the reduction of all, or a portion, of the Relevant Amounts in respect of the Notes;
 - (II) the conversion of all, or a portion, of the Relevant Amounts in respect of the Notes into shares, other securities or other obligations of the Issuer or another person, and the issue to or conferral on the Holder of such shares, securities or obligations, including by means of an amendment, modification or variation of the terms of the Notes;
 - (III) the cancellation of the Notes or the Relevant Amounts in respect of the Notes; and
 - (IV) the amendment of the amount of interest payable on the Notes, or the date on which interest becomes payable, including by suspending payment for a temporary period; and
- (ii) the variation of the terms of the Notes, as deemed necessary by the Relevant Resolution Authority, to give effect to the exercise of any Swedish Statutory Loss Absorption Powers by the Relevant Resolution Authority.

For the purposes of this Condition 18(f):

“Relevant Amounts” means the outstanding principal amount of the Notes, together with any accrued but unpaid interest and additional amounts (as described in Condition 7) due on the Notes. References to such amounts will include amounts that have become due and payable, but which have not been paid, prior to the exercise of any Swedish Statutory Loss Absorption Powers by the Relevant Resolution Authority;

“Relevant Resolution Authority” means the resolution authority with the ability to exercise any Swedish Statutory Loss Absorption Powers in relation to the Issuer; and

“Swedish Statutory Loss Absorption Powers” means any write-down, conversion, transfer, modification, suspension or similar or related power existing from time to time under, and exercised in compliance with, any laws, regulations, rules or requirements in effect in the Kingdom of Sweden, relating to (i) the transposition of the BRRD (including but not limited to the Resolution Act (Lagen (2015:1016 om resolution))) as amended or replaced from time to time and (ii) the instruments, rules and standards created thereunder, pursuant to which any obligation of the Issuer (or any affiliate of the Issuer) can be reduced, cancelled, modified, or converted into shares, other securities or other obligations of the Issuer or any other person (or suspended for a temporary period).

19. Third Parties

No person shall have any right to enforce any term or condition of this Note under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 but this does not affect any right or remedy of any person which exists or is available apart from that Act.

5 Use and Estimated Net Amounts of Proceeds

An amount equal to the net proceeds from each Tranche of Notes will, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, be applied/allocated by the Issuer as follows:

- (a) where “General Business Purposes” is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, for its general business purposes; or
- (b) where “Green Bonds” is specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, to a sub-portfolio with a special purpose to finance or refinance, in whole or in part, Eligible Green Assets located in Nordic and Baltic countries that provide clear environmental benefits and promote the transition to low-carbon, climate resilient and sustainable economies and that fulfil the Eligibility Criteria set out in the Issuer’s Green Bond Framework (from time to time).

The estimated net amount of proceeds of each Tranche of Notes will be stated in the applicable Final Terms.

According to the definition criteria set out by the ICMA Green Bond Principles, only Tranches of Notes financing or refinancing Eligible Green Assets will be classified as “Green Bonds”.

For any “Green Bond” to be issued, Eligible Green Assets at least amounting to the intended issuance size must have been identified.

The Issuer will, on an annual basis, publish an impact report. The report will include details on the environmental impacts of the Eligible Green Assets at a portfolio level and will be published until the maturity of the relevant Notes and made available on the Issuer’s website.

For the purposes of this section:

“Eligibility Criteria” means the criteria prepared by the Issuer as set out in the Issuer’s Green Bond Framework (from time to time) available on the Issuer’s website (www.swedbank.com/investor-relations/debt-investor/green-bonds). An independent external auditor will review the Eligible Green Asset allocation and will be requested to provide limited assurance on the allocation of proceeds conformity to the Issuer’s Green Bond Framework (from time to time). This report will be made available on the same section of the Issuer’s website.

“Eligible Green Assets” are loans and investments within the Eligible Green Asset categories set out in the Issuer’s Green Bond Framework (from time to time). Such Eligible Green Asset categories include those which relate to: renewable energy; energy efficiency; sustainable management of living natural resources; pollution prevention and control; and clean transportation.

6 Form of Notes; Summary of Provisions Relating to the Notes while in Global Form

Notes may, subject to all applicable legal and regulatory requirements, be issued in bearer form ("Bearer Notes") or in registered form ("Registered Notes"), as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement.

6.1 Form of Registered Notes

In the case of Registered Notes, the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement may specify that the Notes will be issued in global form ("Registered Global Notes") held in specified clearing systems, as described below, or in definitive form ("Registered Definitive Notes").

6.1.1 Form of Registered Global Notes

If Notes are to be issued in the form of Registered Global Notes, the Issuer will deliver an Unrestricted Registered Global Note (as defined below) and/or a Restricted Registered Global Note (as defined below) as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement.

6.1.2 Unrestricted and Restricted Registered Global Notes

Registered Notes offered and sold to non-U.S. persons in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act ("Regulation S") may be represented by a Registered Global Note, without interest coupons (an "Unrestricted Registered Global Note") and Registered Notes offered and sold within the United States in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act ("Rule 144A"), may be represented by a Registered Global Note, without interest coupons (a "Restricted Registered Global Note").

The Unrestricted Registered Global Note will be deposited on or about the issue date for the relevant Tranche with Citibank, N.A., London Branch, as common depositary or a common safekeeper, as the case may be, for, and registered in the name of Citivic Nominees Limited as nominee for Euroclear Bank SA/ NV ("Euroclear") and Clearstream Banking S.A. ("Clearstream, Luxembourg") or in the name of a nominee of the common safekeeper. A beneficial interest in the Unrestricted Registered Global Note may at all times be held only through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. The Restricted Registered Global Note will be deposited on or about the issue date for the relevant Tranche with the Registrar as custodian (the "Custodian") for, and registered in the name of Cede & Co. as nominee for, DTC. In the circumstances described below under "Exchange and Transfer of Registered Global Notes for Registered Definitive Notes", interests in any Unrestricted Registered Global Note will be exchangeable for unrestricted Registered Definitive Notes ("Unrestricted Registered Definitive Notes") and interests in any Restricted Registered Global Note will be exchangeable for restricted Registered Definitive Notes ("Restricted Registered Definitive Notes"). Restricted Registered Global Notes (and any Restricted Registered Definitive Notes issued in exchange therefor) will be subject to certain restrictions on transfer contained in a legend appearing on the face of such Note set forth under "Notice to Purchasers of Restricted Notes and Transfer Restrictions".

Each Unrestricted Registered Global Note will have an ISIN number and each Restricted Registered Global Note will have a CUSIP number.

6.1.3 Exchange of Interests in Unrestricted and Restricted Registered Global Notes; Transfers within and between DTC, Clearstream, Luxembourg and Euroclear

On or prior to the 40th day after the later of the commencement of the offering of the relevant Tranche and the issue date for that Tranche, a beneficial interest in the relevant Unrestricted Registered Global Note may be transferred to a person who wishes to take delivery of such beneficial interest through the relevant Restricted Registered Global Note only upon receipt by the Registrar (as defined in the Agency Agreement) of a written certification from the transferor (in the applicable form provided in the Agency Agreement) to the effect of such transfer is being made to a person whom the transferor reasonably believes is a qualified institutional buyer within the meaning of Rule 144A, in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of the states of the United States and any other applicable jurisdiction. After such 40th day, such certification requirements will no longer apply to such transfers, but such transfers will continue to be subject to the transfer restrictions contained in the legend appearing on the face of such Restricted Registered Global Note, as set out under "Notice to Purchasers of Restricted Notes and Transfer Restrictions".

Beneficial interests in a Restricted Registered Global Note may be transferred to a person who wishes to take delivery of such beneficial interest through the relevant Unrestricted Registered Global Note, only upon receipt by the Registrar of a written certification from the transferor (in the applicable form provided in the Agency Agreement) to the effect that such transfer is being made in accordance with Rule 903 or Rule 904 of Regulation S or Rule 144 under the Securities Act (if available).

Any beneficial interest in either the Restricted Registered Global Note or the Unrestricted Registered Global Note relating to any Series that is transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of a beneficial interest in the other Registered Global Note relating to such Series will, upon transfer, cease to be a beneficial interest in such Registered Global Note and become a beneficial interest in the other Registered Global Note and, accordingly, will thereafter be subject to all transfer restrictions and other procedures applicable to a beneficial interest in such other Registered Global Note for as long as it remains such an interest.

6.1.4 Owner of Registered Global Notes and Payments

Subject to certain provisions of the Trust Deed relating to directions, sanctions and consents of Holders of Registered Notes and to meetings of Holders, so long as DTC or its nominee or Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or the nominee of their common depository or the nominee of the common safekeeper, as the case may be, is the registered owner or Holder of a Registered Global Note, DTC, Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or such nominee, as the case may be, will be considered the sole owner or Holder of the Notes represented by such Registered Global Note for all purposes under the Trust Deed and the Notes. Payments of principal, interest and additional amounts, if any, pursuant to Condition 8, if any, on Registered Global Notes will be made to DTC, Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or such nominee, as the case may be, as the registered Holder thereof. None of the Issuer, the Registrar, any Transfer Agent and any Paying Agent or any affiliate of any of the above will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in Registered Global Notes or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such beneficial ownership interests.

6.1.5 Exchange and Transfer of Registered Global Notes for Registered Definitive Notes

Beneficial interests in a Restricted Registered Global Note will be exchangeable for Restricted Registered Definitive Notes; (i) if DTC notifies the Issuer that it is no longer willing or able to discharge properly its responsibilities as depository with respect to the relevant Restricted

Registered Global Note or ceases to be a "clearing agency" registered under the Exchange Act, or is at any time no longer eligible to act as such, and the Issuer is unable to locate a qualified successor within 90 days of receiving notice of such ineligibility on the part of such depository; or (ii) if the Issuer, at its option, elects to terminate the book-entry system through DTC; or (iii) if an Event of Default as set out in Condition 6 occurs and is continuing; or (iv) if so specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, if the Holder of the relevant Restricted Registered Global Note requests that such interest be exchanged for Restricted Registered Definitive Notes in the relevant form; or (v) at the option of the Issuer, if the Issuer, any Paying Agent or the Registrar, by reason of any change in, or amendment to, Swedish law, is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment under the Notes which would not be required if such Notes were in definitive form.

Beneficial interests in an Unrestricted Registered Global Note will be exchangeable, in whole but not in part, for Unrestricted Registered Definitive Notes: (i) if Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business; or (ii) if an Event of Default as set out in Condition 6 occurs and is continuing; or (iii) if so specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, if the Holder of the relevant Unrestricted Registered Global Note requests that such interest be exchanged for Unrestricted Registered Definitive Notes in the relevant form; or (iv) at the option of the Issuer, if the Issuer, any Paying Agent or the Registrar, by reason of any change in, or amendment to, Swedish law, is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment under the Notes which would not be required if such Notes were in definitive form.

In such circumstances, (a) the Registrar will be required to notify all Holders of interests in the relevant Registered Global Notes registered in the name of DTC or its nominee or Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or the nominee of their common depository or the nominee of the common safekeeper, as the case may be, of the availability of Restricted or Unrestricted Registered Definitive Notes, as the case may be, and (b) the Issuer will, at the cost of the Issuer, cause sufficient Unrestricted Registered Definitive Notes and/or Restricted Registered Definitive Notes, as the case may be, to be executed and delivered to the Registrar for completion, authentication and dispatch to the relevant Holders. A person having an interest in the relevant Registered Global Note must provide the Registrar with:

- (i) a written order containing instructions and such other information as the Issuer and the Registrar may require to complete, execute and deliver the relevant Registered Definitive Note; and
- (ii) in the case of a Restricted Registered Global Note only, a fully completed, signed certification substantially to the effect that the exchanging Holder is not transferring its interest at the time of such exchange or, in the case of simultaneous sale pursuant to Rule 144A, a certification that the transfer is being made in compliance with the provisions of Rule 144A. Restricted Registered Definitive Notes issued in exchange for a beneficial interest in a Restricted Registered Global Note will bear the legend applicable to transfers pursuant to Rule 144A (as set out under "Notice to Purchasers of Restricted Notes and Transfer Restrictions").

Notes in one form (bearer or registered) will not be exchangeable for Notes in the other.

The Holder of a Registered Note may transfer such Registered Note in accordance with the provisions of Condition 2 of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes. The Holder of a Registered Definitive Note may transfer such Note by surrendering it at the specified office of the Registrar or any Transfer Agent, together with the completed form of transfer thereon. Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Restricted Registered Definitive Notes issued in exchange for beneficial interests in a Restricted Registered Global Note bearing the legend referred to under "Notice to Purchasers of Restricted Notes and Transfer Restrictions", or upon specific request for removal of the legend on a Restricted Registered Definitive Note, the Registrar will only deliver Restricted Registered Definitive Notes that bear such legend, or will refuse to remove such legend, as the case may be, unless there is delivered to the Issuer and the Registrar an opinion, reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer, of counsel experienced in giving opinions with respect to questions arising under the securities laws of the United States to that effect neither such legend nor the restriction on transfer set forth therein are required to ensure compliance with the provisions of such laws.

The Registrar will not register the transfer of or exchange of interests in a Registered Global Note for Registered Definitive Notes for a period of 15 calendar days preceding the due date for any payment in respect of the Notes.

6.2 Form of Bearer Notes (other than Swiss Domestic Notes)

Each Tranche of Bearer Notes (other than Swiss Domestic Notes) with a maturity of more than one year will be issued in accordance with U.S. Treasury regulation 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (or any successor U.S. Treasury regulation section including, without limitation, regulations issued in accordance with U.S. Internal Revenue Service Notice 2012-20 or otherwise in connection with the U.S. Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010) ("TEFRA D") and will be represented upon issue by a temporary global Note in bearer form without interest coupons or talons (a "Temporary Global Note") which will:

- (i) if the Temporary Global Note is intended to be issued in New Global Note ("NGN") form, as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common safekeeper for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg; and
- (ii) if the Temporary Global Note is not intended to be issued in NGN form, be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common depositary (the "Common Depositary") for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Interests in a Temporary Global Note will be exchangeable either for Bearer Notes in definitive form ("Definitive Bearer Notes") or for interests in a permanent global Note in bearer form without interest coupons or talons (a "Permanent Global Note"), on or after the date (the "Exchange Date") which is 40 days after the date on which such Temporary Global Note is issued and upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership thereof or otherwise as required by U.S. Treasury regulations, in accordance with the terms of such Temporary Global Note and as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement.

Any Permanent Global Note will be exchangeable, in whole but not in part, for Definitive Bearer Notes either (a) upon not less than 45 days' written notice (expiring at least 30 days after the Exchange Date) from the bearer to the Principal Paying Agent as described therein or (b) upon not less than 45 days' written notice (expiring at least 30 days after the Exchange Date) from the bearer to the Principal Paying Agent only upon the occurrence of an Exchange Event as described therein. "Exchange Event" means, unless otherwise specified in the Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, (i) either of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other clearing system by which the Notes have been accepted for clearing is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention to cease business permanently, (ii) an Event of Default as set out in Condition 6 occurs and is continuing or (iii) at the option of the Issuer if the Issuer or any Paying Agent, by reason of any change in, or amendment to, Swedish law, is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment under the Notes which would not be required if such Notes were in definitive form.

In respect of Notes represented by a global Note issued in NGN form, the nominal amount of such Notes shall be the aggregate amount from time to time entered in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg. The records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg shall be conclusive evidence of the nominal amount of such Notes and a statement issued by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg shall be conclusive evidence of the records of such parties at that time.

6.2.1 Payments in respect of Bearer Notes (other than Swiss Domestic Notes)

All payments, if any, in respect of the Definitive Bearer Notes will be made against presentation and surrender or, in respect of a Temporary Global Note or Permanent Global Note, presentation of the relevant Temporary Global Note or Permanent Global Note, as the case may be, (if such Notes are not intended to be issued in NGN form) at the specified office of any Paying Agent outside the United States. A record of each payment so made in respect of Notes when represented by a Permanent Global Note will be made by (i) in the case of Notes not intended to be issued in NGN form, endorsement on the relevant schedule to such Permanent Global Note by or on behalf of the relevant Paying Agent, which endorsement will be prima facie evidence that such payment has been made or (ii) in the case of Notes issued in NGN form, the relevant Paying Agent instructing Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg to make appropriate entries in their records to reflect such payment.

If any date on which a payment of interest is due on the Notes of a Series issued in accordance with TEFRA D occurs while any of the Notes of that Series are represented by a Temporary Global Note, the relevant interest payment will be made on such Temporary Global Note (against presentation of the Temporary Global Note if the Temporary Global Note is not intended to be issued in NGN form) only to the extent that certification has been received by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg as to the non-U.S. beneficial ownership thereof, as required by U.S. Treasury regulations, in accordance with the terms of such Temporary Global Note.

6.3 Form of Bearer Notes which are Swiss Domestic Notes

Each Tranche of Swiss Domestic Notes with a maturity of more than one year will be issued in accordance with TEFRA D (in accordance with usual Swiss practice) and will be represented by a permanent global Note (the "Swiss Global Note") which will be deposited with SIX SIS Ltd, the Swiss Securities Services Corporation located in Olten, Switzerland ("SIS") or, as the case may be, with any other intermediary in Switzerland recognised for such purposes by SIX Swiss Exchange Ltd (SIS or any such other intermediary, the "Intermediary"), until final redemption or the printing of Definitive Bearer Notes.

Once the Swiss Global Note is deposited with the Intermediary and entered into the accounts of one or more participants of the Intermediary, the Notes will constitute intermediated securities (Bucheffekten) ("Intermediated Securities") in accordance with the provisions of the Swiss Federal Intermediated Securities Act (Bucheffektengesetz).

Each Holder (as such term shall be construed in accordance with the following paragraph) of Swiss Domestic Notes shall have a quotal co-ownership interest (Miteigentumsanteil) in the Swiss Global Note to the extent of his claim against the Issuer, provided that for so long as the Swiss Global Note remains deposited with the Intermediary the co-ownership interest shall be suspended and the Swiss Domestic Notes may only be transferred or otherwise disposed of by the entry of the transferred Swiss Domestic Notes in a securities account of the transferee.

The records of the Intermediary will determine the number of Swiss Domestic Notes held through each participant in that Intermediary. In respect of the Swiss Domestic Notes held in the form of Intermediated Securities, the holders of the Swiss Domestic Notes will be the persons holding the Swiss Domestic Notes in a securities account in their own name and for their own account or in case of intermediaries (Verwahrungsstellen), the intermediaries (Verwahrungsstellen) holding the Swiss Domestic Notes for their own account in a securities account (Effektenkonto) which is in their name. The term "Holder" as used herein shall, in relation to any such Swiss Domestic Notes held in the form of Intermediated Securities, be construed accordingly.

Holders of Swiss Domestic Notes do not have the right to request the printing and delivery of Definitive Bearer Notes. Interests in a Swiss Global Note will be exchangeable, in whole but not in part, for Definitive Bearer Notes if the Principal Swiss Paying Agent (i) determines that the printing and delivery of Definitive Bearer Notes is required by Swiss or other applicable laws and regulations in connection with the enforcement of rights or (ii) deems the printing and delivery of Definitive Bearer Notes to be useful or desirable for any other reason. Should the Principal Swiss Paying Agent so determine, it shall provide for the printing of Definitive Bearer Notes without cost to the Holders. Upon delivery of the Definitive Bearer Notes, the Swiss Global Note will be cancelled and the Definitive Bearer Notes shall be delivered to the Holders against cancellation of the Swiss Domestic Notes in the Holders' securities accounts.

6.3.1 Payments in respect of Bearer Notes which are Swiss Domestic Notes

Payments of principal and interest in respect of Swiss Domestic Notes shall be made only (a) through the Principal Swiss Paying Agent and the Intermediary as long as the Swiss Domestic Notes constitute Intermediated Securities or (b) if the Swiss Domestic Notes are in the form of Definitive Bearer Notes, at the offices of any Swiss Paying Agent in Switzerland without requiring any certification, affidavit or the fulfilment of any other formality.

6.4 Issuer-ICSDs Agreement

The Issuer has entered or will enter into an agreement with Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (together, the "ICSDs") in respect of any Bearer Notes (other than Swiss Domestic Notes) issued in NGN form or any Registered Notes intended to be held under the new safekeeping structure ("NSS") that the Issuer may request be made eligible for settlement with the ICSDs (the "Issuer-ICSDs Agreement"). The Issuer-ICSDs Agreement provides that the ICSDs will, in respect of any such Notes, inter alia, maintain records of their respective portion of the issue outstanding amount and will, upon the Issuer's request, produce a statement for the Issuer's use showing the total nominal amount of its customer holdings of such Notes as of a specified date.

9 Swedbank

9.1 Overview

Swedbank is a public limited liability bank company (Sw: Bankaktiebolag) incorporated under the laws of the Kingdom of Sweden and headquartered in Stockholm. It has its registered office at SE 105 34 Stockholm, with its head office at Landsvägen 40, 172 63 Sundbyberg and its telephone number is +46 (0)8 5859 0000. It has been registered in the Swedish Companies Registration Office in Sundsvall under registration number 502017-7753. Swedbank's shares are listed on NASDAQ OMX Stockholm. Swedbank was incorporated on April 24, 1942.

As of 31 December 2019, the Group served a total of 7.3 million private customers and 550,000 corporate customers and organisations through approximately 270 branches in 11 countries, primarily in its principal markets of Sweden, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania. This includes customers reached through 58 associated independent savings banks that collaborate with Swedbank. The terms of such collaboration are governed by a common framework agreement which is agreed with the national association of savings banks, Sparbankernas Riksförbund, with each savings bank signing up to this agreement individually. During 2019, 18 branches were closed in Sweden, mainly due to changing customer behaviour where customers chose to interact with the Group digitally instead of visiting branch offices.

As set out in Article 1 of its Articles of Association, the purpose of the Group is to conduct a banking business and financing operations, and operations naturally connected therewith. The Group offers a broad range of products and services, including retail banking, corporate and investment banking, asset management and insurance products, and the majority of the Group's income in 2019 derived from its Swedish banking services. As of 31 December 2019, the Group's loans to the public, excluding the SNDO and repurchase agreements, amounted to SEK 1,606 billion. The Group recorded SEK 25,976 million in profit before impairments for the year ended 31 December 2019 and SEK 27,387 million in profit before impairments for the year ended 31 December 2018. Credit impairments for the year ended 31 December 2019 amounted to SEK 1,469 million. The Group recorded impairment of intangible assets by SEK 79 million for the year ended 31 December 2019. Net profit attributable to the shareholders of Swedbank for the year ended 31 December 2019 amounted to SEK 19,697 million and SEK 21,162 million for the year ended 31 December 2018. As of 31 December 2019, the Group had 15,218 full-time employees.

The Group has a history dating back to 1820 when the first savings bank was founded in Sweden. In the early 1990s, each of Sparbanken Sverige and Föreningsbanken was merged with a number of regional savings banks and regional agricultural co-operative banks, respectively. In 1997, Sparbanken Sverige and Föreningsbanken merged to form FöreningsSparbanken. FöreningsSparbanken changed its name to Swedbank in 2006. Swedbank expanded its operations into the Baltic countries (Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania) in 1996 when it acquired a 12.5 per cent stake in Eesti Hoiupank, a bank that merged with Hansabank in 1998. In 1999, Swedbank acquired additional shares, resulting in a 50 per cent ownership of the shares in Hansabank and, in 2005, acquired all outstanding shares in Hansabank (now Swedbank AS). The Group consists of four business segments: Swedish Banking, Baltic Banking, LC&I and Group Functions & Other.

9.3 Strategy

Swedbank's core strategy is to provide customers value and to build sustainable value. By being a stable profitable bank with low risk, Swedbank is able to build relationships that meet its customers' long-term needs. The aim of its strategy is to create sustainable value for its customers, society, its shareholders and its employees. Swedbank has chosen to create long-term customer and shareholder value. This goal reflects Swedbank's purpose, values and vision.

9.3.1 Available Full-Service Bank

Swedbank offers households, institutions, and businesses, both large and small, an accessible full-service bank in its four home markets: Sweden, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania. Swedbank offers its customers a range of banking services, everything from basic transactions to sophisticated advisory services and provides customers with a large, modern distribution network, making it easy for a broad base of customers to manage their finances. Swedbank provides efficient digital solutions for day-to-day financial needs and comprehensive advice through direct contact with Swedbank employees.

9.3.2 Offerings based on customer needs

Products which reflect customer needs and expectations are crucial to Swedbank's success. Digitisation increases opportunities to meet each customer's specific needs with the right offering. Swedbank creates better targeted offerings by analysing customer data and using each advisor's experiences and knowledge.

9.3.3 Low Risk

The foundation for Swedbank's sustainable growth is a low risk profile. Swedbank's lending is financed through deposits and capital market funding. Current low financing costs are the result of stable profitability in combination with high-quality lending and solid capitalisation. This is a prerequisite for winning the trust of the capital markets and benefits all of Swedbank's stakeholders. Maintaining stable earnings over time requires not only a low credit risk level, where each borrower's solvency, solidity and collateral are carefully assessed, but also the ability to quickly adapt to market conditions and changing customer preferences.

9.3.4 High Cost Efficiency

Cost efficiency is of growing importance due to changes in the banking market and Swedbank aims to be a market leader in cost efficiency. Understanding Swedbank's customers' needs and the impact of tied-up capital helps Swedbank to better manage capital efficiency. Swedbank also strives to do things better, more simply, and more efficiently. Another important factor in increasing cost efficiency is a corporate culture where all employees are aware of and cautious about spending. The more cost-effective Swedbank is, the more value it believes it can create for customers through greater investment opportunities.

9.4 Business Segments

The Group is comprised of four business segments.

9.4.1 Swedish Banking

Swedish Banking is the Group's largest business segment, offering a complete range of financial products and services to private customers as well as small and medium-sized companies through 168 branches as well as through telephone and internet banking. Through co-operation with local associated independent savings banks and partly-owned banks, the Group also offers its products through 197 additional branches, as of 31 December 2019. Swedish Banking is supported by a number of subsidiaries in Sweden such as Swedbank Mortgage (responsible for long-term mortgage lending) and Swedbank Robur (fund management and institutional and discretionary asset management).

Mikael Björknert was appointed Head of Swedish Banking in 2019. Swedbank made major organisational changes to create simpler and clearer decision-making structures and facilitate the realisation of the bank's strategy. As part of this change, most of the Customer Value Management unit, which among other things supports the Group with customer data analysis as a basis for designing offers, became part of the Swedish Banking business area as of January 2020.

9.4.2 Baltic Banking

Baltic Banking offers a broad range of financial products and banking services, including mortgages, business and consumer loans, savings and current accounts, life insurance and leasing in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania through 99 branches as of 31 December 2019 as well as through telephone and internet banking.

The Group holds leading positions in several key market segments in its Baltic home markets.²¹ Jon Lidefelt was appointed the acting head of Baltic Banking after the departure of Charlotte Elsnitz in 2019. The Group is currently recruiting for a permanent replacement.

Luxembourg, China, the United States and South Africa. Loans to the public in LC&I represented 14 per cent of the Group's total loans to the public outstanding as of 31 December 2019.

9.4.4 Group Functions & Other

Group Functions & Other consists of centralised business support units and the product areas, Group Savings and Group Lending & Payments. The central units provide strategic and administrative support, comprising Accounting & Finance, Communication, Risk, IT, Compliance, Public Affairs, Human Resources and Legal. Group Treasury sets the prices on all internal deposit and loan flows in the Group through internal interest rates, the most important parameters of which are maturity, interest fixing period, currency and the need for liquidity reserves.

9.5 Products and Services

9.5.1 Mortgage Lending Products

The products offered primarily consist of loans secured by mortgages over underlying residential, agricultural and forest properties. Consumer real estate loans include fixed and variable rate loans for home purchase and refinancing needs.

Both Swedbank and Swedbank Mortgage originate mortgages. Swedbank Mortgage is responsible for the origination of standard mortgage loans with up to an 85 per cent LTV ratio, whereas Swedbank is responsible for originating other loans including uncollateralised loans. The volume-weighted average LTV ratio in Swedbank Mortgage's private residential loan portfolio was 55 per cent as of 31 December 2019, calculated on a property level (which gives effect to multiple mortgage loans on a given property). To benefit customers by offering a broad range of home buying services and reducing costs, while creating the opportunity to acquire profitable new businesses in this segment, the Group creates economies of scale by co-operating with a number of partners including Swedbank's subsidiary, Swedbank Fastighetsbyrå, various home builders and other construction companies.

Swedbank Mortgage's products primarily consist of loans secured by Swedish residential, agricultural and forest properties.

Swedbank Mortgage lends exclusively in Sweden and primarily provides long-term loans secured by first ranking mortgages on existing properties. More than half of Swedbank Mortgage's mortgage loan portfolio consists of loans to owners of single-family homes. It also grants loans for tenant-owner rights, multi-family housing, tenant-owner associations, municipalities, commercial properties and to the agriculture and forestry sector.

Loans for single-family homes are primarily secured by first ranking mortgages and have interest rates fixed for between 60 days and 10 years. Swedbank Mortgage's loans are either interest-only loans or amortised over 10-60 years. Swedbank Mortgage's lending to single-family housing is limited to 85 per cent of the market value of the property. Loans may be granted to applicants who have a prior ranking mortgage over their property with another lender, provided that the aggregated amount and ranking of the prior ranking mortgage and the Group's own exposure under its mortgage is not higher than 85 per cent of the value of the mortgaged property..

9.5.2 Corporate Banking Products

The Group offers a full range of corporate banking products and services for small and medium-sized business clients and large and multinational corporate customers, including financing, cash management, leasing products, investment and risk-management services. In addition, the Group offers mortgage lending and lending to the agricultural and forestry industries through Swedbank Mortgage.

The products offered include corporate loans as well as credit facilities adapted to meet the customers' needs. Real estate loans are primarily aimed at public and private developers, home builders and commercial real estate companies.

9.5.4 Consumer Lending Products

The Group offers a range of personal loans, both secured and unsecured, to its retail customers. These can be made for specific purposes, such as vehicle loans, or as general purpose personal loans.

9.5.5 Savings and Investment Products

The Group offers a comprehensive range of deposit-related products, including traditional savings accounts and current accounts tailored to different customer segments. Through asset management and insurance, the Group offers its customers a comprehensive range of investment products, including equity funds, fixed income funds, insurance products and individual pension savings products.

9.5.6 Payment Services

The Group offers a broad range of payment products, including debit, transaction services and card infrastructure. In retail transactions, the Group emphasises convenience and time saving by making automatic payment options available to the Group's customers through direct debit or other electronic channels, such as e-bills or mobile and card payments. For corporate cash management, the focus is on offering clients a packaged, integrated solution. To meet the increased competition and the shift in customer preferences from brick-and-mortar to e-commerce, the Group has developed a new full-service offer, Swedbank Pay, which brings together products and services from Swedbank and PayEx under a single brand in the Nordic market. Through Swedbank Pay, the Group helps companies both large and small to conveniently accept payment from their customers, through credit cards, e-commerce or in stores.

9.6 Legal Proceedings

In February 2019, the television program "Uppdrag granskning," broadcast by the Swedish public broadcaster Sveriges Television, alleged that customers who may have been involved in money laundering transferred significant sums of money through the Group's Baltic subsidiaries. The Group is currently conducting a broad investigation in relation to these allegations. In addition, authorities in Sweden, the Baltics and the United States are conducting investigations regarding the Group's historical compliance with applicable anti-money laundering and sanctions laws and regulations.

The SFSA and the EFSA conducted separate but close investigations into money laundering allegations at the Group, as well as related issues involving the Group's anti-money laundering controls, procedures and governance.

9.6.1 SFSA Investigation

The SFSA investigation into Swedbank AB's governance of anti-money laundering measures in the Baltic operations launched in April 2019 and included the period 2015 to the first quarter of 2019. The SFSA investigation into Swedbank AB's compliance with Swedish legislation regarding anti money laundering and terrorism financing was initiated in November 2018 and covered the period April to November 2018, focusing on business risk assessment, risk classification of customers, policies and instructions, know-your-customer files, transaction monitoring and reporting of suspicious activities to external investigative bodies. The investigation was limited to traditional high risk customer categories such as politically exposed persons and private-banking customers. The Group replied to the SFSA's requests for comment on preliminary observations and conclusions, concurring with many of their observations and conclusions. On 19 March 2020, the SFSA announced that in relation to Swedbank's Swedish operations, Swedbank has deficiencies in its risk classification of customers and its transaction monitoring and concluded that Swedbank has not met the anti-money laundering requirements in its Swedish operations. The SFSA also announced that Swedbank had large deficiencies in its governance of the risk of money laundering in its Baltic operations, finding its processes, routines and control systems insufficient; and noted that the Baltic subsidiaries lacked adequate resources to combat money laundering. The SFSA stated that despite internal and external reports warning about deficiencies in the Baltic operations and the risk of money laundering, Swedbank did not take proper and sufficient action. In addition, the SFSA noted that in their opinion, in some instances, Swedbank withheld documentation and information and in one case, in March 2019, Swedbank provided the SFSA with false information. As a result of the investigation, the SFSA issued Swedbank a warning and an administrative fine of SEK 4 billion. Swedbank has announced that it accepts the decision of the SFSA and will not dispute it. Swedbank charged the administrative fine as an expense in the first quarter of 2020.

9.6.2 EFSA Investigation

The EFSA's investigation was conducted from April to mid-November 2019 and assessed the set-up of the anti-money laundering organisation of Swedbank's Estonian subsidiary, the activities of management and staff in combatting money laundering and terrorist financing, the identification, analysis, management and mitigation of risks and the application of due diligence measures during the establishment of business relationships and the provision of services. The Group replied to the EFSA's requests for comment on preliminary observations and conclusions, concurring with many of their observations and conclusions. On 19 March 2020, the EFSA announced that the Estonian subsidiary had severe deficiencies in its anti-money laundering risk control systems and that the bank failed to meet anti-money laundering requirements, noting examples of where the subsidiary withheld information during the investigation. The EFSA issued a precept that obliges Swedbank's Estonian subsidiary to take comprehensive measures to properly understand and mitigate past and current risks. In addition, the Estonian subsidiary must review and amend its organisational framework to more effectively manage risks, change its practices in understanding client activities and must review practices for reporting suspicious transactions to the appropriate external investigative body and operational risk to EFSA. If the Estonian subsidiary fails to comply with the requirements in the precept, fails to apply to the extent, or within the time prescribed, the EFSA has the right to require the Estonian subsidiary to pay an initial fine of up to EUR 32,000 per day for the first instance of an individual breach of the requirements and a fine of up to EUR 100,000 a day for each subsequent identical or similar breach, up to a maximum of 10 per cent of the total net annual turnover of the Estonian subsidiary for the year, including gross income which consists of commissions and fees and interest and other similar income. The Estonian state prosecutor's office launched a parallel criminal investigation into the Estonian subsidiary to determine whether money laundering or other criminal acts occurred but has not disclosed a timeframe as to when it expects to announce a decision. As in many other countries, double jeopardy is not permitted in Estonia, and therefore the EFSA terminated its own misdemeanour investigation into the Estonian subsidiary in November 2019 to allow the prosecutor to continue with its criminal investigation. If the Estonian Prosecutor's Office finds evidence of money laundering or other criminal acts, it could charge individuals or Swedbank's Estonian subsidiary with criminal liability, which could include imprisonment for convicted individuals or a fine of up to EUR 16 million per conviction. Swedbank does not have any information as to whether the Estonian subsidiary will be treated as a suspect in this case.

9.6.3 Other investigations

In March 2019, the Swedish Economic Crime Authority ("EBM") also launched an investigation into whether any crimes were committed in connection with the disclosure of information. EBM conducted a search and seizure of the Group's premises to determine whether any crimes were committed. To date, the Group is unaware of allegations against any individuals. The Group does not know when the EBM's investigation will be completed, though the EBM clarified in April 2019 that it is not proceeding with allegations against any individuals regarding alleged money laundering during the period of 2006-2012.

The European Central Bank ("ECB") also initiated an investigation of the Group's operation in the Baltic countries. The ECB completed their investigation and the Group is implementing a number of remedies regarding governance, including control of subsidiaries.

In addition to the investigations regarding anti-money laundering controls, the Group is currently under investigation by U.S. authorities, including as to whether any crime or fraud was committed in connection with Swedbank's disclosure of information regarding anti-money laundering compliance and related issues. The Group does not currently know when the investigations may be concluded, or whether any sanctions or penalties may be imposed.

Based on findings as a result of the Clifford Chance LLP investigation, discussed below, the Group notified OFAC on 11 March 2020 of 586 transactions amounting to approximately USD 4.8 million which constitute potential OFAC violations. 95 per cent of the transactions were processed by the Group in the 2015 – 2016 period. Of the 586 transactions, 508 transactions constitute salary payments and payments associated with the operation of a vessel whose owner and operator are located in Crimea and used Swedbank in the Baltics. The Clifford Chance investigation included all USD denominated transactions from the three Baltic subsidiaries in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, processed through the U.S. financial system during the period 22 March 2014 through 22 March 2019.

9.6.4 Clifford Chance Investigation

In February 2019, the Group hired an external law firm, Clifford Chance LLP, to lead an internal investigation to confirm facts and circumstances linked to historical shortcomings in Swedbank's anti-money laundering systems and controls from January 2007 through March 2019. The investigation included, among other things, a review of Swedbank and its global network of branches, as well as relevant wholly-owned subsidiaries. The investigation also covered customers, transactions and how the Group handled internal and external information disclosures. In total, over 30 billion transactions made between 2007 and March 2019 were included in the investigation, of which 15 billion were from Baltic Banking. The investigation also included an assessment of potential non-compliance by the Baltic subsidiaries or their customers with OFAC sanctions.

The investigation was presented to the Board and parts of the Group's management on 21 March 2020 and released to the public on 23 March 2020. The broad investigation included billions of transaction records, approximately 160 million customer records and over 38 terabytes of electronic and scanned hard copy data. Clifford Chance also conducted nearly 100 interviews of 81 individuals, including current and former employees, managers and senior executives, current and former Board members and external counsel. Steps were taken to ensure compliance with applicable privacy, bank secrecy, employment and other relevant legal regimes.

The investigation also included an assessment of potential sanctions breaches in the Baltic subsidiaries, including approximately 26.6 million transaction messages and 1.8 million USD-denominated payments during a five-year period from 22 March 2014 through 22 March 2019. Of these transactions, the investigation identified 582 transactions (totalling approximately USD 4.76 million), processed by the Baltic subsidiaries that may not have complied with OFAC blocking sanctions or country embargos. None of the 582 transactions involved any OFAC-listed persons, and nearly all of them occurred prior to 2017, when the Baltic subsidiaries implemented an automated payment screening solution.

Governance

The investigation did not conclude that Swedbank engaged in money laundering or processed customer transactions that constituted the proceeds of crime. Among other things, this would require definitive knowledge of a customer's source of funds, which was not available. However, the investigation revealed that the Group, throughout the period from January 2007 to March 2019, and to varying degrees across LC&I, Swedish Banking and Baltic Banking had inadequate systems and controls to ensure proper management of anti-money laundering and economic sanctions risks from its customer base, thus exposing Swedbank and the Baltic subsidiaries to significant anti-money laundering and sanctions risk. The risk was most prevalent in the Baltic subsidiaries, primarily in Estonia from its HRNR business. From before 2007 until 2016, Swedbank's subsidiaries in Estonia and Latvia actively pursued high risk customers as a business strategy. For example, despite a special committee in the Estonian subsidiary to review customer on-boarding and maintenance of HRNR customers, the committee approved high risk customers without having complete documentation regarding the ultimate beneficial owners, proof of funding sources or explanation of legitimate business purposes and did not address red flags that arose from the information provided. Some corporate customers had complex and opaque ownership structures involving off-shore entities organized in low tax jurisdictions, as well as ownership through foreign trusts and similar vehicles for which the ultimate beneficial owners were difficult to verify. The Estonian subsidiary also accepted certain customers despite awareness amongst employees, including relationship managers, that the listed beneficial owners were not the actual ultimate beneficial owners, or where the prospective customer refused to provide verifiable beneficial ownership information. In addition, the deficiencies in the Group's anti-money laundering systems and controls were not limited to the Baltic Banking, as certain of these high-risk customers in Baltic Banking were allowed to open accounts in the Group's other business areas in Sweden, Swedish Banking and LC&I. These customers have since been offboarded. Overall, the investigation showed that during the period 2014 to 2019, the Baltic subsidiaries conducted transactions (approximately EUR 17.8 billion in payments to customer accounts; approximately EUR 18.9 billion in payments from customer accounts) that represented a high risk for money laundering.

Accountability

Although Swedbank has attempted to enhance its compliance control and risk management systems in the Baltic subsidiaries since 2016, the investigation found that these efforts were impeded by a number of governance failings. For example, Swedbank's senior management historically failed to establish clear lines of anti-money laundering responsibilities, particularly as between the business (first line of defence) and the Group's compliance function (second line of defence), or to ensure that the Group's compliance function could successfully challenge the decisions of the business. In addition, Swedbank's former CEOs appeared to lack adequate appreciation for the severe risk posed to the Group by the HRNR business in Baltic Banking. In particular, Swedbank failed to adopt a Group-level anti-money laundering risk appetite statement until 2017 and did not take steps to ensure a consistent approach to risk rating customers across business lines. In addition, the investigation found that because Swedbank's senior management failed to appreciate the degree of legal and reputational risk to Swedbank, management did not always engage with the Board in a manner consistent with the importance of these issues. The investigation did not find evidence that either the Board, Risk and Capital Committee or the Audit Committee were adequately informed of the degree of legal and reputational risk posed by these deficiencies arising from the high-risk customer base that the Baltic subsidiaries had serviced historically. Nevertheless, several Group internal audit reports (from 2015 through early 2017) to the Board and the Audit Committee gave the Board notice of the prospect of regulatory sanctions or elevated reputation risk arising from identified deficiencies in the Baltic subsidiaries with respect to weak sanctions screening data, insufficient KYC processes and transaction monitoring and defects in the payments screening process. Notwithstanding these warnings, the Board did not take action to manage anti-money laundering risk in the Baltics commensurate with the degree of legal and reputational risk presented. The investigation found little evidence of any substantive discussion of these issues at the respective Board or Audit Committee meetings. Therefore, while the Board was not adequately apprised by management of the full extent of the risk posed by the anti-money laundering deficiencies in the Baltics, the Board also did not act adequately to manage and control the risk of money laundering (of which it was made aware).

Interactions with Regulators

The investigation also noted that in certain instances, Swedbank's responses to regulators regarding anti-money laundering-related topics were not always actively transparent, including de-emphasizing negative information or employing a narrow or literal reading of certain requests. In considering accountability, the investigation concluded that the three former CEOs who served during the relevant investigation period, the Board and certain employees (including senior managers to relationship managers) all contributed to Swedbank's failure to recognise and manage the significant legal and reputational risk to Swedbank posed by its HRNR portfolio in the Baltic subsidiaries.

Public Disclosures

The investigation also considered the completeness and accuracy of Swedbank's public disclosures concerning anti-money laundering compliance and related issues. Specifically, Clifford Chance reviewed public statements made by Swedbank and its executives from January 2014 through March 2019, including for example, interim and annual reports issued by Swedbank and associated materials, other statements and presentations in communications with investors, analysts, and the financial community, corporate debt offering documents and media appearances and publications. When considered in light of the facts developed in the investigation, certain statements made during October 2018 and February 2019 by Swedbank and its executives concerning Swedbank's historical anti-money laundering compliance, then current anti-money laundering compliance, and exposure to certain types of anti-money laundering risk, were inaccurate or presented without sufficient context.

Remediation

In response to these concerns, the Group has created a new Special Task Force. This unit is led by former Head of Group Treasury Tomas Hedberg, who in his new role reports directly to the CEO. Since the Clifford Chance investigation began in early 2019, the Group has taken a number of actions to remedy shortcomings and ensure a sustainable corporate governance in Swedbank. The Group is implementing an action program which as of 31 December 2019, consisted of 152 initiatives, of which 67 were implemented. Swedbank has appointed a new CEO and a mostly new management team, including a new Chief Compliance Officer (“CCO”) and CEO of the Estonian subsidiary, and has taken other employment actions dictated largely by the historical shortcomings. Moreover, Swedbank has a new Board chair, and the Board is now comprised of mostly new members.

Under this new leadership team, Swedbank has focused on transforming its approach to anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing and sanctions policies and procedures, creating new roles, appointing new personnel, increasing resources, revising and strengthening policies and procedures and taking steps to continue the process of de-risking its customer portfolio including in the Baltic subsidiaries.

As part of these ongoing de-risking and remediation efforts, and with input from Clifford Chance, Swedbank and its Baltic subsidiaries have (a) embarked on a much more comprehensive approach and remediation plan to address and to strengthen the anti-money laundering/counter-terrorist financing and sanctions frameworks; (b) undertaken a review of Swedbank’s corporate governance; (c) engaged external consultants to assist in remediation efforts; (d) increased anti-money laundering/counter-terrorist financing resources; and (e) continued to off-board customers who do not meet Swedbank’s risk appetite.

In addition, Swedbank is planning to engage an external consultant to assess the current state of Swedbank’s anti-money laundering/counter-terrorist financing policies, procedures, systems and controls, including their implementation. The consultant will identify any existing gaps against regulatory requirements and industry best practices, help Swedbank address those gaps and conduct assessments to ensure that gaps have been fixed.

As of 23 March 2020 and as a result of external investigations conducted by the SFSA, EFSA and the Group’s internal investigation into allegations of anti-money laundering and potential sanctions breaches, the Board has decided to unilaterally cancel severance payments to the former CEO (which was planned to start 29 March 2020).

9.6.5 Auditor Recommendations

The Group’s independent auditor, PricewaterhouseCoopers AB (“PwC”), also audited administration of the Group’s Board of Directors and the Managing Directors. Based on their findings and factoring that the various investigations were not complete, PwC recommended that the shareholders not discharge the former CEO from liability. Similarly, due to potential financial consequences such as fines, withdrawn licenses, restrictions on currency trading and other sanctions, PwC considered the extent to which any deficiencies in regulatory compliance may have affected the financial statements of the annual report. This included accounting and disclosure regarding reserves and contingent liabilities.

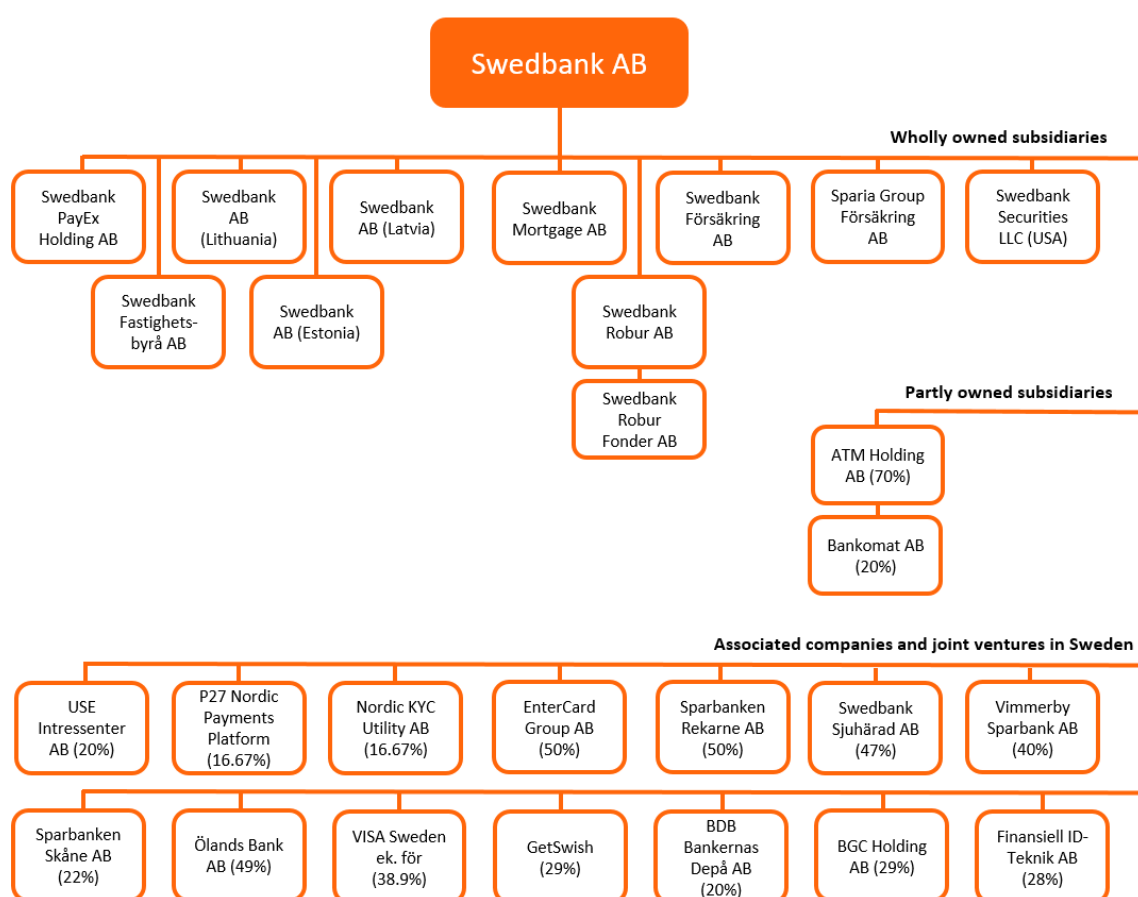

Swedbank has not allocated any provisions for fines or penalties. Current accounting rules provide that the Group is able to determine with a high probability the size of any fines or penalties before a provision can be allocated, and this has not been possible to date.

9.7 Key Geographic Markets and Competition

The Group currently operates in four geographic home markets: Sweden, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania. The Group faces a variety of competition in these markets. In addition to traditional competition from Nordic and Baltic banks, fintech and other new market entrants are increasingly attempting to gain market recognition. As Nordic banks and niche players strengthen their positions within segments, the banking market has become increasingly consolidated.

To support business in these markets, the Group has established branches in neighbouring markets such as Finland, Norway and Denmark, as well as in major markets of financial importance such as in the United States (where the Group has both a branch and a subsidiary) and China (where the Group has a branch). The Group is represented in Spain, Luxembourg and South Africa.

Below is a chart showing Swedbank's corporate structure as of the date of this Base Prospectus.

9.7.1 Sweden

The banking sector is fairly concentrated in the Group's home market of Sweden. In 2019, the Group, Svenska Handelsbanken, Nordea and SEB accounted for approximately 60 to 75 per cent of deposits and lending (adjusted for Stabelo, Svensk Hypotekspension and Hypoteket), according to Statistics Sweden. These major banks offer a wide range of financial products and services and compete in all key product segments. In Sweden, the Group is the largest retail bank and has a leading market position in private mortgage lending (24 per cent) and deposits from private customers (19 per cent) as of 31 December 2019.²² The Group believes that consumers have been more willing to change banks in recent years due to pricing and a sense of stability. During the past year, the major banks have become more competitive, thus regaining market share from smaller players.

9.7.2 Estonia

The Estonian banking sector is even more concentrated than Sweden's. The market is dominated by foreign banks. In Estonia, the Group had a market share of 50 per cent for private deposits and 44 per cent for private lending as of 31 December 2019. In the Estonian corporate market, the Group's market share was 38 per cent for lending and 45 per cent for deposits as of 31 December 2019.²³

9.7.3 Latvia

Latvia has a more fragmented market where local banks account for 30 to 70 per cent of the various segments. As of 31 September 2019, the Group had a market share of 32 per cent of private deposits and 34 per cent of private lending. In the corporate market, the market share was 24 per cent for deposits as of 31 September 2019.²⁴

9.7.4 Lithuania

Like Sweden, the banking market in Lithuania is dominated by a few major players. As of 31 September 2019, the Group had a market share of 43 per cent of private deposits and 38 per cent of private lending. In the corporate market, the Group's share was 20 per cent for lending and 26 per cent for deposits as of 31 September 2019.²⁵

In 2019, the economic conditions in the Baltic countries continued to improve. The Baltic economies, especially in Estonia and Lithuania, proved to be rather resilient to adverse global economic developments.

9.8 Information Technology

9.8.1 Overview – Digital Banking & IT

Swedbank operates a federated information technology ("IT") delivery model. Application development and maintenance is distributed into individual Business Areas and Group Functions, whereas responsibility for core infrastructure and operation IT services as well as governance functions is located in the Digital Banking & IT unit. Merging IT infrastructure and operation with Digital Banking, which was effective as of 1 January 2020, will bring together expertise in the development of digital services, customer experience and infrastructure. Swedbank IT serves the Group in Sweden and the Baltic countries. In addition, Swedbank IT provides IT services to those associated independent savings banks in Sweden co-operating with the Group and which offer mortgage loans funded by Swedbank Mortgage. The main data centres are located in Sweden and Estonia and contain sufficient back-up storage.

Customers can satisfy most of their routine banking requirements through alternate channels such as ATMs, debit cards, telephone banking, the internet and mobile devices. The Group's digital bank services have approximately 5 million digitally active customers. Through information and a differentiated pricing model, the Group intends to make it easier for customers to select the most effective way to communicate with Swedbank for a variety of matters, as evidenced, for example, by a number of new digital functions launched by Swedbank in recent years, which make everyday banking easier for customers.

10 Risk Management

Swedbank defines risk as a potentially negative impact on the value of the Group that may arise from current internal processes or from internal or external future events. The concept of risk combines the probability of an event occurring with the impact such event would have on profit and loss, equity and value of the Group.

Risk arises in all financial operations, hence a deep understanding and solid management of risk is central for any successful business.

The Board of Directors has adopted an Enterprise Risk Management (“ERM”) policy depicting the risk framework, risk management process and the roles and responsibilities for risk management. Swedbank continuously identifies the risks generated in its operations and has designed processes to manage them.

10.1 The Group’s Risk Management Builds on Three Lines of Defence

Successful risk management requires a strong risk culture and a common approach. Swedbank has built its approach to risk management on the concept of three lines of defence, signifying a clear division of responsibilities between the risk owners and control functions, i.e. Group Risk, Swedbank Compliance and Internal Audit.

10.2 Three levels of risk management

10.2.1 First Line of Defence – Risk Management by Business Operations

The first line of defence refers to all risk management activities carried out by the business areas, product areas and group functions. First line management take risks and are responsible for continuous and active risk management. Management owns the risk within their respective area of responsibility and are responsible for ensuring there are appropriate processes and internal control structures in place that aim to ensure that risks are identified, analysed, measured, monitored, reported and kept within limits and the Group's risk appetite. First line responsibilities also include establishing relevant governance and internal controls to secure that activities are in compliance with external and internal requirements.

10.2.2 Second Line of Defence – Risk and Control Functions

The second line of defence consists of the risk control function (Group Risk) and the compliance function (Swedbank Compliance). These groups are organisationally independent from the first line of defence and are not involved in the operational activities of the business or the unit they monitor and control. The second line's control functions are responsible for independent control as well as independent reporting of Swedbank's risks. This second line of defence develops and maintains principles and frameworks for risk management, conducts independent validation of methods and models for risk measurement and control and challenges and validates the first line's risk management activities.

10.2.3 Third Line of Defence – Internal Audit

The third line of defence consists of Internal Audit, which is wholly independent. Internal Audit performs review and advisory functions, tasked with evaluating and improving operations within Swedbank. This third line is responsible for the independent evaluation and review of the first and second line of defense.

The internal audit function is directly subordinate to the Board of Directors of Swedbank and is organisationally separated from Swedbank's other activities.

11.1 Board of Directors

The Swedbank Board of Directors (the “Board”) has overall responsibility for managing the Group’s affairs in the interest of both Swedbank and the shareholders. The majority of members elected at the AGM are independent in relation to Swedbank and the Group Executive Committee and independent in relation to Swedbank’s major shareholders. Some or all of the members of the Group Executive Committee are customers of Swedbank and accordingly have ordinary customer relationships with Swedbank.

11.3 Auditor

In accordance with its Articles of Association, Swedbank shall have no less than one or more than two authorised public accountants (the "Auditor"). The Auditor is appointed by the AGM after being nominated by the Nomination Committee. Auditing duties are normally for four years, although a decision may be made to replace the Auditor before the conclusion of the four-year period. At the 2017 AGM, Svante Forsberg was replaced by Patrick Honeth as the chief Auditor, in accordance with the standard rotation policy. Due to auditor rotation requirements, Deloitte AB, the auditor until 2019, could not be re-appointed. At the 2019 AGM (on 28 March 2019), PwC Sverige AB was elected as auditor for the period ending at the 2023 AGM. Anneli Granqvist, a member of FAR (the institute for the accountancy profession in Sweden), was appointed Chief Auditor. In 2019, the Chief Auditor presented her review and comments to the Board three times and regularly met with the Chair of the Board, the Chair of the Audit Committee, executive management and other operating managers. The Group's interim reports are reviewed by its Auditor.

11.4 Corporate Governance

Swedbank's corporate governance policies are designed to create a sound and effective corporate culture that fosters trust as well as customer and shareholder value. To be successful, Swedbank's governance requires that its employees are familiar with, and work together to achieve, its common goals. For this purpose, the Group's Board of Directors prepares a corporate governance report in accordance with the SCCG.

During 2018, Swedbank launched a review of its corporate governance, policies and operational processes from the standpoint of climate change. The bank has also begun identifying risks and opportunities based on various scenarios and how these scenario analyses feed into the business plans ratified by the Board.

Swedbank considers good corporate governance, risk management and internal control to be key elements for a successful business. They are prerequisites for maintaining the trust of customers, shareholders, governmental or regulatory authorities and other stakeholders.

Swedbank defines corporate governance as the relationship between shareholders, executive management, employees, the Group and other stakeholders.

Swedbank's governance model and operational structure are designed to ensure that all employees work towards Swedbank's common goals that support its purpose: achieving sound and sustainable financial situations for households and businesses.

11.5 Annual General Meeting

The AGM is the Group's highest decision-making body, where the shareholders exercise their rights. The AGM is normally held before the end of April or, under special circumstances, not later than June 30. The 2020 AGM is scheduled to be held on 28 May 2020.

12 Certain Regulatory Considerations

Banks and other companies in the financial sector are subject to extensive regulation in Sweden and elsewhere. This section briefly describes certain of the regulations governing Swedbank relating to capital adequacy and liquidity, MREL and the Resolution Act. The information herein is current as of the date of this Prospectus. Many regulations are presently undergoing substantial changes, or have recently undergone such changes with resulting lack of foreseeability as to how they will be applied by the authorities. Some of these changes are referred to in the section titled “Risk Factors”.

12.1 Capital adequacy and liquidity

The Swedish capital adequacy framework is based on CRR and the EU Capital Requirements Directive (“CRD”), which implement in the EEA the framework for capital and liquidity requirements intended to reinforce capital standards and to establish minimum liquidity standards for credit institutions (the so called “Basel III” framework) published by the Basel Committee in 2010. In addition, on 13 January 2011, the Basel Committee published minimum requirements for regulatory capital to ensure loss absorbency at the point of non-viability.

Following the Basel III guidelines, on 20 July 2011, the European Commission published corresponding proposed changes at the EU level to replace the amended Capital Requirement Directive with two legislative instruments: a Regulation establishing prudential requirements institutions are required to respect and a Directive (through an amendment of Directive 2002/87/EC) governing the access to deposit-taking activities. The Fourth Capital Requirements Directive 2013/36/EU (“CRD IV”) legislative package was published in the Official Journal of the European Union on 27 June 2013. CRD IV was required to be implemented by the EU member states so as to apply from 1 January 2014 and the CRR applied directly in the EU member states from 1 January 2014, in each case, with certain exceptions. Beginning 1 January 2014, the Swedish capital adequacy framework is based on CRR and CRD IV. As from 1 January 2014 CRR became Swedish law, while CRD IV was implemented in Sweden in 2014 through amendments to Swedish legislation and SFSA regulations. CRR and CRD IV are complemented by a set of technical standards developed by the EBA and adopted by the European Commission.

CRR and CRD IV introduced significant changes in the prudential regulatory regime applicable to banks, including: increased minimum capital ratios; changes to the definition of capital and the calculation of REA; and the introduction of new measures relating to leverage, liquidity and funding. CRR and CRD IV allowed a transitional period for certain of the enhanced capital requirements and certain other measures. The Swedish authorities decided however that the higher capital requirements resulting from the implementation of CRR and CRD IV would be implemented without any phasing-in period, with the only exception that capital instruments not fully compliant with CRR may be included in the total capital during a limited grandfathering period. Starting in 2014, Swedish banks have been required to report the leverage ratio to the regulator, and a formal disclosure requirement was introduced in the first quarter of 2015.

The SFSA has imposed capital requirements beyond the minimum level of 7 per cent Common Equity Tier 1 (“CET 1”) capital (including the mandatory capital conservation buffer of 2.5 per cent) on Swedish banks, in accordance with the EU rules. In early September 2014, the SFSA decided which capital requirements would apply to Swedish banks beyond the minimum level of 7 per cent Common Equity Tier 1 capital (including the mandatory capital conservation buffer of 2.5 per cent) in accordance with the EU rules. Since 1 January 2015, the four major Swedish banks, including Swedbank, have been required to maintain a systemic risk buffer of 3 per cent in Common Equity Tier 1 capital within the framework of Pillar 1 and a further 2 per cent within the framework of Pillar 2. The countercyclical buffer rate for Swedish exposures was set to 1.0

per cent from 13 September 2015, was increased to 1.5 per cent from 27 June 2016 and was increased further to 2.0 per cent beginning 19 March 2017. As of September 2019, the countercyclical buffer was increased to 2.5 per cent. On 13 March 2020, however, the SFSA announced that it would lower the countercyclical buffer to 0 per cent stating that this was a pre-emptive measure to avoid a credit crunch due to the ongoing COVID-19 outbreak.

In January 2016, the SFSA reiterated that it does not intend to make formal decisions on the capital requirement for individual institutions in Pillar 2. As long as a formal decision has not been made, the capital requirement under Pillar 2 does not affect the level at which automatic restrictions on dividend and coupon payments on certain subordinated securities take effect (due to a breach of the combined buffer requirements).

Supervisory authorities in Sweden and at the European level have made note of the major differences among the average risk weights institutions use to calculate their credit risk exposure under the banks' internal rating-based ("IRB") approach (a basis for calculating capital requirements for credit risk) especially as regards mortgage lending within the retail exposure class. In May 2013, the SFSA announced its decision to introduce a risk-weight floor of 15 per cent for the Swedish mortgage portfolio, which was then increased to 25 per cent in September 2014. The risk-weight floor was introduced as part of the SFSA's overall capital assessment under the supervisory measures in Pillar 2. As of the end of 2018, the Swedish mortgage floor has been replaced with the requirement within the framework of Article 458 of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms and amending CRR to include the risk weight floor for Swedish mortgages in Pillar 1. This has not changed Swedbank's capital requirement materially in nominal monetary terms but has affected Swedbank's capital ratios and capital requirements expressed as a percentage of REA. At present, Swedbank has sufficient CET 1 capital to meet its capital requirements. However, no assurances can be made that Swedbank will continue to hold this level of CET 1 capital.

In November 2018, the SFSA published a memorandum explaining that Swedish banks using an IRB approach to calculate their credit risk must analyse their risk classification systems to be compliant with amended guidelines produced by the European Banking Authority (the "EBA"). On 9 July 2019 the SFSA confirmed that the EBA will delay the deadline for full compliance with the updated requirement to the end of 2021. Compliance with the updated requirements on the definition of default is still required by the end of 2020. As a result of the new guidelines, Swedbank may be required to hold more capital.

In January 2020, the SFSA finalised a proposal to introduce increased capital requirements for commercial real-estate bank loans in the third quarter of 2020. The capital requirement will consist of a charge in Pillar 2 that represents the difference between the bank's average risk weights for commercial properties and the risk weights that the SFSA has set out. The average risk weight will be 35 per cent for commercial real-estate and 25 per cent for residential real-estate. According to the SFSA, Swedbank's total capital requirement will increase by 0.7 percentage points and Common Equity Tier 1 capital by 0.5 percentage points.

The leverage ratio is a new non-risk-adjusted solvency requirement introduced in Basel III. It is described as a backstop to the risk-based capital measures. It is intended to limit the leverage effects in the balance sheet of volumes that are overly large in relation to the Group's own capital and to provide an extra layer of protection against model risk and measurement error. Under CRR, banks have been required to calculate and report their leverage ratio to regulators since 1 January 2014 and to disclose extensive information about the ratio publicly since 1 January 2015.

The Basel III guidelines also include liquidity standards which comprise a Liquidity Coverage Ratio ("LCR") and a Net Stable Funding Ratio ("NSFR"). The LCR requires banks to hold a reserve of liquid assets sufficient to withstand a 30-day period of liquidity stress. The NSFR rules set minimum requirements for matching the maturities of a bank's funding to the maturity of its assets.

The CRR contains provisions regarding the components of LCR and is complemented with Delegated Regulation 2015/61. As of January 2018, the European regulatory minimum requirement for the LCR on an aggregated level is set to 100 per cent. Per previously communicated Pillar 2 requirements, the SFSA also requires banks to comply with LCR in EUR and USD at least at 100 per cent. As of 1 October 2019, the SFSA introduced a minimum requirement in LCR SEK of 75 per cent, as well as limited the allowed amount of covered bonds issued by Swedish issuers as a share of the total liquid assets to 50 per cent, aimed at limiting potential concentration risks. Swedbank calculates and monitors the LCR on a daily basis. The CRR also contains provisions on the NSFR, which will be a binding requirement as of 28 June 2021. Swedbank regularly calculates, monitors, manages and publishes the NSFR and is well prepared for the implementation.

Under the SFSA regulation on Management of Liquidity Risk in Credit Institutions and Securities Companies, credit institutions and securities companies must have proper procedures for identifying, measuring and controlling liquidity risk and must also keep a liquidity reserve adapted to the size and the needs of the company.

European legislation also focuses on liquidity and funding risks in addition to the introduction of the LCR and the NSFR. There are separate reporting requirements on asset encumbrance, funding plans and additional liquidity monitoring metrics to further strengthen the information provided to supervisors. Furthermore, the Internal Liquidity Adequacy Assessment Process is submitted to regulators as an additional report on systemic and institution specific risks related to liquidity and funding.

Amendments to regulations

On 27 June 2019, a series of measures referred to as the Banking Reform Package came into force, subject to various transitional and staged timetables. The adoption of the Banking Reform Package concludes a process that began in November 2016 and is a step toward the completion of the European post-crisis regulatory reforms, drawing on a number of international standards.

The Banking Reform Package updates the framework of harmonized rules established after the financial crisis and introduces changes to CRR, CRD IV, the BRRD 2014/59/EU and the Single Resolution Mechanism Regulation (EU) No 806/2014 ("SRMR").

The new amendments cover multiple areas, including the Pillar 2 framework, a binding leverage ratio minimum requirement of 3 per cent., restrictions to the maximum distributable amount ("MDA") if the minimum requirement is breached, a binding net stable funding ratio requirement, mandatory restrictions on distributions, permission for reducing own funds and eligible liabilities, macro prudential tools, the Basel Committee's new standardised approach for measuring counterparty credit risk exposures, the Basel Committee's Fundamental Review of the Trading Book, the framework for minimum requirement for own funds and eligible loss liabilities ("MREL") and the integration of the total absorbing capacity standard into EU legislation. The new amendments must be implemented by national legislation no later than 28 December 2020. It is uncertain how the new amendments will impact Swedish banks until the legal implementation is complete and competent authorities have communicated how they intend to apply the new regulatory framework.

In December 2017, the Basel Committee published proposed amendments to the Basel III Framework. The proposed amendments, referred to as Basel IV, entail substantial changes and are expected to enter into force from 1 January 2023 with a phasing in period of five years for certain elements. The proposed reforms to Basel III, including the output floor of 72.5 per cent (which in August 2019 the EBA recommended be adopted), are expected to increase the REA and the capital requirements for Swedbank. The magnitude of the increase is still uncertain and will depend on how Swedish and European competent financial authorities choose to implement the new regulatory framework for European and, in particular, Swedish banks.

To ensure that banks always have sufficient loss absorbing capacity, the Swedish Resolution Act, which implemented the Directive 2014/59/EU ("BRRD"), provides for the Swedish resolution authority, the SNDO, to decide on an MREL requirement for each institution, based on, amongst other criteria, its size, risk and business model.

The SNDO has determined that the MREL requirement for systemically important banks in Sweden, such as Swedbank, will be the sum of a loss absorption amount plus a recapitalisation amount. The loss absorption amount can be met with own funds instruments (CET1, Additional Tier 1 and Tier 2), while the recapitalisation amount can only be met with eligible liabilities.

Moreover, the SNDO has introduced a requirement that MREL Eligible Liabilities for the recapitalisation amount must be subordinated to senior liabilities, whether contractually, by statute or structurally. This subordination requirement will require the issue of new subordinated liabilities that meet the requirements, and which may carry higher financing costs than the liabilities which they replace. The SNDO has provided that Swedish banks have to meet the requirement of eligible liabilities in their recapitalisation amount entirely with subordinated eligible liabilities from 2024 and onwards. The SNDO has stated that it will monitor a bank's issue volumes in the phase in period to ensure a reasonable pace of the adaption to the subordination requirement.

In December 2019, the SNDO provided individual specifications on how Swedish banks will have to comply with their MREL requirements in 2020. The MREL requirement for Swedbank on a consolidated basis, excluding insurance, was set as 6.5 per cent. of total liabilities and own funds. The requirement for Swedbank on a solo basis was set as 4.7 per cent. The joint decision explicitly approved the Group's resolution plan and the assessment of resolvability of the Group. The decision applies from 1 January 2020. As MREL is phased in as well as if MREL requirements change in the future, the Group will need to raise additional capital or eligible liabilities. When implemented in Sweden, Directive 2019/879 amending Directive No 2014/59 ("BRRD II") may change Swedbank's need for senior non-preferred instruments. Under BRRD II, a breach of the minimum requirement for eligible liabilities is proposed to result in restriction to the maximum distributable amount. The exact details will be known when BRRD II is transposed into Swedish law.

12.3 The Resolution Act and the Act on Preventative Government Support to Credit Institutions

On 2 July 2014, Directive 2014/59/EU providing for the establishment of an EU-wide framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms entered into force, the "BRRD". The BRRD is intended to provide authorities with a credible set of tools to intervene sufficiently early and quickly in an unsound or failing institution so as to ensure the continuity of the institution's critical financial and economic functions, while minimising the impact of an institution's failure on the economy and financial system. On 1 February 2016, the BRRD was implemented in Sweden by the entry into force of the Resolution Act (Sw. lagen (2015:1016) om resolution).

A credit institution can be placed into resolution by the SNDO (the “resolution authority”) if (a) the SFSA has determined that the institution is failing or likely to fail, (b) there are no alternative measures which would prevent the failure of such institution within a reasonable timeframe, and (c) a resolution action is necessary in the public interest. The Resolution Act contains four resolution tools and powers which may be used alone or in combination. The resolution tools are: (i) sale of business, which enables the resolution authority to direct the sale of the institution or the whole or part of its business on commercial terms; (ii) in order to enable continuation of critical businesses, transfer all or part of the assets or liabilities of the institution to a “bridge institution” (an entity created for this purpose that is wholly or partially publicly owned); (iii) asset separation, which enables the resolution authority to transfer assets, rights or liabilities to one or more asset management vehicles, wholly or partially publicly owned, to allow them to be managed with a view to maximising their value through eventual sale or orderly wind-down (this tool may only be used together with another resolution tool); and (iv) bail-in, which gives the resolution authority the power to write down certain claims of unsecured creditors (including the Notes) of a failing institution and to convert certain unsecured debt claims, including the Notes, in to equity (the “general bail-in tool”), which equity could also be subject to any future cancellation, transfer or dilution. In addition, the resolution authority has, amongst others, the power to: (i) stop payments from the institution under resolution; (ii) take action to prevent creditors and other counterparties of the institution from terminating contracts early or executing set-off or netting arrangements; and (iii) to vary the maturity, the interest rate and the interest payment date of the relevant unsecured debt claims (including the Notes).

An institution will be considered as failing or likely to fail when it is, or is likely in the near future to be, in breach of its obligations to the extent that its authorisation should be withdrawn; the value of its assets are, or are likely in the near future to be, less than its liabilities; it is, or is likely in the near future to be, unable to pay its debts as they fall due; or it requires public financial support (with some exceptions listed in the Resolution Act).

In addition to the resolution tools (such as the general bail-in tool), the BRRD provides for resolution authorities to have the further power to permanently write-down or convert into equity tier 1 capital instruments and tier 2 capital instruments (such as the Subordinated Notes) at the point of non-viability and before any other resolution action is taken (“non-viability loss absorption”). Any shares issued to holders of such capital instruments upon any such conversion into equity may also be subject to any future cancellation, transfer or dilution. This power will be extended to include external eligible liabilities (such as the Senior Preferred Notes) if used in combination with a resolution power, once BRRD II is implemented (the national implementation deadline is 28 December 2020).

For the purposes of the application of any non-viability loss absorption measure, the point of non-viability under the BRRD is the point at which (i) the relevant authority determines that the relevant entity meets the conditions for resolution (but no resolution action has yet been taken) or (ii) the relevant authority or authorities, as the case may be, determine(s) that the relevant entity or its group will no longer be viable unless the relevant capital instruments (such as Subordinated Notes) are written-down or converted or (iii) extraordinary public financial support is required by the relevant entity or its group other than, where the relevant entity is an institution, for the purposes of remedying a serious disturbance in the economy of a Member State of the EEA and to preserve financial stability.

The BRRD also provides for a Member State as a last resort, after having assessed and utilised the above resolution tools to the maximum extent possible whilst maintaining financial stability, to be able to provide extraordinary public financial support through additional financial stabilisation tools. These consist of the public equity support and temporary public ownership tools. Any such extraordinary financial support must be provided in accordance with the EU state aid framework.

For a discussion on how the Resolution Act may affect the Group and the Notes, see “Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Issuer’s Financial Situation—Swedbank or its financial institution subsidiaries may need additional capital and/or eligible liabilities in the future to maintain capital adequacy ratios or for other reasons, and it may be difficult to obtain such capital and/or eligible liabilities” and “—Risks Relating to Macro-economic and Political Events—The Group’s business is subject to substantial regulation and supervision and can be adversely affected by adverse regulatory, taxation and governmental developments” and “Risk Factors—General Risks Relating to Notes—The Notes may be subject to write-down or conversion into ordinary shares of Swedbank”.

Also on 1 February 2016, the Act on Preventative Government Support to Credit Institutions (Sw. lagen (2015:1017) om förebyggande statligt stöd till kreditinstitut) entered into force. This act enables the authorities to give government support to credit institutions at an earlier stage than a point in time when the Resolution Act would apply. In addition, this act stipulates the setting up of a stability fund for the purpose of financing preventive action under the act as well as actions taken under the Resolution Act.

13 Clearing and Settlement

Custodial and depositary links have been established with Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg and DTC to facilitate the initial issuance of Notes and cross-market transfers of Notes between investors associated with secondary market trading. Transfers within Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg and DTC will be in accordance with the usual rules and operating procedures of the relevant system.

13.1 Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg

Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg each holds securities for participating organisations and facilitates the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between their respective participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of such participants. Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg provide to their respective participants, among other things, services for safekeeping, administration, clearance and settlement of internationally-traded securities and securities lending and borrowing. Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg participants are financial institutions throughout the world, including underwriters, securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations and certain other organisations. Indirect access to Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg is also available to others, such as banks, brokers, dealers and trust companies which clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg participant, either directly or indirectly.

Distributions of principal and interest with respect to book-entry interests in the Notes held through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg will be credited to the cash accounts of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg participants in accordance with the relevant system's rules and procedures.

DTC is a limited-purpose trust company organised under the laws of the State of New York and a "banking organisation" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code and a "clearing agency" registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Exchange Act. DTC holds securities for DTC participants and facilitates the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between DTC participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of DTC participants. DTC participants include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and clearing corporations and certain other organisations. Indirect access to DTC is also available to others, such as banks, brokers, dealers and trust companies which clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a DTC participant, either directly or indirectly.

Holders of book-entry interests in the Notes holding through DTC will receive, to the extent received by the Registrar, all distributions of principal and interest with respect to book-entry interests in the Notes from the Registrar through DTC. Distributions in the United States will be subject to relevant U.S. tax laws and regulations.

The laws of some states of the United States require that certain persons take physical delivery of securities in definitive form. Consequently, the ability to transfer interests in a Registered Global Note to such persons may be limited. Because DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg can only act on behalf of participants, who in turn act on behalf of indirect participants, the ability of a person having an interest in a Registered Global Note to pledge such interest to persons or entities which do not participate in the relevant clearing system, or otherwise take actions in respect of such interest, may be affected by the lack of a physical certificate in respect of such interest.

The aggregate holdings of book-entry interests in the Notes in Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg and DTC will be reflected in the book-entry accounts of each such institution. As necessary, the Registrar will adjust the amounts of Notes on the Register for the accounts of (i) Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and (ii) DTC to reflect the amounts of Notes held through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and DTC, respectively. Beneficial ownership in Notes will be held through financial institutions as direct and indirect participants in Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg and DTC. Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or DTC, as the case may be, and every other intermediate holder in the chain to the beneficial owner of book-entry interests in the Notes will be responsible for establishing and maintaining accounts for their participants and customers having interests in the book-entry interests in the Notes. The Registrar will be responsible for maintaining a record of the aggregate holdings of Notes registered in the name of a nominee for the common depository for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, a nominee for the common safekeeper, a nominee for DTC and/or Holders of Notes represented by Registered Definitive Notes. The Registrar will be responsible for ensuring that payments received by it from the Issuer for Holders of interests in the Notes holding through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg are credited to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, and the Registrar will also be responsible for ensuring that payments received by the Registrar from the Issuer for Holders of interests in the Notes holding through DTC are credited to DTC.

The Issuer will not impose any fees in respect of the Notes; however, Holders of book-entry interests in the Notes may incur fees normally payable in respect of the maintenance and operation of accounts in Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or DTC.

Interests in an Unrestricted Registered Global Note and a Restricted Registered Global Note will be in uncertificated book-entry form. Purchasers electing to hold book-entry interests in the Notes through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg accounts will follow the settlement procedures applicable to conventional eurobonds. Book-entry interests in the Registered Global Notes will be credited to Euroclear participants' securities clearance accounts on the business day following the relevant issue date against payment (value such issue date), and to Clearstream, Luxembourg participants' securities custody accounts on the relevant issue date against payment in the same day funds. DTC participants acting on behalf of purchasers electing to hold book-entry interests in the Notes through DTC will follow the delivery practices applicable to securities eligible for DTC's Same-Day Funds Settlement ("SDFS") system. DTC participant securities accounts will be credited with book-entry interests in the Notes following confirmation of receipt of payment to the Issuer on the relevant issue date.

13.3 Secondary Market Trading in relation to Registered Global Notes

Trading between Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg participants: Secondary market sales of book-entry interests in the Notes held through Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg to purchasers of book-entry interests in the Notes through Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg will be conducted in accordance with the normal rules and operating procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and will be settled using the procedures applicable to conventional eurobonds.

Trading between DTC participants: Secondary market sales of book-entry interests in the Notes between DTC participants will occur in the ordinary way in accordance with DTC rules and will be settled using the procedures applicable to United States corporate debt obligations in DTC's SDFS system in same-day funds, if payment is effected in U.S. dollars. Where payment is not effected in U.S. dollars, separate payment arrangements outside DTC are required to be made between the DTC participants.

Trading between DTC seller and Euroclear/Clearstream, Luxembourg purchaser: When book-entry interests in Notes are to be transferred from the account of a DTC participant holding a beneficial interest in a Restricted Registered Global Note to the account of a Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg accountholder wishing to purchase a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Registered Global Note (subject to the certification procedures provided in the Agency Agreement), the DTC participant will deliver instructions for delivery to the relevant Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg accountholder to DTC by 12 noon, New York time, on the settlement date. Separate payment arrangements are required to be made between the DTC participant and the relevant Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg participant. On the settlement date, the Custodian will instruct the Registrar to (i) decrease the amount of Notes registered in the name of Cede & Co. and evidenced by the Restricted Registered Global Note and (ii) increase the amount of Notes registered in the name of the nominee of the common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or the nominee of the common safekeeper, as the case may be, and evidenced by the Unrestricted Registered Global Note. Bookentry interests will be delivered free of payment to Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, for credit to the relevant accountholder on the first business day following the settlement date.

Trading between Euroclear/Clearstream, Luxembourg seller and DTC purchaser. When book-entry interests in the Notes are to be transferred from the account of a Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg accountholder to the account of a DTC participant wishing to purchase a beneficial interest in the Restricted Registered Global Note (subject to the certification procedures provided in the Agency Agreement), the Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg participant must send to Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg delivery free of payment instructions by 7:45 p.m., Brussels or Luxembourg time, one business day prior to the settlement date. Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as the case may be, will in turn transmit appropriate instructions to the common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or the common safekeeper, as the case may be, and the Registrar to arrange delivery to the DTC participant on the settlement date. Separate payment arrangements are required to be made between the DTC participant and the relevant Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg accountholder, as the case may be. On the settlement date, the common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or the common safekeeper, as the case may be, will (a) transmit appropriate instructions to the Custodian who will in turn deliver such book-entry interests in the Notes free of payment to the relevant account of the DTC participant and (b) instruct the Registrar to (i) decrease the amount of Notes registered in the name of the nominee of the common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or the nominee of the common safekeeper, as the case may be, and evidenced by the Unrestricted Registered Global Note and (ii) increase the amount of Notes registered in the name of Cede & Co. and evidenced by the Restricted Registered Global Note.

Although the foregoing sets out the procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg and DTC in order to facilitate the transfers of interests in the Notes among participants of DTC, Clearstream, Luxembourg and Euroclear, none of Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or DTC is under any obligation to perform or continue to perform such procedures, and such procedures may be discontinued at any time. None of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Registrar, any Paying Agent, any Transfer Agent, any Dealer or any affiliate of any of the above will have any responsibility for the performance by DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or their respective direct or indirect participants or accountholders of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations or for the sufficiency for any purpose of the arrangements described above.

14 Notice to Purchasers of Restricted Notes and Transfer Restrictions

Because of the following restrictions, purchasers of Notes offered in the United States in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act ("Restricted Notes") are advised to consult legal counsel prior to making any offer, resale, pledge or transfer of such Restricted Notes.

Each purchaser of Restricted Notes will be deemed to have represented and agreed as follows (terms used in this paragraph that are defined in Rule 144A or in Regulation S under the Securities Act are used herein as defined therein):

- (i) The purchaser (A) is a qualified institutional buyer, (B) is aware that the sale to it is being made in reliance on Rule 144A and (C) is acquiring Notes for its own account or for the account of a qualified institutional buyer;
- (ii) The purchaser understands that such Restricted Notes are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act, such Restricted Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities or other applicable securities law and may not be offered, sold or otherwise transferred except in accordance with the legend set forth in (iii) below;
- (iii) The Restricted Registered Global Notes and the Restricted Registered Definitive Notes will bear a legend to the following effect unless the Issuer determines otherwise in compliance with applicable law:

THIS NOTE HAS NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT") OR ANY APPLICABLE U.S. STATE SECURITIES LAW AND MAY NOT BE OFFERED, SOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED EXCEPT (A) (1) TO A PERSON WHO THE SELLER REASONABLY BELIEVES IS A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER (AS DEFINED IN RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) IN A TRANSACTION MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF SUCH RULE 144A, (2) IN AN OFFSHORE TRANSACTION IN COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 903 OR 904 OF REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT, OR (3) PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT PROVIDED BY RULE 144 THEREUNDER (IF AVAILABLE), AND (B) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF THE STATES OF THE UNITED STATES. NO REPRESENTATION CAN BE MADE AS TO THE AVAILABILITY OF THE EXEMPTION PROVIDED BY RULE 144 UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT FOR RESALES OF THE NOTES.

- (iv) Before any interest in a Restricted Note may be offered, sold, pledged or otherwise transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in an Unrestricted Registered Global Note it will be required to provide the Registrar with a written certification (in the form scheduled to the Agency Agreement) as to compliance with the transfer restrictions referred to in sub-clauses (A)(2) or (A)(3) of the legend set forth in (iii) above. See "Form of Notes; Summary of Provisions Relating to the Notes while in Global Form".

15.1 Swedish Taxation

The following summary outlines certain Swedish tax consequences to holders of Notes who are not residents of Sweden for income tax purposes. Purchasers are urged to consult their professional advisers as to the tax consequences of acquiring, holding or transferring Notes.

Under Swedish law as presently in effect, payments of any principal or any amount that is considered to be interest for Swedish tax purposes to the holder of any Note will not be subject to Swedish income tax, provided that such holder is neither (i) resident in Sweden for tax purposes nor (ii) engaged in trade or business in Sweden through a permanent establishment to which the Notes are effectively connected.

Swedish law, as presently in effect, does not provide for deduction or withholding for or on account of taxes on payments of any principal or interest to the holder of any Notes, except on payment of interest, and any other yield on any Notes which is paid at the same time as interest, to a holder of Notes who is a private individual (or an estate of a deceased individual) with tax residence in Sweden.

15.2 PRC Taxation

Please refer to the paragraph "There may be PRC tax consequences with respect to investment in the RMB Notes" under the section "Risk Factors" above.

15.3 The Proposed Financial Transaction Tax ("FTT")

On 14 February 2013, the European Commission published a proposal (the "Commission's Proposal") for a Directive for a common FTT in Belgium, Germany, Estonia, Greece, Spain, France, Italy, Austria, Portugal, Slovenia and Slovakia (the "participating Member States"). However, Estonia has since stated that it will not participate.

The Commission's Proposal has very broad scope and could, if introduced, apply to certain dealings in the Notes (including secondary market transactions) in certain circumstances. The issuance and subscription of Notes should, however, be exempt.

Under the Commission's Proposal, FTT could apply in certain circumstances to persons both within and outside of the participating Member States. Generally, it would apply to certain dealings in the Notes where at least one party is a financial institution, and at least one party is established in a participating Member State. A financial institution may be, or be deemed to be, "established" in a participating Member State in a broad range of circumstances, including (a) by transacting with a person established in a participating Member State or (b) where the financial instrument which is subject to the dealings is issued in a participating Member State. However, the FTT proposal remains subject to negotiation between participating Member States. It may therefore be altered prior to any implementation, the timing of which remains unclear. Additional EU Member States may decide to participate.

Prospective holders of the Notes are advised to seek their own professional advice in relation to the FTT.

15.4 Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

Pursuant to certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, commonly known as "FATCA", a "foreign financial institution" (as defined by FATCA) may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes ("foreign passthru payments") to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting or related requirements. The Issuer is a foreign financial institution for these purposes. A number of jurisdictions, including Sweden, have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA (“IGAs”), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions. Under the provisions of IGAs as currently in effect, a foreign financial institution in an IGA jurisdiction would generally not be required to withhold under FATCA or an IGA from payments that it makes. Certain aspects of the application of FATCA provisions and IGAs to instruments such as Notes, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as Notes, such withholding would not apply prior to the date that is two years after the date on which final regulations defining “foreign passthru payments” are published in the U.S. Federal Register and Notes characterised as debt (or which are not otherwise categorised as equity and have a fixed term) for U.S. federal income tax purposes issued on or prior to the date that is six months after the date on which final regulations defining foreign passthru payments are filed with the U.S. Federal Register generally would be grandfathered for purposes of FATCA withholding unless materially modified after such date (including by reason of a substitution of the Issuer). However, if additional Notes (as described under “Terms and Conditions of the Notes – Further Issues”) that are not distinguishable from previously issued Notes are issued after the expiration of the grandfathering period and are subject to withholding under FATCA, then withholding agents may treat all Notes, including the Notes offered prior to the expiration of the grandfathering period, as subject to withholding under FATCA. Holders should consult their own tax advisers regarding how these rules may apply to their investment in the Notes.

16 Subscription and Sale

The Dealers who have agreed to purchase Notes of a Series from the Issuer will be specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement.

Notes may be sold from time to time by the Issuer to any one or more of Barclays Bank Ireland PLC, Barclays Bank PLC, BNP Paribas, BofA Securities Europe SA, Citigroup Global Markets Europe AG, Citigroup Global Markets Limited, Credit Suisse Securities (Europe) Limited, Danske Bank A/S, Deutsche Bank Aktiengesellschaft, Goldman Sachs International, HSBC Bank plc, J.P. Morgan Securities plc, Merrill Lynch International, Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc, Natixis, NatWest Markets Plc, Nomura International plc, Société Générale, Swedbank AB (publ), UBS AG and UBS Europe SE (the "Dealers", which expression shall include any additional dealer or dealers appointed under the Programme from time to time) or to any other person or institution. The arrangements under which Notes may from time to time be agreed to be sold by the Issuer to, and purchased by, Dealers are set out in an Amended and Restated Dealer Agreement dated 13 May 2020 (as amended and restated or supplemented from time to time, the "Dealer Agreement") and made between the Issuer and the Dealers. Any such agreement will inter alia make provision for the form and terms and conditions of the relevant Notes, the price at which such Notes will be purchased by the Dealers and the commissions or other agreed deductibles (if any) payable or allowable by the Issuer in respect of such purchase. The Dealer Agreement makes provision for the resignation or renewal of existing Dealers and the appointment of additional or other Dealers either generally in respect of the Programme or in relation to a particular Tranche of Notes.

Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform services for, the Issuer and their affiliates in the ordinary course of business.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the Issuer or Issuer's affiliates. Certain of the Dealers or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with the Issuer routinely hedge their credit exposure to the Issuer consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in securities, including potentially the Notes issued under the Programme. Any such short positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Notes issued under the Programme. The Dealers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

16.1 General

No action has been or will be taken in any country or jurisdiction by the Issuer or the Dealers that would permit a public offering of Notes, or possession or distribution of this Base Prospectus or any offering material in relation thereto, in any country or jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Persons into whose hands this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, comes are required by the Issuer and the Dealers to comply with all applicable laws and regulations in each country or jurisdiction in or from which they purchase, offer, sell or deliver Notes or have in their possession or distribute such offering material, in all cases at their own expense.

Each Dealer has agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to agree, that it will (to the best of its knowledge and belief) comply with all applicable laws and regulations in force in any jurisdiction in which it purchases, offers or sells Notes or possesses or distributes this Base Prospectus or any other material relating to the issue, offering and/or sale of Notes and will obtain any consent, approval or permission required by it for the purchase, offer or sale by it of Notes under the laws and regulations in force in any jurisdiction to which it is subject or in which it makes such purchases, offers or sales and neither the Issuer nor any other Dealer shall have any responsibility therefor.

Selling restrictions may be supplemented or modified with the agreement of the Issuer.

16.2 Prohibition of Sales to EEA and UK Retail Investors

Unless the applicable Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or applicable Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) specifies “Prohibition of Sales to EEA and UK Retail Investors” as “Not Applicable”, each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not offered, sold or otherwise made available and will not offer, sell or otherwise make available any Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by the Base Prospectus as completed by the applicable Final Terms (or applicable Pricing Supplement, as the case may be) in relation thereto to any retail investor in the EEA and in the UK. For the purposes of this provision:

- (a) the expression “retail investor” means a person who is one (or more) of the following:
 - (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or
 - (ii) a customer within the meaning of the Insurance Distribution Directive, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or
 - (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Regulation; and
- (b) the expression an “offer” includes the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the Notes.

If the applicable Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or applicable Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) specifies “Prohibition of Sales to EEA and UK Retail Investors” as “Not Applicable”, in relation to each Member State of the EEA and the UK (each, a “Relevant State”), each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not made and will not make an offer of Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Base Prospectus as completed by the final terms in relation thereto to the public in that Relevant State except that it may make an offer of such Notes to the public in that Relevant State:

- (a) at any time to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Regulation;
- (b) at any time to fewer than 150 natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in the Prospectus Regulation) subject to obtaining the prior consent of the relevant Dealer or Dealers nominated by the Issuer for any such offer; or
- (c) at any time in any other circumstances falling within Article 1(4) and 3(2) of the Prospectus Regulation, provided that no such offer of Notes referred to in (a) to (c) above shall require the Issuer or any Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Regulation or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 23 of the Prospectus Regulation.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an "offer of Notes to the public" in relation to any Notes in any Relevant State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the Notes and the expression "Prospectus Regulation" means Regulation (EU) 2017/1129.

Any such positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Notes issued under the Programme.
